Chapter 211: Paying Respect to Taishang Laojun Again

Even though they are both of the human race, Xuanqing had not yet established his Dao Court, but inevitably he will establish his own Dao Court.

The enthusiasm of the three Old Heavenly Masters was indeed overwhelming.

Xuanqing could only smile awkwardly, led by the three Old Heavenly Masters, ultimately to the Heavenly Masters Perspective in the Heavenly Court hosted by Elder Heavenly Master Zhang.

After a discussion while drinking tea.

The conversation between the three Old Heavenly Masters and Xuanqing was extremely pleasant, and the atmosphere of the Heavenly Masters Perspective was harmonious and joyful.

Now that you have the Alliance Power Token rewarded by the Jade Emperor, opening your Dao Court is a sure thing.

Elder Heavenly Master Ge touched his beard and smiled.

Oh?bender

Xuanqing was intrigued and took the opportunity to ask: Dare I ask Elder Ge, what exactly is the purpose of this Alliance Power Token?

Upon hearing this.

Elder Ge laughed heartily, then with a whisk in hand, pointed to Elder Heavenly Master Zhang, Hahaha, if you want to know the use of the Alliance Power Token, perhaps Friend Zhang would know best.

I indeed know a thing or two.

Heavenly Master Zhang gave a slight smile, and then said unhurriedly: I won't hide it from my friend Xuanqing, I too was rewarded by the Jade Emperor with an Alliance Power Token.

I used this Alliance Power Token as the foundation to establish a Dao Court, to control the spirits of heaven and earth, to summon the vital energy, to control mountains and rivers, to purify the filthy air, to communicate with immortals, nothing is prior to Zhengyi!

Subsequently, using the Three Five Sword that slays evil and the Yang Ping Governing Seal, two magical tools, to suppress the luck of the Dao Court, that the Dao Court I had established gradually flourished.

If you ask what use this Alliance Power Token exactly has you can understand it as an equivalent of the small Fengshen List.

A small Fengshen List?

Upon hearing these words.

Xuanqing's breath quickened.

Uncertainly.

In his mind, he had an image of moments ago in the Lingxiao Bao Hall, where the Alliance Power Token was an illusion split from the seal in the hands of the Jade Emperor.

Could it be the seal in the hands of the Jade Emperor is actually the renowned Fengshen List, and the Alliance Power Token is in fact an adaptation of the Fengshen List?

Only in this way can it be explained why the Alliance Power Token possessed such formidable functions of commanding spirits and controlling mountains and rivers etc.

Huff-

Xuanqing took a deep breath under cover, and then performed a bow, So that's how it is, thank you Elder Zhang for the detailed explanation!

By the way, I have to visit the Douluo Palace once more to pay homage to the Ancestor Master, so I won't disturb you any longer.

Upon hearing this.

The three Old Heavenly Masters nodded with a smile.

Go ahead, but remember to visit the Heavenly Masters Perspective when you come to the Heavenly Court in the future. Its lonely here, its also pleasant to have more friends to talk and discuss the Dao with.

Hahaha, understood, understood, then I will take my leave now!

Please do!

After leaving the Heavenly Masters Perspective.

Subsequently.

According to the memory in his mind.

Xuanqing found the Ascension Altar, where he was previously led by Star Lord Taibai, without much effort.

One thing worth mentioning is.

Now that his destiny has been designated as Secondary Fourth-Rank Immortal Official, he doesnt need to be accompanied by others, he can use the Ascension Altar on his own.

Looking at the Ascension Altar in front of him.

He took one step forward!

Hummm-

Just like the previous two times using the Ascension Altar, the surrounding space kept shifting and twisting, that familiar sense of dizziness once again attacked his mind.

Moments later.

Xuanqing arrived in front of Douluo Palace.

The Five Elements Palace exhibits heaven and earth, and the Eight Trigram

Furnace refines Qiankun Douluo Palace.

Looking at the couplet on both sides of the palace gate, even though he was now in the mid-stage of the Integration of Void Stage, he still did not dare to look directly, otherwise he would feel as if his god soul was being torn.

Inside Douluo Palace.

In the main hall.

Next to the Eight Trigrams Furnace, Child Jin Ling and Yin Ling Tongzi, one was fanning wind and the other was watching the fire. The expressions on their faces looked a bit bored.

Thump-Thump-

Footsteps echoed.

The two child-like beings looked over and saw Xuanqing walking in, their faces immediately filled with a mixed expression of astonishment and joy.

Good younger brother, you watch the fire. I, your elder brother will

No, good elder brother, you watch the fire, your junior brother will go

The two child-like beings looked at each other, then spoke in unison, Lets do Rock-Paper-Scissors. The one who wins stays and works, the loser goes to play with Junior Brother Xuanqing.

Alright.

Rock, paper, scissorshahaha, good brother, please stay behind, Ive won!

Yin Ling Tongzi laughed loudly and hastily handed over his fan to Child Jin Ling. He then got up and headed towards Junior Xuanqing.

Over here.

As soon as Xuanqing stepped into the main hall, he saw Yin Ling Tongzi running towards him. He was curious.

Huh, Senior Brother Yin Ling, didnt you guys go to play in the Lower Realm, what is this ?

Upon hearing this.

Yin Ling Tongzi carefully glanced to the side, then said in a lowered voice, Humph, Sir was too much, saying that my brother and I played too much, and swept us directly from the Lower Realm.

He even told us to refine a Nine Directions Rebirth Pill, saying it would be used for the mortal emperor in the future, in a mysterious way.

Jin Ling and Yin Ling were dredged up to refine pills, and, moreover, a Nine-turns Reincarnation Pill?

Xuanqing was deep in thought.

But,

About this mythical game worlds Journey to the West Tricks, he had already learned of it from other places, so knowing one more piece of information wasn't surprising at this moment.

I see.

Xuanqing nodded, then asked again, By the way, Senior Brother Yin Ling, is our Ancestor Master busy at this moment?

Hey- What could Sir be busy with?

Yin Ling Tongzi casually waved his hand, perhaps a bit annoyed, and continued, Sir spends all day either sleeping or napping, he doesn't at all

Ouch- It hurts Its killing me.

Junior Brother Xuanqing, please check what's wrong with my head for me? Yin Ling Tongzi covered his head, shouting in pain.

This

The corner of Xuanqing's mouth twitched a little.

He saw a small red bump on the top of Yin Ling's head, its shape almost identical to the bump he had before.

Eh...well Senior Brother Yin Ling, you continue to play! need to go and pay respect to our Ancestor Master.

Whoosh-

Without waiting for an answer, Xuanqing immediately rushed towards their Ancestor Master's study.

Are you kidding me?

If he stayed with this mischievous Yin Ling for too long, who knew whether he would get involved and be hit by Ancestor Master to get a bump?>

Last time he was presented with a swelling by the Ancestor Master as a reward for his clever trick, even the use of his mana couldn't heal it quickly, and it still hurt several days later.

Upon entering the room,

he saw the Ancestor Master sitting with his legs crossed on a cushion, beneath the Yin-Yang pattern on the wall behind him. His figure was still as elusive and towering as ever.

Disciple Xuanqing, I pay homage to our Ancestor Master! As soon as he arrived, Xuanqing directly performed a grand ceremony.

Upon seeing this,

Taishang Laojun opened his eyes, and said calmly: If those two mischievous boys were as sensible as you, I would be at ease-

Upon hearing these words,

Xuanqing could not respond, but just coughed lightly with an awkward smile.

Cough! Cough!

This time I came to the Heavenly Court for an imperial decree, and I was thinking of you, Ancestor Master. So, I brought some Ginseng Fruits to visit you, and by the way I want to ask you something.

With that,

he took out more than ten Ginseng Fruits and respectfully handed them over..

Chapter 212: Ancestral Dragon Crystal!

At this moment.

Seeing the dozen or so ginseng fruits in front of him.

Taishang Laojun's eyebrows twitched slightly, and he said in a speechless tone,

Xuanqing, this ginseng fruit was originally in the Three Realms and is considered a well-known treasure.

Now..it is indeed made common by you, hahaha-

Although he said so, his movements were not slow at all. After pocketing the ginseng fruit, he said indifferently:

What do you want to ask? Go ahead and ask!

Upon hearing this.

Hehe~

Xuanqing let out a dry laugh and then asked, I want to ask you, in this world, what treasures can carry Heavenly Merits?

Just like the Gathering Qi Bead, which can absorb incense and spiritual Qi, and this kind of Innate Qi-storing crystal can hold Heavenly Merits from the Heavenly Courts salary.

A Gathering Qi Bead and a Qi-storing crystal appeared in Xuanqings hand.

Seeing this scene.

Taishang Laojun looked up and down at Xuanqing, with an expression on his face that was neither smiling nor not smiling.

Being stared at by his Ancestor Master like this.

Xuanqing felt a little uneasy and shrank his neck. Fortunately Ancestor Masters strange expression didnt last long, and he started talking.

Xuanqing, Heavenly Merits will only be born in the Quantity Tribulation, which is extremely special, and there are very few objects that can carry Heavenly Merits that have been passed down to this day.

