Chapter 231: The vastness of the Universe immeasurable!

Such material its quite amazing!

Xuanqing murmured softly.

In his perception, the floating meteorite in front of him had an internal toughness beyond his imagination.

Even compared to the Wannian Cold Iron from the Game World, it was not much inferior, and with a little polishing and forging, the texture would be even more tenacious.

He raised his head and looked into the sky, as if seeing through the atmosphere of the Water Blue Star, reaching the mysterious and immense universe.

Though Water Blue Star doesnt have spiritual Qi, the vastness of the universe is unimaginable for ordinary people.

Xuanqing was full of emotion.

Since he started on the path of cultivation, he became more and more concerned about the real-world universe.

Not to mention other things,

the sun, which can be seen every day, is as much as one hundred and thirty million times the size of Water Blue Star!

Thats rightyou didnt read that wrong, the sun is one hundred and thirtymillion times bigger.

But does it end there?

No!

If we look further away, we will discover an even more terrifying fact.

That is in the Milky Way Galaxy, there are as many as trillions of stars the size of the sun.

And that's just with the current level of human technology. Who knows how many more are yet to be discovered?

But the Game World is also known as the Three Thousand Small Worlds. I wonder what the scenes in those small worlds would be like, compared to the cosmic space of the Real World what would they be like!

For all these,

Xuanqing's heart was filled with curiosity.

Of course,

Based on what he currently knows, the cosmic space of the Real World is still much more vast.

Not to mention other things,

the Solar System is more than twenty thousand light years away from the center of the Milky Way, and one light year is approximately ninety trillion kilometers.

If the Monkey King with his Somersault Cloud of 108,000 miles were to come, I'm afraid he would fly till the end of time and still not leave the Milky Way.

Not to mention the Milky Way, even the Solar System alone would be hard to see from the backside.

Once I condense the Divine flower, achieving the Golden Immortal Leak-proof Realm, and finally refining the Taigang Thirty-six Methods to perfection, I could go to the Moon for a look.

Having put away the floating meteorite in front of him,

Xuanqing thought in his heart.

The reason he didn't go there now was because the Earth Leaping Golden Light of the Great Achievement Level was a bit too slow in terms of speed, and he didn't want to waste time on the road.

Of course,

All this will come later.

What he needs to do now is intercept the remaining five meteorites attracted by the Water Blue Star.

Leaving aside Xuanqing intercepting meteorites with his divine powers at Qingping Mountain,

over here,

as soon as the live broadcast showed the giant hand picking up the meteorite, the netizens boiled over.

Holy shit, holy shit!

So.-.so, so, so, did you all see that semi-transparent giant hand?

Not an illusion, repeat, its not an illusion.

Motherthere are really immortals in this world.

Lord, God, Amitabha, the way of heaven and earth, what the hell is this mystery?

Dense barrages swept in like a tide, instantly covering the entire live broadcast screen tightly.

At this moment,

in front of the official medias commentary desk,

hosts, cameramen, lighting engineers, field controllers, and other staff were just reacting to the scene.

They glanced at each other,

the next moment,

Quickhurry up, give me a backup of the video just now!

Brother Li, give me one too.

Everyone took out the mobile USB flash drives on their bodies and copied the video of the scene just now, fearing that in a while this video would be censored.

At this moment,

Giggle-

The door was pushed open.

A middle-aged man with a potbelly and short hair walked in with an anxious stride.

Seeing this, everyone stopped what they were doing and greeted the man in unison.

Hello, Director Yang!

Director Yang.. Youve arrived!

The middle-aged man scolded, We just got an urgent notice from above, the live broadcast room is to be shut down for half an hour.

At this point, he seemed to remember something and added with a heavier tone:

Also the content of this broadcast must not be copied or uploaded to the internet privately, otherwise youll lose your job at the very least, or worse you understand!

Hearing this,

everyone nodded and bowed their heads in agreement.

Seeing this, the middle-aged man nodded in satisfaction and then looked at the host Bing Bing, his voice becoming gentler.

Bing Bing, come to my office.

Huhthis?bender

Bing Bing looked surprised and pointed at herself, her eyes filled with astonishment.

Of course,

She didnt think her boss had any ulterior motives, as this was the first time she had been summoned by the station director since she joined the official media television station.

In the office.

Sit!

Oh~ Bing Bing sat on the soft sofa, a bit uneasy.

Especially when she saw her boss personally pouring a glass of water for her, she became even more apprehensive.

Have some water dont be nervous.

The middle-aged mans expression softened, and he explained, I called you to my office to inquire about something.

i heard that you have a classmate who was also a journalist, but later quit his job to go to Qingping Temple

At this point,

the middle-aged man hesitated and said, Can you introduce me to him? You may not know this, but I actually believe in the Three Pure Ones.

Really, no joke, I truly believe in Dao.

Of course,

He didnt believe in it before, but he changed his mind after today, especially when he realized that although the higher-ups were surprised by the incident, they werent too shocked, which made him believe in Dao even more.

By coincidence, a newly recruited employee at his television station happens to be connected to Qingping Temple.

So such a scene occurred after half a year.

At this moment.

After listening to Director Yangs words,

Bing Bing was taken aback.

Shes not stupid she naturally understood the meaning of the station directors words, and it was likely that he had guessed something from todays broadcast.

After some thought,

Director Yang, I understand how you feel about believing in Dao, but I havent been in touch with Sister Yang Ying for a long time.

As for the introduction I cant make the decision, but I can call her! Bing Bing looked a bit uneasy.

Haha, good, good, thats enough for me!

The middle-aged man was overjoyed and added, You just tell that Yang no, Sister Yang Ying, that I admire her very much and just want to make a simple acquaintance, nothing more!

Yang Ying sister?

Bing Bing paused.

She looked at her uncle-like station director unexpectedly calling Yang Ying sister and couldnt help but sigh!

Leaving aside the middle-aged man in the TV tower and his inner thoughts,

At this moment,

Online.

After the television stations live broadcast was forced to shut down, the internet went wild.

Crackle-

A bunch of netizens stared at their mobile screens, which had turned into snowflakes, and cursed.

Damn. why is there no signal!

Chapter 232: Exchange Ginseng Fruit Tree Sapling (Two-in-one Chapter 4K)

The live streaming room continued to play, but the content on the screen had turned into snowflake-like specks.

Given this situation.

All the netizens were shocked and sent barrages asking what was going on.

[Apology: Due to the large number of visitors, this live streaming room has been forced to shut down, is being repaired, and we apologize for any inconvenience caused.]

A red announcement appeared in the middle of the screen.

Soon after.

Even the snowflakes disappeared, the screen went black, and even the barrages could not be sent. People could only watch helplessly.

????

Angry!

The netizens were furious.

However it was useless.

Whats even worse is that when they visited some private UP Masters live streaming rooms, they found the same situation, the same red announcements, and the same black screens with no barrages being allowed.

Some technically skilled players managed to get the video out through some means, but they received warnings before they could even spread it.

In the end.

No one dared to touch the video, and there was a rare moment of peace on the Internet.

But the official media live streaming rooms and all the private UP live streaming rooms had a total viewership of at least several million people.

These media websites could control the speech, but they could not control word of mouth between people.bender

News about Yan Country having an immortal and that the immortal conjured a giant hand to retrieve the meteorite spread like wildfire.

It quickly spread throughout Yan Country, but no one could come up with any evidence and could only say things like those who know, know.

Over here.

Natural Disaster Bureau.

Reception room.

Sitting on the sofa a white-haired old man named Elder Ke, and a middle-aged man in a well-groomed uniform.

