

Bride of the Mysterious CEO chapter 294-William sat opposite of them. Their relationship did not seem to be fake. Elena's happy expression did not seem to be fake either.

"We have received the invitation. Do you want to stay here today?" Ryan's tone was not good. William was getting married, but the way he looked at Elena just now was not right. Ryan could not leave danger by his side.

Elena lightly nudged Ryan. Why was he talking like this?

Looking at the couple's interaction, William could not take it anymore. "No, there are still many things that need to be dealt with at home. I will go back first. "

William then looked at Elena and said gently, "Elena, we have not seen each other for many years. If there is a chance, we must have a meal together. When the time comes, I will also call Jose."

When they heard the name Jose, Elena and Ryan's expressions became very ugly.

Noticing the strange expressions of the couple, William looked embarrassed. "Did I say something wrong?"

"Are you still in contact with Jose?" Elena asked doubtfully.

"I saw him a while ago when I came back from the army, but I haven't seen him since then. I think he would be very happy to see you. After all, he liked you very much in the past." William's tone became more serious, and he purposely said the last sentence to make Ryan angry.

As expected, Ryan's expression changed as soon as William mention this topic. The man squinted his eyes and sneered. "Haha, do you know why you haven't seen him for a long time? Because I put him in jail."

William was shocked. "What? What's going on?"

Elena shook her head helplessly. "One day Jose suddenly came here and blackmailed me. He wanted to get money for his youth loss from me. "

While mentioning this, Elena remembered that when this incident happened Ryan sent some people to follow Jose to dig out the whole thing. And the mastermind behind Ryan's investigation was actually Roman.

At that time, Roman was greatly irritated by Ryan so that man wanted to sow a discord between her and Ryan by sending Jose here.

After getting Jose in, when Ryan found out about this, he personally went to remind Roman not to do anything stupid.

"What? There is actually such a thing?" William did not expect Jose to do such a shameless thing.

"It doesn't matter. It's all in the past. He chose his own path. He can't blame anyone else." Elena already knew that when lovers could not be lovers, they could not be friends. But Elena did not think that she and Jose would become enemies.

"Mister Langford, are you still not leaving?" Ryan's tone was discontented. Seeing how William and Elena getting along with each other, Ryan felt his heart burn.

Elena stared at Ryan and then revealed an embarrassed expression. "I'm sorry, my husband likes to joke."

"It's okay, I'm sorry to bother you. " William stood up and left after saying that.

Once the door was closed, Elena pulled Ryan and looked confused. "Why is Amber suddenly getting married? Was there already an engagement already?"

"A family marriage. " Ryan said lightly.

"Does a super wealthy family like the Thomas family still need a family marriage?" Elena asked doubtfully.

"Yes, but what they need is not money, but the needs of the military and the government." Ryan sat on the sofa with Elena in his arms, as he calmly explained.

As the leader of the four big families in the capital, the Langford family's ability was definitely not ordinary. The Thomas family was a military family to begin with. They did not care about ordinary business families. Therefore, the only family that could match up to them was the Langford family in the political world.

“But, will the people of the Langford family accept Amber’s child?” Elena had heard Ryan mention Amber’s background before. The Langford family was the leader of the four big families in the capital, so they must know very well about Amber’s past. Elena did not know if they would regard Sam as their own.

“Haha, what do you think?” Ryan tucked her hair behind her ear and asked back.

Amber was raped and gave birth to a child. Although this matter was suppressed by the Thomas family long ago, the Langford family was not a pushover. They had long heard about this matter, so it was not difficult to investigate it thoroughly.

To the wealthy families, these things were undoubtedly a stain on their reputation, and it would affect their reputation for the rest of their lives.

After Elena heard it, she pondered and said, “I originally thought that the people in the super rich families could choose their own happiness, but I never thought that Amber’s background was still not up to her.”

If there was a next life, Elena hoped that Amber could be an ordinary person and did not want her own fate to be arranged by others.

Ryan saw Elena’s expression was not right and knew what she was thinking. He smiled and said, “Everyone’s fate is destined by the heavens. There is no way to change it. Maybe Amber marrying into the Langford family is also a good thing.”

“Why do you say that?” Elena was a little puzzled. There was no relationship between the family and the marriage. She did not know why it was a good thing.

Ryan rubbed Elena’s hair and said with a smile, “Although Amber had an accident before, she has the support of the Thomas family behind her. In order to get the support of the Thomas family, the Langford family will not give up the marriage with Amber.”

Furthermore, there were some internal problems in the Langford family that required the support of the Thomas family. That was why William couldn't wait to marry Amber.
