Lily's POV

For weeks I had been waiting for this day to arrive and as I stared at my reflection in the mirror, I had a bright smile that reached my eyes. I remembered the first day I was heading to Shadow cove academy. There had been no smile, no optimism, just hope that I would be able to finish high school so that I could leave Shadow cove all together with my mother but today, all I can think about is how grateful I am to be alive, to have my loved ones with me and to be able to attend the end of the school year dance ball.

Between Zac holding me from beating up Cade to the chaotic thoughts that filled my mind after his words, followed by the immense insecurity that perhaps Cade was right and that one day, Lily would leave me, I went for a walk.

By the time I returned, I made a beeline straight for Lily's room and when I entered, I paused to take in the sight of her sleeping peacefully on the bed, cuddled up in Ren's arms who was also looking like he was falling asleep, her back to his front and the jealous rage subsided.

It pained me royally to admit it but Ren and his family were probably the best in this hospitality thing. It was no wonder their hotel was the most patronized in the realm and as I looked at my reflection in the mirror, in the penthouse living room that the boys and I had decided to prepare for the dance and adjusted my tie, I wondered how I might have turned out without my friends.

I would have probably been ensnared into Victor's delusions of grandeur and might have been his lapdog, eager to prove myself and not lose the only family I had left. By the time I returned, I made a beeline straight for Lily's room and when I entered, I paused to take in the sight of her sleeping peacefully on the bed, cuddled up in Ren's arms who was also looking like he was falling asleep, her back to his front and the jealous rage subsided.

It pained me royally to admit it but Ren and his family were probably the best in this hospitality thing. It was no wonder their hotel was the most patronized in the realm and as I looked at my reflection in the mirror, in the penthouse living room that the boys and I had decided to prepare for the dance and adjusted my tie, I wondered how I might have turned out without my friends.

I would have probably been ensnared into Victor's delusions of grandeur and might have been his lapdog, eager to prove myself and not lose the only family I had left. Thanks to Ren and Zac and now Cade, I would never have to

It pained me royally to admit it but Ren and his family were probably the best in this hospitality thing. It was no wonder their hotel was the most patronized in the realm and as I looked at my reflection in the mirror, in the penthouse living room that the boys and I had decided to prepare for the dance and adjusted my tie, I wondered how I might have turned out without my friends.

It pained me royally to admit it but Ren and his family were probably the best in this hospitality thing. It was no wonder their hotel was the most patronized in the realm and as I looked at my reflection in the mirror, in the penthouse living room that the boys and I had decided to prepare for the dance and adjusted my tie, I wondered how I might have turned out without my friends.

I would have probably been ensnared into Victor's delusions of grandeur and might have been his lapdog, eager to prove myself and not lose the only family I had left. Thanks to Ren and Zac and now Cade, I would never have to wonder about what it meant to have a family. They were my brothers and it was more than enough.