Elder Ke, you have a good relationship with the current Heavenly Master Jingde of the Taoist sect, what do you think about this incident?

What do I think?

Elder Ke glanced at the man across from him and said unhappily: I told you before, the mysterious person in the Taoist sect is very elusive.

Dont even mention him even Daoist Jingde is a truly capable person.

And as far as I know, your Special Management Bureau should have some information about him, right?

The man nodded bitterly.

Of course, he knew, and even got a life extension pill. At this moment, his phone even saved some mysterious videos of that person from the Taoist sect.

For example, flying down the mountain at the beginning, jumping onto a tree, the enchanting chanting, and various things at the Heavenly Master Succession Ceremony.

The research of countless people day and night eventually led to the conclusion.

That person from the Taoist sect is a rare martial arts master, and even possibly a master who has cultivated internal energy.

For example, flying down the mountain and floating onto trees could be a kind of lightness skill.

The enchanting chanting, according to a hypnotist, could be achieved by using the Lions Roar Skill in martial arts and some other means.

Even not long ago this mysterious life extension pill was taken. Whether it could extend life is not known, but some of the illnesses did disappear.

In the end.

They attributed this life extension pill to something like the Minor Rejuvenation Pill or the Major Rejuvenation Pill in martial arts.

Such assumptions.

Although they have surprised everyone in the Special Management Bureau, they also think that it is not beyond imagination and within everyones understanding.

But

Who the fuck could have thought that this person from the Taoist sect was not practicing martial arts, but cultivating immortality.

With a conjured giant hand he directly scooped up the meteorites.

This who the fuck can do such a thing, really?

Elder Ke, with this meteorite incident, our departments attention has been focused on disaster relief and we have neglected the media side of things.

The mans face became even more bitter, and then he cautiously asked: Could you, as a personal friend, ask Heavenly Master Jingde for me?

Ask him about that person from the Taoist sect, if hes not satisfied with our handling of the situation and what areas need improvement?

Upon hearing this.

Pff~

Elder Ke chuckled.

It wasnt as the Special Management Bureau said. When he received the news from Heavenly Master Jingde that the person from the Taoist sect would take action,

He immediately notified the related department, which was this Special Management Bureau in front of him. He knew that it was impossible to bring the common people back, so he didnt mention the matter.

In the end, he only asked the Special Management Bureau personnel to control the media and public opinion from the very beginning so as not to expose that person too much. Otherwise, if it caused displeasure the consequences tsk tsk!

You just have to think about it what kind of concept is someone who can scoop up meteorites!

I told you to control it before, but you didnt believe me. Now youre scared. Well, I think it serves you right!

Elder Ke scolded.

Upon hearing this.

The man could only smile apologetically, and quickly nodded and bowed to admit his mistake.

It is an eternal truth to admit ones mistakes when wrong, and to stand straight when being beaten.

Hmph!

Elder Ke snorted again, but in the end, he still opened his mouth and said, I have already asked Heavenly Master Jingde.

He says that person from the Taoist sect doesn't care about what we do at all, as long as we don't close down his Taoist temple or maliciously spread destructive news about the Taoist sect's image.

As soon as these words came out.

The man gave a sigh of relief and felt it was only right.

After all.

That person was someone who could scoop up meteorites, almost like an immortal or even a more powerful being than an immortal..

Chapter 233: Chapter 232: Redeem Ginseng Fruit Tree

Seedling (Double-Length Chapter 4K)_2

How could such a powerful being pay attention to or care about mundane matters?

"Understood, Sir. Among the Taoists, only you and Heavenly Master Jingde are familiar with each other. Please, Elder Ke, put more effort into this."

"I won't disturb your rest any longer... I'll leave now!"

"Hmm!"

Just like that.

After the meteorite scooping incident, Xuanqing became a taboo-like existence in Yan Country, and his information was sealed with the highest level of confidentiality.

Even... Yan Country's top experts spent three days and nights studying how to get along with this 'immortal.'

In the end, they came to a conclusion summarized in three words:

Ignore, don't inquire, don't obstruct... firmly and consistently implement the three... nos, not seeking to please him, only hoping not to provoke him.

No matter how turbulent the outside world is...

At Qingping Mountain.

Xuanqing remained calm and composed.

To him, all of it was just a trivial matter, no different from eating and drinking.

This situation... continued until a lucky cloud drifted over from the horizon, followed by the arrival of a little Taoist boy dressed in a Taoist robe, with a young face.

It caused a ripple in Xuanqing's state of mind.

This time... he had closed-door cultivation in the Game World for two whole years, which was equivalent to two and a half months in the Real World.

Now it was time to harvest the rewards.

"Sir, I have brought the Gathering Qi Beads to you!"

Huai Qingyun took out several Sumeru Bags from his chest and looked at his master with an admiring expression.

As the very first Taoist temple displaying mysterious signs, Qingping Temple naturally had a meteorite land here, which was then scooped away by Sir.

It was his first time seeing his master take action... that momentum, that commotion, even Huai Qingyun, who was a deity, was dumbfounded.

And even...

Huai Qingyun had a ridiculous thought in his heart, that with his master's cultivation, he could probably be blown to death with just one breath.

"Qingyun, how have you been lately? Are those tree demons that were enlightened still obediently managed?" Xuanqing took the Sumeru Bags and casually asked.

"To report to Sir, after such a long time, their wisdom has improved somewhat, um... they now have the intelligence of about a 11 or 12-year-old?"

Huai Qingyun scratched his head, unsure of himself.

The reason he mentioned the fifth or sixth grade was that when he had nothing to do, he saw an intelligence test advertisement in a short video.

He then tried it with a little tree demon underling and came to the conclusion that these tree demons now possessed the wisdom of a 11 or 12-year-old.

Upon hearing this,

Xuanqing was rather surprised.

In his understanding, even if these tree demons were able to evolve, the time required would be at least in units of 'a hundred years.'

It had only been several months since those tree demons were enlightened, and their wisdom had improved so much. Could it be that something different happened in the Real World?

"Qingyun, tell me in detail how their wisdom has grown, and how you..."

Xuanqing was quite excited, thinking that if he found the reason for the wisdom growth of these tree demons, he might want to enlighten even more.

However,

When he saw Huai Qingyun's actions and heard his words, he was dumbfounded and speechless.

"You... used this thing to test their intelligence?"

"Yes, it said it was free and accurate."

Huai Qingyun took out a phone with a short video app advertisement on it, xxx intelligence test, come and test your intelligence now.

He couldn't help but twitch the corners of his mouth.

Qingyun was still the same Qingyun, never disappointing anyone.

"Sigh-"

Xuanqing took a deep breath and gestured to the other party, "You can go now. I'm going to practice!"

"Yes, Sir!"

Huai Qingyun nodded vigorously, his eyes flickering with admiration. He didn't expect Sir to be so strong and still so diligent. He truly deserved to be Sir.

Watching his Real World child,

Xuanqing shook his head helplessly.

Then,

It was time for the exciting recharge of ingots.

He attached his divine thought to those Sumeru Bags containing the Gathering

Qi Beads and muttered in his heart:

“Recharge!”

[Beep! +79,050,005 Ingots]

Wow-

In two and a half months, he had gained nearly 80 million ingots.

Based on this data, he was earning almost 1.7 million to 1.8 million ingots every day.

“Compared to before, the daily income has increased quite a bit. It seems that Elder Jingde has done a good job.”

Xuanqing nodded in satisfaction.

Then,

With a thought,

“Open Character Panel!”

