

Chapter 216 A Mysterious Phone Call

“I heard your wife has been arrested. Is it true?”

Jonathan frowned when he heard the other party’s words. “How did you know?”

“Tsk, tsk, tsk... Father fell down the stairs, daughter is hospitalized and now wife was arrested for trespassing. Your Lewis family is really amazing. And most importantly with so many things happening recently, you can still hold it in? I have to admire your endurance."

The other party's tone was filled with mockery and sarcasm, as though he did not believe that this matter was Jonathan's style.

"What exactly do you want to do? At this point in time, you must not act rashly. If something happens, you won't be able to take responsibility."

This person rarely called Jonathan, who knew what kind of idea he had.

The person on the other side did not even take Jonathan's words to heart, and said: "Don't worry, I'm only looking for you today because I just want to understand your attitude."

"It's just a police report. It's not as hard as you say."

Jonathan sneered. This person would never come to the Three Treasures Palace for no reason, and every time this person came to find him, it would definitely not be good.

"I was just casually chatting with you. I didn't expect you to have such a huge reaction. Since that was the case, there was nothing to say. Good luck!"

Hearing that, Jonathan frowned. It was obvious that the other party had something to talk to him about, yet every time, he would always be led astray by the other party.

"What are you trying to say? With how much you know about Ryan, it's impossible for you not to know about what happened recently. Why do you want me to borrow money from Ryan?"

Actually after his gambling incident, Jonathan suddenly received a call from this person saying that he would help him as long as he listened to his words. At first he was suspicious and did not want to listen to this person but at that time he was in a desperate situation and didn’t have any option other than listening to this person.

Jonathan didn’t know what this person wanted to do but this person insisted him to borrow money from Ryan. As for the reason he didn’t know about it.

Jonathan was extremely suspicious, who exactly was this person? What was his purpose? With the other party's understanding of Ryan, he would definitely be someone very close to Ryan.

However, the other party always used a voice modulator, so he was unable to guess who it was. Furthermore, the number to call back was an empty number.

"I have my reasons for letting you do this. Your niece had not even been married to Ryan for long, and their relationship was already so good. Don't you think that it's strange?"

How could Jonathan possibly know what was going on? This was a private matter between Ryan and his wife to begin with, and he had no position nor did he want to get involved.

But wait. Why this person suddenly asked about Elena? What was his purpose?

"Who exactly are you? What exactly do you want to do?" Jonathan asked helplessly.

In this period of time, he was completely led away by the other party, and everything this person wanted to do was done as promised. One's foresight was like that of a god. From this, it could be seen that this person was not simple at all.

"Don't move for now. Watch your family. Don't let anyone cause trouble. As for your daughter, she doesn't have to worry too much. The Monor Family will also be handed over to you unharmed.”

"Anyone would say that, so why should I believe you?" Jonathan felt like he was a puppet. If he continued, he would lose control of his body.

"Don't worry. It's just a little game. My goal is very simple, it's Ryan."

Jonathan still wanted to ask further, but he only heard a flurry of orders.

Jonathan was burning with anger, he never thought that the other party would still want to control him, he truly regretted being in cahoots with that person.

But what he did not know was that the mysterious man had not only contacted him, but also Adeline.

Receiving the mysterious man's call, Adeline hurriedly locked her room door and said softly: "My husband is home today, why are you calling me at this time?"

"I never thought that you would actually dare to look for Ryan for your daughter. But you did well in this matter. Did you notice anything wrong with their house?"

Adeline said helplessly. "There's nothing abnormal at all, and it's still the same as before. Ryan's legs had long ago become crippled, and basically could not stand up. Why do you have to let me go over and over again?"
