

Chapter Twenty

Lina POV.

We are driving into the parking lot at school. And I don't feel like I want to get out of the car. I see everyone heading for the big front doors. I breathe heavily, this place is my own personal hell.

"Everything will be okay beautiful." It's like the hundreds of times Alex tells me that. I nod my head. 1

"Let's just go in and get this over with." I sound a lot more confident than I feel.

We meet with the others and walk inside. People look at us when we enter and walk towards the lockers. We reach mine first and the girls give me a big hug before they go off to get their stuff for the first period. The boys leave too and it's just me and Alex. Some girls walk past us, sending Alex 'kiss me' eyes, he doesn't notice, or if he does he ignore them. 1

Just as I close my locker, Ken and his football friends enter the school. I hide behind Alex when they walk by. I start to panic. 1

"I can't do this." I start to hyperventilate, and I start seeing black dots in front of my eyes.

Alex grabs my hand and drags me into an empty room. He holds on to me.

"He won't touch you Lina I promise."

"I know, but every time I see him, I will remember everything."

"Tell me what I can do baby, and I will."

I don't answer right away but then remember.

"Alex, I advanced last year to end school early and get my diploma. But my foster parents wouldn't let me."

"You are saying that you are here, without you need to be?" I nod my head. Alex seems shocked. 1

"It really shouldn't surprise me because you are just amazing. Baby, we can look into it. And if it's still on record, then we do it. I am sure mom or your grandparents wouldn't mind more time with you, while the others and I finished this year."

"You mean that?" I look at him.

"Of Course I do. It will be better for you."

I look at him, his eyes showing surprise but most of all pride. I don't remember ever seeing or feeling anyone being proud of me. It's a strange but good feeling.

"My mate and future Luna are amazing." I blush and he kisses me as the bell calling for class to start goes off

"Let's get through this day babygirl, after this, you never have to come back. I promise."

"Okay. Just don't leave me alone."

"Never babygirl, never."

We go to the first class which is English, when we enter the classroom a lot of eyes follow us when we go to sit in the back, and Alex pushes over tabled in to join. I hear Alex come with a low growl, and all the wolves stop staring, except for the 2 she-wolves that always follow Vicki around. They look at Alex with lust in their eyes, and at me with a deadly glare. Alex ignores them so I choose to do the same. Throughout the class Alex never let go of my hand he was holding under the table.

Alex POV.

Lina is just amazing. I had no idea she had advanced to finish school a year earlier, but her foster parents had forced her to take this year too. I am going to make sure she won't have to come back to her hell again. Having already mind linked the principal. To have him find her papers.

Am holding her shaking hand doing the entire class and can feel her fear. I meant what I said. I won't leave her alone. Bell rings and first class ends. We go get ready for the next class when Logan comes up to us, smiling but I can tell something isn't right. 1

"Alex, you need to really, don't leave her side today." He says through the mindlink. I look at him

"Wasn't planning to, but what's going on."

"That asshole Ken is planning to get revenge. And trust me when I say. That what he did in the past was nothing to what he talked about." Logan looks pissed.

"And I couldn't do shit, the teacher was a human."

"It's fine, he won't get to her. And after today she won't come back here." I quickly tell him about Lina could have finished last year.

"Wow, she is a smart girl, she is going to be an amazing Luna."

"Damn right she will." We end the link seeing Lina looking at us with an amused smirk.

"Don't mind me boys, but I don't think the teachers will be happy if we are late." I hadn't realized the bell rang again.

Lina and I hurry to the next class stopping outside the room seeing the teacher isn't there, yet we go in. Lina tenses when we walk in, and I see Ken and two more from the football team. One of them was one of the guys I beat up. They have placed sit down so there is no empty table other than two placed on each side of Ken. 2

I look at the asshole and see him smirk and the creep getting aroused by seeing Lina scared. I look at the third football player and know he is a packmember, I mindlink him.

"Move, got sit between your friends." He looks at me, then Lina, and last Ken, who now is staring at Lina.

"I Said. Move. And you better damn hope you never have touched my mate." He feels my Alpha command and scramble to move himself and his stuff.

"Sorry Alpha, And I never touched her." He replies.

I push the now two empty tables together, and we sit down, me between Lina and Ken. I can feel the anger rolling from him, but ignore him, instead, I lead in and give Lina a soft kiss. I felt her relax next to me. At some point, a note falls on my table. 1

~ Why do you want a used toy, o so big Alpha. She is nothing but a little whore. You can't protect her forever. ~ 1

I ignore him, and I am fighting to hold Hunter back, he wants to see the guy's blood. When another note falls on my table, I see it being directed to Lina.

~ Hide all you want bitch; I will get you back my little whore. The big bad Alpha will get tired of you eventually. ~ I have had enough. I look at Lina and I know she saw the notes. She has tears in her eyes, making me fuck livid. I need to get her out of here.

I stand up still holding her hand and walk towards the door and leave. I don't care that the teacher is calling. I mind-link Logan.

"Lina and I will go see the principal now, and I take her home, I need to get her out of here before I kill someone."

"Okay, Alpha I will be there soon. Lina is family and my future Luna, it's part of my job to keep her safe.

"Wait by my car" I reply and close the link as we are walking into the principal's office.

Lina POV.

Alex had dragged me to see the principal, and now we were going to leave the school. We walked outside seeing Logan standing by Alex's car. Alex unlocks it and motions for us to get in. Logan sitting in the back. Alex hand over our bags, and my diploma.

"My beautiful Mate is fucking awesome, straight A+ except for one A."

"Damn Lina, who is awesome, our future Luna is a genius." Logan says sounding amazed. I feel a blush creep up on my face.

"Stop guys. Please." They laugh and I roll my eyes.

"What snout Mike and the girls," I ask

"I mind linked Emma and Mike. He wanted to come too but told him to stay with the girls. Especially with Emily pregnant." I nod my head. I am happy he is there to protect them.

We drive up the front of the packhouse and get it before Logan sits back in to drive the car into the garage. Alex and I enter the house. 1

"I need to go talk with my dad, but you go up and I will have Mary send some food up to you. Maybe go relax in the tub. When I am done, we can go for a walk or anything you like." Alex tells me I nod my head.

"Okay, I will. Thank you, Alex." He kisses me softly and caresses my cheek.

I know something is bothering him. I also saw Ken give him notes but didn't see what they said. I go upstairs and into our room.