[Name]: Xuanqing

[Physique]: Chaos Virtue Holy Body

[Grade]: Left Attendant Immortal Lord of Taiji Palace, Envoy of Five Thunders, and Director of Thunder Department (Fourth Rank)

[Cultivation]: Integration of Void Stage (Mid Stage)

[Cultivation Method]: Food-Qi Decree

[Divine Ability]: Fate Dragon Control Chapter (《 》), Heavenly Star Thirty-Six Arts (Great Achievement), Five Elements Talisman Array (Perfection)

[Ingots]: 116... million (PS: without counting words, from now on, it will be unified with an “E” at the end!)

Gazing at the Character Panel,

The balance in the ‘Ingots’ column had broken through the 100 million mark, reaching a terrifying 116 million and more.

“Wow, now I can buy the Ginseng Fruit Tree Seedlings!”

Xuanqing was a little excited.

Ever since he collected the Ginseng Fruit Tree at Wuzhuang Temple and added the ‘Ginseng Fruit Tree Seedling’ to the Game Mall,

Every time he opened the Game Mall, he would unconsciously look at it, thinking... when would he finally be able to afford that treasure..

Chapter 234: Chapter 232: Redeem Ginseng Fruit Tree

Seedling (Double-Length Chapter 4K) 3

Now... I can finally get what I want!

“For cultivation... at most, it will be sped up by a hundred years, and it will cost me just over three million Ingots to condense the Divine’s Flower.”

“So... let’s redeem the Heavenly Merit first and purchase the Ginseng Fruit Tree!”

With this thought.

Xuanqing opens the Game Mall, finds the Origin Stone containing ‘10,000 Heavenly Merit,’ and then clicks to buy it.

[-1001W Ingots!]

As the ingots are deducted, a crystal stone filled with Daoist charm appears in the Game Backpack.

Of the 10,010,000 Ingots deducted, 10,000,000 are the value of Heavenly Merit, and the remaining 10,000 are for the empty Origin Stone value.

Xuanqing attaches his divine thought onto the Origin Stone, and then in his heart silently chants ‘recharge!’

fDing... +10000 Heavenly Merit!]

Afterward.

After repeating the above operation nine times, including the 10,000 Heavenly Merit originally obtained from killing the Yellow Wind Monster, he has accumulated 100,000 Heavenly Merit.

“Open the Game Mall!”

Subsistence Pill (7)

Basic Breathing Exercise (100)

Taoist Novice Suit (100)

Gathering Qi Bead (10)

Chaos Pill (99W)

Ancestral Dragon Crystal (100W)

Ginseng Fruit Tree Seedling (100,000 Heavenly Merit)

Looking at the Ginseng Fruit Tree in the mall, valued at 100,000 Heavenly Merit.

Xuanqing’s heart is somewhat excited.

“Purchase Ginseng Fruit Tree Seedling!”

[Ding! -100000 Heavenly Merit]

At the instant when 100,000 Heavenly Merit is deducted, a few-meter-tall and lush Ginseng Fruit Tree seedling appears in the Game Backpack.

With a thought in mind.

He takes out the Ginseng Fruit Tree seedling from the Game Backpack.

Humming-

In an instant.

On Qingping Mountain... a special fluctuation appears, causing the surrounding space to distort, like heatwaves on a summer playground.

“Hiss-” Xuanqing takes a deep breath.

It’s just a seedling, but the pressure it brings is immense. In front of this Ginseng Fruit Tree seedling, he feels like he is facing a primordial giant beast.

“Why didn’t I have this feeling in Wuzhuang Temple when facing the mature Ginseng Fruit Tree?”

The question arises in Xuanqing’s mind.

When he was at Wuzhuang Temple, using time acceleration on the Ginseng Fruit Tree, he felt nothing, as if it were an ordinary tree.

On second thought... perhaps it was because the Ginseng Fruit Tree in Wuzhuang Temple had already gained spiritual intelligence and concealed its aura.

Xuanqing looks at the Ginseng Fruit Tree in front of him, pondering... where it would be best to plant this treasure.

It certainly can’t be planted in the Game World, since the Ginseng Fruit Tree, as one of the Ten Great Spiritual Roots of Heaven and Earth, is a unique treasure.

It’s better not to draw attention to oneself until one’s cultivation has reached a certain realm.

Otherwise... it would be better to die and resurrect, but if you are sealed, you can only choose to exit the game and delete your account.

So... it can only be planted in the Real World. As for where specifically... it still needs careful consideration.

“Then let’s go back to the Game World first and break through to the Divine’s Flower!”

With such thoughts.

Xuanqing makes a decision in his heart.

Afterward.

He takes out the Immortal Official Record, activates Huai Qingyun’s contact, and sends a message asking her to pay attention to the Gathering Qi Bead, change it when it’s full, and equip it if there are new Taoist temples.

He also takes out his phone... and explains the situation to Yang Ying, Elder Jingde, and Elder Qianqing.

He can feel that condensing the Divine's Flower this time will probably take quite some time.

After completing these tasks!

With a thought in mind.

“Enter the game!”

Chapter 235: Chapter 233: Three Flowers Gathering the Crown, Impeccable Golden Immortal!

Black Wind Mountain.

The bedroom of the Taoist temple.

A Taoist sitting cross-legged opened his eyes, awakening from his meditative state.

“Luck Jade Seal!”

Xuanqing's eyes sparkled, and he waved his right hand, summoning the Luck Jade Seal.

Hum-

The Luck Jade Seal floated in the air, emanating a mysterious aura, and the number of stars on it had increased from two to three.

“Three five-pointed star patterns... The power of National Destiny has become even stronger.”

Looking at the floating Luck Jade Seal.

Xuanqing muttered softly.

The next moment.

His soul left his body and attached itself to the Luck Jade Seal in the air.

“Activate fifty years of time acceleration...”

[Ding... -1,825,000 Ingots!]

At the same time of losing over one million Ingots, an indescribable force appeared, causing the Luck Jade Seal to tremble rapidly, affecting Black Wind Country's destiny.

In this process.

The Power of the Soul grew stronger at a visible rate, and within the soul, a faint illusory lotus-shaped object was gradually gathering form.

The distance to condensing the Divine's flower was getting closer and closer.

A moment later.

The time acceleration effect stopped.

"Phew-"

"Fortunately, in the real world, I can harvest nearly two million Ingots a day; otherwise, it wouldn't be enough to support my consumption," said Xuanqing as he woke up from the rapid increase of his God Soul's power.

Because the Luck Jade Seal involves the existence of a higher level of 'Luck', it consumes more Ingots for the time acceleration than other ordinary existences.

Looking at the Luck Jade Seal, this fifty years of time acceleration had consumed almost four layers of its power.

That is to say, the current Luck Jade Seal with three five-pointed star patterns could provide more than 120 years of time acceleration in one use.

"In about another fifty years of time acceleration... I should be able to condense the Divine's flower!" Xuanqing anticipated eagerly.

The next moment.

His soul left his body once more and attached itself to the Luck Jade Seal in the air.

"Activate fifty years of time acceleration!"

[Ding... -1,825,000 Ingots!]

The Luck Jade Seal trembled.

The entire Black Wind Country's Destiny Power was mobilized and eventually integrated into Xuanqing's soul state.

The Power of the Soul... rapidly increased.

The originally vague Divine's flower gradually became clearer throughout the process.

Ultimately.

An exceptionally pure white lotus condensed in his chest, its mysterious aura as if it could devour one's soul.

The entire process... had no waves, it was as effortless as eating and drinking water, as smooth as flowing water.

"Divine's flower... formed!"

