

Chapter 189 A Guest In The Middle Of The Nigh

Ryan and Elena returned to the villa. Mrs. Baker had already prepared the food. She knew very well that they would not be able to eat well when they returned to the Monor family.

Elena was drinking the chicken soup when the door suddenly rang.

“Who would be at this time?” Mrs. Baker said and went to open the door.

It was actually Amber.

Mrs. Baker frowned slightly. It was already about 10 o’ clock at night. Why this woman actually came so late?

But she didn’t let her thoughts to be exposed. Mrs. Baker smiled and welcomed her.

After entering the door, she smelled the taste of the chicken soup. Amber's face had a smile, "It smells so good. I wonder if I have the fortune to taste it."

"Yes, yes, there are many left. Come in and try it.” As Elena spoke, she urged Amber to quickly come in, as if welcoming an old friend.

Although Elena was a little disappointed, when Amber came last time, she knew very well how Amber could help Ryan. So she naturally had to treat Amber well.

Amber also didn’t stand the ceremony. She directly handed the file in her hand to Ryan, "This is the information that I received. Take a look first. Let me try the taste of the soup. "

After saying that, Amber threw the bag down and went to the table. Seeing the greasy bowl in Elena's bowl, she went closer to ask. "Recently I heard that you are pregnant. Is it very hard?"

"It is not very hard now. It is just that there is no taste of anything to eat recently. I feel that my stomach is always empty. So for the sake of the baby, I have to eat it. I am really afraid that I will become a fatty later on.”

As Elena spoke, she couldn’t help but to look at her slightly bulging stomach.

Although Elena did not mingle with the upper class and didn’t like to show off, she still had to maintain her figure and health. She could not let her figure go out of shape just for the sake of carrying a child.

Amber smiled hearing her words. “You won’t be fat. Don’t worry.”

Elena let Mrs. Baker pour a bowl for Amber. After Amber drank it, she could not help but praise, "Mrs. Baker, your craftsmanship is getting better and better. In the past when I was with Ryan, I often drank the soup that you brewed. In a flash, I have not tasted this taste for a few years. "

"What are you talking about? Miss Thomas likes it. It's the fortune of this bowl of soup. You guys continue to chat. I'll go make something else." Mrs. Baker's craftsmanship was very good. The two women both liked to drink it.

As the two women enjoying the soup, the man beside Elena, was looking at the information carefully, unaffected by their chatting. Ryan looked at the information and frowned. "Roman actually wants to buy that piece of land in the southwest suburb. Isn't he afraid that he can't eat it?"

Hearing this, Amber put down her spoon. "I was also curious before. The southwest suburb is a barren land. Even if he buys it, it won't be of any use. But after reading his plan and project book, it is indeed a turning point. That place is remote. If we build a business complex, the profit might be considerable. "

Amber talked about the project plan book. It had to be said that Roman indeed had a far-reaching plan. He could see the use of that land. If it was useless, this man would definitely not buy it and waste money.

"A large portion of the shareholders have agreed with Roman during this period of time. You have already collaborated with him. You should know when he will take action. We have to prevent any unexpected incidents." Ryan looked at the contract as he spoke.

Elena looked up at this moment. Amber did not seem to know that Ryan had a company overseas.

Could it be that Ryan did not even tell Amber? It could be seen that he was also a little wary of Amber.

"What do you plan to do next? I heard from Roman that you applied for ten months of leave. If you go back like this, you will have no position. Even if uncle can use his power to seek a position for you in the company, those people under you will not be useful. "

"Those few directors protected me previously because I gave them benefits back then. But now, if I'm not in the company, they will definitely follow Roman."

Ryan didn’t raise his head and said carelessly as if he didn’t care about the consequences.

Amber drank a mouthful of chicken soup and slowly opened her mouth. "Since you already know the result, why did you take such a long vacation? Even if Elena is pregnant now, you do not need to spend all your time with her. You can totally hire a nanny or let Mrs. Baker take care of her."
