

Chapter 223 Can’T Recognize Anyone

"My husband? Ryan? I don't know him. I don't know anyone. Don't come over here. Don't hurt my child."

Elena struggled with all her might, not letting Ryan touch her. It was as if he was a devil who wanted to steal her child.

Ryan didn’t dare to go near to her. He signaled the group of men who were following him to stop.

Ryan’s body trembled as he slowly squatted down in front of the frightened woman. He slowly extended his hand towards Elena and said gently. “Elena, I am Ryan. I came to pick you up. Let go.”

His voice was slow and gentle. However, it made Elena even more frightened. She hugged the two children more tightly and retreated even further away from him. She was so scared that she started crying. “Don’t hurt my children. Please, don’t hurt my children. They are innocent. Don’t come over!”

Ryan clenched his fists tightly. No matter what he said, she didn’t recognize him. Seeing Elena's emotional state, he had no choice but to knock her out and bring her back.

Ryan carried Elena into the car. Jasper and the others carried the two children over. Inside the car, Ryan touched the woman covered in blood and tears welled up in his eyes.

He swore that he would find the murderer behind the scenes and cut him into pieces.

Ryan looked at Jasper who was sitting in the front passenger seat and ordered in a deep voice, "Investigate clearly who did it. Find those people even if you have to dig three feet into the ground."

"Boss, don't worry. I will definitely investigate this matter clearly."

No matter who it was, once they were found, they would definitely be in serious trouble. Jasper seemed to be able to foresee the consequences of those people.

Ryan's hands, which were hugging Elena, were trembling. The two children quietly slept on one side. He had never thought that one day, he would make his wife and children suffer such a disaster. Even their children were born in this kind of situation.

He couldn’t imagine how much pain Elena must have suffered.

Ryan carried Elena and rushed to the hospital.

Ryan held Elena in his arms and his tone was full of anxiety. "Doctor, there was an accident earlier. My wife gave birth in the wild. Please help check the children and the adult's condition."

The doctor's eyes widened when he heard that. When he looked at unconscious woman covered in blood, he sucked in a cold breath. His face was full of disbelief. "What did you say? Born in the wild?"

"Yes, please take a look at my wife." Ryan said and put Elena on the hospital bed. He could not think of anything else right now. He only hoped that the family would be safe and sound.

He could bear all the grievances, but he did not want his family to be hurt.

"Quick! Push the adult and children into the operating theater and prepare for the surgery."

Having two children in the wild and protecting the children so well, it had to be said that this mother was worthy of respect. Ordinary people might not be able to bear it at all.

It was said that women were weak, but mothers were tough. This was not a lie at all.

Ryan was stopped outside.

"Young master, your leg. . ." Jasper brought the wheelchair over.

Currently, in the entire Hai City, Ryan's name was known by everyone. And now he was carrying his wife and children in the hospital like this. It seemed like he could no longer hide the fact that his leg had fully recovered.

Ryan pushed the wheelchair behind him away and revealed a helpless expression. "I don't need this kind of thing anymore in the future."

After Jasper heard that, he quickly went forward to persuade him. "Young master, you can't. You've only stabilized the situation after a few years. If this matter is exposed, I'm afraid there will be many enemies targeting us."

After Ryan’s accident, because it was revealed that Ryan could no longer walk and became a paralyzed, many people who were targeting him retreated back. Because no one wanted to fight with a cripple.

And now if Ryan didn’t continue this act, then he might be in a serious problem in the future.

A bitter smile appeared in Ryan's eyes. "I've always been a low profile person, hoping to protect my family. I didn't expect that they would still be in trouble. They actually dared to touch my wife and children! They bullied my weakness. I must investigate this matter thoroughly!"

This time, Ryan was really angry. In the past, no matter what, he would always have some scruples.

However, he couldn't tolerate the people closest to him getting hurt again and again.

"Young Master, what do you plan to do next?" Jasper knew Ryan had made up his mind. No matter what decision he made, he would follow him without hesitation.

"I don't have the mood to care about what the others do. I just hope that my wife and children will be safe."

As soon as he finished speaking, the door of the operating theater opened.

Ryan immediately stood up and rushed to the doctor. "How is it, doctor?"
