

Chapter 192 Termination Of The Cooperation

The next day, Amber came to the company and handed all her plans to Roman.

"Mr. Monor, this is the plan I made recently. I spent a lot of effort on it. After you see it, you will understand my sincerity.”

Amber said slowly and observed Roman’s expression.

Roman looked at the plans carefully and smiled with satisfaction. "The plan Miss Amber provided is indeed very good. But it is done in a short period of time. I wonder if someone has provided any help?"

Roman clearly knew Amber and Ryan were in good terms. So he wanted to see if in any case that man was involved in this.

"Is Mr. Monor questioning my strength? If he can't trust me, then we don't have to cooperate.”

As Amber spoke, she wanted to take back those plans.

However, Roman slightly took back his hand and smiled. "Miss Amber misunderstood. I did not mean that. I was just casually asking."

The corner of Amber's mouth rose slightly and she crossed her arms, "I have already shown my sincerity. I don't know what Mr. Monor's condition is. Is he worthy of my sincerity?"

Roman curled his lips. He had long seen that this woman was not simple. He immediately picked up the contract that had been prepared beforehand from the desk and handed it to Amber.

"This is a contract that has been drafted by someone. You can take a look. If there are no problems, we can sign the contract now.”

Amber took the contract and sat down on the chair. With just a few glances, she could tell that there was something wrong with the contract. She closed the contract and looked at Roman.

"Our cooperation this time will be beneficial to both of us. It's mainly because of our relationship with the seller that we can achieve the desired effect. The price given in the contract does not meet my expectations. Mr. Monor, it seems that your company's desire to cooperate is not very strong. "

"Miss Amber's words are not right. When two companies cooperate, what they seek is mutual benefit. Without our company's help, you will not be able to find such good resources.”

Tina who was standing by the side could not help but interrupt, when she saw Roman being ruthlessly rejected by this woman.

Amber heard these words and raised her head look at the woman who was standing at the side. Her eyes were filled with disdain, "Looks like Monor Group is indeed not as good as before. Even a small secretary dares to speak like this. "

"I am Mr. Monor's chief secretary. I have also been helping the CEO deal with this matter. I think if Miss Amber is not in the mood to cooperate, she would not have come all the way here personally for the sake of her own interests. Miss Amber, if you are so calculative, it would not be good for anyone. "

Although Tina's tone was not good, it was also what Roman wanted to express. He also wanted to take the opportunity to suppress Amber's spirit.

Unfortunately, they underestimated Amber. She grew up in the army and did not care about these harmless threats. She directly threw the contract in her hand onto the table.

"I have already given you guys a chance. If you insist on bargaining, I have no choice. Sorry, the cooperation will be invalid. "

Looking at the plan in Roman's hand, Amber continued, "Take this plan as a gift from me to your Monor Group. See you when you have the chance."

After saying that, she left without looking back.

Roman could not bring himself to stop Amber. He could only watch her leave.

Initially, he only wanted to fight for more benefits, but he did not expect Amber to be so firm and not leave any room for negotiation.

Now when the contract was terminated, Roman could only vent his anger on others. He glared at Tina unhappily, "Who told you to interrupt without permission?"

Tina lowered her head, feeling wronged, "Cousin, I only want to help you do more things for the company. "

"Nonsense! How could you interrupt in my way? Don't you know who Amber is? Even if you want to raise the price, you can't insult her, right?"

