

Chapter 267 Mortgage

Roman leaned back in his chair and sneered. "Why don't I remember that I left something behind? Don't tell me that your Mr. Monor remembered it wrongly."

"It can't be wrong." Jasper handed a document to Roman.

"Mr. Monor said that this is yours. So we have to hand it over to you personally."

Roman looked at the blue folder in front of him and suddenly had a bad feeling.

"What is this?" Roman asked vigilantly.

"Sorry, we don't have the right to open this document. But Mr. Monor said that you will know what it is as long as you saw it." Jasper had a smile on his face, so no one could guess what he was thinking.

Roman looked at Jasper's expression and frowned slightly. He then took the folder from the table and opened it.

Seeing the details inside in folder, Roman's pupils shrank violently and his face lost all the color at once.

He had already destroyed the all the details and documents of the transfers long ago. Then how could Ryan possibly find it?

Jasper only spoke when he saw the surprised look on Roman's face. "Director Monor, since we have delivered the item, we cannot disturb you anymore."

"Wait."

Roman restrained his emotions and placed the blue document on the table. He leaned back on his chair and pretended to be calm, "If I am not wrong, this transaction details are from your Monor Group. Why did your Mr. Monor send it to me?"

He was no longer in the Monor Group, so there was no need to worry about these things. Even if the company had a transaction details, it was Ryan's business.

Even if he took the mortgage, he took it on the name of the Monor Group. When the time comes, the bank would take Ryan accountable as Ryan was the current President of the Monor Group.

After hearing Roman's words, the two of them stopped in their tracks. Xavier turned back to Roman and pointed at the document on the table. "The details of the transfer are indeed from the Monor Group, but you have to take a closer look at who the signature below is."

Xavier had been in the company for so long yet he did not know what kind of transaction details there were.

So it must have been done privately by Roman.

When Roman heard this, he looked down and saw the words "Roman Monor" written on the document.

He had forgotten about this.

When he borrowed money from the bank in the name of the company, he had signed these documents. At that time, he did not think that Ryan would become the president again, so he did not pay attention to these details.

"It seems that President Monor has remembered. Then we don't have to say anything more. Dare I ask Director Monor, can we leave now?"

Xavier smiled faintly and this expression seemed very annoying to Roman.

After Jasper and Xavier left the office, Spencer, who had been hiding, came out of the lounge.

He came in front of the desk and picked up the documents on the table.

Spencer had been listening to their conversation just now and was very curious about what details they were talking about.

However, when he read the contents of the documents, his face changed dramatically.

"Roman, I didn't expect you to do such a thing after being in the company for so many years. Do you know what the consequences will be if it is investigated?" Spencer said angrily.

"I thought Ryan wouldn't find out so easily. In the future, I can use this matter to suppress him." Roman didn't expect Ryan to find out about it so quickly.

"Do you think Ryan is an idiot? This document has your name written in black and white. If Ryan uses this matter as an article, do you think you can escape the law?"

Initially, Spencer thought that Roman was a smart person, but now it seemed like what Ryan said was true. Roman was an extremely foolish person.

"But what should we do now? Ryan has already sent the documents over. He will definitely use this matter to suppress me."

Roman was a little worried. If he had known earlier, he would not have done such a thing.

"If I had known this earlier, why would I have cooperated with you in the first place?" Spencer said with disappointment.

"Now that things have come to this, we have to think of a way. Otherwise, Ryan will expose this matter and the new company will be seriously injured." Roman was somewhat anxious.

It wasn't easy for him to have the opportunity to oppose Ryan. He couldn't let this matter be destroyed just like that.

