Bride of the Mysterious CEO chapter 291-In Hai City, at a villa in suburbs.

At this moment, Ryan and Elena were rushing back from the villa in the suburbs.

Sitting in the car, Elena carried her daughter with a smile on her face. "Today, I saw that my mother's face looked much better. I think, it won't be long before my mother wakes up."

Ever since Eleanor left the hospital, her bodily functions had recovered very well. Her recovery was so fast that, even doctors were shocked by this.

Ryan, who was by the side, held her hand, "Don't worry. Now that she had met her grandchildren, Mom will definitely wake up soon."

Hearing this, Elena sighed with emotion, "It has been six years, but my mother didn't show any signs of waking up in the hospital. I didn't expect that she would recover so soon with our treatment and care."

"Director Scott is now nowhere to be found. He probably hid because he was afraid that his identity would be exposed." Ryan wanted to look for Director Scott for the further investigation of this matter, but he didn't expect Director Scott to be missing when his men went to the hospital.

It had been a few months but they still had not found any traces of Director Scott.

Elena could not help frowning when she heard that. "Whether he hid or was harmed by someone else, you must investigate clearly."

Director Scott was merely a chess piece that was buried in the hospital by others. Now that her mother had left the hospital, Director Scott would be useless even if he was kept.

What's more, now Director Scott was like a ticking time bomb for the other party. If Director Scott was found by Ryan, then they would soon find out the mastermind behind all this.

So, it was inevitable that Director Scott had gone "missing."

“You are right. Maybe we can follow the clues and find the mastermind behind it.” Ryan’s face was cold.

Now, they were in the open and the enemy was in the dark. Those people were vicious and cunning. They used such dirty tricks that people could not guard against.

But it was not for too long. Once he found out Director Scott’s whereabouts, it would be easy to solve many things.

When Elena and Ryan’s car stopped at the door of their house, they saw another car parked at the door.

Elena got out of the car and asked doubtfully, “Whose car is here? Is there a guest at home?”

Ryan looked at the car plate number and frowned. It was a car from the capital.

Who was here at this moment?

“Let’s go in and take a look.” Ryan carried the two children from Elena’s arms and the two of them walked into the villa together.

After opening the door, they saw a man sitting on the sofa with a gloomy face.

Hearing the sound of door opening, the man turned to the door and narrowed his eyes. His eyes fall on Ryan’s face then gradually to his legs. Then he sneered.

When Ryan saw the other party’s face, he was stunned for a moment. Then his face gradually turned cold.

“Wo... The great Ryan Monor is finally here. I didn’t expect Mr. Monor’s acting skills were so good. It took me five years to discover that Mr. Monor is actually not a cripple but pretending to be one.”

There was deep sarcasm in William’s voice. He always thought that after surviving that deadly accident, Ryan had truly become a cripple. That’s why he put his guards down.

But William had never thought that Ryan was actually pretending all these years! Just thinking about this made his teeth itch.

William's words were clearly provocative. Ryan's facial muscles tightened. But he didn't instantly blow up.

After all, Elena and the children were still here and he didn't want to show his dirty side in front of his wife and children.

Ryan turned to Elena and handed the children to her. "Elena, take the children upstairs first. Wait for me there."

"Okay." Elena nodded and carried the children in her arms. She also felt that there was something wrong with the atmosphere so she wanted to take the children up first.

Although she was curious about what's going on between Ryan and this man in front of her, she knew it was not a place to ask Ryan about this. So, it's better to go upstairs and save Ryan some trouble.

However, while they were talking, they didn't notice that William's expression had suddenly changed and there was a look of astonishment in his face.

Just as Elena walked to the staircase, William suddenly followed her. "You are Elena? Elena Lewis?"

Hearing this, Elena turned around and looked at the man in front of her with doubt. This man. . . looked familiar.

"Yes, you are. . ."

"I am William Langford. Don't you know me?" William's face was full of excitement. He looked at Elena in disbelief as if he did not expect to meet her here.

When Elena heard William's name, she became even more puzzled. "William Langford?"

Elena did not seem to have heard this name before, but this man looked a little familiar.

"Mateo Langford. " Seeing that she still wasn't able to recognize him, William said another name.

Elena finally seemed to recognize him. She had a look of surprise in her face. "You are Mateo, no wonder you look so familiar. Did you change your name?"

Mateo was Elena's junior high school classmate, but after graduating from junior high school, he did not have any contact with her. Elena did not expect him to be at her home today.

William went in front of Elena with an excited look. "Elena, I didn't expect to see you here. Where have you been all these years? There was no news of you at all."

After seeing Elena, William seemed to have totally forgotten his purpose of coming here today. He didn't care about anything else but only wanted to know about Elena's whereabouts.