"Compared to ordinary Divine's flowers, this one that has condensed from the Human Path Destiny of Black Wind Country is at least a hundred times stronger!"

Xuanqing's expression was excited.

Feeling the Divine's flower in his chest and the immense Power of the Soul contained within, one couldn't help but be intoxicated.

More importantly.

This Divine's flower not only possessed tremendous power of the soul but also contained a special aura... the power of Human Path Destiny!

Under such circumstances, whether it was casting divine powers or doing anything else, there would be the blessing of Human Path Destiny.

For example.

If he were to refine a pill and the success rate was only 20%, but if the Divine's flower were to provide a blessing... the original 20% chance could become 60%, even 80%... or possibly even 90%.

Moreover.

This feature is not only useful in alchemy and weapon refinement but can also be applied to cultivation; no matter what divine power techniques or the breakthrough of realms, the success rate will be infinitely magnified.

"The Great Dao is attainable!"

Xuanqing's lips turned into a smile as he was beyond satisfied with the Divine's flower he had condensed.

However, condensing the Divine's flower did not mean that it was over; it still needed to be gathered at the crown of the head.

The Divine's flower gathers at the crown.

The other two flowers' gathering, the Essence Flower and the Qi Flower, had not much difference; except that the Divine's flower's gathering is at the top of the head instead of the left and right shoulders.

This process... requires a considerable amount of time.

"There should be no problem in the real world for the time being, and the Game World is developing as planned."

"Next... It's time for closed-door cultivation!" Determined, Xuanqing's eyes showed his firm decision.

Afterward.

He sat cross-legged.

Hum-

A pure white, flawless lotus emerged from Xuanqing's chest, emitting an incomparably domineering and mysterious aura.

"Gather!"

Xuanqing shouted in his heart, focusing his attention on controlling the Divine's flower and guiding it towards the top of his head.

The process was extremely difficult.

Time seemed to have no meaning during the cultivation process.

In the blink of an eye.

A year had passed.

In this year, Xuanqing had been controlling the Divine's flower constantly, cultivating it to gather at the top of his head.

Finally.

This unblemished white Divine's flower containing immense God Soul power was just a hair's breadth away from the Baihui acupoint on the top of his head.

In this situation, just a little more force, and the Divine's flower would be gathered!

"Phew-"

The next moment.

Crack... crack...

A shattering sound echoed from the Baihui acupoint on the top of his head.

Immediately after.

Accompanied by a 'whoosh' sound, the Divine's flower instantly climbed to the top of his head and successfully connected with the Baihui acupoint.

Gather!

Essence Flower Gather!

Chapter 236: Chapter 233: Three Flowers Gathering the Crown, Flawless Golden Immortal!_2

At the same time.

His left shoulder's Qi Flower and right shoulder's Essence Flower also seemed to sense something and emerged automatically.

In an instant.

The Divine's Flower, Essence Flower, and Qi Flower burst out with dazzling lights, forming an incredibly mysterious state among the three.

In the Cultivation World.

This state... is called the Unblemished Golden Immortal, which refers to the Divine's Flower, Essence Flower, and Qi Flower... The Three Flowers Gathering At The Top, interconnected, forming a unity!

At this moment.

Xuanqing's face flushed slightly.

Strong.

Unprecedented strength.

He could feel that his physical body, God Soul, and mana underwent an extreme metamorphosis at the moment when the Three Flowers gathered at the top.

This was an evolution of the essence of life.

After more than ten years of practice... Finally achieved the Unblemished Golden Immortal!

The huge movement of such a breakthrough.

Caused the entire Black Wind lineage... all of the subordinates to know that their Sir had made a breakthrough and rushed to the Black Wind Mountain.

"Congratulations to Sir for making great progress in cultivation, achieving the Unblemished Golden Immortal, and wishing Sir endless blessings and longevity with heaven, and early proof of the Great Dao!"

"Congratulations to Sir for making great progress in cultivation, achieving the Unblemished Golden Immortal, and wishing Sir endless blessings and longevity with heaven, and early proof of the Great Dao!"

Gentleman Bai She, the Black Bear Essence, the pure and delicate Qingwan, and a crowd of City Gods... all arrived at Black Wind Mountain, dressed in black dragon robes.

Among them.

Bai Ling'er jumped right on her master's shoulder and then kept tapping her claws, just like a kitten kneading milk.

Seeing this scene,

Xuanqing's mood was extremely joyful.

It wasn't because of the flattering words, but because he felt that he had so many loyal subordinates that even if they couldn't accomplish anything great, they at least saved him a lot of trouble.

"I have practiced for more than ten years, and today I have achieved the Unblemished Golden Immortal. My mood is quite good, and all of you will be rewarded!"

Xuanqing touched Bai Ling'er on his shoulder, and his face was full of smiles.

As the words fell,

He waved his right hand, took out a bunch of Ginseng Fruits from the Game Backpack, and handed out three to each of his subordinates.

Upon seeing this,

The crowd of subordinate gods all showed surprised and delighted expressions.

Although they usually got rewarded with Ginseng Fruit, it was usually given to those who had done an excellent job in a task, and they would only get one.

And now... Sir actually gave away three to everyone at once, which was enough to show that Sir's mood was extremely good at the moment.

"Sir, since you have shed your Immortal Body and achieved the Unblemished Golden Immortal, why not hold a banquet and invite Daoist friends from the Three Realms?"

The White Snake Young Lord took a step forward and suggested.

Hearing this,

Xuanqing pondered for a moment and finally nodded, "Alright, I will hold another Unblemished Golden Immortal banquet, but the specifics... will be up to you to organize!"

"By the way, the main fruits for the banquet will still be Ginseng Fruits!"

"Yes, Sir!"

The White Snake Young Lord bowed slightly.

Everyone was amazed when they heard that Sir was using Ginseng Fruits again.

Probably in the entire Three Realms... only their Sir and the Great Immortal Zhenyuan would be so extravagant, using the precious Ginseng Fruit to entertain guests at every banquet.

In fact,

No matter what, they could not imagine that until Xuanqing came, even Great Immortal Zhenyuan was stingy with each Ginseng Fruit.

The Ginseng Fruit is a treasure... For the weak, it is an excellent treasure to improve cultivation, while for the powerful, it is an extremely rare treasure that can bring immense joy upon consumption.

Being able to bring joy... is not a simple matter.

Especially for those who have practiced for countless years and experienced countless tribulations, their state of mind has long been tempered to be extremely resilient, and ordinary things cannot cause any fluctuation in their hearts.

Of course, these are all side stories, so let's get back to the Taoist temple.

After confirming the Unblemished Golden Immortal Banquet for the promotion of the cultivation, Xuanqing inquired about the development of Black Wind Country and the progress of the cultivation of all the subordinate gods.

After learning that there were no problems and everything was flourishing, he put down his mind, waved his hand to the crowd, and signaled that they could leave.

"We shall take our leave!

All the subordinate gods bowed and saluted one after another, then flew down the mountain with their three Ginseng Fruits, happily.

Watching the subordinates leave.

On Black Wind Mountain, only he was left alone.

Xuanqing sat down cross-legged.

Condensing the Divine's Flower to gather at the crown and raising the cultivation to an Unblemished Golden Immortal... this goal has already been completed.

Next.

to the point of perfection.

It is to complete the second goal, to elevate the "Tiangang Thirty-six Method" divine power

With a thought.

"Start Absolute Holiness Abandonment of Wisdom for a month!

[Ding... -2592000 ingots!]

With the deduction of ingots, he entered a mysterious state where his observation power and comprehension were enhanced to the limits that his physical body and divine soul could bear.

“Hmm...?”

