

Chapter 167 Exchange Secrets

“There’s one more thing I didn’t tell you. But after I tell you, you can’t tell anyone about it.” Ryan knew that once this matter was leaked, it would bring him endless trouble in the future. At that time, he would be busy.

“Speak. Even you lame legs are fake. What else is more important? I can accept anything, big or small.” Elena said with a sarcastic smile. Her angry dissipated when she saw Ryan being so honest.

“Do you still remember the job you talked about in Western Europe last time? I’m worried that you will go alone and let Jasper follow you. You guys signed the contract in two months. No one else can do it.”

How could Elena forget?

“I only signed it after running for a month. It was probably because the boss of that company was touched by our relationship that he signed the contract directly. But that boss was very hard to serve. If I didn’t go there every day, I’m afraid I wouldn’t be able to see him. But it’s all thanks to Jasper last time. If it wasn’t for him working with me, I’m afraid…”

Half of way through, Elena suddenly stopped. Something instantly stuck in her mind and she looked at Ryan.

“Wait… Since you’ve told me this… Don’t tell me you’re the boss of that company?”

When she first saw that man, there was a mask on his face and his voice was also very different. However, there was a familiar feeling to it.

Now that she thought about it carefully, the fragrance on that man’s body was actually so familiar!

“I didn’t expect my wife to be so smart. It’s my company.” This time, Ryan admitted it straightforwardly.

Elena’s pupils contracted. She didn’t expect that this man would be like this.

Elena also remembered the company’s name. It was King RYN. Wasn’t the last RYN means Ryan?

“How did you manage to create such a large company in Western Europe without being discovered? You must have suffered a lot over the years.”

Elena looked at the man in front of her and her face was full of heartache because there was a price to pay for success.

“Actually, that company was founded five years ago when I took over the Monor family. Initially, I thought that if something were to happen to the Monor Group in the future… I could use this company to make a turnaround. But I didn’t expect to meet a disaster after that.”

Now that he thought about it, it could be considered as giving himself a way out. If he had placed all of his focus on the Monor family, he would have starved to death by now.

“That means that before Roman took over the company, you have already established that company. No wonder, Roman doesn’t know. All these years, when you went to the Western European subsidiary to take care of business, you must be taking care of things there. Actually, your company has already taken over the subsidiary company in Western Europe, right?”

Elena careful analyzed. This was the only way Roman would not notice even after so many years passed.

Ryan pinched her nose and said, “I did not expect you to be so smart.”

It was really hard to imagine how Ryan got out of the shadows five years ago and became the focus if tens of thousands of people in Western Europe, Leonardo Reynolds.

“I have already told you everything. Are you still angry?” Ryan asked carefully not wanted to provoke her again.

Elena looked at the man in front of her for a moment then suddenly remembered something. “You are actually that Leonardo Reynolds! That’s why the guards didn’t restrict our movement. And that manager he also didn’t cause any problems for us and let us met you so easily. It’s all because you had instructed them beforehand!”

Now she thought about this, how on the earth the CEO of such a big company would want to meet her, a small business collaborator?

Ryan smiled faintly and rubbed her hair lovingly. “Yes! I told them to take care of you.”

Elena looked at him speechlessly. How come this man was so scheming?

“You were that boss but still let me cook for you for the whole month! I tried to satisfy you by almost crushing my bones and you were enjoying behind that mask!” Elena really didn’t have any words to say to this man. Remembering how hard she worked for this contract, she could not help but feel angry.

Ryan coughed hearing this. “Yes! I might have enjoyed looking you fight for me at first but I also got my punishment afterwards. Remember how hard you beat me and forced me to sign in that contract? We are even. You can get angry for that now!”

As Ryan spoke, he could not help but touch his face. That punch Elena gave him, he almost lost his two teeth that day!

“Well, I should have given you two or three more punches and kicks!” As Elena spoke, she laughed.

“You must have worked hard all these years abroad. I really hate myself for not meeting you earlier. This way, I can share the burden with you. You don’t have to wait for so long.”

It had been five years. Charles would never let Roman give up his position. With Amanda by his side, it was naturally impossible for Ryan to get any benefits.

“There is no need for you to share the burden with me. I can bear it myself. It is just that recently you must hide the fact that my legs have recovered.” The people of Monor Family were all smart. If they were not careful, they would be doomed forever.

“I’m not that stupid.” Elena looked at him indifferently.

However, she was very happy. She had been thinking about how to cure Ryan’s leg in the past, but now she thought that it was unnecessary.

“Now that I have told you all my secrets, can my wife exchange her secrets with me? Tell me what I want to know?” Ryan asked jokingly. He did not know if Elena had any secrets that she hadn’t shared with him.

“I have told you many times about my trivial matters. My parents are my biological parents, so they were very good to me. Of course, I have never been wronged by you. Don’t worry, if my mother wakes up in the future… she will definitely treat you very well.”

Ryan looked at her lovingly and suddenly remembered something. His smile became extremely mysterious and charming. “Elena, there is something I want to ask you for a long time.”

Looking at his expression, Elena almost got goosebumps on her arms. “What do you want to ask?”

“Whom did you kiss for the first time?” Ryan asked with a faint smile.

Actually he wanted to ask this question for a long time. But Elena was super sensitive. If she analyzed a little, she would have discovered the truth that, that night he was that man she saved. So he didn’t dare to ask her.

But now when she knew everything, what the point of not asking?

Elena’s mouth twitched when she heard this question. She didn’t want to lie nor did she want to tell the truth either. The color of her face changed like an rainbow.

She smiled awkwardly, “I huh, I… Of course you…”

However half a way through Elena froze and looked at Ryan, “No way…”

“You were the one in that dark alley?”

Ryan nodded as he pinched her nose, “My wife is really smart.”

Elena put her hand on her chest and took some deep breaths. She really needed some herbal soups to digest these things. Otherwise, she was afraid she would not be able to take it.

Elena looked at Ryan speechlessly. “That’s why you had my necklace. I wonder how many things you have been hiding from me!”

Elena sighed. It was a good thing that she was on the same team as him. Otherwise she would not even know how she died.

“This is the last one. I really don’t have anything that you don’t know anymore.” Ryan promised earnestly.

Elena looked at him and did not say anything. Never mind. She would forgive him this time.

Ryan knew she was not angry anymore so he held the woman beside him tightly. “It’s late. I wonder if Madam can settle down earlier?”

“I am indeed tired from your secrets. Why don’t you ask the Emperor to serve me and rest?”

“Don’t worry. I will definitely serve the Empress well and make her satisfied.” As he spoke, he lowered his head to hold her lips.

After sometime, waves of laughter lingered in the whole room, as the temperature rose bit by bit.

Mrs. Baker heard that upstairs was fine and went back to rest in peace.
