

Alpha's curvy bullied human mate

Chapter 115: Our Ceremony

Nathaniel

As much as a wolf thinks about his ceremony... no one had prepared me for this moment. I thought finding my true mate would be...impossible.

I admit, there were days when I thought it would be any girl who came from a good pack... and that is.

But now... I couldn't imagine any other woman in her place. Penelope walked, holding her father's arm, who was glowing with pride.

His daughter was not only beautiful and the Luna of the pack after all she had been through... but she was loved, truly loved. Everyone in the pack already knew what had happened, and few dared to say anything negative about her.

And whoever did... would have to deal with me and Hunter.

"I told them she was going to take his breath away," I heard my mother and grandmother mutter behind me.

The big Alpha of the midnight pack, the most powerful in the region, had made a fool of himself in front of the whole pack, looking at his mate.

And frankly, I didn't care. My Luna looked beautiful, and I would kneel before her right now if it weren't for the fact that I wanted the ceremony to end.

I had a surprise for her... and then I would enjoy with her what humans call a "honeymoon," which in the case of wolves was the mating after the ceremony. And I swear, if it were up to me, we wouldn't leave our room for days.

The moment was truly special, and since she showed up, it was clear that this ceremony was not going to be normal; it was not going to be just any ceremony. I could see that white light in her, as well as the power coming out practically from the center of the area. It was a truly magical moment.

"Michael..." I say when I have them in front of me.

"She will always be my little girl...but even a father who loves his daughter madly knows that her time has come. That my little girl is a wonderful, independent woman. And you... Nate had hard times, but today... I am proud to call you not only Alpha, but... son if you want," he says, and his words hit me. Penelope smiled sweetly at me.

"It will be a blessing for our families to be united. And I will take care of Penelope with everything I have, Father," I say, and he smiles at me. He holds out his hand to me, and up close, she looks even more magnificent.

"My mate..." I kiss her knuckles. I was truly a very lucky man. Suddenly, my grandmother cleared her throat and began the ceremony.

"Today, we celebrate the union of our great Alpha with our magnificent Luna. Penelope has always belonged to our world and Moonstone. She protected us, cared for us, and came here to give her human life for her Alpha and her pack. That is the duty of a Luna. It is the ultimate gift the Goddess has given us," my grandmother says, smiling at us.

If you are not reading this book from the website: novel5s.com then you are reading a pirated version with incomplete content. Please visit novel5s.com and search the book title to read the entire book for free

I looked at everyone; Asher was with me: my warriors, my beta, Jeremiah, the twins, and my family. I missed my father, but the good man who gave me advice, not the one who thought only of power, no matter how it was obtained.

I also watched those who had once laughed at my mate; I kept an eye on them, not forgetting the meeting where they had mistreated her.

And here they were, bowing as she passed, as they should. Many had died in the rebellion, but a wolf did not forget those who had hurt his mate.

"Here today, in front of you all, Moonstone will be stronger than ever, for it will have an Alpha and a Luna, true mates. More triumphs will come, more destined matings, more blessings from the Goddess," she says, handing me a small knife.

"I, Nathaniel, Alpha of Moonstone, accept you, Penelope, as my Luna, my only Luna, for the rest of my days. I will protect you, love you, care for you, and worship you as you deserve. I have waited for you for so long, and I don't want to waste a day away from you," I say, looking at her excitedly.

I make a small cut on my palm and then a very small one on hers. And as I hold our hands together, she says.

"I, Penelope, accept to be your Luna and Moonstone's Moon. I accept you, Nathaniel, as my Alpha and mate. I will protect you, I will love and care for you. I will also fight and protect Moonstone, as my home and my house, as my true family, for the rest of my days," she says smiling, and as we clasp hands and our blood mixes, I feel our power.

The feeling intensifies, and I see everyone kneeling. It feels like a tremor, a strong breeze that indicates power, strength and as if the Moon goddess is here. We hear howling in the distance, murmuring, the wind through the trees. The moment is incredible and everyone is stunned.

