

Chapter 379 The Lost Prince

Ryan heard Adams's arrogant words and his eyes flashed. With a swirl of his hand, he drew Adams near his body and the dagger in his hand went even nearer.

He sneered. "Just like you want to put me down at all costs, I want that too. Let's see who wins."

With that, Ryan dragged Adams out of the room.

Adams's bodyguards were watching Ryan's every step with vigilance. When they saw Ryan dragging their boss out, they all surrounded him from all directions.

Ryan's eyes narrowed and the force on the dagger increased. He said coldly to the tattooed men across from him. "If you want your boss to die with me, just shoot."

The next second, a hiss sound came and Adams's body twitched a little. A stream of warm liquid appeared on Adams's neck. It soaked Adams's collar and dampened Ryan's hand.

Ryan cut Adams's neck. Blood flew out and under the bright light of the room, it appeared quite glaring.

Those subordinates were immediately stunned on the spot. They thought Ryan would be afraid of their guns and explosives, but they did not expect him to not be afraid at all. Instead, he attacked their boss.

Ryan noticed their hesitation and knew he had successfully intimidated them. He sneered, "Still want to try me?"

The bodyguards were all silent, unable to say anything.

"Take me to find my wife. Otherwise, I will kill your boss." The dagger pierced through Adams's flesh once again and more blood flew out.

A thin layer of sweat appeared on Adams's forehead. He was in pain but the coldness of his face didn't diminish.

It took him a lot of time and effort to trap Ryan. He couldn't let the later go that easily.

Adams had also noticed that his bodyguards were going to spill everything. He looked at his subordinates and said coldly, "If you want to live, then you better shut up."

"Well. It seems like you really don't want to live anymore." Ryan did not expect Adams to be this obdurate.

He had put a lot of force and the cut on Adams's neck should be quite deep, given the amount of blood flowing out. Yet this man refused to back down.

Ryan's eyes darkened and he pulled Adams forward with the dagger still on his neck.

Ryan glanced around. He was currently at the eighteenth floor, underground. There were seventeen floors above, with each floor having several rooms. Although he did not know where Elena and Ian were, he would definitely find them if he searched the rooms one by one.

On the other hand, Spencer was thrown out by Adams's men. Xavier and Michelle hurriedly caught Spencer when they saw this. "Mr. Spencer, what happened to you?"

But they got no response.

It seemed like Spencer had been knocked out by someone. Michelle brought some water and conscientiously splashed on Spencer's face.

Xavier glanced at the entrance of the building warily. Why was Spencer the only one who came out and Ryan did not?

Could it be that something happened to Ryan inside?

After a long while, Spencer slowly woke up. He felt a severe pain in his neck. When he saw Xavier and Michelle, Spencer quivered and stood up.

"Mr. Spencer, why didn't Mr. Monor come out? What's going on inside?" Xavier asked with worry.

Ryan had asked the two of them to stay in the car. He thought that Ryan would take care of the matter when he went in, but why was Ryan still inside when Spencer was thrown out?

Hearing it, Spencer's face darkened. "Adams asked Ryan to fight him. I don't think he will come out tonight."

Although Spencer did not know what Adams's wanted to do, from his actions, Spencer could tell that Adams was extremely twisted and uncertain. Also, he seemed to have a deep grudge against Ryan.

Now that Adams had Elena and Ryan's son as baits, he would blackmail Ryan however he wanted.

"What? Adams and his men were all inside. Isn't it very dangerous for Mr. Monor to be in there alone?" Xavier was extremely anxious. Adams was famous for being cruel and merciless. Given the animosity between him and Ryan, would he let go of this golden opportunity?

Although Ryan was trained in martial arts, it was very difficult for a single man to fight against a group of men, not to mention they had weapons with them.

Therefore, the situation seemed to be very disadvantageous for Ryan.

"No, I have to go in and find Mr. Monor. I can't let him stay inside alone. This is too dangerous." Xavier couldn't just sit and wait for death outside. They didn't know what was going on inside, so they had to rescue Ryan first.

However, Spencer shook his head. "Don't be in such a hurry. Without someone to lead the way, you won't be able to enter. The terrain inside is complicated. That abnormal Adams lives on the eighteenth floor."

If it was a normal person, how could he choose that kind of place to stay?

Michelle who had been silent suddenly frowned and said, "Don't you guys think it's a little weird? Mr. Monor had destroyed many of Adams's before, but he chose to remain silent. Why did he kidnap Madam this time?"

"What do you mean?" Spencer couldn't understand.

Michelle explained. "When Madam went missing from KING headquarters, it took a few hours to notice it. So how did Adams know it beforehand?"

Michelle's words reminded Spencer. "Go and investigate all the information about Adams. Whether it was before or now, I want to know all of it."

"Brother, I was just about to call you." James's hurried voice came from the other end of the phone. "I have found out something shocking. Adams is actually the lost child of the royal family. Now, not only does Adams have his own power, he also has the support of the royal family behind him. In the future, Adams will inherit the throne of the Western European royal family."

After James returned to the Foster family villa, he was worried about Spencer's safety, so he immediately investigated all the information about Adams, using his father, Marcus's connections. He didn't expect that there would be such a shocking secret.

Spencer was stunned at the spot upon hearing it. "What?! Are you sure that Adams is the lost child of the royal family?"

As Spencer's words came out, even Xavier and Michelle were shocked.

Spencer found it unbelievable. Adams's influence in the underworld had been astonishing in recent years. Now that the royal family was added to the mix, wouldn't this man become invincible in Western Europe?
