

Chapter 196 I'M Not A Lamb Waiting To Be Slaughtered

"Since you want to deal with this personally, you can do it yourself. Left of this has nothing to do with the two of us. So please don't drag us in this matter."

"You should think about how to help your sister and not just focus on your own matters. Both of you are daughters of Lewis family. You should support each other."

Adeline still blamed Elena. She felt that this matter must be related to Elena.

Elena's eyes flashed with sarcasm hearing these words. Support each other? When she was in her most helpless time, did they remember these words "support each other"?

She just felt that her aunt was beyond saving. Even in such a situation, she only cared about her daughter's interests.

Could it be that there was really no more familial love between them?

Elena was even more speechless. She turned around and looked at Ryan. "Let's quickly take the things and leave as soon as possible."

Elena pushed Ryan into the company after she finished speaking. Staying here was simply losing their breathes.

Adeline, on the other hand, had a harsh expression on her face. But she also knew that the most important thing right now was to deal with the little slut Tina. And not to care about Elena.

She would still have many chances to deal with Elena in the future. Adeline thought it and pulled Tina forward, out of the company.

When they just arrived at the main street, Tina wanted to break free from Adeline's grip but it was useless no matter how she tried.

"Let me go. This is the main street. You are violating other people's rights by doing this. I can totally sue you. But I will still take into account your family's face. So leave me right now!"

"You'd better calm down. I don't know why you are looking for trouble with me, but let me tell you. . . I'm not a lamb waiting to be slaughtered! "

Adeline sneered and looked at Tina. "You can talk about what you want, there's no need to drag things out to affect your identity."

"You've already done everything. Do you want others to respect you? You dare to seduce my daughter's fiancé and brazenly become a mistress? "

"Do you think you can fly to a tree and become a phoenix? Dream on! Don't think that you can do whatever you want just because you have a little bit of beauty!"

"You don't have a good family background. Without good support, there's no way you can become Madam Monor. So it's better to save some face."

Adeline said with her eyes flashing with viciousness. For the sake of her daughter, she could completely ignore everything.

If this woman continued to keep troubling her daughter, she might as well just kill her and save her worries.

However, Adeline had to plan properly. A living person disappearing without a reason would definitely arouse the suspicion of others. Furthermore, this woman was acting so devilishly. Naturally, it would not be settled so easily.

"Madam Lewis, I hope you can think about it clearly before speaking. I have been by Roman's side for so long. If I want to be together with him. . . Why would I wait until now? Wait for Amara and you to come and find trouble with me? If I am following him now, it only proved that I am capable of doing my job. Why did you drag me and not let me go?

“Also, Roman and Amara no longer have any feelings for each other. They are in a state of business marriage. You have to understand that your family has already gone downhill. Do you think Amara can still occupy Madam Monor's position?"

"Let me give you a word of advice. Don't put all your dirty thoughts on other people. Don't think that everyone is like you."

Tina had thought about some things before. However, Roman was indeed a clean and self-centered person. She did not even have the chance to do it.

Therefore, she could only say these words. Also, she was on the street right now. She did not wish to make things too ugly.

"Who knows what you are thinking? Let me tell you, our family doesn't allow anyone to bully us. You better stay away from Roman, or else don't blame me for being rude to you. "

Adeline also understood that it was not appropriate to stay outside for too long, but a warning should still need to be given.

If she allowed this woman to continue and something were to happen again, she was afraid that she would not be able to make sense of it.

After saying this, Adeline waved her hand and left.

Now, she had already given that woman some face. If she did not listen to her, then she could only use forceful means.

...

At this moment, in the company.

Elsa saw Elena and Ryan coming back and immediately ran over, "Why did Madam General Manager suddenly want to leave? I heard that you took a leave of absence previously. But Director Monor also did not come over. I thought that something had happened between the two of you. Now, I'm really glad to see you two!"

Nova also jumped to the spot. "Why did you leave? Isn't it good to work here?"

Elsa and Nova were very curious. Both of them did not come to work recently. They discussed privately, wondering if something had happened.

But they did not expect to see the two of them today. However, they were packing their things. It seemed that they were really planning to leave the company!

Elena smiled and pulled Elsa's hand, "Don't think too much. I am pregnant. My husband's heart aches for me, so he let me go home to rest. After I give birth to the child, I will come back to work with you guys."

When Nova and Elsa heard this, they were shocked, "What did you say? You are pregnant? This is really a joyous occasion. Congratulations, congratulations. When you give birth, you must treat us to the baby's full moon wine."

They were extremely envious.

They didn't only marry well, they also even had a child. This was indeed something that everyone envied.

Looking at their envious expression, Elena smiled faintly. "There's no need to be envious. The two of you will definitely meet a man who loves you in the future. When that time comes, the two of you won't have to envy me anymore."

Elena knew that the two of them actually had a true temperament. It was just that they were used by others in the past. Now that the two of them had already figured out what it meant, they might as well stop pursuing these questions.