Taishang Laojun gazed into the distance.

Thinking slightly.

The most advanced among them is, of course, the Taiji Diagram, Pangu Banner, and Chaos Clock formed by the Heaven-opening Axe.

Next comes the Pangu Banner, Nine Heavens Breath Soil

Treasures formed by the Heaven-opening Axe?

Or Pangu Banner, Nine Heavens Breath Soil?

Xuanqings mouth twitched slightly.

He tentatively asked, Ancestor Master, is there anything worse, like something even I could get my hands on?

Upon hearing this.

Taishang Laojun thought for a moment, Speaking of which, there is indeed one thing that is the Ancestral Dragon Crystal!

What is the Ancestral Dragon Crystal? How can I get it? I hope Ancestor

Master can tell me.

Xuanqings spirits lifted, and he hurriedly asked.

The so-called Ancestral Dragon Crystal has to be traced back to the ancient times when the human race was not yet born in this Heavenly and Earthly realm

As the Ancestor Master recounted.

Gradually.

A long and ancient historical period, as if being on the scene came rushing towards them.

In the end the Dragon and Phoenix clans perished together, and before the Ancestral Dragon of the Dragon clan died, its blood spilled onto the Four Seas, and any rock tainted with Ancestral Dragon blood turned into an Ancestral Dragon Crystal.

This Ancestral Dragon Crystal can help the Dragon clan enhance bloodlines and refine Dragon Qi.

However after so many years., whether there is still any left, who knows! Taishang Laojun stroked his beard and said.

Hearing this.

Xuanqing sighed with relief.

From Ancestor Masters words, it could be analyzed that the Ancestral Dragon Crystal, although precious, was much simpler than those Pangu Banner and the like.

Whats more, Pangu Banner, Nine Heavens Breath Soil, and other things like that might not be exchangeable with ordinary Ingots even if they were uploaded to the Store.

But this Ancestral Dragon Crystal was different. It was just a rock stained with Ancestral Dragons blood. Although it was precious, it

The only worry now was whether there were any Ancestral Dragon Crystals left in the Dragon clan after so many years.

Even if there was only one Ancestral Dragon Crystal left, as long as it was uploaded to the Mall, it would be no different from having an infinite amount for Xuanqing. He could simply exchange it for Ingots.

Thank you, Ancestor Master, for telling me. I won't bother Ancestor Master's peace, I will take my leave! Xuanqing bowed and saluted.

Seeing this.

Taishang Laojun nodded slightly.

Outside the room.

The Silver-Horned child was seen covering his head with one hand while stealthily hiding outside the door, peeping in and out with a sneaky look.

Seeing Xuanqing leaving, the Silver-horned child's eyes lit up as he hurriedly went up to him and asked, Junior Brother, have you finished your business?

Uh Senior Brother Yin Ling, what are you? Xuanqing had a bad feeling in his heart.

Hehe, my brother and I are bored here by the Eight Trigram Furnace. Do you have anyway to take us down to have some fun?

As soon as these words came out.

Xuanqing's heart skipped a beat, and he hurriedly waved his hand, saying, Absolutely not. If I dared to do such a thing, our Ancestor Master would surely punish me.

Although it was almost certain that these two child-like beings would go to the Lower Realm and become demons later on, he didn't want this incident to be blamed on himself.

However.

Seeing the pitiful look on Yin Ling Tongzi's face, he couldn't help but soften his heart.

Especially when he thought of how the other party had helped him absorb the Chaos Pill day and night using the pestle for grinding medicine, he couldn't forget this kindness.

With this thought in mind.

After thinking for a moment.

Senior Brother Yin Ling, dont be disappointed. When I come up next time, Ill bring you some interesting toys to play with.

Xuanqing consoled him.

Oh- okay. Silver-horned child pursed his mouth and answered listlessly.

Speaking of which.

These two child-like beings had been brought to heaven since they were young, and although their cultivation was not low, their minds were still like those of ordinary seven- or eight-year-old children.

After soothing the two child-like senior brothers.

Xuanqing turned and left Douluo Palace, stepping back onto the Ascension Altar, and controlling it to descend to the Nine Heavens.

Stepping out of the Ascension Altar.

There was a Taoist with white hair and beard, wearing a white robe, with a five-pointed star on his forehead and holding a feather duster in his hand.bender

It was none other than Star Lord Taibai.

Upon seeing Xuanqing descend from the Ascension Altar, Star Lord Taibai went up to greet him.

Friend Xuanqing, lets go. In a while, the gods will come to congratulate you, said Star Lord Taibai with a smile.

Thank you, Star Lord!

Xuanqing bowed slightly, expressing his gratitude.

My young friend, you dont have to be so polite. Its an honor for me to host this banquet at my mansion, said the Star Lord.

The two walked side by side, chatting casually.

Its worth mentioning that.

Since there were too many immortals outside the Southern Heavenly Gate who wanted to congratulate and give gifts, and Xuanqing was a Daoist immortal official who would eventually go to the Lower Realm, it was impossible for all these gods to flock to the mortal world to celebrate with him.

Therefore.

Xuanqing finally decided to borrow the Star Lord Taibais mansion and hold a promotion banquet in the Heavenly Court, inviting all the gods.

As they say, making friends with gods from all walks of life and winning them over is the key to success in the pugilistic world.

Star Lord Mansion!

Stellar power was everywhere, and the Immortal Spirit Qi was extremely rich, even more so than in Lingxiao Bao Hall.

Lord Star!

Lord Star!

All along the way in the Star Lord Mansion, there were divine servants and maidservants busily arranging various matters of the banquet. Upon seeing Star Lord Taibai, they immediately bowed in respect.

Well, you all go ahead with your work. You're doing a great job!

Star Lord Taibai said cheerfully, and returned the smile to everyone, regardless of their status or position.

Seeing this scene.

Xuanqing marveled.

No wonder Star Lord Taibai, who was mainly focused on battles, was actually known as the three realms good guy in the Heavenly Court..

Chapter 213: Going to advance yet again.

In the Star Palace.

Xuanqing and Star Lord Taibai, each sitting in a grand master chair.

About half an hour later.

Reporting to Star Lord and Right Deputy Celestial Envoy, there are guests outside, a divine servant knelt on one knee.

The two looked at each other, then stood up with a laugh, walking unhurriedly toward the entrance.

At the entrance.

The first one to offer congratulations was indeed that Celestial Official from the Household Registration Department who had once come down to earth to confer him.

Congratulations on your promotion to a fourth-rank celestial, Right Deputy Celestial Envoy Xuanqing, ranked amongst the Lingxiao, please accept this humble gift as a token of my respect.

The celestial official said so, smiling and swaying his head.

Thank you, thank you Lord Zhang. We have ginseng fruit porridge prepared inside, you can have as much as you'd like, please come in!

A gleam flashed in the celestial official's eyes, he bowed his hands and entered the hall.

With the arrival of the first celestial official, it seemed like some chain reaction was triggered, and immortals from all corners made their way to the Star Lord Mansion.

Congratulations and cheers, young friend Xuanqing on your promotion to Right Deputy Celestial Envoy an old woman with a pouch around her waist.

Hahaha, Lady Wind, I've yet to thank you for lending the power of the wind bag. Please come in please-

Following soon after.

Immortals from the Thunder Department, Household Registration

Department, Demon Driving Institute all made their way over.

It's worth mentioning.

Unbeknownst to whether they had received some news or not, surprisingly, two strong men from the Heavenly River Navy also made their way here, carrying a pole loaded with presents to celebrate.

We received orders from General Zhu to congratulate Lord Xuanqing, congratulating you on your promotion to Right Deputy Celestial Envoy, ranked amongst the Lingxiao.

The two strong men in silver-white armor, having firm and unyielding faces, looked extraordinary in their disposition.

General Zhu?

Xuanqing was initially taken aback, but he immediately realized, it must be referring to senior brother Zhu Ganglie in the human world.

You two generals, isn't my senior brother Zhu Ganglie banished to the human realm..why is it so?

Lord Xuanqing, you may not know, but we were subordinate to General Zhu for one day, and will remain so for the rest of our life, in the 300,000 Heavenly River Navy, there has never been a second General Zhu!

Hearing their words.

A thoughtful look flashed in Xuanqings eyes.

I see.the banquet is already prepared.please, generals-

Thank you, Lord Xuanqing.

The two men bowed their fists in deep voices, and then, like the other guests, walked into the Star Palace.

Inside the main hall.

Seats were filled, with lively chatter it was a buzzing scene.

Xuanqing sat in the main seat.

By his side were some familiar people, the closest was his well-known acquaintance, Star Lord Taibai.bender

Then there were others such as Lord Huo De, the Celestial Official from Household Registration Department, Lady Wind, the Five Epidemic Gods, and the several from Thunder Department and so on.

Unlike the other tables where ginseng fruit porridge was served.

On this table, ginseng fruits were served directly, and in front of everyone, there were two fruits on each plate, forming an auspicious pair.

