

Bumpkin 26

Chapter 26

"Oh, who do we have here? What's a delivery girl doing here? The food is scattered all over the floor, and it smells pungent."

"It's Young Master Matthew and Miss Larson's wedding today. Didn't they already book the whole place? Why did someone order for a food delivery?"

"Who knows? Is she trying to sneak in?"

"Where's the security? Throw out this person quickly."

The wealthy people and celebrities who passed by Veronica gave her a look of disdain, criticizing and ridiculing her, and someone even called the security to throw her out.

When two security guards came over, they saw the delivery vest she was wearing and noticed how out of place she seemed, so they grabbed her by her shirt. "Get out quickly. This place is booked."

However, Veronica shook off the security guard's hand. "Let go!"

Right now, she was furious. If she wasn't pregnant, she wouldn't feel a thing to see Tiffany and Matthew getting married because it had nothing to do with her.

But now, she was already pregnant for more than two months, and Matthew had made a deal with her four days ago-if she gave birth to the child, he would help her adoptive father with his surgery and find out the truth behind the car accident.

That was why she agreed to keep the baby.

Who would have expected things to take a turn so quickly!

Veronica could almost imagine the scene after the child was born-she would be chased away, and her own child would be calling Tiffany Mom'.

Mom?! Ha, how ironic! she thought.

"Miss, I'm warning you now. Get out of here quickly, or else don't blame me for being rude," the security guard warned, pointing a finger at Veronica.
