

Chapter 265 Twice The Price

"How could that be?" Ryan smiled gently and leaned over to kiss her lips.

He and Elena had gone through thick and thin together. So they would definitely not let others affect their relationship.

Ryan knew that this matter scared Elena quite a bit. He carried her in his arms and went back to their room to rest.

The next morning, when Ryan woke up, Elena was still sleeping soundly.

Looking at her sleeping face, a soft light flashed through Ryan's eyes as he gently kissed her cheeks.

Because what happened yesterday gave a heavy blow to Elena, Ryan didn't want to disturb her. Elena was still sleeping when Ryan had already gone to the company.

Yesterday, Xavier had asked him to go to the company because it had something to do with Roman.

During this period of time, Roman was very restless. He poured all of his energy into the newly opened company to suppress Ryan.

After coming to the company, Xavier handed the document in his hand to Ryan. "The few companies that cooperated with us have all gone to Roman's side."

Jasper, who was standing at the side, also agreed. "That's right. It is said that Roman gave them twice the price compared to us. He did it on purpose."

"Mr. Monor, the company has a lack of funds. I'm afraid we won't be able to hold on for long."

Xavier was a little worried. Roman had only used a few months to make the new company prosper. He had used all his energy to suppress Ryan. He did not care about his reputation at all.

"Mr. Monor, why don't we transfer some funds from the headquarters to fill the hole? This time, our company has suffered a heavy loss. If we don't fix it in time, it won't take long for us to be swallowed by Roman." Jasper said quietly.

They did not know if Roman had been provoked, which was why he was so angry.

"No need." Ryan said faintly.

Compared to Xavier and Jasper, Ryan was much more calmer.

Xavier frowned when he heard that. "But the news of the client leaving has spread throughout the company. The employees are panicking. If we don't come up with a solution, those employees will probably jump ship and go to Roman's side. It would cause a greater impact to the company."

Ryan pushed the documents to the side, leaned back in his chair and smiled leisurely. "I didn't expect Roman to achieve such results in just a few months. His ability is much better than before."

Jasper and Xavier looked at each other in confusion. They could not understand.

This was already the case. Why was Mr. Monor still able to laugh?

"Mr. Monor, the contract we discussed here has all been terminated. Now only Miss Thomas's side is left. Should we call her over and discuss what to do?" Xavier asked.

Amber had a high position in the company and was equivalent to a vice president. When faced with such a crisis, she would definitely not sit by and do nothing.

When he heard Amber's name, Ryan's face turned cold. He waved his hand and said. "Amber has something to do now. It is not convenient for her to come to the company."

Sam was still in the hospital, so Amber would not come to the company for a short period of time.

The room fell into silence. Ryan had rejected all their plans, so they could only wait for further orders now.

After a while, Ryan looked at his wrist watch and said. "If nothing unexpected happens, Roman will be here soon."

Xavier and Jasper looked at each other, not understanding what Ryan meant.

Under such circumstances, shouldn't they solve the company's crisis first? Why were they waiting for Roman here?

"Mr. Monor, the company. . ."

Before Xavier could finish his sentence, he was interrupted by Ryan. "There's no hurry. Wait until I see Roman, then I'll settle the company's matters."

Ryan was indifferent, as if he did not take the company's crisis to heart.

Xavier and Jasper could not do anything but shut their mouths.

Not long after, sure enough, Roman came to Ryan's office.

Jasper and Xavier were stunned for a few seconds when they saw Roman, then they tactfully left.

Only Ryan and Roman were left in the room.

"Take a seat. I have been waiting for you for a long time."

As he spoke, Ryan poured a cup of tea for Roman.

"It has been a few days since I left the company. And you are already waiting for me?" Roman sat opposite of Ryan, his face full of joy.

"You are busy with the new company's matters, so naturally you will not have time to meet me. Looking at your bright face, is there a happy occasion?" Ryan fiddled with the tea set on the table, seemingly unconcerned.

"It's not a happy occasion. It's true that I am happy." Roman looked around the office with disdain. "It has only been a few days since I left, but the office has become like this. Ryan, you are too shabby as the president."

"Whether the CEO is qualified or not does not depend on the arrangement of the office. It depends on whether it can bring the company to a higher level. You're not here to chat with me today, are you?"

Ryan picked up the teacup and took a small sip, as he spoke.

Roman sneered, when he heard Ryan's words. "Your company is in danger, and you still have the mood to drink tea here?"

"It's just that you robbed a few businesses, it's nothing." Ryan continued to play with the tea set as if he didn't care about anything.

"Really? I robbed those few businesses, and you lost a lot of money. Do you still think it doesn't matter?" Roman said sarcastically.

Roman had been in the Monor Group for a long time, so he naturally knew what kind of business he would discuss next. Therefore, after leaving the Monor Group, he began to secretly set up a plan, and snatched the business deals at double the price.

Ryan sighed and shook his head helplessly. "You are right. Those few businesses of the Monor Group have indeed poured a lot of effort into them. If all of them are snatched away by you, the company will definitely suffer a heavy loss."

"If that's the case, what face do you have to pretend in front of me?" Roman was even more disdainful.

Hearing this, Ryan looked up at Roman and sneered. "Those companies and us did not sign the contract, but before that, we had already signed a confidentiality agreement."

Roman was slightly stunned when he heard that. "What do you mean?"

Roman watched as Ryan drank the tea in his cup in one gulp and smirked. "It means that if they cancel the contract midway, they will compensate all of our company's losses."

Roman immediately frowned and said. "That's impossible. If they had already signed the contract, how could they possibly give up on you and come to me?"

Ryan smiled and his voice was full of sarcasm, "You used twice the price and tried to win them over. How could they not agree? Not only would they get more benefits, but they could also get you to pay for their breach of contract. Of course, they want to sign the contract with you as soon as possible."

Ryan knew that they weren't interested in cooperating with Roman. What they were interested in was the price that was twice as high as Ryan's. With this as the foundation, the following cooperation wouldn't be short of this price.

When Roman heard this, he slammed the table and stood up, roaring angrily, "Ryan Monor, you did it on purpose!"

Ryan dug his ears with his fingers and wrinkled his nose. "Why are you talking so loudly? I'm just thinking about my own interests. If you didn't steal my business, this wouldn't have happened."

During this period of time, Ryan had been paying attention to Roman's company. He only held back when he saw that Roman had a close relationship with his clients.

Roman quelled the anger in his heart and sneered. "So what if they got the compensation from me? I have already snatched all these old customers. What do you think will happen if your company cut off all contact with your clients?"

Roman did not expect Ryan to leave such a trick behind, but it did not matter. Snatching their customers was the same as cutting off their company's financial road. At that time, Ryan would kneel and beg him.

Seeing Roman's fearless look, Ryan's face turned cold. "I originally thought that you would improve by establishing your own company, but I didn't expect you to still be so stupid."