No one has started yet as they were waiting for their host, Xuanqing, to stand up and make his speech.

Ahem-

Xuanqing stood up.

He looked around, observing all the celestial guests in the main hall.

All the immortals who caught his gaze responded with nods and smiles.

On this day, I am promoted to the position of Right Deputy Celestial Envoy of the Five Thunders, and I am honored to receive the congratulations from fellow daoists

To be honest.

He does not really enjoy doing this kind of thing, making speeches in front of so many people.

But one cannot help it in the pugilistic world. It is all about give and take. Plus, when others are giving you face, bringing congratulations and gifts, you cant be too cold, otherwise, you would end up with no friends.

After the speech.

All the gods clapped and cheered, raising their glasses, and the atmosphere was jubilant.

After feasting.

Everyone did not disperse, but rather continued to converse and discuss Tao in the grand hall, occasionally demonstrating their skills or playing chess and drinking wine.

At this moment.

The banquet had entered its second day, and the grand hall was still bustling with activity.

However, a trace of worry was visible in Xuanqings eyes.

As the saying goes, one day in heaven is equivalent to a year on earth, he and these idle immortals are not the same. Matters in the mortal world were left unattended, and the Divines flower has not been cultivated and condensed.

On one side.

Star Lord Taibai seemed to sense something, concluded his chat with several other Star Lords, and walked over.

Daoist Xuanqing, I see that your brow is furrowed. Is anything troubling you?

Upon hearing this.

That is true, one day in heaven equals a year on earth. The conferment at the

Lingxiao Bao Hall has been delayedI cant afford any more delays

Xuanqing gave a bitter smile and spoke of his worries.

At this moment.

He had been in the Heavenly Court for two full days, which equates to two years in the Lower Realm or two months in the real world.

After hearing Xuanqings narration.

Star Lord Taibai suddenly understood and said, If thats the case, why not speak up directly? We cant let it delay your cultivation.

Hmm!

Xuanqing nodded his head.

His main purpose of coming to the Heavenly Court was to accept his promotion to Fourth-Rank, and to inquire about the Heavenly Merit treasure in Douluo Palace.

Now that he had completed these two tasks, he didnt want to dawdle in the Heavenly Court any longer. After all, the passage of time, with one day in heaven being a year on earth, was too torturous for him.

Thinking so.

Xuanqing let the Qi Flower surge into his throat and addressed the chatting immortals:

Im sorry to interrupt, but I have something to announce!

A resounding voice echoed around the grand hall.

All the gods looked in the direction of the sound, it emerged that the newly appointed Right Deputy Celestial Envoy of Five Thunders, Daoist Xuanqing was speaking, so they respectfully turned their attention to him.

At this moment.

Seeing all the divine beings attention was on him, Xuanqing intended to speak up about his unfinished tasks in the mortal world.

However.

An unexpected event occurred before he began to speak.

Boom!

A thunderbolt resounded in the sky above Star Lord Mansion, followed by the appearance of billowing dark clouds.

Upon seeing this.

Everyone was stunned.

Huh Lord Li, is it your Department of Thunders thunderbolt that has struck the Star Lord Mansion?

Impossible, besides, our Thunder Department doesnt have the authority to strike the Star Lord Mansion with a thunderbolt!

An immortal from Fate Palace felt compelled to ask the Thunder Department immortal standing next to him, but received a denial.

At this moment.

The celestial phenomenon in the sky continued to change.

The dark clouds and thunderbolt disappeared, replaced by auspicious signs as if fairy maidens were dancing gracefully amidst the celestial music.

At this sight.

Immediately.

The gods felt a shudder in their hearts, and an incredible thought emerged in their minds.

Did this newly promoted Right Deputy Celestial Envoy of Five Thunders get another promotion in merely two days?

On the side.

Star Lord Taibais eyes widened in shock as he watched the celestial phenomena in the sky, his mind profoundly shaken..

Chapter 214: The Jade Emperor Who Was Tricked by the Old Lord!

Looking at the various auspicious signs and the divine power emanating from the sky above his Star Lord Palace, he couldn't fail to understand what had happened.

Xu..Xuanqing Daoist friend, what is this? Star Lord Taibai's voice trembled slightly, almost dropping the duster from his hand.

Hearing this.

Xuanqing chuckled bitterly and nodded his head, That's right, I just mentioned that one day in Heaven equals a year on earth!

Now that two days have passed in Heaven, two years have passed on earth. It is normal for me to be promoted again, it's normal.

Normal?

Even with Star Lord Taibai's cultivation, he couldn't help but twitch the corner of his mouth.

He really couldn't understand how someone just promoted to Secondary Fourth-Rank, had only two days pass and, well, two years in the Human World, would get another promotion to Fourth-Rank.

This, this, is it called normal?

At this moment.

Inside the Star Lord Palace.

The gods were also reacting to the heavenly phenomena, which were the scenes of Immortal Officers Promotion, and they looked at each other in disbelief.

Silence!

Unusual silence!

Not a single immortal at the scene spoke, it was so quiet that you could hear a pin drop.

Their eyes were filled with disbelief, and their hearts were already shaken by the two days advancement of the Immortal Official.

After an unknown amount of time.

Ah, er-

A cough broke the silence, and the gods suddenly awoke from their stupor.

The sound came from above the main hall, and it was the Right Deputy Celestial Envoy who had shocked all the immortals, soon to be the Left Deputy Celestial Envoy.

Fellow Daoist Friends, there is no need to be surprised by my promotion once again!

As they say, one day in heaven is equal to one year on earth, and since I ascended to heaven, I have spent two days there while two years have passed on earth.

So one promotion in two years, its quite normal, isnt it!

As soon as these words were spoken.

At first glance, they seemed to make sense, but in fact, they couldnt stand scrutiny, as such a rate of promotion had never occurred in the history of the Heavenly Court.

However.

Those who attended the banquet, more or less, knew that Daoist Xuanqing had a deep background, and even if they knew that his words were not true, no one was foolish enough to refute them.

Well, what the Right Deputy Celestial Envoy says makes sense

It would be impossible for anyone else to be promoted in two years, but for Daoist Xuanqing, its indeed normal.

Hahaha, Daoist Xuanqing has extraordinary luck and is destined for greatness, its quite normal!

The shock in the eyes of the gods had not dissipated.

But on the surface, they all nodded and smiled, agreeing with Xuanqings one day in heaven, one year on earth theory.

Seeing this scene.

Xuanqing chuckled awkwardly and bowed with a bit of embarrassment.

He seriously suspected that if there were any debate competitions in the Heavenly Court, he would surely win by giving a speech on the theme of My Great Master, Elder Zhenyuan.

Just as Star Lord Palace was shocked by Xuanqings Immortal Officer Promotion.

The Golden Palace of Clouds in the Thirty-Third Heaven.

The Jade Emperors eyes were closed, leaning back on his Purple Gold Dragon

Throne with a look of enjoyment on his face.

More importantly.

In his hand was a fleshy-pink, baby-faced fruit with a bite taken out of it.

Sigh~

If I were to compare their deliciousness, this Ginseng Fruit is even betterhmm?

The Jade Emperor opened his eyes, unable to resist a soft exclamation.

He first looked down at the Ginseng Fruit in his hand, then glanced toward the direction of the Star Lord Mansion in the Nine Heavens.

Snicker- No wonder, no wonder!

A look of sudden realization appeared on the Jade Emperors face.

After Xuanqings conferment ceremony, the Old Lord of the Douluo Palace sent some elixirs and ten Ginseng Fruits.

At the time, he thought that the Old Lord was expressing his gratitude for conferring Xuanqing as Secondary Fourth-Rank, and didnt think too much about it.

At this moment.

He finally understood.

It turns out that these Ginseng Fruits besides expressing gratitude, also had this added meaning.

Forget it, forget it-

The Jade Emperor sighed bitterly and swallowed the Ginseng Fruit with a bite.

Come here, pass on my edict, let the Lingxiao Bao Hall open again for the conferment ceremony!

Yes!

A god-man guard knelt on one knee, answering loudly, his eyes also filled with shock because there was a court meeting just two days ago, and now they were going to have another court meeting.

Accompanied by the Jade Emperors decree.

In the minds of all the immortals in the Heavenly Court, there was the sound of Lingxiao Bao Hall opening again for the conferment court meeting.

Suddenly.

It was like a drop of cold water falling into boiling hot oil, the whole thing blew up.

Because the decree did not mention any names and only asked all the gods to attend the conferment court meeting, they did not think that Xuanqing was being promoted again.

Instead, they thought that it was really outrageous that the Human Race, as the protagonist of Heaven and Earth, had one Daoist Immortal Officer ascend just a few days before and now had another Daoist ascending.

They didnt know if the chins of these gods would drop when they learned that the same Daoist was behind the two conferment court meetings.

Heavenly Master Mansion.

After Xuanqing left, the three Heavenly Masters did not disperse but felt it was rare to have a gathering in so many years, so they continued to drink tea and play chess.

Ill take one of your pieces!

Haha, youre in Huh?

