

Chapter fifteen

Lina POV.

"What do you mean Alpha William."

I call him Alpha because I want to be respectful, but at the same time, I want some answers. I just found out my parents were werewolves and he says I am too, even though I have no sign for it.

"Lina, your mother was very, very special, or should I say her wolf was special. In her bloodline, every generation's firstborn girl was gifted with a rare and very special wolf. Your mother was the first one in 5 generations, not one girl was born until your mom. And then she had you."

I look at him not knowing what to say or ask. Luckily it seems he understands.

"Your mother's wolf was a pure white wolf, a blessed wolf from the moon-goddess. These wolves were hunted down by other wolves, that wanted to possess the power that come from a pure white. What powers it was, was different. Some could heal, some control one or more elements, some simply just was stronger than any wolf even alphas." 4

I take a deep breath.

"Some believe drinking the blood from a pure white will give you access to its powers. Your mother had powers to control air and water. The old Alpha, was happy when your mom found Derrick. Not only did they agree to stay. But his son would get a Beta. But he didn't see the jealousy flaming in his son. He wanted Abby for himself. But she refused him and was already marked and mated with Derrick. About a year later she got pregnant, and Dr. told it was a girl." The new Alpha became cold and cruel. He would send Derrick away for many weeks to do different stuff for the pack. And when he was gone try court to your mom. But she never fell for it. And was angry with him, because of him your dad wasn't there when you were born. As any pure white all your wolf abilities were not to be sensed. It is a way to protect the child and the wolf." 5

I look at him with tears in my eyes.

"Do you know what happened to my parents?" William takes a deep breath.

"I am almost 100 percent sure that the alpha killed them. I received a call from Derrick, asking for help. The alpha was getting crueler and crueler to the extent he killed his mate because he still wanted Abby. And started making treats to take you from them and have you live in his house. I told them to come here, that they would be safe and your dad said they would leave the same day. They never made it here. Some of our warriors found them slaughtered and there was no sign of you. I do not know how you managed to get away, only being 3 tears old. We searched for weeks, spies told us you weren't in your old pack. Eventually, we gave up." 8

I don't know what to say. But tears are running down. Alex turn my head, I can see how badly he wished he could help me. I am sad and so confused. He locks me into his arms holding me. I look up at him. 1

"Look like I am a wolf after all. And not a simple human." 1

"I don't care if your a wolf or human babygirl. You're my mate. He'll I don't even care snout the fact you probably are this rare wolf. All I care about is you your happiness with me and your safety." 3

I smile at him then look at William.

"Do you know when my wolf will come? Will my senses change?"

"I know your mother shifted and connected with her wolf the day she turned 18."

"So I am a she-wolf hidden as a human in every way until I turn 18."

"From what I know yes."

"It's a lot to take in." A waterfall of emotions is running through me. I don't know what to say, think, or feel right now. 2

I am so lost in my thoughts that I don't notice Alpha William and Elizabeth leave the room. The next thing I feel is Alex's hands on my face. 1

Alex POV.

I look at Lina, my mate, my beautiful little mate. My beautiful, rare and special little mate. I am stunned by that's story. I always knew there was something special about her, but never thought it would be something like this. I never really give much thought to the fact she feel the sparks, didn't know humans can't but then again, all the wolves here with a human mate, marked them and made it possible for them. I sink on my knees in front of her, but she doesn't look up. I grab her face turning it and a flood of emotions in her beautiful eyes. A tear forms in them. 4

"Lina, please don't cry, please baby."

I bring her lips to mine and kiss her softly. I think she's in shock and she responds to the kiss right away, but then she throws herself at me, kissing me back as if her life depends on it. I hold on to her as she sits on my lap. She hides her face in my neck, feeling her breathe against my skin is making me hard, but I ignore it.

"Babygirl, I know this is a lot to take in. But we will get through it all together."

"I don't know what I am supposed to think anymore."

"This might sound wrong, but Lina be happy. I always knew you were special, didn't think it was anything like this. But you know more about yourself now. And you are not alone. We will all be here for you."

"I am so sorry Alex, I seem to just bring more trouble into your life."

"You mean because you most likely are a pure white? I don't care about that baby. I wanted you when I thought you were just a human. This changes nothing for me, other than I need more than ever to be sure you are safe."

I look into her eyes, I want her to understand this, I don't care if she is Human or a pure white and a blessed wolf. I just want her, no I need her, she is my life.

"Only thing I ask is we don't share this just anyone, that including the pack. I trust my pack, but there will always will someone who wants to take you from me if too many people know." She nodded her head 3

"I want Logan, Mike, and the girls to know though." She says

"Yes. Me too, and we can trust them. come beautiful we need sleep, we have a busy day tomorrow."

She nods her head again and I hold her standing up from the floor,
