

Chapter 212 Can’T Hold This Great Buddha

Amanda blurted out in a moment of desperation. But she didn’t think the consequences of her words.

At this moment, Charles looked at Amanda with a threatening gaze. “Shut up!”

“But he was the one who called me aunty and said that I have a heart of snake! Why didn’t you say something then? What does he think he is? He is nothing! Without Monor family and Monor Group, he is nothing!”

At this moment, Amanda didn’t want to act as a noble lady anymore. She looked at Ryan with extreme hatred and resentment. She hoped if she could skin him alive at this moment.

Charles was already annoyed by Amanda’s unreasonable behavior. Now when he heard her scolding Ryan like this, he instantly exploded. “I told you shut up! What will happen to the Monor Group, it is not up to you to decide. The company belongs to both of them and you are not in a position to interfere this matter!”

Amanda originally wanted to retort to Charles but looking at his cold face, she shut her mouth unwillingly.

Looking at scene in front of him, Roman was stunned for a moment and pondered. He had been silent all this time and quietly watching everyone from the side. Looking at the happy couple in front of him, he had to admit that after not seeing them for a couple of months, they had become even more lovey-dovey then before.

Roman looked at Ryan with a faint smile. "Your former subordinates were too old. They have already replaced by the new employees in the company. But you are my brother after all. If you want to return to the company, I can let you resume your official position. As for the cooperation with the company in Western Europe, you must hand it over to me.”

Although Ryan had already resigned from all the official duties from the Monor Group, the Western Europe Cooperation was still in his hands. And it was really a big thing.

During this period of time, the Monor Group had earned a huge profit by this Western Europe cooperation. All the board members were very pleased. But all the credit went to Ryan. It made Roman very unhappy.

Elena finished all the Tangerine that Ryan had pceled for her. She wanted to laugh when she heard Roman’s good intentions. "Big Brother has cut off all of Ryan's men in a few months. Since Ryan has already given up his position, there is no need for him to work in the company anymore."

Who is Ryan? Even ten Monor Group together couldn’t be able to stand in front of King RYN.

Hearing Elena’s words, Charles could not hold back his pride and his tone became stern. "Elena, what are you talking about? Ryan is not going to work. Is he going to retire early?"

Charles’s original intention was to let Ryan return to the company earlier. They were all his sons, and the back of their hands were full of his flesh.

Parents loved their sons, and that was how deep the plan was. Charles planned for Roman, but also for Ryan.

Ryan lowered his head and pieced the orange skin in his hand into the shape of a small person. He said slowly, "Whether it is to retire early or to have nothing to eat, father, whether I return to the company or not is not up to you."

"Ryan, what are you talking about? No matter what, you have to go back. "

Roman touched his lips and smiled happily. "Dad has always been fair. I also said that you can come back at any time.”

Anyway, Ryan no longer had any power. Even if he returned to the company, he would not be able to create any big waves. It would be better if he didn’t return at all.

Ryan put all his effort into the miniature person and showed it to Elena. "You see, human skin is just a piece of skin, but it has no heart.”

He did not answer Charles's question, but everyone present could understand what he was saying.

The meaning behind his words was, even though Charles was forcing Ryan to return to the company it was all because Charles didn’t want to lose face in front of everyone and he also wanted to save his face in front of Ryan. But all this things was just an act.

Amanda sneered, "It seems like the temple of Monor family is too small to accommodate a Buddha like him. He doesn't like our Monor family anymore, why should we worry about him?"

Elena covered her mouth when she heard Amanda’s words. She was very angry in her heart. She wanted to stand up but was stopped by Ryan.

"Sit still, don't move. I will give you whatever you want."

"Younger sister, what do you want to say?" Amara, who was at the side, spoke up at this time one after another. After all, Elena and her husband were at a disadvantage in this situation.

"What do you want to hear from me?" Elena smiled coldly. "I won't say."

“You...” Amara's expression changed and she stood up, wanting to slap Elena, but before she could touch Elena, she was pushed to the ground by Ryan.

"You dare to touch her and try."

"Ryan!" Roman furrowed his brows when he saw the mess in front of him. "You are too much. She is your sister-in-law after all.”

"Can't you tell who attacked first?"

Ryan sat up from the sofa and looked at Amara who was lying on the ground. His face was full of coldness.

"Stop arguing. All of you get out of here!"

Charles was very angry. He originally wanted to welcome Ryan and Elena and his grandchild. But these people had taken the oath to ruin everything. Fine. If they were willing to do it, then go ahead. He did not care anymore.

Elena stood up when she heard Charles’s words and supported Ryan's wheelchair. Anyway she long wanted to leave this place. Staying here would only make her nauseous. "Let's go.”

"Wait a minute." Seeing that the two of them were about to leave, Roman stopped them.

Elena turned around to look. She looked at Roman and asked, "What else does big brother want us to do?"

"Ryan, you hit your sister-in-law. Don't you feel sorry for not saying a word?" Roman snorted coldly.

"What evidence do you have to say that I hit her?" Ryan held Elena's hand. "Let's go.”
