

Chapter 239 If She Says Something She Shouldn’t Say, We Should Sew Her Mouth Shu

Aurora's smile froze. "What? Brother-in-law doesn't welcome me?"

"Silly sister, what are you talking about? You are my biological sister and sister's home is your home. You can come whenever you want." Amanda hurriedly said with a smile and tried to smooth things over.

Amanda held her sister's hand, perhaps to get closer to the relationship between the two sisters.

However, when Charles saw this scene, he felt disgusted. He knew very well what kind of people the two sisters were.

Charles put his coat on the rack, sat on the sofa, crossed his legs, and said casually, "I wonder what business you have with me today? I've heard your little sister say before that our family's temple cannot accommodate a great Buddha like her. Why are you interested in this small temple again today?"

Knowing that Charles was mocking her, Aurora revealed a flattering smile. "What did brother-in-law say? Why would I say such useless words? Today, I am here to see how sister and brother-in-law are doing."

Aurora touched Amanda, signaling for her to persuade Charles.

Amanda lightly coughed. "Charles, there is still some food in the house. I will cook later. Call your brother-in-law over too. It's been a long time since we last met."

When Charles heard Amanda's words, he looked at his wife in disbelief. In the past, he had repeatedly reminded Amanda not to interact too much with her younger sister.

He did not expect Amanda to be so disobedient. She was still so close to Aurora in private. Did she not know how much money her family had?

Charles could turn a blind eye to what happened in the past, but what was happening in the family now? Did this woman not know? If he came back a little later, all the money at home would have been taken away by this woman!

Amanda was shocked by Charles's cold eyes and instantly took a step back. "You. . . Why are you looking at me? Did I say something wrong?"

"You shouldn't have said anything!" After saying that, Charles got up and walked upstairs. He didn’t want to bother with these scheming sisters anymore.

"I told you, your husband doesn't like us husband and wife at all. I'd better go."

Aurora picked up her bag and planned to leave her sister's house. Instead of being wronged here, she might as well go out and gamble. That way, her mood would be better.

She had just opened the door when Ryan coincidentally came into the villa with Xavier and Jasper following him.

When Amanda saw Ryan coming, her face was full of displeasure. Every time she saw this man, she wanted to strangle him to death.

"What are you doing here?"

Although she asked, Amanda knew that Ryan came here for two things. One was to show off his power, and the other was to plunder their family's property.

"I came here to find my father to sign the contract to change the legal owner." Ryan looked at the woman who was called his “step-mother” and said slowly.

When Aurora saw Ryan, she raised her eyebrows and said mockingly, "Yo, isn't this the second son of Monor family? He didn't even say anything when he saw his aunt? He really thinks too highly of himself. He doesn't even put his little aunt in his eyes."

Aurora did not like this man from the beginning. She felt that he was too arrogant and overbearing. He was extremely cold and did not put anyone in his eyes.

If this man was still a cripple like before, perhaps she would feel more comfortable. She did not expect that he had recovered to a normal person. Aurora was so jealous that she went crazy.

"If you did not speak, I really would not have seen it." Ryan turned sideways and deliberately knocked the woman away. The two men behind him also bumped into each other.

"You. . . Ryan, stop right there! What do you mean? Even if you don't want to talk to me, there's no need for you to come down and hit me with your own hands!"

Aurora had been humiliated by Roman and Charles before and had been suppressing her anger in her heart. Now that Ryan was here, she found a person to vent it out.

"What is it talking about? It's very dry." Ryan gracefully sat on the sofa and rubbed his ears.

Jasper, who was standing behind Ryan, replied. "I don't know. It sounded like a toad was barking. "

"It's said that only a female toad could make such a sound. It’s very annoying. Director Monor, why don't we go out and kill her?" Xavier asked for Ryan's opinion as he spoke.

"Ryan, you shameless bastard! You are very capable now, aren't you? You are just relying on your father's power. What’s very big in that? You're still nothing. And your wife! You're nothing after marrying that slut of Lewis Family!"

Aurora was not afraid of anything. Anyway, she had something on Amanda in her hands.

This woman could say bad things about anyone, but she shouldn’t have said anything about Elena. Ryan would not forgive her.

Xavier and Jasper looked at each other and smiled, "This woman is in trouble."

"Who doesn't? If she says something she shouldn't say, we should sew her mouth shut."

The two man sang together and Amanda immediately reminded Aurora, “Don't say anymore!”

Aurora acted as if she did not hear it. She shook off her sister and pointed at Ryan and scolded, "Ryan, let me tell you. Even if you get the company, so what? You are not as influential as my two sons. You are better than nothing when you marry that unwanted little bitch of Lewis Family who was chased out by her own family members!”

Ryan coldly looked at the woman who was continuously scolding his wife and glanced at Jasper. Jasper immediately understood what he meant. He came in front of Aurora and slapped her.

A loud and crisp sound could be heard around all over the living room.

Aurora, who was slapped, was instantly knocked down to the ground. There was a trace of blood at the corner of her mouth.

She looked at Ryan in disbelief. "Ryan Monor, are you crazy?"

Amanda also did not expect that this man would actually dare to hit her younger sister.

"Ryan, you. . . You shameless person, Ryan. . . "

Because of being slapped, Aurora's face was swollen like a pig's head. She was not beautiful and her body was also very bloated. At this moment, her appearance actually increased a trace of joy.

“Hahaha. . .”

Ryan, who was sitting on the sofa, did not give her face and laughed. He had just let his man give her a slap, and she had already become like this. If he were to do it himself, this woman would definitely not be able to see it.

"A person with a cheap mouth will end up with a cheap mouth. If I hear you talking about my wife behind my back again, then it won't be as simple as just a slap!"
