

Chapter Twelve

Lina POV.

I am sitting in the car with Emma and Emily, music running but not too loud, while we are talking. Emma is telling us she needs to get some new shoes and her sister is looking at her as if she is crazy. Making me laugh.

"You should see her closet Lina, you would know why I look at her, I still don't know how Logan manages to have his stuff in there."

"Oh, hush. He has plenty of space. And he is a guy, so he doesn't need as much space as I do." We laugh at her. 1

We are pulling into the parking spot and getting out of the car. I have never been inside the mall. I mean I have seen it. But never been inside, as I never really had a reason to when I never had any money. 1

The girls and I walk inside, and I stop up stunned, it is huge, small stores everywhere and small stands where you can buy snacks and something to drink. The girls walk towards the first store with clothes. Outside it hangs some rags with jeans and jackets. The jeans look amazing, and I take a look at them when Emily comes over. 2

"They would look amazing on you Lina; you should try them on. We always go through the store find the stuff we like and then try them on before we buy it." She tells me and I nod my head. I am really happy to have these two girls with me.

I find a pair in my size and take them with me as we enter the store. Inside the store, I find more pants and some nice tops and shirts. When we are going to the dressing rooms I go in and first try on the jeans and a top that Emma found for me. I look at myself in the mirror. I look good, I have never had anything like this before.

"Are you okay Lina?" I hear Emma's voice.

"Mhmm," I answer

"Can I look?"

"Yes, that's okay."

Emma sticks her head inside and looks at me and gives me a big warm smile.

"You look amazing Lina; those jeans areas made for you. Wow." I blush from her words 2

"They do make me look good," I whisper

"Lina, you already look good. And you are the one making these jeans look amazing." I look at her but see nothing but the truth of her words in her eyes.

"You should get them. Maybe even in the other colors, they had too."

I smile at her and nod my head. Then she leaves telling me she will go get them in the other colors for me. I change back to my clothes. And step out seeing her come back with three more pairs of jeans.

"Isn't it too much?"

"No, not at all, and Alex will love seeing you in them. They gave you a really good ass." She winks at me, and I giggle. 1

We go to pay, and the sales lady gives me a look when I hand her Alex's credit card. But she doesn't say anything and runs the card, and we leave the store. 1

Chapter Twelve

Emma wants to go look at shoes, so we go to a shoe store, and while she looks around, I end up finding some new sneakers and a pair of black flats. Emma on the other hand ends up with several pairs of heels, boots, and also some sneakers. That girl is crazy with her shoes. But I don't care, she is my friend, and I am starting to love these two girls. 1

After paying for our shoes, we walk around looking at more stores and I end up buying 2 dresses a skirt, a new jacket, and some clothes to wear when doing training. Emma and Emily say that almost everyone trains every day, they don't think I need to, but I would love to learn how to defend myself. So, I decided I will at least join them in some of their training. When we are done, I have 4 bags stocked with clothes and shoes. 1

"I am hungry, we should go get some food before we drive back home," Emily says, and we agree. 1

I think all of us are pretty hungry. And we go to a food stand where we all get a pizza and something to drink. And go find a place to eat. I am not sure what it is, but I have had this feeling all day that something is going on with Emily. But she doesn't say anything. As we are eating, I see her glance over to the convenience store.

"Emily, do you need anything from there?" I ask her, so if she does, we can go before we go home. She looks at me and then breathes deeply.

"Actually. Yes, I think I do." She answers with a small voice

"What is it?" Emma asks. Emily looks like she can burst into tears

"I am late." 1

Chapter Twelve

"You think you're pregnant?" Emma looks at her sister and reaches over to hug her. And Emily nods her head.

"I am scared. My last heat was so intense. And we forgot protection half the time."

"Heat?" I ask

"Yes, She-wolves go into heat every third month, after she has been marked and mated. And doing that heat she can get pregnant."

Emma explains 2

"Oh, wow. We need to get you a test then Emily. Only then you can be sure." I tell her in a soft voice, and she nods her head.

"I just don't know if I can do it." She says about to cry.

I stand up and give her a big hug, and then I walk over to the store and go inside. When inside I go find the shelves with the pregnancy tests. There are 3 different ones, and I don't know which one is the best. So, I grab one of each and go to pay them. Going back to the girls I bump into someone when I am coming out of the store. Vicki looks at me with eyes that could kill.