Zhang Heavenly Master and Ge Heavenly Master sat opposite each other at a chessboard, while Xu Heavenly Master was watching the battle on one side.

At the moment the Jade Emperors decree sounded.

They looked at each other, speechless for a moment.

Who was promoted again?

It shouldnt be. Among the Daoist Immortal Officers in the Human World now, Daoist Friend Xuanqing has already advanced, and although Yuan Tiangang of the Tang Dynasty also has the potential to ascend, it shouldnt be now.

It is a bit strange!

Lets go take a look at which Daoist friend from our Human Race has advanced again-

Zhang Heavenly Master and Ge Heavenly Master stopped playing chess.

They never thought that Xuanqing had been promoted to Immortal again and assumed that there was a new Daoist in the Human Race ascending.

Lingxiao Bao Hall.

Just like before.

Various immortals gathered on both sides of the main hall.

Under the support of the two fairy girls holding the five Ming fans and a group of ritual officers, the Jade Emperor went to the highest throne of the main hall.

The Jade Emperor nodded to the ritual officer beside him.

Then.

The ritual officer bowed slightly, stepped forward, and shouted loudly outside the main hall:

Announcing Right Deputy Immortal Minister of Taiji Palace and Deputy Commander of Five Thunder and Leader of Thunder Department Affairs Daoist Xuanqing!

As soon as these words were uttered.bender

Boom!

The floodgate was opened.

Except for the immortals who went to the Star Lord Mansion to attend the promotion banquet.

All other immortals showed expressions of horror.

This this is just a gap of two days, and both of the conferment ceremonies are for the same Daoist person.

Incredible, unbelievable!

The shocked emotions of the gods in the main hall did not affect Xuanqing in the pavilion.

After the ritual officer announced the audience.

Just like two days ago.

Xuanqing walked at an unhurried pace, passing through the long corridor

Stepping into the Lingxiao Bao Hall!

Ignoring the shocked eyes of the gods, he came to the center of the main hall, facing the figure on the high platform and bowed slightly.

Your servant pays his respects to the Jade Emperor!

With the words your servant pays his respects to the Jade Emperor

All the immortals came to their senses, even disregarding the rule that there should be no noise in Lingxiao Bao Hall, whispering to each other and talking in hushed voices to vent their shock.

My beloved official, I am planning to Wait a minute!

At this point.

An untimely voice came from one side of the main hall, attracting everyones attention..

The Immortal Cultivation Game Has Come True #Chapter 215 - 215: The wall pushed everyone down dragging Heavenly King Li with them. - Read The Immortal Cultivation Game Has Come True Chapter 215 - 215: The wall pushed everyone down dragging Heavenly King Li with them.

Chapter 215: The wall pushed everyone down dragging Heavenly King Li with them.

On the high platform.

The Jade Emperor originally planned to praise them as he did before, and then present the seal, conferring the promotion directly, hoping to finish the ceremony early and go back to eat Ginseng Fruit.

However, before he could finish speaking, he was interrupted by a voice in the main hall.

Looking over.

The voice that interrupted him came from the left side of the main hall. The speaker was tall and stout, with a determined face, holding a Demon-suppressing Pagoda in his hand.

Pagoda-Bearing Heavenly King Li Jing?

The Jade Emperor was quite upset, and said with a frown, Heavenly King Li, do you have anything to say?

Your Majesty!

Li Jing seemed not to notice the Jade Emperor's displeasure but instead stepped forward on his own, not bowing but holding his fists in both hands.

I think this Daoist Xuanqing, who has not even lived a hundred years and just ascended two days ago, should not be conferred promotion now. It's a bit inappropriate?

May the Jade Emperor reconsider!

When he finished speaking.

He stared straight at the Jade Emperor, as if to say if you don't reconsider, you will be a foolish ruler.

Seeing this scene.

Humph!

The Jade Emperor couldn't help but snort coldly in his heart, revealing a trace of dissatisfaction in his eyes.

It seemed these people from the Shimen were a little too arrogant in the Heavenly Court. Although Tathagata was an esteemed ruler, did they not know that he, the Jade Emperor, was the master of the Three Realms? bender

However,

This Pagoda-Bearing Heavenly King Li Jing, after all, was the Leader of the Three Armies of the Heavenly Court and had deep connections with Shimon. It was not appropriate for him, as the Jade Emperor, to directly confront them.

With this thought,

The Jade Emperor could only cast a warning glance at Li Jing, and then looked at the immortals in the main hall.

What do my ministers think?

Its worth mentioning that,

When he said this, he deliberately cast his gaze on the Household Registration and Destiny Bureau, the Department of Thunder, the Demon Driving Institute, the Heavenly River Navy and other departments of the immortal officials.

As expected,

Encouraged by the Jade Emperors gaze,

On top of the fact that this running dog of Shimon dared publicly ridicule Xuanqing, these colluding officials simply did not put them in their eyes.

Tolerating what cannot be tolerated!

Right at this moment,

A Thunder Department immortal, known for his hot temper, stepped forward.

Your Majesty, in my opinion this Pagoda-Bearing Heavenly King Li is just spouting nonsense!

As soon as these words were spoken,

Hahaha, its just nonsense!

I heard that Heavenly King Li wassomewhat fond of nonsense in his lifetime.

Tsk tsk, I didnt expect that this old official of the Thunder Department would still have such a temper, no wonder he is under Universal Transcendence.

In an instant,

All the immortals in the main hall laughed and had joyful expressions on their faces. The atmosphere was extremely lively.

As the object of this laughter Heavenly King Li, of course, couldnt be happy.

How dare you, you little Thunder Department official! Even if your boss, Universal Transcendence, comes, he should give me some respect. You actually dare to speak to me like this?

Heavenly King Lis face was pale, and he scolded angrily.

Pfft~

This Thunder Department immortal just snorted, giving no importance to Li Jings words.

It was very clear to him the status of Daoist Xuanqing in the mind of their own boss, Universal Transcendence.

Frankly, if he gave you face, he would call you a Heavenly King. If he didnt give you face, he would call you an old dogWhat could you do about it?

Right at this moment,

An immortal official from the Household Registration and Destiny Bureau stood up.

Your Majesty, Ive often heard my Lord say that Daoist Xuanqing is humble and of good character, as well as being a disciple of the Old Lord. This promotion is due to his great fortune and merit.

Immediately following,

Immortals from the Heavenly Official Mansion, Plague Department, Demon Driving Institute especially the Three Heavenly Masters, were furious. Even the immortals from the Heavenly River Navy also stood up one after another.

Your Majesty, we believe that Taoist Xuanqings promotion is due to his profound blessings and the will of heaven!

Your Majesty, I think.

Your Majesty

The walls pushed, and people fell back.

These departments that spoke up almost encompassed the three religions that existed before the Heavenly Court. They might fight amongst themselves, but when faced with outsiders like Shimon, they were surprisingly united.

Facing the condemnation of the entire world.

Heavenly King Li's face turned pale, experiencing for the first time what it meant to be an enemy of the world!

In the past, when he had spoken at court meetings, at most one or two immortals would stand up against him. But never like this time, when all the immortals stood up and attacked him.

No, there was still one person left!

In the entire main hall, there was still one immortal who hadn't expressed his opinion against him.

At this thought,

Heavenly King Li looked hopefully at the Jade Emperor's side the one who was hailed as the good old man of the Three Realms, who never spoke ill of others, and who never fought with anyone—Star Lord Taibai.

At that moment,

On the high platform,

The Jade Emperor spoke.

Taibai's minister: what do you think of this matter?

At this remark,

Everyone quieted down, their eyes filled with interest.

They were well aware that in the entire Heavenly Court, if anyone had the closest relationship with Daoist Xuanqing, it would be Star Lord Taibai. Not to mention anything else, even the promotion banquet had been held in his Star Lord Mansion.

However,

Li Jing had never paid attention to these matters, and his heart was filled with expectations.

In the past, when disputes arose during court meetings, it was always this good old man who stood up and mediated, turning big issues into small ones and small ones into nothing.

He must do the same this time as he had always done before, and dismiss the matter!

Old good man of the Three Realms: please speak up, I can't bear the criticism!

from the heavens any longer. Pagoda-Bearing Heavenly King Li anxiously thought in his heart.

Under the spotlight of everyone,

Ahem-

Star Lord Taibai shook his whisk in his hand, stepped forward, and bowed slightly before saying leisurely:

Your Majesty, I think they are right!

At that remark,

Boom-

Hahaha, I can't stop laughing! Heavenly King Li thought that Taibai would speak up for him!

Exactly the whole Heavenly Court, even Zeng Zhang Tianwang, the gatekeeper, knows that Star Lord Taibai and Xuanqing have a good relationship, but Li Jing doesn't.

If it weren't for my high cultivation, I would have laughed so hard that I would have become breathless!

The main hall was filled with joy.

The gazes of the gods at Pagoda-Bearing Heavenly King Li were like those on a clown, full of ridicule.

Pfft~

Heavenly King Li could no longer bear the pointing of a thousand fingers, and he spewed out a mouthful of golden blood. He then fainted on the spot.

