Chapter 274 Grandpa Woke Up

Ryan knew what exactly Elena was worried about. But he was not a casual person like Roman. He wouldn't even go near to Amara let alone touch anything that Amara gave him.

"She wouldn't dare." Ryan smiled but his tone was serious.

Amara dared to drug Roman because she wanted to marry Roman as soon as possible. Even if she was discovered later on, it would not affect her too much.

But if Amara was found out while she drugged Ryan, it would mean that she did not follow the wife's rules and betrayed Roman. At that time, her reputation in Hai City would be ruined.

Elena shook her head. "You don't know Amara well."

Elena had seen Amara for more than twenty years and knew her better than anyone. Amara was an extremely selfish and selfobsessed woman, who could go to any points to achieve her goals.

Elena had already seen Amara's means when in order to force her to marry Ryan, Amara stopped Eleanor's treatments.

Furthermore, Amara had Jonathan and Adeline as her backer. So she was fearless.

"Don't worry, I won't give her a chance." Ryan said and pulled Elena into his arms. He kissed her forehead as he stroked her back gently.

Elena had already been provoked by the kidnapping, so from now on, nothing should happen that could possibly affect Elena's mood.

For the past few days, Elena did not show any abnormalities, which made Ryan relieved.

It seemed that recently because of the reporters' questions, Roman and Amara had stopped.

During this period of time, Roman didn't find any trouble with Ryan and Amara didn't try to seduce Ryan again.

On this day, Elena coaxed Ian and Reyna to sleep and planned to go back to her room and rest. Unexpectedly, the phone on the table rang.

Elena looked at the caller ID and saw that it was an unknown number.

Elena frowned slightly and picked up the call. As soon as the call was connected, she heard an urgent voice coming from the other hand, "Madam, it's me, Jasper. Old Master Lewis has showed the signs of waking up. Please come and take a look."

Elena was stunned for a moment. Old Master Lewis means her grandfather.

Grandfather woke up?

"When did this happen? And who is in the hospital now?" Elena's voice was somewhat excited.

"It's in this morning. Jonathan is at the hospital right now. I have asked Xavier to pick you up."

After the kidnapping case, Elena's safety was the most important for them right now. Ryan didn't want to take any risks in Elena's security. No matter where she went, she needed Jasper or Xavier to personally pick her up.

"Alright." After Elena hung up the call, she first went to find the servants.

Elena's health was not good for a long time after childbirth, so Ryan arranged a number of profession caregivers to take care of both Elena and the children.

Elena instructed the caregivers to take care of the two children in her absence. She then returned her room, quickly changed her clothes and went downstairs.

Xavier was already waiting at the door.

As soon as Xavier saw Elena, he respectfully called out, "Madam."

Elena hurriedly put her jacket and said, "Let's go."

When Elena and Xavier rushed to the hospital in a hurry, Jonathan and the doctor, who was treating Mason, had already walked out of the ward.

When Jonathan saw Elena rushing over, he frowned slightly.

After Elena went abroad with Ryan, Jonathan hadn't seen her for more than half a year. A few days ago, he had heard Amara mentioning that Elena had given birth.

But Jonathan hadn't expected to see Elena here.

Jonathan went to Elena and asked suspiciously, "Elena, why are you here?"

Hearing Jonathan's probing tone, Elena suddenly remembered that after Mason's accident, she was worried that something would happen to Mason, so Ryan had arranged some people to pay attention to her grandpa's condition in the hospital.

Others did not know about this matter.

Elena calmed down herself and put on a smile on her face, "I haven't visit Grandpa for a long time, so I came to see him today."

Elena did not mention that she knew about Mason showing signs of waking up.

Jonathan's expression eased a little when he heard that. He smiled and said, "You came at the right time. The doctor just said that your grandpa showed signs of waking up. It seems that the treatment during this period of time has worked."

Jonathan's face was filled with joy when he said that. He hoped that his father would wake up at the next moment.

"Really?" Elena pretended to be shocked and quickly ran into the ward.

Inside the ward, Elena looked at her grandfather, who was lying on the bed, with a pale face. No matter how she looked at it, he did not look like he was about to wake up.

Seeing Mason like this, Elena turned to Jonathan and asked in puzzlement. "Didn't the doctor say that grandpa showed signs of waking up? Why is there still no blood on grandpa's face now?"

Jonathan shook his head. "I'm not sure either, but the doctor said that he only showed signs of waking up. He did not say that Dad would wake up immediately. Don't be anxious. Wait slowly."

Jonathan knew that Elena was very worried about her grandfather, but there were some things that were not in their hands.

At Mason's age, they could not rush for success.

Elena nodded slightly and sat beside Mason. She reached out her hand and gently held Mason's old hand. She said gently, "Grandpa, it's me Elena."

However, just when Elena wanted to say something else, Mason's hand which was holding Elena's hand suddenly tightened.

Elena was shocked for a moment and looked at the old man in disbelief. However, Mason's hand was that was holding her hand getting tighter and tighter.

Elena suddenly understood Mason's meaning.

She turned around and looked at Jonathan who was standing near the door and talking to the doctor. "Uncle, you must have tired these days taking care of grandpa. You should go back and rest first. I will take care of my grandfather today."

Hearing this, Jonathan smiled and said, "No, it's fine. I'm used to it. Furthermore, your children are still young. You cannot stay here."

Jonathan knew Elena's children were still very young, so she could not stay outside for too long.

And another reason was Ryan. Ryan would be unhappy if Jonathan kept Elena too long here.

"It's okay, uncle. Isn't there still caregivers at home? You've been tired for the whole day. Go back and have a good rest."

Every day, Jonathan would come to the hospital to visit his father. Everyone thought that Jonathan was a filial son, but only Elena knew that Jonathan came here for his own benefit.

"Alright then. Call me if you need anything." Only then did Jonathan agree and turned around to leave.

Elena saw Jonathan went out of the ward and leaving through the corridor. She looked around and found that there was no one around. Only then did she feel relieved.

Elena turned to the man in sick bed and said softly, "Grandpa, there is no one here. Have you woken up?"