Xuanqing raised an eyebrow.

This time, the Absolute Holiness Abandonment of Wisdom’ state he activated was dozens of times more potent than before.

As expected.

After the Three Flowers Gathering At The Top, the physical body and divine soul were interconnected and much stronger than before gathering at the top.

And the strength of this Absolute Holiness Abandonment of Wisdom’ state is closely related to the strength of the physical body and divine soul. The stronger the divine soul and physical body, the greater the increase in perception when activating the Absolute Holiness Abandonment of Wisdom state.

This... for him, is undoubtedly a good thing, which means that when his cultivation level increases and he needs to comprehend deeper divine powers, the Absolute Holiness Abandonment of Wisdom state can also keep up.

“To elevate the “Tiangang Thirty-six Method” to perfection, I must elevate all thirty-six minor divine powers to the perfect level.”

“Start comprehending Earth Leaping Golden Light first!”

Xuanqing pondered in his heart.

Comprehending divine powers takes longer and longer as one goes deeper. Under such circumstances, he chose to comprehend Earth Leaping Golden Light first, thinking that he could visit the Moon after returning to the Real World.

More importantly.

If the Ginseng Fruit Tree Seedling could not grow on Water Blue Star, he could try nearby planets.

“Let’s begin!”

Xuanqing closed his eyes and began to deduce the Earth Leaping Golden Light minor divine power in his mind.

He had already reached the Three Flowers Gathering At The Top, and his divine soul was very powerful. In addition, with the Absolute Holiness Abandonment of Wisdom state, his comprehension ability could be said to have reached an extreme.

Under such circumstances.

The comprehension of the 'Earth Leaping Golden Light' divine power grew at a visually perceptible speed. He believed it would not take long to cultivate it to perfection.

While Xuanqing was comprehending the Earth Leaping Golden Light divine power on Black Wind Mountain.

Gentleman Bai She and others were also busy dealing with Black Wind Country's affairs, preparing various items for the banquet, and publicizing the matter. They had to send out invitation letters to some important figures to comply with proper etiquette.

Soon.

The news that Daoist Xuanqing of Black Wind Mountain had achieved the Unblemished Golden Immortal and was going to hold a promotion banquet in the Taoist temple spread across the Three Realms.

Longevity Mountain, Wuzhuang Temple!

In the courtyard.

A solemn-looking and gorgeously dressed Daoist was reading a gold-lettered invitation letter in his hand.

"I didn't expect that in such a short time, young friend Xuanqing has already achieved the Unblemished Golden Immortal."

Great Immortal Zhenyuan couldn't help but sigh.

Such a cultivation speed was comparable to that of the Naughty Monkey who had achieved the Unblemished Golden Immortal after only a few years of practice five hundred years ago... No, it should be said that it was incomparable to the Naughty Monkey.

After all.

The Naughty Monkey was a piece of Five Colored Stone left over from mending the sky, with extraordinary origins and inherent great merits.

Moreover, it had absorbed the essence of sun and moon for countless years before its birth in the affluent East Sheng Divine Continent.

Finally, it even consumed countless elixirs, the Nine Thousand Years Flat Peach, and the aid of the Eight Trigram Furnace from Douluo Palace.

With all these conditions combined, the Naughty Monkey achieved the astounding feat of becoming an Unblemished Golden Immortal after only a few years of practice.

And young friend Xuanqing?

He was nothing more than an ordinary mortal. Even when he achieved the Road to Celestials, he had to rely on the blessings of the Three Officials and the help of the Ginseng Fruit.

This was something that he had personally arranged.

From this, it can be seen just how terrifying it is for Xuanqing to achieve the Unblemished Golden Immortal in just over a decade.

Great Immortal Zhenyuan couldn't help but feel emotional.

After thinking for a moment.

"Qingfeng, Mingyue!"

"Disciple is here!"

Chapter 237: Chapter 234: The Immortal Child Appears, Holy Beast Approaches, All Gods Tremble in Fear!

"Sir, how may we serve you?" Qingfeng and Mingyue, the two young apprentices, arrived at the other courtyard and bowed respectfully.

"Young friend Xuanqing has achieved the level of Flawless Golden Immortal. Take this to Black Wind Mountain as a congratulatory gift!"

Great Immortal Zhenyuan took out a jade slip from his bosom, which recorded the cultivation methods for the Daoist Golden Immortals.

He chose this as a congratulatory gift because he knew that young friend Xuanqing created a unique cultivation technique based on Food-Qi Decree, which could serve as a reference for him.

Upon hearing this,

Qingfeng and Mingyue, the two young apprentices, were taken aback. They exchanged glances, and both saw the astonishment in each other's eyes.

It is important to know that they have cultivated for thousands of years, and their cultivation level is stuck at the final step of condensing the divine flower. However, when they first met Daoist Xuanqing, he hadn't even condensed his immortal body, and now he has already become a Flawless Golden Immortal!

What's even more important is that their lord asked them to personally deliver this gift to Black Wind Mountain, which clearly means that he is treating Xuanqing as a prominent figure.

Because usually, only when a great power held a banquet or sent something would they be asked to personally deliver it. Otherwise, anyone could be sent.

"Yes, Sir. We'll handle it immediately!"

Qingfeng and Mingyue took the jade slip, bowed slightly, and then summoned a lucky cloud under their feet, flying towards the direction of Black Wind Mountain.

- ??

Above the Nine Heavens,

in the fairy-filled Heavenly Palace, within the Western Sacred Beast Caveworld.

A giant white tiger, thousands of feet tall, with soft, white fur and a 'king' character on its forehead, laid on the ground as if it were asleep.

Suddenly,

its eyes snapped open.

A fierce aura naturally emerged, as if a god of slaughter had descended into the world — a sight that everyone dared not look at directly, and which might instantly frighten a timid person to death.

He was the West White Tiger, the slaughterer and wind controller among the Four Saint Beasts that suppressed the Heavenly Court.

“Cultivating for more than ten years... and he’s already achieved the Flawless Golden Immortal stage. Ling’er following him... is much luckier than being a dog in the Shimen.”

Those soft whispers alone were deafening, like a massive copper bell by the ear.

As the saying goes, the whispers of the gods cannot be heard. Just this incredibly loud voice alone would be enough to shake a person with low cultivation to death.

White Tiger stood up, his massive body reaching into the sky, and his momentum was like Mount Tai, suffocating people.

“Having slept for hundreds of years, it’s time to get active again. I’ll go to Black Wind Mountain and congratulate Daoist Xuanqing!”

With that thought,

he leapt up, and with a flicker of his body, he vanished into the self-contained Western Sacred Beast Caveworld, heading towards the mortal realm.

- ??

In the entire Three Realms, not only Great Immortal Zhenyuan and the White Tiger from the Four Saint Beasts, but countless gods and great powers in the whole Three Realms have also taken action due to Xuanqing’s achievement of Flawless Golden Immortal and the hosting of the Ginseng Fruit Banquet.

For example, in the Heavenly Court’s Star Lord Mansion, Star Lord Taibai was playing chess while Fire Deity and Water Deity were watching.

And the three Heavenly Masters of the Three Offices of Taixuan, the Nine Heavens Responding Origin Thundering Universal Transcendence of the Department of Thunder, the Donghua Emperor of the Fate Palace, and the Head of the Demon Driving Institute...

These immortals, because it is inconvenient for them to come to the mortal realm, either send their subordinates or their closest apprentices to go to Black Wind Mountain to congratulate them.

Time flowed slowly,

and in the blink of an eye, several months had passed.

At the peak of Black Wind Mountain,

Xuanqing's eyes flickered with a wisp of ghostly light.