Above the high platform,

Seeing this,

The Jade Emperor was speechless.

Although Pagoda-Bearing Heavenly King Li Jing was shameless, as the leader of the Three Armies, his destiny and cultivation should have been high, so how could he possibly faint from spitting blood?

It was clear at a glance he was too embarrassed to face people and wanted to find an excuse to leave the main hall.

Someone, help Pagoda-Bearing Heavenly King Li, he is unwell! Take him away!

Yes!

In the main hall,

Just after the Jade Emperor spoke,

Heavenly King Li, who had fainted from vomiting blood, trembled slightly in his soul.

Although his movements were weak, the gods present at the Lingxiao Bao Hall were no ordinary people, and they could see everything clearly, despising Heavenly King Li in their hearts..

Chapter 216: Mysterious patterns on the Luck Jade Seal!

After Heavenly King Li was taken away.

The conferment and promotion ceremony proceeded as usual, with the Jade Emperor raising Xuanqings destiny with a seal and granting him more authority over the rules of this Heaven and Earth, under the watchful eyes of all the gods and immortals.

Thankyou, Jade Emperor!

Xuanqing had a smile on his face and bowed to the Jade Emperor.

He could clearly feel the increase of his authority in this Heaven and Earth. If the Three Realms were compared to a company, then he had just become a bigger shareholder.

After the conferment ceremony.

Just as Xuanqing stepped out of Lingxiao Bao Hall,

Star Lord Taibai, the three Old Heavenly Masters, and all the immortals who had just spoken out in the hall surrounded him.

Fellow Daoist Xuanqing, now that you have been promoted again, will you be holding another banquet? an immortal asked.

Star Lord Taibai also spoke up, saying, If you want to hold it, you can continue at my Star Lord Mansion. At that time, all your fellow colleagues will come to congratulate you!

Indeed, indeed, that Pagoda-bearing Lis dog is truly hateful. We might as well take this opportunity to discuss how to trip him up

Because of what happened with Pagoda-Bearing Heavenly King Li, many gods and immortals had a common topic: to bring him down.

Facing these enthusiastic gods and immortals,

Xuanqing felt deeply touched.

As the saying goes, It takes three to make a good man, and one relies on friends away from home. Before transcending the rules, it is always better to have more friends.

However,

there was no need for another banquet.

Moreover, he was still worried that if he held another banquet, he might accidentally be promoted again

Tsk-tsk- That would be too flashy, and its better to be low-key in life.

With this thought in mind,

Xuanqing showed a bitter smile on his face, and then bowed slightly to the gods before saying:

Fellow Daoist Friends, Im truly sorry, but I still have a foundation in the human world, and one day in Heaven equals a year on Earth

As soon as these words came out, the gods and immortals nodded in understanding, congratulated him, and then didnt mention the banquet anymore.

However, to express their congratulations, they all went with Xuanqing to the Southern Heavenly Gate.

Haha, thank you, fellow Daoist friends, for seeing me off. If you find some spare time, please come to visit Black Wind Mountain Im going now!

Xuanqing laughed heartily.

He then stepped through the Southern Heavenly Gate, and his figure disappeared from Heavenly Court.

After watching Xuanqing leave, all the gods exchanged greetings with each other, then dispersed in pairs and alone.

On this side,

Black Wind Mountain.

A lucky cloud descended from the sky.

As Xuanqing set foot on the ground of Black Wind Mountain, he felt a tremor in the Luck Jade Seal at his brow, as if something had changed.

Huh?

He landed on the ground.

Luck Jade Seal! Xuanqing took out the Luck Jade Seal and examined it carefully. He found that an additional five-pointed star pattern had appeared on its side.

Not only that,

the National Destiny Power contained within had increased at least tenfold compared to before, making ones heart palpitate just by looking at it.

So much growth in National Destiny Power, and the appearance of a star pattern what is its purpose?bender

Xuanqing had some doubts in his heart.

He stared at the star pattern on the Luck Jade Seal and studied it for a while, but couldnt find anything unusual about it.

Perhaps this star engraving pattern is a display of a certain level?

Just like when the national luck reaches a certain level, a star will appear, and when enough stars accumulate, they will turn into the moon?

Mysterious.

This strange idea emerged in his mind.

Puff- Forget it, if I cant figure it out, I wont think about it.

Xuanqing shook his head with a smile.

Although he couldn't understand the meaning of the appearance of this star, he could feel that it wasn't a bad thing, so he just gave up the idea of continuing to study it.

As the saying goes, one day in heaven and one year on earth, he had been in Heavenly Court for almost two and a half days, so it was equivalent to a Kun year (two and a half years) in the human world!

He didn't know how the development of Black Wind Mountain had gone after such a long time.

With a thought.

He immediately used the Immortal Official Record to send a secret message to Gentleman Bai She, asking him to come to Black Wind Mountain.

Moments later.

Greetings, Sir! Gentleman Bai She, in a black dragon robe, respectfully bowed.

Hmm!

Xuanqing nodded slightly, then asked, Qingxu, tell me how the Black Wind Mountain is now.

Yes, Sir!

Gentleman Bai She bowed slightly and then began to recount.

Now the population of Black Wind Mountain has exceeded 10 million, most of them have been extradited from the Kingdom of Wusi Tibetan, and a small part from Westside Hami

Currently, fifteen new big factories have been added to the country mainly steel mills, cement mills, daily chemicals, glass etc.

Old Master, you also gave the divine book, about the research on engines, has already been put on the agenda, but due to the technology level of the Ministry of Works, we have not been able to make a breakthrough and still need

Regarding trade, the main focus is on exports to Wusi Tibetan Country, as well as some smuggling in West Hami side and the border of Tang Dynasty

With Gentleman Bai She's explanation.

A thriving country, in a rocket-like rise, was fully displayed before him.

Not bad, not bad, its no wonder that the national luck has increased so much, Qingxu youve worked hard! Xuanqing patted his shoulder.

Gentleman Bai She quickly straightened up, his face filled with pride.

Seeing that.

Qingxu, keep up the good work, if it goes on like this, I should be able to condense the Divines flower in ten years.

When I achieve the Divines flower, I will help you achieve the Destiny Golden Dragon body, wash your blood, and completely transform your snake body!

Xuanqing said earnestly.

Upon hearing those words.

Yes, Sir, if theres nothing else, Id like to handle official documents now. Gentleman Bai She was excited.

Hmm go, keep working hard, I believe in you!

Watching Gentleman Bai She leave and looking at his spirited figure.

Xuanqing nodded in satisfaction.

The promise he made to Gentleman Bai She was not just pie in the sky but something he could truly do and intended to do.

The development of Black Wind Country with Gentleman Bai She in charge, he didnt have to worry about anything except enemy invasions.

Now.

Its time to consider the harvest from this trip to the Heavenly Court and the follow-up plans.

In the real world, its been more than seventy days, the incense has accumulated hundreds of millions, and it has been promoted to the fourth-rank, it looks like the Taoist gate is doing well.

The incense in reality doesnt have legs, so it wont run away. I dont have to hurry.

So, next get the Ancestral Dragon Crystal first, then put the Heavenly Merit in, and finally upload it to the Mall!

So where to get the Ancestral Dragon Crystal?

Xuanqing frowned slightly..

Chapter 217: Daoist Friend, feel free to take whatever you need.

According to the Ancestor Master.

The Ancestral Dragon Crystal is formed from the blood of the Ancestral Dragon who fell during the ancient Dragon Phoenix era when they ruled Heaven and Earth.

It possesses the formidable effects of enhancing the blood of the Dragon Clan, purifying bloodlines, and carrying Heavenly Merit.

Not to mention whether the Ancestral Dragon Crystal has been consumed over the years, even if there is still some left, it must be an exceptionally precious treasure among the Dragon Clan.

The Dragon Clan is currently divided into the East, South, West, and North Four Seas, and I have dealt with West Sea Dragon King Ao Run.

Xuanqing still remembered it clearly.

At that time, during the banquet he held on Black Wind Mountain, West Sea Dragon King Ao Run brought his son Ao Moang to celebrate, and even offered a generous gift, hoping that Ao Moang would become his disciple!

However,

He did not agree to the West Sea Dragon King at that time, because he knew very well that the other party only wanted to use his personal background to their advantage.

It's a bit difficult but the Ancestral Dragon Crystal is related to whether I can exchange Ingots for Heavenly Merit, so I have to try anyway, Xuanqing thought to himself.

Even if the West Sea Dragon King used Ao Moang's apprenticeship as a condition, he was willing to accept it, because the Ancestral Dragon Crystal was too important for him.

Let's go, it's time to visit the West Sea!

Xuanqing stood up, swinging the whisk in his hand, and a lucky cloud appeared under his feet, carrying him in the direction of the West Sea at great speed.

The boundless ocean.bender

Turbulent waves came from the horizon, bright waves surged and chased each other, like a vast army, bearing a roar like thunder as they galloped towards them.

Along with the rolling waves, there were many shrimp and crab people with arms and legs hidden in the spray.

