

Chapter 222 Found Her

At this moment, Ryan had almost gone crazy in searching Elena. He was doing his best to investigate this matter. He had already transferred all the forces in Western Europe to look for Elena.

In these past two days, he hadn’t eaten anything nor did he sleep. All he was doing was to finding Elena here and there. If he still could not find her today, Ryan did not dare to think any further.

Ryan couldn’t take it any longer and wanted to go to the Monor Family to ask about the matter.

Unexpectedly, just as Ryan was about to go to Monor family to ask, Jasper brought a group of men and rushed to the villa. His tone was very excited. "Boss, our people have found Madam. She is in the suburbs."

When the dispirited Ryan heard the news, he instantly became energetic. He instantly stood up excitedly. He had been looking for her for three days, but he did not expect her to be in the suburbs.

He didn’t wait for Jasper to say anything else and rushed towards his car. He wanted to bring his woman as soon as possible.

Elena carried the two children in her arms and looked at their little cute faces. Even though they were just born not long ago, they were so beautiful that it make hard for people to move their eyes from their faces.

Elena smiled gently and kissed their little forehead lightly. She then used her body temperature to warm the two children.

Women are weak, but the mothers are strong. When Elena carried her two children in her arms, she realized that she actually had endless energy.

Jasper's subordinates found the abandoned warehouse and opened the door. It was very dirty and dusty. The smell of the air made them nauseous. The group of people hurried went in to find Elena.

When Elena heard the footsteps approaching her, she was instantly shocked. She looked at the people vigilantly. "Who are you? Don't come over!"

"Madam? Are you alright Madam?" One of the men was wearing glasses and black clothes went forward. He looked at the woman who was in front of him. Her entire body was covered in blood and she was carrying two children in her arms.

Could it be that Madam gave birth so quickly?

When the group of people saw the situation, they were stunned.

"Don't come over, don't come over!" Elena was already scared and started to retreat.

"Okay, okay, okay. We won't go over. Please, don't move. Someone, bring the clothes over."

After saying that, the bespectacled man put the clothes in front of Elena. "Madam, you don't know us. But we know you. You are Ryan Monor’s wife. We won't do anything to you. Don’t be scared. This dress. . . Cover it first, it is dark and damp here. You just gave birth, your body is weak. . . Be careful of catching a cold."

The man wearing the glasses spoke as gently as possible, so that Elena wouldn’t be scared by him.

Elena nervously looked at the man for a few moment, before taking the clothes over and covered the two children. She vigilantly looked at the people in front of her.

When Ryan arrived, the people outside had already surrounded the warehouse. He looked at the warehouse gloomily, lifted his foot and walked over.

One of the men walked over when he saw Ryan coming and lowered his head. "Boss, the brothers went in to protect Madam, but Madam seems to have been frightened and can't be recognized anymore. She still doesn't want us to get close, and. . ."

Ryan's face was cold. When he heard the word "furthermore," his whole body couldn't help but tremble. "And what?"

"Madam gave birth."

It was just three words, but it made Ryan feel like he was struck by lightning. He staggered and almost fell to the ground. Jasper held him from behind.

She was only seven months pregnant! How was this...

Without any time to think, Ryan immediately ran inside. What came in front of his eyes was a dark and damp house. The air was filled with a huge smell of blood.

He looked at the woman who was sitting in a corner. There was blood all over the place. Her clothes, the ground, everywhere was filled with blood. She had a vigilant look as she held the two children tightly in her arms.

Ryan’s entire body trembled slightly as he looked at the scene in front of him.

"Elena. . ." When Ryan saw her like this, his tone was already choked with sobs. He originally said that he must protect this woman, but now he realized that he did not do it at all.

"Don't come over, all of you don't come over!"

Elena looked at the people around her. Even if it was Ryan, Elena could not recognize him.

Seeing her like this, Ryan's heart ached even more. He ran over directly. But Elena instantly screamed and started to retreat to the corner. She hugged the children even tighter. "Don't come over! Don't come over! Don’t hurt my children! Go away!"

"Elena, I am Ryan. I am your husband."
