

Chapter 201 They Injected Her A Large Number Of Sedatives

Ryan raised his head and looked at Mrs. Baker. He signaled the latter not to say anything. He had his ways.

Ryan then turned to look at the man standing in front of him. He crossed his arms in front of his chest and looked the man coldly. "What do you think I should do?"

Jose knew that his chance had come, so he immediately tried to please him. "I am an outsider, and I cannot interfere with your family business. I just want to take my mental damage compensation.”

Ryan's eyes lit up. He took out a card from his pocket and threw it in front of Jose. "There are three million in it. The password is behind the bank card.”

"I can't give it to him. He clearly wants to blackmail me." Elena came in front of Ryan and wanted to stop him.

Ryan held her hand and gestured her to calm down.

Jose did not care about them. He took the card and ran out quickly, afraid that Ryan would regret it and would want to take the card back.

After the few of them returned to the room, Elena looked at Ryan in confusion, but did not say anything.

Ryan looked at Xavier behind him, "Follow him quietly. Don't be discovered. If there are any suspicious people who come into contact with him, report to me immediately. "

"You want to lure out the mastermind?" Elena then turned around and looked the man in confusion.

"Of course I won't give him these millions in vain?" Ryan rubbed Elena's hair lovingly. Ever since she got pregnant, her thoughts had become purer than before.

"Sorry." Elena lowered her head, looking very wronged.

Ryan pulled Elena into his arms and said softly, "Silly, you still said that you are sorry to me. If I had appeared earlier, you would not have met that scum.”

“But still you shouldn’t have given that bastard 3 million.”

3 million was not a small amount. Elena didn’t want Ryan’s hard earned money to go in vain.

Ryan kissed her forehead and said lovingly. “3 million is nothing in front of you. I can even spend the whole world for you.”

Hearing his words, Elena smiled and held his tightly.

While they were talking, Jasper hurriedly walked in. When Jasper noticed what was happening inside the room, coughed awkwardly and didn’t knew what do you for a moment.

Ryan was a little unhappy when he saw Jasper came in and disturbed their sweet moment. "Don't stutter. If you have something to say, say it.”

Elena saw Jasper's hesitant look and knew that it was inconvenient for them to speak with her here, so she took the initiative to stand up. "I'll go and rest. You guys chat. "

"No need." Ryan pulled her again into his arms and turned around to look at Jasper. "You continue.”

Jasper now didn’t hesitate anymore and continued to report. "The thing you asked me to investigate has been made clear. They inject large amounts of sedatives into Mrs. Lewis’s medicine every day.”

"Detoxification? Why did they inject my mother with sedatives?" When Elena heard Jasper’s shocking words, she asked anxiously.

"Someone probably doesn't want her to wake up. She had been in a coma. Even if someone did something to her, it wouldn't be easy for us to notice. It took me a long time to investigate." Jasper replied.

"What a sinister method." Ryan did not expect that someone would attack the unconscious Eleanor.

The he suddenly thought of something. "What does that Director Scott have to do with this matter?"

Jasper handed the information in his hand to Ryan. "When the hospital director was in trouble, someone used this time to send Director Scott into the hospital to replace the director."

Elena immediately pulled Ryan's hand and tears flowed out of her eyes. "Ryan, bring my mother back. Don't let her suffer any more torture. "

"Don't worry. Your mother is my mother. I won't ignore it." Ryan wiped her tears away and comforted her.

Director Scott's identity was suspicious. Ryan did not know if he could follow the clues and find the mastermind behind it. Director Scott hadn't exposed himself for so many years, so he must have a lot of influence behind the scenes. If he acted rashly, it would only alert the enemy.

"I have already brought my men out. It will be discovered by the hospital soon. So, Second Master, you should make a decision as soon as possible." Jasper reminded Ryan to transfer Eleanor quickly. If they were discovered, there would be endless trouble.

"Send my mother-in-law to the villa in the suburbs. I will find someone to treat her personally. "

Jasper was a very clever person so he knew doing so would save him a lot of trouble.
