

Chapter 215 I Won’T Be Polite Next Time

"What do you police do for food? It was clearly their fault. Why should they arrest me? These people caused my daughter to be still lying in the hospital. Why didn't you arrest them?"

"Madam Lewis, don't worry. We will continue to investigate this matter. I hope you can cooperate now. We have the right to arrest you for trespassing and damaging other people's belongings."

Although Adeline was very resistant, the police dragged her away. The scene was very ugly.

After the police took Adeline away, Ryan called Jonathan.

"Ryan, what's the matter?"

Jonathan pretended not to know why Ryan was here. He wanted to see what the other party would do.

Ryan said coldly. "Madam Lewis came to our house to cause trouble and was taken away by the police. Regarding this matter, shouldn't President Lewis give me an explanation?"

Elena was currently pregnant and could not bear such a fright. If something happened to Elena and his child, Ryan would definitely not let the Lewis family go.

Jonathan didn't expect Ryan to be so direct, and not care about the reputation of both parties.

"What exactly is going on? Why did Adeline come to your house to cause trouble?"

Ryan did not expect Jonathan to still play dumb. He sneered, "It's okay if you don't know. Now Madam Lewis has been taken away by the police. You can decide what to do with her. I am letting it go just for once. But if it happens again, I won't be so polite to her next time.”

After saying that, Ryan did not wait to Jonathan’s reply and directly hung up the phone.

Hearing the busy tone, Jonathan was stunned for a moment. Then he directly contacted the police station and bailed Adeline out.

Along the way, Jonathan's face was gloomy. That look was very scary, and Adeline didn't dare to look at him.

"This matter isn't my fault at all. If it wasn't for Ryan, would my daughter be lying in the hospital right now? Shouldn't I go and seek justice for my daughter?" Adeline was still defending herself at this moment.

Jonathan glanced at her angrily. "Shut up! The dignified mistress of Lewis family was taken away by the police. Don't you find it shameful? From now on, you'd better behave yourself. Don't provoke Ryan, and don't provoke his wife!"

Adeline didn't expect Jonathan to scold her like this. She immediately exploded, "Do you think I'm doing this for myself? Isn't it just a Monor family? Ryan didn't have a job right now. What else was there to be arrogant about? If I didn't fight for my daughter now, how long would I have to wait? I'd like to see how big of a storm this couple can create. "

"Have you ever thought that if this matter is exposed, the Lewis family will lose all face? You feel sorry for your daughter, don't tell me I don't feel bad for her? Even Roman can't do anything to Ryan. Who do you think you are? If Elena wasn't pregnant, how could Ryan give up his job on his own accord? He has been overseas for such a long time. Do you think he is a vegetarian?"

Jonathan knew that Ryan was definitely not a kind person. As long as Ryan wanted to do it, Roman had no way to stop him.

Adeline did not believe what Jonathan said and retorted, "You borrowed Ryan's money. Of course you would say so. Now that the company crisis has been resolved, you should return the money to Ryan as soon as possible. I don't want to owe them any favors. You must take back your heart from them and place it on our daughter and son-in-law. Otherwise. . . I can't guarantee that I will do anything. "

And that old bastard in the family. If he handed over the power of the family to Jonathan, how could they be so indecisive?

After returning to the Lewis family villa, Adeline went back to her room to rest, Jonathan fell into deep thought.

The phone suddenly rang. Seeing the caller ID, Jonathan frowned, "What's the matter?"