With one thought,

“Open the Character Panel!”

[Name]: Xuanqing

[Physique]: Chaos Virtue Holy Body

[Grade]: Taiji Palace Left Guardian Xianqing, Wulei Ambassador, and Head of

Leiting Zhu Temple (Fourth Rank)

[Cultivation]: Integration of Void Stage (Mid Peak)

[Cultivation Method]: Food-Qi Decree

[Divine Ability]: Fate Dragon Control Chapter (°°), Heavenly Star Thirty-Six Arts (Great Achievement), Five Elements Talisman Array (Perfection)...

[Ingot]: 16.01 million

In the Character Panel,

during these few months, he has been using Absolute Holiness Abandonment of Wisdom non-stop, consuming a whopping ten million treasures.

If it were before, he wouldn't even dare to think about spending ten million treasures on cultivating supernatural powers, but now he still has 16 million left.

Moreover,

the four months of consuming treasures to cultivate supernatural powers, added up to more than ten days in the real world. According to the previous growth rate calculations, he has accumulated another 20 million.

All he can say is... for him now...

These treasures... the more he spends, the richer he becomes. It's impossible to use them all, just like playing a cracked game with infinite coins. It's incredibly satisfying.

"Once I return to the real world, I'll plant the Ginseng Fruit Tree and arrange for time acceleration."

As he was lost in thought,

at that moment,

suddenly,

the Immortal Official Document at his waist vibrated slightly, and a message from Gentleman Bai She was transmitted.

"I almost forgot, the banquet celebrating my achievement as a Flawless Golden Immortal is about to begin!" Xuanqing shook his head..

Chapter 238: Chapter 234: The Immortal Child Appears Holy Beast Approaches, All Gods Tremble in Fear! _2

"The remaining six minor supernatural powers in the 'Tiangang Thirty-six Method' will be perfected after the banquet!"

Xuanqing made the decision in his heart.

The remaining six minor supernatural powers were of the less useful and simple kind, which could be perfected with casual cultivation over a week or so.

The sun in Heaven rose from the east and set in the west.

Two days later!

This moment.

The martial arts arena on the hillside of the daoist observatory.

Countless tables made of jade were arranged in an orderly manner on the square, and various treasures and exotic fruits were placed on each jade table.

Compared to the past poverty, Black Wind Mountain was now very prosperous, and the banquet was no longer just porridge.

Many guests who had attended before couldn't help but feel envious when they noticed this change.

Nearing the entrance of the hillside square.

Gentleman Bai She and Black Bear Essence, the two old workforce of the banquet, naturally arrived early and waited there.

It's worth mentioning that.

For this banquet, Qingwan voluntarily took up the role of receptionist and guide, because, as a person of Black Wind Mountain, she felt she should contribute something to Black Wind Mountain.

The first to arrive at Black Wind Mountain were the nearby demons... no, they had now been incorporated into Black Wind Mountain and became land mountain gods.

The next to come were the gods of Wusi Tibetan mountains, rivers, and the gods of Westside Hami, all of whom arrived at Black Wind Mountain with a respectful expression.

Now, Black Wind Mountain's influence was the strongest, both in the cultivation world and among the secular forces of Black Wind Country.

Naturally, when Black Wind Mountain held a banquet, how could the surrounding little gods and immortals ignore it?

"Haha, Daoist Qingxu, we little gods... have come to congratulate Immortal Xuanqing on attaining Flawless Golden Immortality!"

A certain mountain god, with a respectful expression on his face, handed over the congratulatory gift.

It is worth mentioning that.

Nowadays, the creatures around knew that the lord of the Qingxu nation in Black Wind Country did not like to be called “Country’s Master”, they prefer to be called daoist.

It turns out to be the Gang Mountain God of Wusi Tibetan. Please come in!” Bai She nodded slightly and greeted him casually.

At this moment.

In the sky, a colorful auspicious cloud, accompanied by fairy music and burst of aura, arrived a group of relaxed free and unfettered daoist immortals.

It turns out to be Qingxu young friend, upon knowing that Immortal

Xuanqing...has attained Flawless Golden Immortal, we’ve specially descended to the mortal world...to celebrate!”

The loose immortals laughed and clasped their hands in greeting.

Seeing this.

Bai She also showed a smile on his face, quickly stepping forward and politely clasping his hands in greeting, “It turns out to be fellow Daoist loose immortals, today my lord has laid out a Ginseng Fruit Banquet. Your presence will undoubtedly bring joy... Please come in!”

On the side.

His old partner, Black Bear Essence, also took a step forward, received the congratulatory gifts from the gods and immortals, and then had Qingwan come forward for reception and guidance.

Esteemed immortals, my lord has arranged seats, please—" Qingwan bowed slightly and led the way.

II

In the end.

These daoist immortals, although they were not ascended, their status was... much more noble than that of ordinary mountain and river gods.

It is worth mentioning that.

In this world, banquets... were very particular about what kind of status one had and where they should sit.

One must never sit casually, otherwise... it would not only annoy people at best but also lead to disaster at worst.

Not long after.

Some heavyweight figures arrived.

It was none other than the immortals from the Heavenly Court, and the departments of the Ministry of Civil Service and Department of Thunder, which were old friends, were naturally inseparable.

The senior Taibai Star Lord was at the forefront.

It is worth mentioning that.

Because Xuanqing had previously gone to the Heavenly Court to confer with Secondary Fourth-Rank Daoist Immortal Officer, he had made many friends among the Heavenly immortals, such as the Demon Driving Institute, San Yuan Jiu Fu, Liu Ding Liu Jia, Si Zhi Gong Cao... etc., and they had all met before.

Moreover, after the banquet, many immortals enjoyed the Ginseng Fruits, were in a very happy mood, and were extremely satisfied.

Under such circumstances.

This time, when a Flawless Golden Immortal Banquet was held, the number of immortals who descended from the Heavenly Court to the mortal world was quite large.

Senior and Daoist colleagues, today I am holding a Flawless Golden Immortal Banquet and your presence will undoubtedly add brilliance to Black Wind Mountain!"

I am also very happy in my heart. Everyone... please come in!"

Xuanqing stepped forward and personally greeted them.

These immortals were mostly of the same rank as him, or like Taibai Star Lord,

Five Elements Seven Luminaries Star Monarch... such seniors.

Hahaha, Daoist friend Xuanqing, you are too polite.”

Daoist friend Xuanqing...Congratulations on achieving Flawless Golden Immortal, the Great Dao is foreseeable.”

We have heard that Taoist friend...”

A group of immortals also gave special face, opening their mouths one after another to congratulate.

Such a scene.

Made those mountain and river gods on the square speechless.

For them, any of these immortals are remarkable figures, but in front of Immortal Xuanqing, they are so amiable.

At this moment.

A lucky cloud floated from the horizon.

And the two figures standing on the lucky cloud caused all the immortals at the banquet, and even those who came down from the Heavenly Court, to cast sidelong glances.

Who are the newcomers...?

“Daoist friend Xuanqing, when our Sir heard that you have achieved Flawless

Golden Immortal, he asked my senior brother and I to come to Black Wind Mountain and present you a jade slip for cultivation!”

Two Daoist boys with delicate makeup and jade-like features, wearing Taoist robes with a gait, with cinnabar dots on their foreheads... emanating the authentic spirit of a Taoist, opened their mouths to congratulate.

Seeing this.

