

Chapter 250 Partnership

Elena already knew that Henry wasn't that kind of person. It was just that Freya didn't want to put Henry in a difficult position, so she kept holding back. Unfortunately, it would only make others think that she was a person who was easy to bully. Now that the child was born, those people naturally put away their flattering faces.

Henry held Freya in his arms and looked at Elena gratefully, “Sister-in-law, thank you so much for letting me know about this matter. If not for you, Freya would never have told me and would silently endure everything.”

Elena smiled and nodded, “Now you know the matter now, I hope you will take care of the matter properly.”

After the matter, all of them returned to the dining table for dinner. The atmosphere of the dinner table was especially good and harmonious. Elena’s cooking was very good and both Henry and Freya praised her for her cooking skills.

After the dinner, the two women went upstairs to play with the children.

Freya's son was already more than one year old and could basically walk on his own feet. When that little guy met with the twins, he couldn’t help but went forward to play with them. The twins were also very cooperative. After a while, the whole room was filled with children’s laughter.

Elena and Freya sat in the children’s room and they began to talk about their daily lives.

While two women went to the children’s room, Ryan and Henry went to the study room and said that they had something to discuss, so they did not disturb them.

After entering the study, Ryan’s smile vanished in an instant and he turned to his usual serious and cold self again.

Sitting on his chair, Ryan looked to Henry and said seriously, "You and I have a good relationship. There is no need to hide it from me. If you know anything, you must tell me."

Ryan believed that Henry wasn't the kind of person who made something out of nothing. Once he found something, he would definitely ask him. So, seeing Henry suddenly visit him like this, Ryan knew that he must have found something.

Henry knew that this place was very safe, so he said, "Actually, you are right. I want to discuss something with you that’s why I came here today. Previously, Roman wanted to cooperate with me and told me about the pros and cons of the company. But after doing some checks, I found out that during this period of time, Roman has been in contact with a strange man, and he is not from the Hai City. Usually, I recognize men with abilities, but I have never seen him before."

"There are many people from other cities and even other countries in the Hai City now. After inspecting the environment here, they monopolized it. At first, there were a few people who wanted to cooperate with me, but I rejected them."

There were some things that they could cooperate with but there are some things that you absolutely cannot do. Ryan cannot use the excuse of monopolizing the market. Otherwise, he could sell the entire Hai City to others.

When those people saw the economic development of Hai City was good, they wanted to get a share of the profits without any effort. They were thinking too much.

"I have also considered this, but that man is very suspicious, so I found someone to investigate. I didn't find any specific background, but I only know his surname is Foster."

After saying that, Henry took out a photo and placed it in front of Ryan. "It is this person."

Ryan, who saw the photo, was stunned. "How could it be him?"

"You know him?" Henry was a little surprised when he saw Ryan's reaction.

Enemies were on a narrow road, and he had actually met someone he knew. The man with the surname Foster had collaborated with Roman, even though he knew the relationship between Roman and Ryan. So he must have some grudges with Ryan.

A trace of coldness flashed across Ryan's eyes. "This man is called Spencer Foster. We were rivals in Western Europe. After returning to the country, he actually followed us here. So the reason why he cooperated with Roman was because he wanted to defeat me."

During this period of time, Ryan was busy with Elena’s matter and taking over the Monor Group. So he had forgotten that after he chased Roman out of the Monor family, Spencer would definitely receive the news. If Spencer used this to control Roman, he was afraid that the Monor family would be under his control as well.

Henry saw the unpredictable expression on Ryan's face and knew that this was not a simple matter. "What do you plan to do now? Do you want to cut off their path of wealth, or do you want to stop them from cooperating?"

Henry believed in Ryan’s ability. No matter what way Ryan used, he would unconditionally support him. Furthermore, they were not alone here. Both Jackson and Isaac had followed Ryan. Once they just waved their hand, both Hall Family and Young Family would stand on their side. Then he would see how Roman and Spencer could defeat them.

However, unexpectedly Ryan shook his head, "We can't do anything now. Roman is very ambitious. His only goal after leaving Monor family is to overthrow me. The same goes for Spencer. It will be even harder for us to deal with him if the two of them work together."

It was too late for Ryan to stop him now. Both of them fell into silence.

Now, they were facing enemies everywhere. Not only Roman, but Spencer was also there. There were also others who were eyeing the Monor Group covetously.

Ever since Ryan took over the company, they all felt that there was a loophole in the Monor family that could be exploited, and they planned to take advantage of it and take over the Monor Group.

"You should make a decision as soon as possible. Now that their cooperation has just taken shape, once they grow, they will definitely catch you off guard." Henry reminded Ryan.

In this special period of time, if Ryan could not guard the Monor Group, then it would be useless. Although Ryan didn't care about such little things, in the end, it would be Roman who suppressed him.

When the time comes, things would be too clumsy to solve.