These Shrimp Soldiers and Crab Generals were led by a Great White Shark spirit, its sharp and fierce teeth gleaming with cold light.

Suddenly,

A lucky cloud sped by in the distance, drawing the attention of the Great White Shark, who immediately ordered its subordinates not to move with a swing of its fins.

Looking closely,

On the lucky cloud stood a young Taoist priest of extraordinary temperament, holding a feather duster.

Taoist Priest, please stop. This is a crucial entrance to the West Sea. May I ask who you are and what brings you here?

The Great White Shark made a salute gesture with its short fins.

Although the Four Seas Dragon Tribe is still powerful, their decline has led to their inability to stand up to figures who present themselves as part of the Taoist sect.

Immeasurable Longevity and Fortune, I am the Left Envoy Immortal and Five Thunder Ambassador. I have come today with something to discuss with the West Sea Dragon King, said Xuanqing, waving the whisk in his hand.

Upon hearing,

Taoist Priest, please wait a moment. I will go and report this immediately!

The Great White Shark became even more respectful and quickly instructed its subordinates to wait at the entrance before diving into the sea to report the situation.

After a while,

The waves churned.

The West Sea Dragon King appeared from the seabed, wearing a golden dragon robe and with deer antlers on his head.

Hahaha- A rare guest a rare guest indeed. This morning I felt a lucky aura over the Dragon Palace, and so it turns out to be Daoist Priest Xuanqing gracing us with his presence!

West Sea Dragon King laughed heartily, speaking words of courtesy.

There was no way he could help it.

Since the decline of the Dragon Clan, the once mighty clan that roamed the Three Realms has gradually become smoother in character.

Dragon King Ao Run, you're too courteous! Xuanqing smiled slightly and returned the salute.

Please, please, Daoist Priest Xuanqing, come in!

West Sea Dragon King waved his sleeve and made a welcoming gesture, then turned to the patrolling Great White Shark and commanded:

You really have no vision. From now on, when Daoist Xuanqing arrives, there will be no need for reporting, just a salute do you understand?

It's a subordinate's fault, I understand! The Great White Shark shuddered and quickly knelt on the ground.

Seeing this scene,

Xuanqing paused for a moment and couldn't help but smile. This West Sea Dragon King is indeed an interesting person.

About ten thousand meters deep into the sea.

An transparent shield emitting faint light could be seen.

Whoosh-

Passing through the shield.

In an instant.

Colorful lights, luminous pearls, and various coral reefs came into view.

Even the randomly growing plants along the roadside were exuding a powerful medicinal aura, giving the impression of thousand-year-old ginseng.

Tsk tsk No wonder the Dragon Clan is said to be rich. These roadside weeds can actually compare to thousand-year-old ginseng! Xuanqing marveled in his heart.

As expected of the Dragon Clan, which is known as the wealthiest in the Three Realms. Even in decline, they still relied on the wealth of the Four Seas to remain so domineering.

Hehe, the Dragon Palace Great Hall of the West Sea is just up ahead! The West Sea Dragon King reached out his right hand and introduced with a cheerful laugh.

Dragon Palace Great Hall.

Brightly lit and splendidly decorated, every pillar was extraordinary and could be considered a precious treasure.

Besides that.

Inside the great hall there stood a noble and elegant woman with dragon horns on her head, as well as a handsome young man.

He recognized the good-looking young man with a mole on his brow it was Ao Moang, whom he had met once on Black Wind Mountain.

As for the other dignified woman, he didnt know who she was, but she must also be a member of the Dragon Clan.

Its worth mentioning that.

The Dragon Clan has a peculiar characteristic. After transforming into human form, males would usually keep their dragon heads.

Meanwhile, upon transforming, female dragons would have dragon horns on their foreheads, which symbolized the Dragon Clan, but otherwise, they were indistinguishable from humans.

Haha, this is my wife, Lady Ao of the West Sea, and you already know Ao Moang, my son, whom you met on Black Wind Mountain! The West Sea Dragon King introduced them.

Dragon Queen?

Xuanqing wondered in his heart, Dragon King Ao Run, didnt you mention last time that Ao Moangs mother is a human?

Ah, you've misunderstood, Daoist friend. After giving birth to Ao Moang, his mother passed away. This is my legal wife. The West Sea Dragon King replied with a bitter smile, explaining.

Upon hearing this.

So that's how it is! Xuanqing suddenly realized.

He didn't think of this earlier. Even mortals had multiple wives and concubines, let alone the pleasure-seeking Dragon Clan.

Afterward.

The West Sea Dragon King ordered a teapot to be served.

Daoist friend, this is a special ocean product, Coral Abalone Spirit Tea. It has a unique taste salty with a touch of freshness.

Thank you, Dragon King Ao Run, please- Xuanqing bowed his hands and took a sip.

Hmm

the taste had a hint of damp saltiness, which felt quite strange.

After some tea-drinking and small talk.

The West Sea Dragon King curiously asked, By the way, Daoist friend Xuanqing, may I know what brings you to my West Sea?

Seeing the conversation enter the main topic.

Xuanqing's spirit was lifted, and he immediately spoke: Ao Run Dragon King, do you know of a treasure called the Ancestral Dragon Crystal?

Ancestral Dragon Crystal?

Upon hearing the term,

The West Sea Dragon King's eyes shifted as he thought So this Daoist Xuanqing came for this item.

It is the supreme treasure of the Dragon Clan. Of course, I know it, and

At this point, after a brief pause, he continued:

Moreover there is still one last Ancestral Dragon Crystal in the Dragon Tomb in the West Sea.

Originally, I planned to use the Ancestral Dragon Crystal for Moangs cultivation, but if you need it, Daoist friend, just take it..

Chapter 218: Upload the Ancestral Dragon Crystal, and add another child.

Upon hearing the words of the West Sea Dragon King.

There was some surprise in Xuanqings heart.

He had thought that the other party would use the Ancestral Dragon Crystal as a threat and take the opportunity to propose that Ao Moang be brought into Black Wind Mountain.

In that case thank you, Dragon King Ao Run. However, I only need to borrow the Ancestral Dragon Crystal and observe it for a while.

Xuanqing said indifferently.

Hearing this.

This please!

The West Sea Dragon King was startled, and a bitter smile appeared on his face, but he didnt explain anything and directly made a gesture of invitation.

Upon seeing this.

Xuanqing raised an eyebrow, wondering why the West Sea Dragon King had such a strange expression on his face. Was there some hidden secret?

Dragon Tomb.

This is the place specifically for burying the Dragon Clan.

Most of the burial places inside were for the dragons who perished in the catastrophe of that year.

Once inside the Dragon Tomb, there was a completely different world.

In the boundless plain, countless huge dragon bones stood erect, some thousands of feet tall and some even tens of thousands of feet tall.bender

Cave World?

Xuanqing couldn't help blurting out.

Hahaha- Daoist friend has a good eye. The Dragon Tomb of the Four Seas is actually a separate Cave World. East Sea Dragon King nodded and laughed.

It's worth mentioning that.

The so-called Cave World has an essential difference from the Cave heaven and blessed land. The former refers to an independent world, while the latter merely refers to a particular cultivation land.

Daoist friend, please follow me. The Ancestral Dragon Crystal is sealed ahead. West Sea Dragon King pointed to the front and then stepped forward.

Xuanqing followed closely behind.

After walking for dozens of miles

They saw a gigantic dragon skeleton that reached the sky. Even though the body was dead and only bones remained, the momentum was still majestic and grand.

More importantly.

There was a fist-sized, blood-red crystal bead emitting a strong blood qi in the chest cavity of the dragon skeleton.

Daoist Friend Xuanqing, this is the Ancestral Dragon Crystal formed by the condensed blood of the Ancestral Dragon. To prevent the Ancestral Dragon Blood Qi from overflowing, it is sealed within this dragon bone.

Once the seal is opened, you must use it as soon as possible, otherwise, the Ancestral Dragon Blood Qi contained in it will quickly vanish.

At that time this Ancestral Dragon Crystal will only have an empty shell left, without Ancestral Dragon Blood Qi. West Sea Dragon King explained.

Upon hearing this.

Xuanqing suddenly realized.

No wonder the other party had a strange expression when he said he would only borrow the Ancestral Dragon Crystal.

For him, what he valued was the Ancestral Dragon Crystal itself. As long as it could carry the Heavenly Merit, it didn't matter whether there was Ancestral Dragon Blood Qi or not.

But for the Dragon Clan, the preciousness of this Ancestral Dragon Crystal was the Ancestral Dragon Blood Qi inside it, which was used to enhance the bloodline strength.

With this thought in mind.

Xuanqing raised an eyebrow and asked, If that's the case after I use this Ancestral Dragon Crystal, won't Ao Moang have nothing left to use?

No problem- Although the Ancestral Dragon Crystal is precious, it is nothing compared to the friendship of Daoist Xuanqing!

The West Sea Dragon King laughingly said.

At this moment.

Although his words sounded like flattery, they did indeed make people feel comfortable. Moreover, it wasn't empty talk, as he actually followed through with his words.