Xuanqing hurriedly greeted them with enthusiasm: “So it is the two envoys Qingfeng and Mingyue, embellishing the occasion. Please come in... please come in-”

“I didn’t expect to have such a banquet, and have you two envoys coming personally. Please come inside... please come inside-”

The reason for his enthusiasm is naturally because of Great Immortal Zhenyuan behind Qingfeng and Mingyue.

It can be said.

Great Immortal Zhenyuan, this old senior, not only in terms of his status and position, but also in appreciating the kindness he had encountered.

Looking back on how he was able to enter the 'Way of Celestial Immortals', Great Immortal Zhenyuan played a crucial role.

Naturally... under such circumstances, he would be so enthusiastic to Qingfeng and Mingyue.

At this moment.

Inside the hearts of the immortals, a storm was brewing.

They all recognized 'Qingfeng and Mingyue'... as the famous Daoist boys of Wuzhuang Temple's Longevity Mountain, knowing them as the minions of Great Immortal Zhenyuan.

"I didn't expect these two Daoist boys to leave Longevity Mountain and come to congratulate Xuanqing with a gift!"

"Yes, it's incredible. Only at the Flat Peach Festival, Doumu Birthday Banquet... this level of occasion, they will accompany their senior to attend."

Tsk tsk... It seems that the relationship between Daoist Xuanqing and Great Immortal Zhenyuan is extraordinary. No wonder he can always take out ginseng fruit to hold banquets.”

The immortals exchanged messages and looked at each other, discovering the surprise in each other’s eyes.

Without mentioning the thoughts of the immortals.

On this side.

Xuanqing invited Qingfeng and Mingyue to the square and arranged for them a table at the very top.

at this location are some of his close acquaintances, including Star Lord Taibai, the three Heavenly Master Daoists, and Wind Lady... and so on.

As Xuanqing was busy.

Bai Ling’er sneaked out from somewhere.

Meow-

In an instant, she jumped onto Xuanqing’s shoulder, and then affectionately said, “Sir... my ancestor sent a secret message, saying that he wanted to come to the banquet as well!”

Hearing this.

Xuanqing was startled, the ancestor sent a secret message to Ling'er.

Who is the ancestor?

At the table, all of the immortals were curious about this scene, not expecting this Daoist friend Xuanqing to have a preference for raising pets.

However... the breath of this pet...um... why does it feel a little wrong?

Could it be....

With extensive knowledge, Star Lord Taibai was the first to recognize Bai Ling'er's identity and couldn't help exclaiming: "Daoist friend Xuanqing, could it be the White Tiger Clan among the Four Sacred Beasts?"

White Tiger!!!

Everyone woke up from their dreams.

That's right.... No wonder they felt that the breath was so familiar. Isn't it the weak version of the breath of the Western White Tiger Saint who guards the four corners of the Heavenly Court?

At this moment...

Suddenly!!

“Roar-”

A heaven-shaking voice seemed to come from above the nine heavens, causing ripples throughout the space.

A huge beast slowly descended high in the sky. Its body was so large that it seemed to block the sun.

What’s more, its body radiated... an indescribable powerful spirit, which could even be said to be invincible, making people tremble with fear.

Ling’er... pay respect to the ancestor!

Just as everyone was shocked, Bai Ling’er jumped off Xuanqing’s shoulders, leaped a few steps into the sky, knelt down, and shouted tenderly..

Chapter 239: Chapter 235: The Perfection of the Heavenly Array’s Thirty-Six Methods, and Returning to Reality!

Upon witnessing this spectacle.

All the immortals stood up, their gaze shocked towards the sky.

“It’s the White Tiger Saint Monarch!”

“I didn’t expect the White Tiger Saint Monarch... to attend Sir Xuanqing’s banquet personally!”

“Something’s not right, this little tiger is addressing the White Tiger Saint Monarch as Ancestor, but why is he also calling Friend Xuanqing as Sir?”

“Hiss....”

A myriad of thoughts raced in the minds of the immortals, rendering them unable to comprehend the situation clearly for a moment.

It is worth mentioning that.

The Four Saint Beasts occupy an extremely unique status in the Heavenly Court, as they play a role in bolstering the luck of the Heavenly Court, which... renders their status exceedingly transcendent.

Their residence itself was a detached small world entrusted by the Heavenly Court.

At this moment.

Xuanqing was also somewhat taken aback.

Gazing at the towering figure in the sky, from the aura alone, one could tell it’s an existence at the kingpin level.

From Bai Ling’er’s words, he could infer that this honcho was also from the White Tiger Clan and was the Ancestor of the White Tiger Clan.

Unexpectedly, the other party had come to attend the banquet he had hosted, but it wasn’t hard to guess that it was because of Bai Ling’er.

With that thought.

He stood up, initially apologizing to the surrounding guests like the Star Lord Taibai, then hastened forward.

“I, Xuanqing, pay respects to the White Tiger Ancestor Senior!”

Xuanqing gestured a seal with his hand, raising it above his head, and towards the White Tiger Ancestor in the sky... he respectfully performed a greeting gesture.

“Hahaha- very well!”

The White Tiger Ancestor chuckled heartily, his voice resonating between Heaven and Earth.

Immediately after.

They saw his colossal figure, accompanied by a series of dazzling lights, then it began to shrink rapidly.

Eventually... it transformed into a Herculean man about a foot tall, akin to an iron tower, with tattooed'symbol' on his forehead, and a full face of mutton chop beard.

Simply looking at this external appearance after the transformation, it was a striking image of a valiant and powerful man.

The Tower-Herculean White Tiger Ancestor, with Bai Ling'er's neck clutched in his hand, teleported himself to the banquet table in a flash.

Upon seeing this... including Star Lord Taibai, all the immortals quickly stood up and paid respects.

“We... salute the White Tiger Saint Monarch!”

“Hahaha- No need to be so formal, just eat and drink to your heart's content. Today this seat has come just to taste a Ginseng Fruit!”

The White Tiger Ancestor chuckled heartily, dismissing casually.

Facing the image of the White Tiger Ancestor who appeared in a casually domineering big brother's image, the immortals did not dare to take this lightly and followed suit laughing along.

Upon seeing proper decorum.

The White Tiger Ancestor seemed somewhat lost in interest.

Ever since the establishment of the Heavenly Court, he has been bored every day with nothing but sleep, and now standing amongst people who were not interesting enough.

No fun... absolutely no fun at all.

Just at this moment!

A burst of exotic fragrance entered his nostrils, a refreshing delight that aroused the greedy bug in his belly.

Then he saw the young Taoist who had saved Ling'er, holding a tray in his hand, presenting several Ginseng Fruits, and walked over to him.

"Hahaha- it's an honor for me to have the Saint Monarch attend my banquet, these few Ginseng Fruits....are offered to the Saint Monarch, I hope you will not detest it!"

With a smile at the corner of his lips, Xuanqing passed the tray over.

Upon hearing this.

Grumble- Grumble-

The greedy bug of the White Tiger Ancestor was completely aroused. After placing Bai Ling'er on the table, he anxiously took it over.

One bite down and off it goes.

The Ginseng Fruit piped down into the stomach, the Chaotic Qi inside stimulated his taste buds, creating waves of pleasure.

"Ha~"

"Refreshing!"

The White Tiger Ancestor picked up another Ginseng fruit without any politeness and swallowed it in one bite.

In a matter of moments, he finished the entire plate of Ginseng Fruits.

He rubbed his mouth with his hand without caring about his image, his face still expressing an unsatisfied look.

However.

After looking at the prim and proper immortals surrounding him.

The White Tiger Ancestor sighed inwardly, then took out a token from within him and threw it at Xuanqing.

Eh-

Xuanqing unconsciously caught the token.

