

Chapter 185 I Am Wrong

"Yes, yes, yes, Madam is right. It is my fortune to marry you."

Ryan agreed with this. Although the two of them were together by accident, they married the right person and formed a good marriage.

They loved each other with all of their heart and respected each other's choices. That's why their relationship was very stable and unshakable. Ryan was very clear about this point.

Looking at the situation in front him, Charles slammed the table angrily. "All of you shut up. If you don't want to stay here, get the hell out of here. Our Monor family is a big family, it's not your place to behave atrociously here."

Charles couldn't believe it. Ryan and Elena came here after so many days. And today was supposed to be a happy occasion for the arrival of his first grandchild. But these people had made their minds to ruin everything.

Even though Charles had said this, Amanda wasn't ready to let this matter go. She angrily pointed at Amara and said with disdain. "Amara, don't think that because you are with Roman now, you will be able to marry into the Monor family. You can forget about it for the rest of your life. There are many people who want to marry into the Monor family. You are not the only one. "

Initially, she thought that Amara was a person who knew the big picture. But Amanda did not expect that she was actually a spoiled young lady. Her index finger did not touch the sun, yet she dared to contradict her elders here. She really lacked family education.

Comparatively, Amara's previous appearance in front of everyone was nothing more than putting on a show. But this Elena was 180 times stronger than Amara.

Such a person wasn't worthy of her one and only son.

Amara looked the situation and felt that she was indeed too much earlier. She looked at Roman. Her only hope now was him. If her marriage with Roman was to end here, then her reputation would really be ruined.

No. . . It was not easy for her to be able to be together with Roman. She absolutely could not be crippled just like that.

However, Roman pretended not to see her, let alone speak up for her. He was already pissed off with the news of Elena's pregnancy. And now Amara ruined his mood even more.

Seeing the attitude of the man, Amara knew that he wasn't going to speak up for her today. Amara rolled her eyes and her attitude changed 180 degrees. She came in front of Amanda and said gently.

"Auntie, I'm sorry. I was too emotional just now, that's why I said those words. I hope you don't mind. No matter what, In the future, we'll be a family. If this gets out, it won't be good for the two families. I hope Auntie can understand that Roman and I are in love. How can we just leave like that?"

Although she didn't like to plead others, Amara really didn't have any other option right now.

Amanda did not appreciate her suggestion. Instead, she sat on the sofa with a high and mighty look on her face and her eyes filled with mockery.

"What? Just now, Miss was mocking us. Why did her attitude change so much now? Our temple is too small to accommodate this great Buddha of yours."

Initially, she was in a good mood. Although Ryan wasn't her biological son, he had been raised by her side since he was young, so she had some feelings for him.

When she heard that Elena was pregnant and knew that she was going to be a grandmother, she was happy in her heart. She even made a table full of dishes to celebrate. But her good mood was ruined by this woman. It really ruined the scenery.

"Auntie, I know that I made a mistake in this matter. I hope you don't blame me. My sister is pregnant. We should have had a good meal together. I was too reckless today. I hope Auntie and Uncle don't make a fuss about it with me. "

If she really let go of the big tree of Monor family, her future life would not be easy.

"Mom, Amara is my fiancée. If this matter is spread out, it will not be good for our family's reputation. Why don't we just let it go?" Looking at the pleading look of Amara, Roman tried to persuade his mother.

Hearing their words, Amada put on the look of an elder in her face and said in a graceful manner. "Fine. Today, I will forgive you once. But Amara, remember your own identity in the future. If you dare to make a big fuss in the Monor family again, don't blame me for not caring about our past relationship."

Ryan lowered his head slightly and his lips curled up slightly. His eyes were filled with sarcasm. These two women were really good at acting. If Amara really married into Monor family, she and Amanda would really make a very good mother-in-law and daughter-in-law pair.

It was almost time to eat. So Amanda got up and began to get the servants to prepare the food.

Ryan quietly brought his wife to sit at the dining table.

During the dinner, Ryan didn't care about the people around the table and started to pick food for his wife.

"Take this. How about this? Eat more." The man lovingly picked the food and filled Elena's plates.

Roman looked at the two people in front of him. He had to admit that they were indeed a good match. From their eyes, even he could feel that they were deeply in love.

Why was the relationship between them getting better and better, but his relationship with Amara getting worse and worse?

Looking the loving smile on Elena's face, Roman clenched his fists. The more he thought about it, the more irritated he became.

Roman only took a few symbolic bites and then went upstairs. He really couldn't take it anymore.

Ryan looked coldly at the man's back who was stomping out the dining room. He did not care why he was angry. After eating a few bites, he also wanted to take his wife away from this dirty place.

He was afraid that Elena would be sick if she breathed the poisonous air of this house any longer.

"Let go." Ryan held the woman's hand and was about to go out when Charles stopped them.

"Wait a minute. Elena, follow me to the study room. I have something to give you."

Ryan stopped and the grip on Elena's hand tightened. He narrowed his eyes and looked at his father carefully. He wasn't sure what this old man was thinking at this moment.

Speaking of truth, he didn't believe anyone in this family including Charles. He had seen the true colors of these people long ago and knew that other than schemes they had nothing else to do.

So when Charles suddenly asked Elena to follow him, he was hesitant.

Charles noticed at the hostility in Ryan's eyes and sighed. "Do you think I will do something to her?"

Charles felt bitter in his heart but he couldn't blame anyone. Ryan's this type of behavior was also initiated by him.

Ryan didn't say anything but he also didn't let go of Elena's hand.

Elena patted Ryan's hand slightly and nodded. No matter what, Charles was his father and he couldn't behave so coldly with him every time.

She quietly followed Charles into the study.

In the study.

"Is something matter, Dad?" Elena asked politely.

"Come and sit down. Don't tire yourself out. Right now, you're carrying a child. So you need to be careful in future. When Ryan told me earlier, I didn't quite believe him. I didn't think that time would pass so quickly. Time really won't forgive me. I am already so old that I am going to become a grandfather."

Charles sighed with mix feelings in his heart.