At this moment.

Hearing these words.

Xuanqing nodded slightly and made a decision in his heart to accept Ao Moang.

His character was just like that, although he couldn't repay a favor with a spring, he could still return others' kindness with his own..

If you are good to me.. I will naturally be good to you as well!

Then I will trouble Dragon King Ao Run to remove the seal!

Alright, Daoist friend, please wait a moment!

West Sea Dragon King agreed.

Afterwards.

The West Sea Dragon King stretched out his right hand, and squeezed a drop of blood essence from his fingertip, shooting it at the giant dragon bone.

The tiny drop of blood disappeared instantly upon contact with the huge dragon bone.

Buzz buzz-

A series of mysterious fluctuations spread through the air.

The shield originally covering the Ancestral Dragon Crystal slowly melted away, eventually dissipating completely.

Ding dong-

The Ancestral Dragon Crystal fell from the hollow part of the dragon bone, hitting the ground with a crisp sound.

The West Sea Dragon King mobilized the dragon power in his body and formed an illusory hand, grabbing the Ancestral Dragon Crystal.

Friend Xuanqing, this Ancestral Dragon Crystal is now entrusted to you!

Thank you, Dragon King!

Xuanqing took the Ancestral Dragon Crystal, bowed his thanks, and without any hesitation, immediately muttered in his heart

Upload!

[Product uploading1%.2%.3%]

Accompanied by the upload command, an illusory progress bar appeared before his eyes.

The upload speed was a bit slow, but at least he could see the progress bar moving. According to this situation, it should be done in two or three days.

Xuanqing let out a sigh of relief in his heart.

He was really worried that the Ancestral Dragon Crystal would be like the Ginseng Fruit he uploaded before, with the progress bar not moving at all.

Next.

It was just a matter of waiting for the thing to finish uploading.

Hahaha, Friend Xuanqing rarely visits the West Sea, and since the Ancestral Dragon Crystal has been obtained How about going to the Dragon Palace Great Hall for a banquet? The West Sea Dragon King suggested with a smile on his face.

Alright!

Xuanqing nodded his head.

While uploading the Ancestral Dragon Crystal, he followed the West Sea Dragon King and left the Dragon Tomb, where the Dragon Clan was buried.

Inside the main hall of the Dragon Palace.

The round table was filled with precious dishes, including various deep-sea specialties and some rare land-based foods.

In front of the dining table.

In addition to the West Sea Dragon King, his wives, concubines, and dragon children were all present, looking curiously at the human Taoist who their Father Emperor respected so much.

Children, let me introduce him to you.

The West Sea Dragon King stood up and pointed to Xuanqing, saying, This is Daoist Xuanqing, a brother of the same generation as me, and you should call him uncle.

Your Uncle Xuanqing is remarkable, a disciple of the Old Lord, and Great Immortal Zhenyuan of Longevity Mountain is his elder as well. His good friends are scattered among the gods of the Heavenly Court

Upon hearing this.

All the dragon children, including Ao Moang, widened their eyes.

They finally understood why their father valued Daoist Xuanqing so much.

They never expected Daoist Xuanqings background to be so profound.

Immediately.

Ao Moang, the Crown Prince, picked up his wine cup, stood up and said loudly, I didnt expect Uncle Xuanqing to have such an amazing background. Moang toasts to you!

Since big brother raised his cup.

The other dragon children naturally couldnt just watch. They quickly followed suit, picking up their wine cups and standing up to toast Xuanqing.

This scene made the West Sea Dragon King on the side feel gratified, thinking that his children had finally grown up and become sensible.

At this moment.

Xuanqing held the Ancestral Dragon Crystal in one hand, gently rubbing it, and with the other hand, he raised the wine cup, took a sip, and responded to the toast from the dragon children.

His gaze turned to the West Sea Dragon King, and he didn't bother to mince words, speaking in a gloomy tone:

Ao Run, although I have no intention of taking disciples, I am lacking a personal attendant. If you don't mind, you could send Moang over..

Chapter 219: What Can the Disciple Do?

Not accepting a disciple but accepting as a child under one's seat?

West Sea Dragon King was slightly stunned, and hurriedly nodded in agreement: Willing, naturally willing.

Truth be told,

He didn't intend for Ao Moang to learn any skills, because the cultivation of the Dragon Clan is an innate inheritance, not acquired through practice.

The reason for wanting to become a disciple was merely to take advantage of the opponent's profound background, aiming to climb up Douluo Palace and cling to the thigh of Great Immortal Zhenyuan.

On this side,

Seeing his father nod,

Ao Moang had no hesitation.

He immediately stood up and took a step backkneeling down, Ao

Moangkowtows to Sir!

Immeasurable Longevity and Fortune Moang, get up! Xuanqing nodded slightly and accepted Ao Moang's bow, then helped him up.

There are not many rules under my tutelage, just respect your teacher and the Tao, and act with a clear conscience!

Xuanqing said indifferently, You have a senior sister above you, who is from the Four Sacred Beasts White Tiger Clan, called Bai Linger. I will introduce you to her when we go back to the mountain.

Yes Sir! Ao Moang nodded solemnly, and his address changed to Sir as well. Seeing this scene, Hahaha, good, good- Moang joining Daoist Friends tutelage today is indeed a great fortune for the West Sea.

Servant! The West Sea Dragon King was overjoyed, waving his hand to summon an attendant, Go to the West Sea Treasure House and bring out the Deep Sea Ice Crystals, one hundred thousand years worth for this King. Yes!

Moments later,

A clam spirit came over with a Sumeru Bag, Your Majesty, the treasures are all in here.

The West Sea Dragon King nodded and then approached Xuanqing.

Moang has joined Daoist Friends tutelage, and this King has no precious treasures. These are all I have as gifts, please do not refuse, Daoist Friend! This all right!

Xuanqing hesitated a little, but finally accepted the items.

Seeing this,

The West Sea Dragon King smiled and quickly invited Xuanqing back to the dining table, ordering his subordinates to bring up some more good wine and dishes.

Daoist Friend Xuanqing, I entrust my child to you If he disobeys you in the future, feel free to punish him, this King will not say a word

This King toasts Daoist Friend Come, lets drink up!

Drain!

With one gulp, it was extremely refreshing.

Ao Moang at the side was very observant and immediately picked up the wine pot, pouring more wine for the West Sea Dragon King and Xuanqing.

Four hours later,

On the sea surface,

The West Sea Dragon King, a group of Dragon Princes, and the Dragon Consorts floated.

Moang, when you go to Black Wind Mountain, listen to Daoist Friend Xuanqings words

I understand, Father Emperor, you can escort us only up to here. We will meet again!
Ao Moang clasped his fists and bowed.

Then,

He transformed into a mini white dragon several meters long and flew up to the sky, circling around a patch of lucky clouds.

Sir, we can set off now! Ao Moang said to the Taoist priest on the lucky cloud.

Okay!

Xuanqing nodded slightly and then drove the lucky cloud towards the direction of Black Wind Nation.

Black Wind Mountain.

In the courtyard of the Taoist temple,

A petite white tiger was chasing after a fluttering butterfly in the air. After catching it, she let it go, then continued to chase it, playing repeatedly like this.

Huh- Butterfly butterfly, you fly faster, tiger is coming to chase you, hehe~ Bai Linger caught the butterfly once again and giggled to herself.

Suddenly.

It seemed as if she felt something.

Bai Linger tossed the butterfly in her hand and a gust of Qingfeng breeze slipped under her feet, turning into a laser flying into the sky.

Xuanqing Brother huh why is there a dragon too?

She who originally planned to jump directly into Sirs arms stopped abruptly with a hard brake.

Sir-

In front of outsiders, Bai Linger still knew whats important and immediately lowered her head, calling Sir softly to show respect.

Bai Linger, come here!

Xuanqing waved the whisk in his hand and caught the little kitty White Tiger in his hand, petting it fondly before putting it on his shoulder.

Let me introduce you, this is my newly accepted disciple Ao Moang. Xuanqing tilted his head and spoke to the little kitty on his shoulder.

Then.

He turned his head again and looked at Ao Moang beside him.

Moang, the one on my shoulder is Bai Linger. She joined before you, you can just call her Senior Sister Linger.

Upon hearing this.

Ao~

Ao Moangs dragon body tumbled, transforming into a human shape, and respectfully bowed with a fist, giving his courtesy to the little kitten on Sirs shoulder.

I am Moang Greetings to Senior Sister Linger!

Hmm so youre the new junior brother Sir took in. You better listen to your senior sister from now on, understand?

Bai Linger stood up on Xuanqings shoulder, swinging her tiger paws.

Pfft~

Seeing the cheap senior sister trying so hard to look serious but acting somewhat ridiculous, even Ao Moang couldnt help but burst out laughing.

???

Bai Linger was stunned, then she became furious, Ao~ she jumped off from Xuanqings body and tried to scratch her junior brother with her claws.

No laughing, or Ill scratch you to death!bender

Junior Brother admits his mistake, I was wrong. Its just that Senior Sister was so adorable, it reminded me of my little sister back home, I couldnt help it!

