

Chapter 237 A Bottomless Pi

Roman thought for a moment and turned to Ryan. "You think I did it? Ryan, although you and I don't get along, I'm not that crazy! How can I even think of hurting a pregnant woman?"

“Elena is your wife and my sister-in-law. How could I do such a thing? I am not that much of an inhumane!”

"It's best not to be you. And if it was you, I won't let you off!"

Ryan had never thought that Roman would have such a day. Furthermore, with Roman's brain and guts, he would never do such a thing.

Roman looked at the furious man in front of him. He knew no matter how many times he explained, Ryan wasn't going to believe him. So it is best not to pursue it anymore.

Roman sat across from the sofa and asked, "How are the children?"

Ryan leaned back on the sofa and sneered. "None of your business. If you have nothing else to do, you can leave first. There is no food for you at home."

Roman frowned when he heard this. "Can't you and I talk peacefully?"

Roman came today to ask about Elena. He did not think about doing anything else. Previously, Director Jeff had advised him that if he grabbed hold of this matter, he could give Ryan a heavy blow. But Roman did not want to do so.

It was not only because of Elena, but also because of the two children.

No matter how much he denied, no matter how much he avoided, he couldn't change the fact that he liked Elena. This was the only reason why he never tried to harm Elena even though he hated Ryan to his cores.

"I have nothing to talk about with you."

After saying that Ryan didn't even look at the man in front of him, stood up and walked upstairs.

Roman knew that it was useless to explain to Ryan, so he decided not to stay any longer. Since he and Ryan could no longer coexist peacefully, there was no need for him to visit them again and again to please them.

...

Roman left Ryan's villa and went to the Monor Family house.

Amanda, who was waiting in the living room, saw that her son had returned. She immediately went forward to pull the door open and let him sit on the sofa.

"What's going on? I heard that Ryan chased you out of Monor Group? Is it true?"

Amanda said as she looked around the hall to make sure there was no one else there. That was why she dared to speak so loudly. If Charles was home, she would not dare to speak about the company's matters.

"Yes."

Roman leaned on the sofa and recalled what Ryan had said to him. He did not expect so many things to happen.

Amanda stood up excitedly when she heard this. "Why? How can he do this? That's your father's company! If he wants to buy it, he has to follow your father's orders! Why should he chase you out of the Monor family?"

"Why not?"

Roman looked at his excited mother and said calmly, "Don't forget that the Monor Group is now under Ryan's control. Although those people have the intention to support me, they won't dare to act too brazenly. After all, they are under Ryan's jurisdiction. Once they shed all pretenses of cordiality, no one will be able to stay in the Hai City anymore."

Roman never thought that he would be defeated one day. He thought that he could always be the president.

Roman was confident that as long as Ryan came back, he would only be suppressed. However, he did not expect Ryan to have such a powerful backer!

Initially, he thought that by letting Ryan and Leonardo work together, they would be able to help the company obtain great benefits.

However, he didn't expect that it would be his biggest mistake. If he knew this would happen, he wouldn't have let the two of them work together.

"I'll go find your father and ask him to handle this matter. I absolutely can't let that ingrate Ryan get such a big bargain."

Although the two brothers grew up together, they were children of the same father and different mothers. Their temperaments were many times worse.

Now that Ryan had just achieved something, he had already chased his own brother out. There was no such thing as this in the world!

Amanda couldn't expect it. Who was Roman? Roman was her one and only son. How could she let her only son be bullied by a bastard like Ryan?

After saying this, Amanda was just about to leave when she was stopped by Roman.

"Mom, don't go there and embarrass yourself. This will only make Ryan even more arrogant. You should rest at home first. Let me handle this matter myself. . . I will definitely be able to make a comeback.”

“Even without the Monor Group, I can still use my own ability to build a company and compete with Ryan. I will not be suppressed by Ryan for the rest of my life!”

“You said before that although the two of us have the same father, we are not the same mother. So as my mother, you have to let your family help me. As long as I have enough start-up funds, I will definitely be able to defeat Ryan."

To Roman, this was indeed a shortcut. Ryan's mother was different from his own mother. Ryan didn't have such a powerful mother. If he could obtain the help of his mother's family, Ryan wouldn't be able to defeat him no matter what.

When Amanda heard Roman's words, she was stunned for a moment before reacting. She avoided Roman's gaze and said evasively, "You have no idea what kind of condition your grandmother's family is in right now. The entire family is going to be defeated by your aunt! Even if I get the support in name, I won't be able to fork out much money. . ."

"How is that possible? I have been reminding you to never interact with aunt again. She is using her family's power to fill her own hole.”

“She can do whatever she wants because grandmother doted on her. Now that my grandfather is gone, she has nothing to fear. As her elder sister, don't let aunt use you anymore." Roman looked at her mother and tried to pursue her.

Amanda's sister, Aurora, was not a good person. Her husband went out to gamble and all of his assets were sold. Now, she wanted to get money from her maternal family to make up for her mistakes. There was no such thing as a good thing in the world.

It was a pity that Amanda's mother doted on her sister too much. She did not hesitate to give up her private property to help Aurora.

That woman was not a good person at all!

Amanda cast a sidelong glance at her son and her tone was somewhat obscure. "In the future, you do not need to care too much about my family's matters."

"Yes! If you want to help your sister, you can, and I can ignore it. But I also advise you not to use our family's money to fill that hole in aunt's house. That is a bottomless hole! No matter how much you help her, it will not be good. It will only make her feel that it is reasonable." Roman looked at Amanda and his tone was somewhat serious.

" Alright! Don't say these useless things anymore. I originally wanted you to move some money from the company to help your aunt, but now you are chased out by Ryan. . ." Amanda became anxious and blurted out this matter.

During this period of time, when she came to know that Ryan had taken over the Monor Group, she had been having a hard time. She couldn't keep her emotions stable just now and said something that she shouldn't have said.

When these words fell, Roman instantly stood up and looked at his mother in disbelief.

"Mom, what did you say? You actually want to misappropriate public funds? This is against the law! Have you thought about the consequences?"

“If my father finds out that you're going to use the company's funds illegally, do you really have to make him find a reason to push you out?"

Amanda looked at Roman and hurriedly said, “No! You have to do something. You have been the CEO of Monor Group for so long. You must have known some matters, right? As long as we ask about it, we still can get something.”

To be honest, this matter should have been implemented earlier. Now that the plan could not keep up with the changes, her sister was still waiting for her money to save her life.

"It's in the past. It's impossible for me to change my position now. Ryan is now the CEO of the company. Why would he let me touch the company's finances?"

Roman shook his head. He couldn't understand why his mother was behaving so unreasonable today.

"No, I have to ask Ryan for this money! If he chased you out of the company, you won't be able to earn money, and you won't be able to support your father and me. I have to find him to reason with. Even if your father doesn't support you, I have to fight for it for you."

May be Amanda was too anxious, she herself couldn't understand what she was saying.

Amanda estimated that only this way would she be able to get a large sum of money from Ryan. With this money, she would be able to save her sister's life.

