

Chapter 241 One Hundred Million

Amanda lowered her head, not knowing what to say.

"Speak. I will give you a chance to say it now. If I find out how much you lost outside, I will divorce you immediately."

"One. . . One hundred million. . ." Amanda said slowly.

"What did you say? One hundred million?"

Charles was really shocked. How much family property did their family have? They had actually lost one hundred million to this woman!

If it wasn't for the fact that she was forced, perhaps this woman wouldn't have told him about it.

Bang!

Charles slapped Amanda's face fiercely. "Why did I marry a prodigal woman like you? I thought you were a girl from a big family who could shoulder the responsibility of being the mistress of the family. I never thought that you would be so muddle-headed that you would even dare to be tainted by gambling."

Due to the sudden and forceful slap, Amanda fell onto the ground. Seeing Charles so angry, she instantly cried. After all, the current situation was far from her original intention of earning more pocket money.

"Charles, I was wrong. I was really wrong. I will never do this again. Please give me a chance. Give me a chance to change myself."

Amanda was crying on the ground. The people on the side did not even dare to breathe loudly.

Ryan, who was sitting on the sofa, looked coldly at the scene in front of him and turned to Charles, "Dad, I just came to sign the contract. I am not interested and have extra time to listen to you deal with these ugly things here."

After Ryan said that, Jasper handed the contract in his hand to Charles.

When she saw the words "transfer of the ownership", Amanda instantly stood up and shouted, "You can't sign it, I don't agree. What do you want me to do after signing it? How can our Roman live? Is our family going to have a hard time living?"

Transfer the entire Monor Group to Ryan? She couldn't let this happen!

"Why are you messing around here again? Ryan has already bought the company with a large sum of money. If you keep pestering me like this, don't blame me for being merciless."

"I'm messing around? What am I messing around for? Charles Monor, have you ever thought about Roman? I'm afraid you only care about that little slut in your heart! At that time, I was still carrying your child, and you brought this bastard back! Charles Monor, do you have a heart or not? Have you forgotten how you begged my family and begged me to marry you? Now that I think about it, if that b * tch was willing to be with you at that time, there wouldn't be a place for me and my son in the Monor family today!"

Hearing his mother was mentioned and how Amanda was scolding his mother, Ryan's nerves were tensed up. No matter how much he disliked his mother, he would never allow anyone to insult his mother. Ryan's face went deadly cold as he stared at the woman in front of him.

However, there was a man who was even more angry than him. Blue veins bulged on Charles's forehead as he pointed at Amanda.

"Amanda, don't push me too far! I will tell you that what happened back then had nothing to do with anyone. Even if it was my fault, you don't have to blame others. As for me, I am just pursuing my own love without caring about my own safety and I don't regret it!"

Hearing Charles say these words, Ryan shook his head helplessly. He could only secretly rejoice that fortunately he and Roman were not like Charles, shamelessly boasting about their mistakes.

Ryan stood up and caressed the folds of his suit as he spoke to his father, "I don't want to talk about the contract anymore. Just sign it as soon as possible and give it to me. In the future, you don't have to worry about the company anymore."

After finished his words, Ryan turned to the angry woman in front of him, "By the way, Auntie, if you want Roman to work in the company. . . You can come to the Monor Group to find me. After all, as a younger brother, I can't force my big brother into a desperate situation, right?"

After saying that, Ryan gave an ironic smile and left with the two of them.

Charles was still holding the contract in his hand as looked at the retracting figure in a daze. While he was still in a daze, Amanda grabbed the contract and tore it into pieces.

When Charles came back to his senses and wanted to snatch it back, he found that it was already too late. He immediately roared in anger, "Amanda, are you crazy? Look at yourself. You are no longer as gentle and refined as before. You are simply a shrew!"

He had never thought that the girl from the noble family and the shrew who had no image to speak of were the same person. Had she really been forced into a corner? Or was it that the "young lady from a respectable family" was just a mask that she had used to disguise herself in front of others?

Amanda laughed crazily when she heard these words. "How did I become like this? I was forced by you. You father and son colluded with each other and his lame legs were probably just a show you made in front of the company!"
