

Chapter 193 He Didn’t Even Think Of You As A Human Being

"Who do you think you are? Why do you have to say something like that? She already had a problem with you, but you just had to bump into her."

“Do you think me as Ryan? You can do anything you want without thinking here?”

“If this contract is really messed up, I'll see how you're going to end it."

Roman blamed all of the mistakes on Tina. He was already pissed off with Amber’s attitude before. And now when the contract was on the verge of cancellation, he was unable to control his anger.

Tina's face was full of grievance. She had never thought that she would be treated differently like this!

This matter was not her fault at all. Why did Roman blame it on her?

Roman did not think that Tina would be so stupid. He originally thought that this woman was very smart. But looking at her like this now, she was just mud that could not support the wall.

After saying that, Roman stood up and left the office angrily. He was not in the mood to stay in the company.

As soon as he left, Amara walked in out of nowhere. She had a satisfied expression on her face as if she was very impressed by the situation just now.

Amara looked at the woman in front of her and clapped her hands. "I didn't expect you to be like this. I thought you and Roman were in good graces, but it turns out you were just used by him!”

"Amber Thomas that woman has always been proud."

“She even came out of the army, how could she be bullied by you for no reason? This little trick of yours, I think Amber already knew it very well. "

"It's a pity that you and Roman don't understand this simple thing. Amber is not someone who you can play with.”

“You insisted on bargaining with her. Do you really think that Amber with listen to you?”

"You could continue discussing the price later. After all, everything is possible.”

"However, you've angered her now. She doesn't even want to cooperate anymore. I'm afraid the tens of millions of yuan project will really go down the drain.”

Amara sat in Roman's seat, with her leg crossed and said slowly. Her tone full was of sarcasm and disdain.

Amara didn’t have a slightest bit of sadness because Roman lost such a big project. In fact she was very happy seeing Tina in such a miserable state.

Tina lowered her head as she heard Amara’s sarcasm. She had never thought of fighting with Amara over anything, but she did not think that the later’s actions during this period of time were really too excessive, which made Tina very dissatisfied.

But since she had already helped Roman to do one thing, then she would definitely do more things in the future.

It was just that Amara, this woman, insisted on putting her nose between, making Tina feel disgusted in her heart.

She did not know what this woman in front of her wanted to do. But rather than playing hide and seek, it was better to say it openly.

"No matter what, Miss Lewis is Roman's fiancée. Why don't you care what he wants?"

"If I really want to stay with Roman, do you think you will have a chance?"

"I advise Miss Lewis, rather than that, it is better to let go. Maybe we can still be friends.”

Tina started to provoke. Since the woman in front of her was so unreasonable, there was no need to put on a show.

She followed Roman only for the sake of wealth and glory.

She had left all her true feelings to Ryan, but in the end, it was all in vain. That cripple insisted on choosing that bitch Elena! So what was the need for her to follow a waste-of-a man?

Amara had never thought that Tina would tell her these things so directly. Immediately, she stood up and glared at the woman in front of her.

"Do you really think that you have the chance to get his favor? You have neither a family background nor ability, so what qualifications do you have to stand by Roman's side?"

"You need to know your own limits. Do you think you can tie Roman down with just your little bit of beauty?"

"If it wasn't for Ryan's help, I'm afraid you wouldn't have known where you were a long time ago. How could you have come into contact with the upper class? It's a pity that you missed Ryan!"

“Do you think me as tolerant as Elena? That you could seduce my man under my nose?”

"I am not as stupid as Elena. You won't have the chance to do what you did in the past. Roman is just a little pitiful to you!"

"Didn't you understand his attitude just now? He didn't even think of you as a human being!"

Amara had never thought that Tina, this woman, would even think to over her position. What did she think she was? Even Elena didn’t dare to mess up with her path. So how this lowly woman could dare to challenge her, Amara Lewis, over something?
