

Chapter 277 Confrontation In The Hospital

Elena turned around and discovered that it was Amber who called her.

Seeing Amber at the hospital at this hour, only then did Elena remember that Amber's son, Sam, was still in the hospital.

"Miss Thomas, what a coincidence." Elena responded with a proper smile. She did not want to mention what happened that day.

"It is indeed a coincidence."

However, Amber replied with a sneer.

Elena's eyebrows slightly wrinkled. She could clearly feel that Amber's tone was not good.

"Miss Thomas, why are you here?" Xavier saw that the atmosphere was awkward and immediately spoke to ease it.

"Since the last time my son was pushed down by your Madam on the stairs, she did not even come to visit him. Why did she leave in such a hurry when she came to the hospital today?" Amber said without hesitation. Her tone was very aggressive and arrogant.

Elena stood where she was and her brows were tightly knitted together. "Why would Miss Thomas slander others like this?"

Now that Ryan was not here, Amber did not need to pretend to be innocent.

"I'm afraid only Miss Lewis knows whether I am slandering others or not. There are some things that I can ignore on Ryan's face, but I also hope that Miss Lewis will not do it again."

Amber's attitude was overbearing. She said it so righteously that other people would think Elena had really committed a sin if they heard her.

Xavier, who was standing at the side, frowned at this time. He had known Amber for quite a long time. Amber was always kind and gentle in front of Ryan when they worked together in the Monor Group.

However, this was the first time he had seen Miss Amber Thomas show such an expression.

Xavier had also heard about what happened last time when Amber came to Ryan's house. Although he was not present, he was sure that Elena would not do such a thing.

Elena was always a kind and generous woman. Furthermore she was the mother of two children, so she definitely wouldn't do anything to a ten year old child.

Most importantly, Elena did not have any motive to do that at the first place.

Amber was clearly blaming Elena for no reason.

Hearing this, Elena sneered as well, "My husband has already left someone here to take care of your son. If I come again, I will give you trouble. Furthermore, I will not admit anything that I have never done. Miss Thomas also need not be so overbearing here."

In the long corridor of the hospital, everyone who came and went noticed the confrontation between Amber and Elena. Everyone slowed down their footsteps to watch a good show.

"It seems like Miss Lewis does not intend to admit it." Amber sneered and her cold eyes fell on Elena. Her gaze was filled with disguised disgust.

"Those who are clear will naturally be clear. So there is no need to admit or accuse. There are some things that I do not wish to explain too much. I still have matters to attend to so I will be leaving first."

After finished speaking, Elena did not even spare a glance at Amber. She directly turned around and left.

Elena originally thought that Amber who joined the army at a young age was truthful and righteous but she did not expect that Amber would also have such deep schemes.

Amber was present that day and clearly saw that she did not even touch Sam. But Amber intended to blame her for Sam's accident.

It made Elena disgusted with Amber.

Xavier, who saw the whole situation in his eyes, did not have a good expression either. He had not expected Amber to have such a dirty side.

If he was not present here and witnessed it with his own eyes, he might not believe that the person who spoke such arrogant and hateful words was actually Amber.

So when he left, Xavier did not take the initiative to greet Amber like before. He turned around and chased after Elena.

He felt very disgusted seeing Amber like this.

Seeing Elena leave, Amber's expression did not look good. There was a trace of madness and unwillingness in her eyes.

At this time, a man came to Amber's side and said respectfully, "Miss, the discharge procedures for Young Master has already been completed. We can leave now."

Amber turned to the man and said coldly, "Butler Lee, bring Sam back first. I have something to do and need to leave the country."

She had to personally investigate some matters. She and Ryan had been friends for so many years, so she absolutely could not accept Ryan lying to her.

"But Chief said that you must go back today." Butler Lee lowered his head and said slowly.

Previously, the chief had already given him a death order. He had to bring the young lady back, or else he would be in trouble.

Needless to guess, Amber also knew what her father wanted her to do by asking her to go back.

When she went back a while ago, she saw that her father was in contact with the people of Langford family, and there was a big deal of marriage.

Among the big families in the capital, there were four big families which controlled the whole city. Among the four big families in the capital, only the Langford family was not a businessman, so it was the best choice to propose a marriage deal to their family.

However, no matter how noble the Langford family was, Amber did not care.

"Just say that I am busy."

Amber had quarreled with her father more than once because of the marriage. She did not want others to interfere in her marriage.
