

Chapter 183 Went To Monor Family

In the past, Ryan didn't know why he worked so hard, but now he finally had a goal. He fought for his wife, for his future children, and for his family.

"At that time, I couldn't do anything, or else I would easily expose myself. Alright, let's not talk about it anymore. Let's get some rest. You don't have to deal with this kind of troublesome thing in the future.”

The only thing Elena needed to do now was to care her own body and must give birth to the child safely.

Ryan gently held the woman in his arms and coaxed her to sleep. Seeing her closing her eyes and hearing her even breathing, he slowly closed his eyes.

The next day, the two of them came to the front door of the Monor Family Villa.

Roman's car also stopped outside. Elena frowned, "Roman is also here.”

Ryan and Roman had already moved out and rarely returned to the Monor residence. However, every time they came back, Roman would appear here.

"It doesn't matter. Since you are here, you should take care of yourself. They won't bully you." Ryan sat in a wheelchair and said coldly.

Elena looked at him and tidied up all his clothes.

The purple-green color on Ryan's leg yesterday must have been Roman's test.

It was just that this test method was too disgusting.

When the two of them walked into the living room, Roman and Amara were both there. When Amanda saw the two of them, there was not much expression on her face. Amara looked at the people in front of her with a cold expression

Roman raised his head and looked at Elena with a strange look.

When Charles heard the commotion, he immediately came down from upstairs with a kind smile on his face. He was a completely different person from his usual self.

Elena thought that Charles was a serious person, but she didn't expect him to show such a loving expression. After all, Ryan was his son.

"Elena is here. Quickly come over and sit. Don't stand there. You are pregnant. It is not appropriate for you to stand there for too long." Charles pulled Elena to sit on the sofa as he spoke.

Amara's expression was very ugly. "Younger sister is now the family's team pet. She is really lucky."

"If elder sister is envious, you can quickly marry and have children with elder brother."

It didn't hurt to talk while standing.

However, it was like poking Amara’s sore spot.

Amara coldly looked at the woman in front of her. After getting pregnant, she became smug.

"Since sister-in-law is already pregnant, I will leave the company's matters to Tina. If you want to come back to work in the future, I will let her get along with you. "

After Roman said this, before Elena could say anything, Amara was the first to speak, "Why did you hand all the work to Tina? She clearly does not have the strength and experience. Why should she do such an important job?"

"This is our family's matter, you don't have to interrupt, okay? We are not married yet. If you are like this, others will think that you are uncultured. "

The two of them had already quarreled countless times over this matter. This woman really didn't know the immensity of heaven and earth. She had to be taught a lesson.

"You. . . Don't you go too far! Even if our Lewis family has declined slightly, it will only be temporary. My father will definitely turn the tides after he takes over the position. Don't look down on us. "

Amara felt really aggrieved in her heart. It was all because of her father. She could not accept that Roman actually looked down on her.

Elena and Ryan looked at each other. It seemed like the rumors were true. There was really something wrong with their relationship.

It wasn't just because of Tina. Their personalities weren't compatible with each other. If such a thing happened again, the conflict would become even deeper.

"Stop quarreling. She is obviously young, so it is inevitable that she has an unyielding character. Roman, can't you just give in to Amara? No matter what, she is your fiancée, so you have to pamper her. You have to learn from your brother about this and see how much Elena is pampered." Amanda said from the side.

On the surface, she was asking Roman to learn from Ryan, but in other words, she was mocking him, as if he did not know to do anything other than pampering his wife.
