

Chapter 275 Will

After hearing Elena's gentle voice, Mason flickered his eyelids and slowly opened his eyes.

"Grandpa?" Seeing Mason open his eyes, Elena shouted excitedly.

"Elena. . ." Mason was currently wearing an oxygen mask, so his voice was not very clear.

"Grandpa, I am here." Elena's eyes turned red. She held Mason's hand tightly and said in a choking voice. She did not know how her grandfather was feeling right now.

Mason looked at his surroundings with vigilance. He seemed to be observing whether there was anyone else there.

Elena instantly understood what her grandfather meant. She immediately shouted, "Xavier."

"Madam, I am here."

"Guard outside. No one is allowed to come in." Elena said.

It seemed like her grandfather wanted to be alone with her, so he did something so unusual.

"Yes, Madam." After saying that, Xavier immediately walked out of the ward and closed the door.

Elena turned to look at Mason and said, "Grandpa, there is no one else in the room now. Do you have something to say to me?"

"Be careful. . . Be careful of your uncle and aunt. . ."

Mason's hoarse voice came through the oxygen mask.

"What?" Elena asked in confusion.

"Be careful. . . They. . . They pushed me. "

Elena's face was full of shock hearing Mason's words. It took her for a while to find her voice again.

"How could it be. . . How could they do this? Uncle is your biological son. Why did he do that?" Elena's voice stuttered while she spoke.

Before this, Elena had always thought that it was Amara and Adeline who had pushed her grandfather down the stairs. She thought that Amara and Adeline wanted the full authority of the Lewis Group which was why they did such a despicable thing.

However, Elena did not expect that her uncle, Jonathan, would also be involved in this matter.

Elena could accept anyone but the only one she could not accept was her uncle.

"Will. . . Will. . . They want the will." Mason breathed heavily and said with difficulty.

Elena instantly understood the whole situation when she heard this.

It must be because her uncle knew that her grandfather had already made a Will which was why Jonathan and her grandfather had a dispute.

And when Jonathan couldn't find out anything from Mason, he and Adeline plotted together to push Mason down the stairs.

The reason why Jonathan was so filial to come to the hospital to visit Mason every day was because he wanted to know where the will was.

"Grandpa, you are confused. You were fit and healthy before, so why did you write the will yourself?"

If the news of Mason making the Will had not been spread out, Jonathan and Adeline would not have done such an outrageous thing.

"Elena. . . I. . . I don't know how many more days I can live. So I want to do this before it's too late. The will is in Lawyer Forbes's hands. If you look for him, he will give it to you."

When Mason made the will, he had already told Lawyer Forbes that other than Elena, no one was allowed to saw the will.

"Grandpa, I know. Don't worry, you will be fine. Rest well, your body will definitely get better." Elena wiped her tears, as she spoke. She was very sad to see her grandfather like this.

Mason looked at Elena's face for a while and there was a layer of guilt in his old eyes.

Elena was still crying when Mason raised his arm and rolled down his sleeve. A patch of purple and green appeared on his arm.

Elena was shocked and immediately pulled Mason's hand to check the wound on his arm. "Grandfather, what is going on? How did you get hurt? Did they attack you when you were unconscious?"

Mason did not deny it and nodded weakly.

"This bastard, how dare he do this!"

Elena never thought that Jonathan would be so cruel to his biological father. If she did not see it with her own eyes today, she would not believe that her uncle would be so vicious.

For money and property, they did not even hesitate to attack an old sick man.

"Grandfather, let me take you away. You can't stay here any longer. It's very dangerous." Elena held Mason's hand tightly and said anxiously.

She was very worried that if Mason continued to lose consciousness, it was hard to guarantee how Jonathan would treat Mason in the future. At worse, they would continue to attack her grandfather.

However, Mason held Elena's hand and shook his head. "No. . . As long as he doesn't get the Will, he won't let me die."

Mason knew that if he suddenly disappeared, Jonathan would definitely suspect it and blame everything on Elena. At that time, Elena would be in danger.
