

Chapter 173 Don'T Let Others Find Out Abou

Because of Ryan and Mrs. Baker, Elena drank a bowl of soup, but in the next second she covered her mouth and ran towards the bathroom.

Both Ryan and Mrs. Baker were shocked by this. Just as Ryan was about to go towards the bathroom, Mrs. Baker stopped him. “Young Master, it would be better if I go. You stay here.”

As she spoke, she ran towards the bathroom.

Inside the bathroom, after throwing up all the food she just ate, Elena came out from the cubical and stood in front of the wash basin. She looked at the haggard and tired woman in the mirror and sighed.

It had been only one night she already became like this. If this was going on, she was afraid Ryan would not allow her to stay in the hospital anymore.

At this time, Mrs. Baker pushed open the door and walked in. “Madam, what happened?”

Elena looked at her and gave her a comforting smile. “I am not used to stay all night up. So I just felt a little sick.”

When Mrs. Baker heard this, she also felt it was right.

After washing her face, Elena came out with Mrs. Baker. Ryan was waiting right in front of the bathroom. When he saw her, he anxiously held her hand. “Are you alright?”

“Yah, don’t worry.” Elena shook her head and smiled.

Looking at the haggard faces of both of them, Mrs. Baker could not handle it anymore. “You guys have been here all night. Why don’t you go back and rest. I will stay here and watch. Anyway, I have rested enough.”

“Mrs. Baker doesn’t need to. It is better for me to stay here. I will have to trouble you with those matters at home.” Elena directly rejected Mrs. Baker’s good intentions. She wanted to stay and check her own.

Mrs. Baker could not persuade her so she looked at Ryan hoping that he could say something.

Ryan understood Elena’s character very well and knew she wouldn’t be at ease if she didn’t see it in her own eyes. So he let Mrs. Baker go back first.

Elena stared at the various data displayed on the instrument and was very worried.

Mason still had a lot of things that were not completed and he had yet to enjoy a good life. He could not leave just like that.

At this moment, a man suddenly ran over. It was Xavier.

“Young Master, the specialist you asked me to find abroad has been brought back. Do you want to bring him over to perform surgery for the old man immediately?”

When Elena heard the word specialist, she immediately said, “Yes! Quickly bring him in to take a look of my grandfather!”

Outside the operating room.

Elena looked at her grandfather who was about to be pushed into the operating theater and anxiously pleaded, “Doctor, please save my grandfather. I really don’t want anything to happen to him.”

Seeing his wife go so crazy, Ryan went forward and pulled her.

“Don’t be agitated. There were many patients here. If there are any problems, the doctor will tell us.”

Ryan reminded Elena not to speak loudly in the hospital to avoid affecting other patients.

After Elena heard that, she stopped making a fuss and let the doctor who came from abroad bring Mason into the operating theater.

The waiting time always made people exceptionally anxious. But there were people who were even more anxious than them.

In the Lewis family residence.

Adeline stood in the living room and paced back and forth, as if she had something on her mind.

Amara saw her like this and could not help but say, “Mom, what happened to you today? Why are you so flustered? Didn’t grandpa get out of danger after being sent to the hospital?”

“It’s all because that old man. Elena, that little slut, actually blamed me for this. If he doesn’t show his sincerity, I definitely won’t let that old man go.”

They could have taken over the company normally in the past. However, Mason had to put his nose between this matter and hand over an abandoned and empty company to Jonathan. Adeline felt unfair in her heart.

Amara was not moved at all when she heard the news of Mason’s injury. That old bone was just wasting air, it was better to leave as soon as possible so as not to occupy one of her rooms.

“I just wanted to give you some space. But if this matter is investigated, the situation might be unfavorable to us.”

When Amara heard her mother say these words, she immediately went forward to block her mouth. “Mom, it is daytime. Why are you saying all this? Even if you did it, you must deny it. If others find out, do you want to die?”

“Your grandfather is in the hospital now. They have no time to care about me.” Even though Adeline said so, she still lacked confidence in her heart.

“Don’t forget who Elena is. She can manage everything now.”

Amara said it casually. After all, this matter was not done by her. Even if Elena wanted to investigate, she would not be able to find out who did it.

Grandfather was already old and his legs were no longer bright. How did he fall down? Perhaps only he himself knew, but whether or not he could wake up was still unknown.

“As for the matter over there, just leave it to me. I am confident that you will be able to handle it. You are a member of the Lewis family. Don’t let others catch you so easily.”

Amara reminded her mother not to panic or it would be very easy for others to take advantage of her.
