Chapter 9

"Talk to her. Call her to go back."

Myrna, the witch, told the three Alphas who looked very worried about the pale, fragile girl in their arms. Now, it was Finn's turn to embrace their mate carefully. They were afraid that they would injure this girl who was already covered in cuts and bruises.

"Baby, come back. We love you. We need you here...." Declan whispered it into Lilly's ear which was immediately followed by Luca who gently stroked her face.

"Come back here please, Love. We need you..."

Myrna, waved her hand in the air, and out of nowhere, she was already holding a long, dark red leaf. She stroke the leaf gently three times over Lilly's face.

Seconds passed, Declan, Luca and Finn gasped as they felt the electric shocks on their fingers against Lilly's skin. The longer, the stronger the sparks. Lilly is breathing again and the sound of her heart beat was clear to their ears.

Everyone in the room breathed a sigh of relief, especially the three Lycans who worriedly sick about their mate.

residents of the Blue Moon pack consider as a doctor. "Yes. Can I clean her first? I-I mean, I want to give Luna comfortable clothes..." The girl

"Give this poor girl the potion I will prepare." Myrna said to Alysa, she was the one who the with the thick glasses that were always on her nose, stuttered. She realized from the start that she should call this girl Luna. She is the mate of these three Alphas. She gave Finn a glance.

Of course Finn saw that glance and immediately responded. "Of course. We want you to help us. Get my mate warm clothes." The other two siblings were somewhat stunned by Finn's tone. He sounded cold and stiff. Unlike the usual Finn.

"Good decision. Don't let our girl down." Luca said using his mind link to his two brothers.

While Alysa, her eyes widened briefly as if she realized something, but then looked down sadly and immediately agreed to Finn's orders.

"I-I understand, Alpha..." She stuttered and left the room.

this already dying girl's life.

Finn will always behave seductively especially to Alysa.

Meanwhile Myrna, who was still standing there, saw the scene. She sighed silently and shook her head slowly, before addressing the three Alphas.

about this girl, I believe she is our Luna, correct?" The three of them nodded quickly. Myrna responded by returning to the bed where the girl

"With all due respect Alphas..." She began. "There is something I must say. It's something who was now breathing regularly was lying on it. She still looked pale and weak. Her body looks fragile and small. It was clear that this poor girl had a very hard life. Myrna gulped before speaking. She didn't want a reckless guessing. From the very beginning she saw this girl, She already suspected something. However, she didn't want to be too careless and if his suspicions were wrong, she could become the cause of threatening

"From what we've all seen. Luna... had experienced things that are so painful throughout her life. In my vision earlier, she was very close to the end. If we were little late, we will lose her..." Myrna stared sadly at the poor girl. Likewise with the three alphas that surround her.

"This should be the last thing that happens to her. If she happens to be in this situation again. I won't be able to call her back." Myrna said quietly.

statement, a red glint in his eyes indicating that Draco was also starting to appear on the surface.

"Of course this will be the last time my girl will experience this. She will never experience

"What do you mean this has to be the last one?" Declan growled disapprovingly of that things like this again while she is by our side. We will protect her!" This time, Lorcan's voice took over as Luca opened his mouth. "Good!" Myrna nodded firmly. The three of them rolled their eyes.

Myrna took a deep breath before explaining further. She looked at the three alphas one by asked them. The three of them, immediately nodded slowly.

making her unable to reincarnate."

from her work.

two brothers were no less riled up.

one. "Alphas, I can heal even people who are dying, because I can call them back when they are place where their soul will go forever. In this case it would be easier for me, if the dying person still wanted his life...." Myrna paused. "But, it's different with this girl... Luna.. She doesn't even want to come back. She refused to come back here. Even after she heard you guys calling her to go back. I have to drag her out of there..." The three Alphas looked at Lilly with sad and shocked expressions. Their mate on their way to the afterlife, or in a waiting area before they walked further and entered the apparently wanted to end her life. "Unfortunately, this is something common happens to someone, if they are very tired with their current life. I suspect, she had very high expectations of giving up her own life. When she wakes up, you must guard her closely. If not... You know what I mean, right?" Myrna

When the beautiful witch had finished explaining. Alysa knocked on the door and came in carrying a bucket of warm water, some towels and a set of warm clothes.

"If this thing happens again. I won't try to summon her soul back, it will damage her soul,

"Okay then, I'll prepare a potion for Luna." She said with a smile.

Before she headed out of the room, Myrna once again stroke the dark leaf softly From Lilly's head to her toe. Miraculously, that treatment made Lilly's bruised skin appear lighter and her extremely pale skin looked like it gain some blood, pinkish than before.

"Can you do it again? She looks better after you did that." Finn asked her.

tense again when they realized that Alysa was still there.

"No, Alpha Finn. This leaf should not be used that often." Myrna smiled and left from there.

"Witch is weird but I'm glad she saves our mate." Finn said casually. But then they became

"Alpha. I need you to will help me clean up Luna, while I take note to check up any wounds on her body." Alysa said while preparing towels and other cloths. She didn't take her eyes off

She looks professional. But the three Alphas knew what was going on. The three of them, opened the blanket and take off the little cloth that covering Lilly's body would be very dangerous if she made any sudden moves.

"I will kill anyone that did this to her! Mother fucker!!" Declan clenched his fists hard. His Alysa didn't dare to move because she knew that these three Lycan men were angry and it

"They will suffer and beg for death, I'm sure of it." Luca's tone was low but very Finn fell silent. Everything he wanted to say had already been represented by his brothers.

Comments (2)

Besides that, he was too stammer to see what their mate had all over her skin.

intimidating.

gently. Alysa gasped and the three alphas immediately roared with fury.