

Chapter 195 Take The Initiative

Only Adeline was in the villa. Jonathan was still in the hospital taking care of Mason.

Elena was now pregnant, so naturally, she did not have time to take care of Mason. So all of the responsibilities fell on Jonathan's shoulders

Adeline saw her daughter's angry look and knew that something must have happened. She walked over and sat beside Amara.

"What's wrong with my good daughter? She suddenly got so angry. Who offended you? Quickly tell Mom. Mom will take revenge for you."

Amara picked up the pillow on the sofa and held it in her arms. She gritted her teeth and said hatefully. "Mom, Roman's mother actually doesn't like me at all. But did she forget that it was she who begged me to be with Roman back then? Now, seeing that our family is about to decline, she isn't polite to me at all."

Back then, Amanda was the one who wanted Amara to marry Roman. Actually she didn't want Amara but wanted the power and property of the Lewis family to support Roman.

From the very beginning, Amanda had always been wary of Ryan and was afraid that he would snatch everything from Roman. So she made the marriage arrangement of Roman and Amara.

But now when the Lewis family was about to bankrupt, Amara simply didn't care about Amara anyone. In her eyes, Amara was worthless.

Amara held her hair irritably and said viciously. "Mom, no matter what, I have to marry Roman quickly. Only then can he be in my hands. At that time, I want to see if that old woman can still be arrogant in front of me."

Adeline heard her daughter's words and comforted her. "I know that you are anxious about this matter, remember one thing. You can't be this hurry. Don't worry I will let your father to talk about this matter."

Adeline paused and continued. "But before that, you also need to know if you are in Roman's heart right now. The news about Tina has already been spread. If everyone thinks that Roman and Tina are together, then the loss outweighs the gain."

"You must be careful. You must not let that lecherous woman get what she wants. No matter what, you have to stop her from getting along with Roman."

Adeline did not think that this Tina was also a ruthless character. She actually dared to force her daughter to make a choice under such circumstances.

What kind of person was Amara? How could she be bullied by others for no reason?

It seemed that she needed to meet this Tina and see what kind of person she was!

Adeline patted Amara's hand. "Leave this matter to me. I will let that woman leave Roman." She then looked at her exhausted daughter and said with heartache. "Look how you are looking right now. Do you think Roman will like you if he will see you like this? Go to the salon and have a makeover. I will take care of the matters of her."

Tina did not have any feelings for Roman. Only an idiot would believe it!

Only a woman who pretended to be weak would say such words.

She was the woman who dared to seduce Ryan under Elena's eyes. So how could that woman be weak?

Since she could betray Ryan for Roman, then there's nothing this woman can't do!

After the mother and daughter spoke a few more words, they went to rest.

The next day, Adeline came to the Monor Group. It was early so there were a few people present. Adeline went to the front desk and asked about Tina's workplace.

When the front receptionist saw it was Adeline, she didn't delay and directly bring the later to Tina's workplace.

Tina had just come to her desk and was preparing to start her work when she saw the old woman appear in front of her out of nowhere.

Adeline looked coldly at the woman in front of her and held her arm tightly. She then dragged Tina out of the company in front of everyone.

The entire company acted as if they did not see anything after seeing it.

Of course, they knew who Adeline was and also knew what had happened during this period of time.

How could the Lewis family allow a third person to enter in the marriage alliance with the Monor family? Especially when, they were on the verge of collapsing. Right now, the entire Lewis Group was depended on the marriage of Amara and Roman, so they would naturally not allow anyone to put their nose between it.

So this was also expected. This Tina was too brazen.

Who was the Lewis family? Could it be that Tina really wanted to go against the Lewis family?

On the other hand, Elena and Ryan also came to the company to take some things. As Ryan had already announced his ten months break, there were still many things left unsettled. And there were also some confidential documents in his office, which absolutely couldn't come in the hands on Roman.

Xavier parked the car on the parking lot and the couple got out of the car. When they were about to step in the building, they happened to see Adeline and Tina walk out.

Elena froze on the spot when she saw Adeline dragging Tina out. "What happened here?"

"What do you think?" Ryan chuckled as he looked at the situation in front of him.

Elena went to the front and asked. "Aunt, why are you here?"

At this time, Adeline also noticed Ryan and Elena. She immediately went forward furiously.

"Can I not come? As a sister, you don't know how to help your sister look after some people."

Looking at the woman who was coming to them furiously, Ryan moved his wheelchair forward, standing in front of Elena, as he looked at the old woman coldly.

Adeline originally wanted to scold Elena, but looking at the man's reaction, she paused, but she still said with a dissatisfied expression. "What kind of people are you? All of you have to follow by your future brother-in-law's side? Elena, if you know that you have a part in this matter, I will definitely not let you off. "

Adeline said but her hands did not let go of Tina.

When Tina saw Ryan and Elena, it was as if she got her savior. She looked at the couple in front of her pitifully. "Cousin... Sister-in-law..."

However, those two acted as if they didn't listen anything. They simply didn't care about this woman.

They could not be blamed for reacting like this. After all, this matter had nothing to do with them.

Tina had truly touched the bottom line of others. That was why Adeline would do this.

Otherwise, Adeline would not have ignored her face and openly brought people out of the company.

Hearing Adeline's words, Elena raised her hand and covered her forehead. She was speechless, "Aunt, why do you always think that if anything happens it have to do something with me? Don't splash a basin of dirty water on people, okay?"