Not only in the pack and in the forest but also in other packs, it is as if everyone is waking up and knowing that there is a new Luna. That there is a new couple full of power and that they must be vigilant.

"Nathaniel... I can hear everyone," she says, smiling, and I speak to her through my mind.

"Can you hear me?" I ask, and she smiles.

"I can hear you!" she replies and I kiss her passionately, not caring about anything or anyone, just this beautiful woman who now belongs to me forever.

"I love you, I tell you, and I will tell you a thousand times," I tell her, and she giggles.

"Now... I think we have new members for Moonstone. It will be the first action of our new Luna," my grandmother says, smiling.

Just a heads up: novel5s.com is the only place to read the complete version of this book for free. Don't miss out on the next chapter—visit us now and continue your journey!

Cornelia and Daniel's rogues pass by one, along with their mates, humans, and wolves. They were rogues; now they are Moonstone's members.

"Friends... you have fought for us, and we have all been through many hardships. But the pack grows with the challenges and its strong members," she says, and I see the excitement on their faces.

"Welcome to Moonstone... your home," I say, and applause breaks out.

We received congratulations and hugs from everyone at the end of the ceremony. Penelope was so close to everyone. The alphas were always on some kind of pedestal, but with her, it was different. I loved all that we could be, all that we could change for the better.

Everyone was dancing and singing, and I just wanted to dance with her; I wanted to make her spin in the middle of the room while she was barefoot.

I wanted to make her laugh, hug her, touch her, and kiss her, and I wanted to take her to my bed as soon as possible.

"You look so beautiful...I can't stop looking at you," I whisper to her.

"My Alpha looks like a model, better than a model..."

"It's time," Michael said to me, and I took her outside. Slowly, women and men turned into wolves and went into the woods like chasing the moon. The humans stayed to dance, and Jeremiah smiled at us.

"Hunter! Oh, Hunter!" she says contentedly when my wolf takes control. She strokes his fur, and he nuzzles her neck.

"You are so beautiful, my Wolfie...I have missed you so much," she says to him.

"Come with me...let's go with the pack," I say to her through the mind link.

"But how?" she asked.

"Come...get on my back," she looked hesitant, but Hunter practically made her climb on his back.

She was nervous, but then she saw that she was comfortable; my wolf was big, he could handle her, and more. Hunter was almost purring with happiness.

Just a heads up: novel5s.com is the only place to read the complete version of this book for free. Don't miss out on the next chapter—visit us now and continue your journey!

"And now?" she asked.

"You said you wanted to know what it was like to have a wolf, to feel the air in your face, to feel the speed and the forest," I said, feeling her excitement.

As we started to move forward, she held on tight, and I could hear her heart racing.

"We're not going to let you fall, my sweet mate..." I told her. Hunter slowly picked up speed as she held on, and slowly, I felt her relax.

"Oh, this is wonderful!" he heard her say happily as Hunter trotted through the woods, feeling the cool breeze passing through the darkness fast and steady.

When they came to a clearing in the forest where the wolves were gathering, she was amazed.

"Is so beautiful!" she said contentedly as she watched all the wolves howling near a small pond.

The moon looked huge, and we all began to howl. She sat next to Hunter, lying on his fur as we watched the night in the heart of the forest.

"Thank you...thank you, my Wolfie," Penelope says lovingly.

"Now we are together as a pack; you are one of the pack now," I tell her, and all the wolves look at her.

She stands up and walks like a little fairy among the wolves, with her light dress, barefoot, her hair loose, shining in the moonlight.

She couldn't be more beautiful than tonight; she was the closest thing to a goddess I've ever seen in my life.

When dawn broke, Hunter took her back to the pack and brought her to our room.

She is waiting for me inside, and when I enter in my human form, covered in dirt and completely naked, I see her... I growl.

I want her so badly that I feel like I'll die right here if I'm not with her.