

Chapter Seventeen

Alex POV.

Lina and I finally said the official words that tell we accepted each other; it was such a rush when the power of the matebond grew stronger. I can't wait to feel it when we complete it with the marking and mating.

Right now, we are walking out from the forest its beginning to get dark, I spot Logan, Mike, and the girls. I look at Lina.

"Do you want to tell them now?"

"Okay. But not out here." We walk over to them, and the girls' hug Lina.

"Hey, we were looking for you two. Want to hang out?" Lina and I look at each other.

"Yea, which sounds awesome what about the beach?"

"The water is too cold." Emma says looking at me.

"Didn't mean to go in the water, actually we want to tell you something." They all look at us. And then agree to go.

We drive to the beach in two cars. Girls in one boy in the other. Getting there first we boys have found some wood making a small fire, so the girls won't freeze. We all sit down and relax.

"So, Mike and I have news." We look at them.

"I am pregnant." Emily says smiling.

Lina and Emma hug her.

"Wow, congratulations." Lina says with a big smile.

"That is awesome guys. The next gamma in line."

"Yep, now rest of you get going" Mike jokes and we all laugh. I look at Lina and nod my head.

"Soo, I have news too, and no I am not pregnant." She looks nervous

"Whatever it is Lina, you can tell us. We are your family. And we will always be there for you and each other." Logan tells her. And they all agree.

"I am not human." She says making them all look confused.

"If you are not human, then what?" Emma asks softly.

"I found out last night both my parents are wolves. My dad comes from this pack."

They looked shocked, and we tell them all we have found out. After we are done the girls hurry to hug Lina.

"Wow, that's big!" Logan looks at her

"And a lot to take in at once, are you okay Lina?" he continues all of them nod their heads

"Yes, it is a lot, but I am okay. I feel I am where I am supposed to be. That I found my home." Those words make me happy.

"And you have and thank you for trusting us with this." Lina smiles at Emma's words.

"Alex and I agreed to tell you 4 everything." She says looking at them

"That's good, now we can all help to keep you safe. It's one hell of a Luna we are going to have. Don't hope she can control the weather. And could sap our ass if we annoy her." Mike looks at us. 1

I laugh at him, Mike has no filter, and always says things as he sees them. That's why I am happy he is my gamma.

"I wouldn't do that." Lina laughs.

With all the news out we all just sit talking and relax listening to the sea and the burning wood. Emma turned on some music on the phone, after a while, we get up to drive home.

Lina POV.

It went a lot better than I hoped for. They all took the news in a good way. And I do feel like I have finally found my home. We switched cars on the way home so I and Alex is driving in his car and the others in Emma's. 2

"That went well."

"I told you it would, they love you, Lina." I smile at him. I don't expect those words to come out of Alex's mouth.

"And so do I." I look at him.

And then I blush. Do I love Alex? I honestly didn't think much about it, with everything happening. But I think I do. I don't know much about love. I never had any of that. But I do know that I am happy with him, he makes me feel safe, makes me laugh, and feels things I never thought would be possible. And I trust him, I trust him so much with my heart, mind and, more surprising, my body.

We drive to park in the garage and go up to Alex's room. He put his arms around me and look into my eyes, kiss me, and smile.

"You want to sleep here? Or your room."

"Here if you don't mind, it keeps the nightmares away."

"You can always sleep here, I look forward to all this our room instead of mine, so you never have to ask." I look at him

"You mean that?"

"Yes Babygirl, you're my girl, my beautiful mate. And you make me smile and happy. When I think about my future, I see you and our pups. I love you, Lina, so much."

I look at him feeling my eyes get wet, not from sadness but happiness. I throw my arms around his neck and jump up and lock my legs around him and kiss him deeply.

"I love you too Alex. I guess I should move my stuff in tomorrow then." He smiles big.

"I will get someone to do it."

I smile.

Alex POV.

She loves me. And after everything, she chooses to trust me. Tomorrow is Monday and school day. I had my classes changed. So now I will be with Lina all day through except for one class music class. But that's okay I have that period free so I will just be near her class so I can be there if she needs it.

I look at my little mate standing here in my arms, I bow down and kiss her.

"Ready for school tomorrow?" She shakes her head.

"I am scared." And I can feel it.

"I will be there in every class baby. And if not very close by. So, all you would need to do is say my name. I will keep you safe baby."

Looking relieved she stretch up and kiss me. I drop my hands to her ass and lift her and sit down with her straddling me. Sitting there I kiss her deeply traveling my lips to get ear and neck.

"I am so looking forward to having my mark sitting on your neck." She looks at me.

"How does that work." She asks me and I remember she doesn't know.

"I will Bite deep into this soft spot. And it will give you, my mark. But there's more to it. Wolves prefer to mark their mate while pleasuring each other. That way it hurts less. Also marking you, the matebond will snap into in place. And you will go into heat after a month or two."

"Oh."

"Don't worry beautiful. We are in no rush. And also, I think maybe waiting until you turn eighteen and shifts. Then when you ready we mark each other, together." She smiles.

"So, I will mark you too?" I nod my head.

"That's a relief, was going to say it sounded a bit like being a control freak." I laugh.

"I guess in some way it is. Everyone will know you belong to me. And that I belong to you. Plus, we will be able to mindlink."

She nods her beautiful head and kisses me. I stand up from the couch and walk over to the bed laying her down on it, not breaking our kiss I am resting on my arms, so I don't crush her. Looking into her blue eyes.

"You are so beautiful Lina." She blushes and tries to hide her face, but I hold her.

"Don't hide baby," I kiss her again for a little while before letting go and laying down next to her. She looks at me and I open my arms so she can snuggle into me. Laying her head on my chest I feel her breathing slow down.

"Goodnight babygirl"

"Goodnight" and we fall asleep.