"What are you doing here human." She sneers at me. I decide I don't want to fight with her, so I ignore her and walk towards the girls. But Vicki grabs my arm

"I talk to you Human." She almost spits in my face. 3

"Probably the same as you, this is after all the malls." I answer trying to pull my arm to me. But she won't let go and tightens her grip on me. 2

Chapter Twelve

"I want you to leave Alex the fuck alone. He is mine." She sneers.

"I don't decide what Alex want's or doesn't Vicki. But he wants me there. And I want to be with him. Now let me go." But Vicki is not letting go. Instead, I can feel her claws punching the skin under my shirt. 3

"Let her go, Vicki." Emma and Emily rushed over when they saw us. Vicki finally let go. But I can feel the blood spilling where her claws were. She turns around and leaves.

The girls hurry over to us and Emma checks my arm.

"Alex is going to be furious, he already warned her."

"It's okay, I am fine. Emily, here it is for you. Now let's just go home please." I ask the girls and they agree. We take our bags and head out to the car. And drive home. 1

Alex POV.

After Lina left, I found my boys and went down to the training arena and did a bit of combat training. As always none of them can beat me in a fair fight.

"Fuck. I think you broke my finger" Logan curses sending me a glare and I laugh at him knowing it will heal in a few hours.

"Stop being a pussy, you will heal soon."

"Fuck you, Alex." I shake my head at him knowing very well he only speaks that way because we are alone.

"Okay let's go you two against me." They get ready, but then my dad mind-link me.

"Alex, can you come to my office?"

"Sure dad, what's up"

"Just get here"

"Alright, was just training. Will I need to shower first?"

"No that's fine."

"Okay, but there in a minute."

"Guys I have to go. Dads need me at the office" I leave the arena and go towards the house. 1

When I enter my dad's office I see elder Jonas, elder Matthias, and elder Harold sitting waiting with my dad. I give them all a nod. 1

"Hello. What's up? Something wrong?" I look at my dad and can see the looking upset.

"The elders are unhappy with you." I look at them and dad confused, I haven't done anything that should make them unhappy.

"What gave I done, to earn that?" I look at the elders. And Elder Harold answer. 2

"Hopefully, not something, that can't be changed. "

"I don't understand, you need to explain."

"We have heard that you have found your mate."

"Yes, I have."

"And that she is a human."

"Again, yes, she is why."

"We can't have another human Luna." I look at them, then at dad who isn't happy with them right now. I turn back to them. 1

"I can't see why that would be a problem. Haven't you all loved my mom even she is a human?"

"Of course, we have but already with your mother, the alpha bloodline was weakened, there was never any guarantee that you would have had a wolf. And with your fated mate being human the bloodline will only become again weaker." Elder Harold looks at me.

I get mad, they have no right to come here, tell me who I can or can not be mated to.

Chapter Twelve

"Well, the Moon-goddess choose Lina to be my mate, and she wouldn't do that to hurt me."

"Even the Moon-goddess, can make mistakes." I stare at them.

"If you are do sure about that, then I am sure you also think you have a better idea.?"

"Matter fact yes, I already gave the Alpha the Idea."

"Oh yes, I heard about that idea of yours. And my answer is no. I will not make Vicki my mate or Luna."

"We can't have another weak Luna!" my father growls at his disrespect for my mother.

"And I won't make some she-wolf, which has slept with half the pack Luna. And Lina is my mate. And you or anyone else can not decide if I should reject her, and no I WILL NOT Reject Lina. So, you will just have to live with the fact that she is me mate and this packs rightful future Luna." I look at them all. Who are they to come here to try bossing me around?

"What if your future kids won't have a wolf. Then your Alpha bloodline will become nothing."

"If my future kids don't have a wolf, then let be it. My Beta is mated a strong she-wolf coming from an alpha. I am sure if I can't give you a future Alpha, they can."

"So, you will just give it all to your Beta?"

Chapter Twelve

"If I can't give you a future Alpha, then yes. I would. Because there isn't anything or anyone who will make me reject my mate." I look at my dad. He looks back with pride in his eyes. He stands up and speaks. 1

"I think that should clear up everything, no matter what, we will have a strong Alpha. And I stand by my sons' choice and support the fact that he chooses his mate."

"But Alpha."

"Enough, elder Harold. We listened to your concerns and Alex answered them. Now accept it." My dad is angry now.

The elders bare their necks and bow to my dad. Then gets up and leaves the office. I look at my dad. 1

"Dad, I'm sorry, I."

"Alex. You have nothing to be sorry about. I am very proud of you. You showed today that you won't let the elders use you as they please. And you do right by being a good mate to Lina."

"Thanks, dad."
