*Chapter contains sexual episode*

Lina POV

When I wake up to the sun shining through the windows, I remember it's Monday. I am nervous about going to school, I know Ken and the football players will be there. But I also know I won't be alone; I will have Alex and our friends.

I turn around and look at Alex, who is still sleeping. I let a finger softly run over his face, thinking I am lucky that he found me and that he wants me and didn't reject me. His eyelids start fluttering and he opens his gray eyes looking at me and smiles at me.

"Morning baby. Did you sleep well?" I nod my head.

"I did, I am just nervous for today, going to school."

"I know and I wish I could say it will be easy, but I can't. I can only promise you won't be left alone. At any time" I smile at him and kiss him

"Thank you, Alex. My stuff is still in the other room so I will go shower and get dressed."

"Okay baby, see you in a few come back here when you done." 1

"Okay." I kiss him Fast and hurry to get into my room.

After showering I go pick out some dark blue jeans, a beige long-sleeved shirt, and my new sneakers. Looking in the mirror I decide to braid my long hair today. And let the braid fall over one of my shoulders. I add a little mascara and lip-gloss, take my backpack and go to Alex's room. In the hall, I can see his door slightly open and can hear him talk to a female.

"Why do you want her Alex. Even the elders think you and I should be mates. Can't you see we would be perfect."

"Vicki, you need to stop your bullshit, Lina is my fated mate. Even if she hadn't been I would never choose you. To be completely honest. Even if Lina hadn't been me fated me, I would probably have fallen in love with her. She is special, has a heart gold, is caring, warm, funny and so amazing. Where you, you are greedy cruel and power-hungry. If you for some stupid reason had been me, fated mate, I would have rejected you."

"You don't mean that."

"Yes, I do. I wouldn't make a pack-whore my Luna."

It gets silent and then I hear footsteps and Vicki comes rushing out pissed off. Looking at me and before I can react, she tries to attack me. However, I had not seen Logan and Emma coming up to this floor before I hear Emma gasp and Logan catch Vicki's hand mid-air.

"Don't fucking try to attack our Luna."

Alex comes rushing out of his room and sees us. Takes my face in his hands to make sure I am okay before he turns to Vicki.

"Put her in the dungeon. I am done with this bullshit; you attacked your future Luna."

Logan holds on to Vicki hard and drags her away. Emma hurries over to me.

"Are you okay Lina?" I nod my head and she hugs me. I Look at Alex and see he looks sad and does not want to look at me.

"Yes, I am fine she didn't even touch me."

"Good, I will give you two a moment. Do you drive to school yourself, or want us to wait?"

"You guys just go; Lina and I will take my car," Alex says not looking at me. Emma nods and leaves us standing in the hall. Alex is still looking at the floor making me nervous.

"Lina. I am sorry. I should have." I cut him off kissing him

"Stop Alex, it's not your fault. And I am fine." I walk past him into his room, and he follows.

"I should have been to one stopping her." 1

"Alex please, you can't always be there this is not your fault." He looks at me 1

"But I should be. It feels like I failed you again."

"What you mean again?" 1

"I should have been there Lina. I shouldn't have let you leave me in the forest that morning. If I hadn't or if I at least had followed you, Ken would never have been able to grab." I cut him off. I kiss him long and softly. I had the feeling he somehow blamed himself.

After a little, he kisses me back hungrier and harder, as was he starving and only the kiss would be able to fill him. I kissed him back feel his hands come under my shirt pushing it up. I know we should be leaving for school. But right now, we needed this. Before I knew it, he had pushed my shirt up so he could see my bra, and his eyes flickered black for a second. His hands fell to my ass, lifting me walking to the couch, now straddling him he fast pulled my shirt off over my head. 1

"You're so beautiful." He breathes out in a deep husky voice.

Without waiting for me to reply he kisses me hard, cupping my breasts in each hand. He kisses my jaw down to my neck sucking on it and I let out a moan. He slowly reaches behind me opens my bra and removes it. His hands back on my breast he starts teasing and rolling my nipples between his fingers and I moan again. He surprises me when he holds on to me shifting us, so I lay under him, still kissing my neck. He kisses my collarbone and leaves small kisses all down until he takes one of the nipples in his mouth, sucking it and playing with his tongue. I moan harder and he shifts to the other nipple doing the same. 2

It feels so good I hope he won't stop, I'm trying to clench my thighs, to ignore the feeling of need, when Alex kisses me down over my stomach as he opens my jeans. Then kissed his up to my mouth.

"I can smell you, baby." I blush and try to hide my head, but he won't let me.

"Don't hide from me." His lips crash down on mine hard and kiss me tasting my lips with his tongue, I grant him access to my mouth. Tasting his tongue playing with it.

He let a hand slip down my now opened jeans between them and my panties his fingers run over me, feeling his fingers tease my clit through the thin fabric, making me moan louder.

"Goddess you are soaked baby."

His fingers play is harder and rougher, and I feel my muscles tighten. I have never had this; my only experiences have been pain. I moan harder.

"Alex please."

I can't find the words I want to tell him. But it seems like he knows as he plays harder and faster with my clit still with my panties in-between. I moan feeling as if my body is going to fall apart. Alex socks and kisses my neck and whispers. 1

"Cum for me baby." It's all I need to be thrown over the edge, as I let go of my release and moan harder than ever.

Alex POV.

My mate is so beautiful, her eyes are dark blue from lust and need. 1

"Cum for me baby."

I whisper against her neck, giving her clit a rough flick with my fingers. Sending her over the edge as her climax rush over her. Fuck I think to myself I am so hard right now just the sound of her and the delicious smell almost have me find my release inside my pants.

She starts to relax, and I softly remove my hand. She is taking deep breathes and has her eyes closed. I kiss her softly and she looks at me then blushes. Again, thinking that she is the most beautiful girl I have ever seen. She has a hard time keeping her eyes open. I stand up to carry her to the bathroom where I push her jeans and panties down. Reaching into the dower opening it making sure it's perfect before I carry her in under the water. I still wear my head, but I don't care. Right now, Lina is more important. I can see that she is almost sleeping so I wash her body carry her out and dry her up. She leans into me, and I hold her tight. 2

"What about you?" she asks half asleep.

"Don't worry about me, baby. Just rest." I carry her into bed and tug her in before going back to the bathroom.

I drop my wet jeans and step in under the shower. My hard length hurt against the jeans so letting it out is a big relief. Standing under the water I think about my beautiful mate and what just happened, I grab my hard throbbled cock and start taking care of myself. With Lina in my head, it doesn't take long before I come hard hitting the wall with my thick load. 1

I cleaned the wall dried up and went inside the bedroom seeing my beautiful mate sleeping peacefully. I go find a clean pair of boxers and go lay down pulling her into me and fall asleep smiling. 6
