Alpha Talon’s P.O.V.

One after the other leaves the dining room and as soon as it is just Roger, Alena and myself, I get up to lock both doors to the room.

“Talon, why are you locking the doors? No one will come in here.” She asks and Roger answers her “It is to make sure you cannot run off, Bitch.” She looks from Roger to me and I can tell that she has not realized yet what she has done.

“Alena, what were our plans in regards to Tali?” I ask and after I walk over to her, I sit down next to her. Her eyes widen, her mouth opens and I know that reality sunk in.

I put a hand on her knee as Roger gets up out of his seat. She is still looking at me as he makes his way around the table and by the time she figures out that he is coming for her, it is too late.

He grabs her hair and slams her face in to the table, she screams as he pulls her up by her hair. I don’t move, I just let him take his rage out on her. I see the door slowly open and Ayden is peaking in.

I gesture for him to be quiet and come in to the room. Ayden is a lot like me, but he is still young and doesn’t have the experience Roger and I have.

He sits down next to me as Roger picks up Alena after he had thrown her against the wall. Through the mind-link he asks me what she did to piss off Alpha Roger.

I tell him that I had promised Tali to Alpha Roger and he whistles in the link, then I explain that with Alena accusing her in front of the Pack it all went to hell.

His face pales as he listens to me and that is when he tells me that he actually put that idea in to Alena’s head. “Father, if I had known about the plan, I would have broken them up. I would have gotten Alena away from her.” He states and I know that he would have.

That is when we hear Alena tell Roger that Ayden told her to accuse Tali and as I expected from my Son, he gets up and walks over to Roger.

“Alpha Roger, if I had known about your intentions with Tali, I would not have suggested it. I will take responsibility for this screw-up and I will accept my punishment.” He holds his head down and I know that my Son is curious if Roger will punish him in the way he hopes.

I remember Ayden sitting behind his laptop, so engrossed in the scene he was watching that he did not hear me enter his room. I watched him jerk off as he was watching two men having sex.

The look on his face, the second he saw me standing in his room, it had been one of shock and all I had done was chuckle. I asked him if he was in to men and he laughed his ass off. He told me he had become curious after he once stumbled upon it by accident.

I would never do it myself, but I told him that maybe one day I would introduce him to Roger. I told him that Roger would sometimes use it as punishment in his Pack.

Roger tells him to get on his knees and Ayden obeys him without question. Alena is not out of the woods yet and I know the worst is still to come.

He turns to me with his hand still around Alena’s throat. “What does she mean to you?” He asks and I chuckle. I know that the chance of her surviving the night is slim and I feel nothing at that prospect.

“You decide what happens to her. She is responsible for losing your Mate.” Alena’s eyes widen as the reality of my words sink in. She tries to get away, but the grip he has on her holds her in place.

Alpha Roger’s P.O.V.

I tell Talon to hold on to her, that her time will come and that it might be time for him to return the favor.

The moment he hears my words, I see a smirk grow on his face and I know that he understands me. He nods his head as he pushes Alena down in a chair.

I turn around to his Son and I remember that during one of Talon’s visits he had told me that he found Ayden in his room and that he had admitted that he was curious about two males having sex.

Talon had asked me at the time if I had ever done that or ever thought about doing it. I had admitted to him that I sometimes used it as punishment if one of my men really screwed up.

Over the years I had found out that I was also curious as to how it would feel if a man would push his cock in to my backdoor. Looking at Ayden I think I might have found the right man and my Wolf agrees with me.

My cock hardens thinking about taking his ass, to punish him for being partly responsible for losing my Mate. I tell him to get up and to take his clothes off.

He doesn’t argue with me and does as he is being told. As he bends over to take his pants and boxers off, my Wolf pushes forward. He grabs his hips and pulls him back, our cock lining up with his backdoor.

I hear Alena gasp as she sees what I am doing, Talon whispers in her ear “You are going to be next.” She starts to cry and tries to wiggle her way out of the hold Talon has on her.

“I will make you scream.” My Wolf roars as he starts to push his cock in to Ayden’s ass. It is so fucking tight and he has to pull him back harder for his sphincter to open up. We feel Ayden pushing back and we shove our cock in even more.

My Wolf enjoys the feeling of our cock pushing deeper in to his backdoor. Ayden groans as we pull back a little and then we slam our cock in to the hilt. My Wolf roars as he is balls deep in his ass and we start pounding his ass hard and fast.

Ayden screams, but we can hear that it is in both pain and pleasure. He pleads with us to fuck him harder and we are not one to deny him that request. Alena starts to whimper as Talon says “Look at my Son, at least he takes the punishment he deserves without whining.”

We keep slamming in and out of his ass and I can feel that I am close to coming. I lean over him and whisper in his ear “I am going to fill you with my cum, boy.” And his response makes me even harder “Yes, please.”

He keeps repeating those words as I slam harder and harder in to him and with a roar I come in his ass. As I pull out of him, he lowers himself on to the floor and lies on his back. His cock is rock-hard and I can’t stop myself as I reach for it. It jerks as my fingers slide down his shaft and a groan escapes my lips.

I get up to open the door for my Delta and his Brother and I see a wicked smile on his face as Talon sees them walk in.

“Alena, get over here.” I grumble and after Talon releases her, she slowly walks over to me. Talon is right behind her and I know that I don’t have to tell him what is going to happen next.

Talon whispers in her ear “They recently offered me their whore, so now I will return the favor.” After that he shoves her towards my Delta and tells them to have fun.

Talon sits down on the couch and I know he is planning on joining them as they have their way with her. For a second I contemplate on staying, but I know that there is something else I want more right now.

Ayden is already at the door as I tell my Delta not to hurry on my account.