Ao Moang controlled his expression and made himself look serious.

Hmph Ill let you off this time, but dont laugh next time- Bai Linger snorted coldly, stomping her tiger paw fiercely.

Witnessing this scene,

Xuanqing shook his head helplessly.

He usually spoiled Bai Linger a lot since, as Ao Moang pointed out, she was simply adorable, which made her somewhat unruly now.

Alright, Bai Linger, I have something to talk to Moang about, you go play on your own for now!

With that said,

Xuanqing pulled the little kitten on his shoulder into his hand and threw it towards the distance.

This action caused Bai Linger to wail in grievance, flying into the courtyard without looking back, and hmph she went to play with butterflies on her own

After Little White Tiger left,

Xuanqing looked at Ao Moang and spoke calmly, Your Dragon Clan cultivates Dragon Yuan, and I cant help you with that.

But I have a method that can transform you into a Destiny Golden Dragon body. Then, combined with your White Dragon Bloodline, youll be able to

He had said these words to Gentleman Bai She before, and now he repeated them to Ao Moang.

After listening,

Ao Moang was not only astonished but also overjoyed.

He hadnt expected that after joining Xuanqing Sirs sect, he would gain such unexpected benefits.

Thank you, Sir!

Dont thank me just yet. To condense a Destiny Golden Dragon body, youll need the help of Black Wind Countrys National Luck.

Xuanqing shook his head and then explained, Youll have to wait until I condense the Divines flower and another disciple Gentleman Bai She to condense their Destiny

Golden Dragon body first, then it'll be your turn! However, if the national luck of Black Wind Country becomes strong enough, it can greatly shorten the time for you to condense a Destiny Golden Dragon body!

Hearing these words,

Ao Moang was slightly taken aback and then quickly asked, Sir, how can we improve the national luck of Black Wind Country, and what can I do?

Chapter 220: Gentleman Bai Shes Lifelong Wish, Bloodline Transformation!

What can I do?

Upon hearing this,

Xuanqing said, My Black Wind Country focuses on industrial production, absorbing the population of neighboring kingdoms as a foundation, and the main strategy is commercial development.

What you can do is to help the Black Wind Country establish ocean transport routes in commerce. The specifics must be discussed with the King of Black Wind Kingdom who is also my disciple Qingxu.

Ao Moang understood, and then clasped his fists, I understand, and I'll discuss it with Senior Brother Qingxu!

Hmm go on.

Xuanqing nodded slightly and waved to Ao Moang.

After he left,

Xuanqing withdrew his gaze and focused on the Ancestral Dragon Crystal in his hand.

In more than half a day, the upload progress has reached more than 30%.

West Sea Dragon King, you are quite clever-

Xuanqing sighed with admiration.

He intended to give Ao Moang a few of the Ancestral Dragon Crystals to try after they were uploaded, as long as the price was not too high.

Even so,

Even if the West Sea Dragon King was demanding with the Ancestral Dragon Crystal, he would eventually agree to accept Ao Moang as his disciple).

However, he would never be as dedicated as he is now, even thinking about making him condense the Destiny Golden Dragon body and exchanging the Ancestral Dragon Crystal.

This is the intelligence of the West Sea Dragon King. The same thing, dealt with in different ways, the eventual result is naturally poles apart.

Two days later.

[Upload progress: 97%98%99%100%]

[Ding- Congratulations, upload successful, Mall increment: Ancestral Dragon Crystal (1,000,000)]

Listening to the prompt in his mind,

Xuanqings spirit lifted.

One million its a bit expensive. It must be because it contains Ancestral Dragon Blood Qi. If the Ancestral Dragon Blood Qi is released, it should be cheaper.

Check Ancestral Dragon Crystal!

[Ancestral Dragon Crystal]: A crystal containing a weak strand of Ancestral Dragon Blood Qi, which has the effect of purifying the physical body and strengthening bloodline.

As expected,

The information displayed was a crystal containing Ancestral Dragon Blood Qi.

In order to accommodate Heavenly Merit, the Ancestral Dragon Blood Qi inside must be released first

He didnt need these Ancestral Dragon Blood Qi. It would be a bit of a waste to just let them dissipate.

After thinking about it,

Xuanqing brought out the Immortal Official Document, and lightly touched the summon instructions for Gentleman Bai She.

Moments later,

A figure rushed from the bottom of the mountain, and it was Gentleman Bai She who had received the message.

Greetings, Sir Huh? What is this?

He had just reached the top of the mountain and performed a salute before noticing the floating Ancestral Dragon Crystal.

The aura emanating from it made Gentleman Bai Shes heart race, as an irresistible temptation from bloodline continuously stimulated his nerves.

Qingxu, youre here!

Xuanqing nodded slightly and pointed to the floating Ancestral Dragon Crystal, This is the Ancestral Dragon Crystal, formed from the blood of a fallen Ancestral Dragon in ancient times

You have the White Snake origin, and I believe this will be of use to you!

When these words were spoken,

Hiss-

Almost unable to tear his eyes away from the Ancestral Dragon Crystal.

Gasping deeply and swallowing, he then struggled to open his mouth, Sir, this item is too precious to simply give to a subordinate like me

The legendary powerful creature, the Ancient Ancestral Dragon this Ancestral Dragon Crystal contains Ancestral Dragon Blood Qi, and he couldnt imagine this treasure just being given to him by his Sir.

Seeing this,

Xuanqing laughed lightly, speaking faintly, Over these years, you have worked wholeheartedly and diligently to develop the Black Wind Kingdom. I have seen it and remembered it.

In a while, I will release the Ancestral Dragon Blood Qi inside, so you need to be prepared to absorb it!

Hearing this,

Gentleman Bai Shes body trembled, overwhelmed with gratitude. He never expected that Sir had been paying attention to him all this time.

Thank you, Sir!

After deeply bowing, he immediately concentrated and sat down cross-legged, ready to absorb the Ancestral Dragon Blood Qi.

Seeing that Gentleman Bai She was prepared,

Xuanqing nodded slightly.

Then,

Qi Flowers power burst forth, transforming into an incredibly vast force, pouring into the Ancestral Dragon Crystal seed.

What a domineering Ancestral Dragon Blood Qi!

Xuanqing was a little surprised.

He felt that the power of his Qi Flower was like being trapped in a quagmire within the Ancestral Dragon Crystal seed, filled with resistance.

However, thinking about it this situation was perfectly normal. After all, it was Ancestral Dragon Blood Qi; even if it was only a faint bit, its quality dwarfed that of the Qi Flower despite being inferior in quantity.

About an hour later,

Get ready; its coming out! Xuanqing shouted softly.

As soon as his words fell,

Boom-

The faint strand of Ancestral Dragon Blood Qi inside the Ancestral Dragon Crystal was forcefully squeezed out by the Qi Flower.

The moment this strand of Ancestral Dragon Blood Qi emerged, the surrounding Heaven and Earth spiritual energy seemed to sense something terrifying and fled in an instant.

Even the air itself was slightly torn apart.

On the side,

Gentleman Bai She could no longer suppress the temptation within his bloodline, opened his mouth, and fiercely inhaled the Ancestral Dragon Blood Qi.

Slurp-

Like noodles, it was instantly absorbed into his body.

In an instant,

A tearing pain swept over him.

Ah~ Gentleman Bai She let out a miserable scream, falling to the ground and writhing continuously.

Under the influence of the domineering Ancestral Dragon Blood Qi, his physical body gradually could not withstand it and began to melt, starting from the skin.

Following that,

His meridians, blood, bones, and internal organs were all forcibly evolved into the Dragon Clan bloodline under the influence of the Ancestral Dragon Blood Qi.

The entire process was incredibly painful, but the benefits were also evident.

Gentleman Bai She's aura visibly increased at an astonishing speed.

Originally a mere Profound Immortal (just after condensing the Immortal Body) realm, he soared to the level of a Golden Immortal in a short time.

Two hours later,

the metamorphosis ended.

Gentleman Bai She lay sprawled on the ground, soaked in a mixture of blood and sweat. During the transformation process, his black dragon robe had become tattered and ragged.

Pant- pant

He gasped for breath heavily, feeling like he had survived a disaster. After quite some time, he finally came back to his senses.

Then, he noticed the enormous change in his body.

I My subordinates bloodline has transformed! A white dragon! Its actually an Azure-eyed White Dragon bloodline! My subordinate has transformed into an Azure-eyed White Dragon!

Gentleman Bai Shes eyes widened, his whole being immersed in ecstasy. But when he saw Sir with a faint smile on the side, he reacted immediately.

Thud-

Thank you for your grace, Sir! Thank you for your grace! Gentleman Bai She knelt on the ground, kowtowing sincerely from the heart.

Seeing this,

Xuanqing smiled and nodded. Then, with a wave of his right hand, he cast a gentle breeze to help him up.

Its just an Azure-eyed White Dragon. Work hard and develop the Black Wind Kingdom diligently.. Behind this, there is still a Luck Golden Dragon waiting for you-
