Chapter 3

Hundreds of kilometers away from Lilly's current location. A large pack of Lycans lived peacefully under the leadership of triplets alpha Lycans who were renowned for their strength. It was the Blue Moon pack.

The three of them ruled Blue Moon and made their territory the strongest and largest among the other Lycan or werewolf territories.

The three brothers ruled firmly and wisely. Their people admire and respect them. They are Declan, Luca, and Finn. The three leaders of the Lycans are feared by their enemies. They are very strong, intelligent, and quick-witted. The three of them are handsome Lycans. They were triplets but not identical. Every one of them has its own charm that can make any young girls and women all over their heels when they meet the handsome alphas. Lycan can live up to 700 years. So the triplets can be said to be grown-up Lycans since when they were compared to human age, they were 300 years old right now. Behind all the glory the triplets achieve, there is one thing that is still lacking, and this deficiency could become their weakness someday. Until now they have not found their mate.

Soulmate. Which should now be with them. Stand by their side, Rule this pack, and live together in their house, to complete their life.

They haven't found her yet. Alpha Declan, the firstborn, was sitting in his big chair in the office. The meeting had just finished and he was still daydreaming there, his eyes were straight into nothing.

"Finn and I will be watching over the guys training on the field. You coming?" Luca, his second brother broke the silence and already standing from his own chair.

head was full of thoughts of his mate who had not come until now.

Should he be looking around for her? That's what they did. Every five years. But he stopped until 10 years ago.

Declan was still staring at the table surface which was full of messy papers and books. His Maybe he should go around some more. But where?

Declan rubbed his face roughly.

"Hey dude. I know what you're thinking. I'm also worried about the same thing. But we can't dwell on this. She'll be here soon or later, we'll find her. We're not that old yet." Finn, the wiggled his eyebrows up and down. Luca shook his head. But Declan didn't react anything.

"We'd better go around and see if there's a beauty we can get to accompany us tonight." Finn Finn is indeed the most fuck boy among them. He could not see beautiful women. Almost all the single women in this pack have slept with him.

Luca, second in line, is a saint. He keeps his distance from women who are not his mates. He can keep his commitment to the woman that the Moon Goddess destined for him.

Meanwhile Declan. He wasn't a saint like Luca but he wasn't a player like Finn either. He has a biological need but he also doesn't want to play with all the women he meets.

He wanted a mate.

"Find mate, find mate! I want mate!" Draco, his Lycan thrashing on his head, sent a flash of light into Declan's eyes.

"I know buddy, I want it too," Declan answered silently and took a deep breath.

Lately, Draco had been so restless he didn't know why. Draco always wanted to get out and run to find their mate, as if his mate was in danger.

This happened more and more often, especially when they started discussing the matter of stopping the sale of slaves, which was an illegal business of the Rouge werewolf packs.

Declan looked at his two brothers who had been waiting for him to move.

The restless and uneasy feeling was shared among the three. Luca and Finn admitted the Unintentionally, he glanced at Luca who was across the field. He had the same expression. Likewise with Finn. "Is it what I thought it was?" Finn's voice sounded excited in their minds.

When they saw the same reactions from their siblings, each of them realized that they would

"I will kill Alpha Ken in the most heinous way." Luca gave him a sharp look. He took a deep breath before nodding and looking back at the field.

He had thought that Declan would reject their mate. That is the most uncommendable thing.

Meanwhile,, Luca, has important principles in his life. Mate is the person who will complete

This was the rule, Alpha Ken set up. He didn't want any Alpha or leader from other's pack to have the same person as a mate. This is common in Lycan herds if they have one mate for more than one or two people. This usually applies to twins or triplets like them. "Yes." Luca answered before Declan. "And if you want to look good in front of our mate, you have to act like a loyal man. Stop looking at other women with your dirty eyes." Declan snorted annoyed looking at Finn who always smiled mischievously. But this time he nodded and raised his hand. Of course, he wants to look good in the eyes of the woman that the Moon Goddess has destined for him. Having a mate, and living together with love and care is the dream of all creatures like them. They will be whole and complete with their soulmate. Because of that, even for a player like Finn, he wouldn't want to disappoint his mate. Declan walked over to Luca, he was seriously giving directions and orders to his pack members who were fighting.

"I hope she's not one of those slaves..." Declan whispered in a deep voice. Luca raised an eyebrow and turned to his brother who was five minutes earlier than him.