Initially, he thought that... the token given by this big shot must be a Treasure that can borrow the power of the Sacred Beast. But he had possibly thought wrong.

“Hey, kid...treat Ling’er well in the future, don’t follow the Shimen, otherwise, I wouldn’t agree!”

‘Tve heard from someone at Douluo Palace that you have an extraordinary perception. This token contains the layout methods of the Defense Formation of the Four Sacred Beasts, consider it as the reward for eating your Ginseng Fruits!”

After finishing his words.

He once again leaned down and touched Bai Ling’er’s head.

“I’m off!” The White Tiger Ancestor disappeared from the spot in a flash.

You could say he came hastily...and he left hastily, such a carefree White Tiger Saint Monarch.

After the White Tiger Ancestor left.

A sigh of relief blew through the heart of every Immortal, restoring the previous liveliness of the banquet.

Upon seeing the aftermath.

Xuanqing couldn’t help but ask Bai Ling’er on his shoulder, “Ling’er, what’s your Ancestor’s origin?”

“All Ling’er knows from the hereditary memory in her bloodline is that he is our Ancestor, she knows nothing other than that!”

On one side.

Upon hearing Xuanqing’s words.

Star Lord Taibai immediately said, “Friend Xuanqing, I do know a thing or two about this White Tiger Saint Monarch.”

“This White Tiger Saint Monarch has an extraordinary origin. Before the establishment of the Heavenly Court in ancient times, it was already world-famous being the first White Tiger between Heaven and Earth, also known as the White Tiger Ancestor!”

Upon hearing this.

Xuanqing was shocked.

The first White Tiger between Heaven and Earth, this origin was utterly vast. To give an example...the first Earth Immortal between Heaven and Earth is the Ancestor of the Earth Immortals, also known as the Great Immortal Zhenyuan..

Chapter 240: Chapter 235: The Perfection of the “Tiangang Thirty-six Method”, and Returning to Reality!_2

In terms of status and position, this White Tiger Ancestor... is not inferior to Great Immortal Zhenyuan.

However, the strange thing is... throughout the Journey to the West, whether in the novel or in the movies, or even other biographies, there is no record of this figure.

But on second thoughts... this world is a real universe, although it is unknown why it has some connection with the novels and biographies in the real world, it can only be taken as a reference after all!

No matter what his thoughts were, Star Lord Taibai was still explaining.

“In the early days of Heavenly Court’s creation, although the Fengshen List served as the foundation, it still lacked the existence that could suppress Luck”

“This White Tiger Saint Monarch was invited by the one from Douluo Palace, and voluntarily took on the position of the Western Sacred Beast. Relying on Heavenly Court, he opened up the Cave World, and eternally suppressed the luck of the Heavenly Court!”

Listening to Star Lord Taibai’s narration.

“I see, today I have gained new insights!” Xuanqing had a sudden realization. No wonder all the immortals respected the White Tiger Ancestor so much, for he had such a position and background.

On the side.

Bai Ling’er on his shoulder also had stars flashing in her eyes. She hadn’t realized that her own ancestor had such a big background.

The following.

There was nothing more to say, it had no difference from the banquets held before, merely more lively with even more abundant food on the table.

The banquet lasted for three days and three nights, and then it ended.

After sending off all the guests... Black Wind Mountain once again restored its usual tranquility.

Black Wind Mountain Taoist Temple.

Xuanqing was sitting cross-legged.

In front of him, there were about ten Sumeru Bags, inside which were the congratulatory gifts from this banquet.

He sent his consciousness into the bag....

He found that the highest quality ones were from the immortals of the Heavenly Court, while the most in number... belonged to the West Sea Dragon Palace.

After counting the congratulatory gifts.

Xuanqing took out a jade slip and a token.

The jade slip was brought by Qingfeng and Mingyue, while the token that recorded the formation, was given by White Tiger Ancestor.

Holding the token in his hand... he observed it carefully.

However.

When he used his consciousness to observe the content of the token, he felt a wave of dizziness in his head.

If he just picked out one stand-alone piece of the content... he could barely understand, but when they're connected., it was like looking at a book with no words.

Xuanqing frowned.

It seems... with his current situation, he still couldn't learn... let alone set up this Defense Formation of the Four Sacred Beasts.

"Listening to Star Lord Taibai, even Heavenly Court... is using this Defense Formation of the Four Sacred Beasts to suppress Luck..."

"Such a miraculous formation... when my cultivation increases, I'll learn it then. When I create my own Dao Court in the future, it would be good to use it to suppress Luck."

He had never thought about whether he could learn it or not. After all, with the improvement of cultivation, the effect of Unparalleled Intelligence will also improve accordingly.

No matter how complex this formation is, as long as his cultivation increases, he will eventually master it one day.

Putting down the token.

He held the jade slip given by Great Immortal Zhen Yuan in his hand.

Checking with his consciousness.

Suddenly.

A massive amount of information, along with the jade slip, flowed into his mind.

The main content is... about the cultivation direction for the 'Flawless Golden Immortal' realm.

There are those of the human race, the Devil Race, and even some special races, such as Blood Sea Asura... Nine Nether Barbaric Witches., and so forth.

It's worth noting that... this information is a 'cultivation direction', not a 'cultivation Technique'.

Obviously, Great Immortal Zhenyuan also knew about his situation, which was to create the most suitable Taoist Cultivation Techniques for himself, so he didn't directly give him a secret book, instead he had gifted some experiences.

Just by skimming a little bit.

A satisfied look appeared on Xuanqing's face, feeling his future cultivation path had become clearer.

Then.

With a thought.

"Activate One Hour Unparalleled Intelligence."

[Ding...-3600 Ingots!]

Accompanied by the deduction of ingots, he entered into that mysterious state of Heaven and Human Unity. His perceptivity... was amplified to the limit that his physical body and divine soul could withstand.

In this state.

The content in the jade slip was like a beauty clad in thin silks, everything was right in front of him.

“To condense the Three Flowers, and gather them at the top to achieve the Flawless Golden Immortal realm!”

“Then carry on... to assimilate the five Qi in the chest, condensing them into the power of Chaoyuan, and finally achieving the realm of Five Qi Chaoyuan!”

This... is the process of cultivation in the orthodox Taoist tradition.

From the very beginning of introducing Qi into the body, tempering the body into a state suitable for holding Mana.

Then refining essence into Qi, turning Qi into God, refining spirit into emptiness, ultimately achieving the Immortal Body, and stepping into the realm of Integration of Void Stage.

One could say that cultivation prior to becoming an immortal is essentially laying the foundation.

Only when you reach the Integration of Void Stage are you truly opening the door to cultivation.

In the early stages of the Integration of Void Stage.... the entire physical body and the God Soul gradually adapt to the Immortal Body... solidifying it.

In the mid stage of Integration of Void Stage, one condenses the three treasures of the human body... the Essence Flower, the Qi Flower, the Divine's flower, then gathers them at the crown, unifying them., completely transforming into Flawless Golden Immortal.

At present, Xuanqing is in the realm of three flowers gathering at the crown, becoming one, and undergoing the transformation into a Flawless Golden Immortal.

Following after.

This is the practice required for the late stage of the Integration of Void Stage.

In this late stage of the integration realm, it is divided into 'Five Qi Chaoyuan' and 'Yin-Yang Realms' these two major parts.

The so-called Five Qi Chaoyuan.... refers to the five internal organs of the human body... each corresponding to the five attributes of Metal, Wood, Water, Fire, and Earth.

It absorbs the Qi of these five attributes between heaven and earth into the five internal organs, and eventually refines them into the power of Chaoyuan.....

mastering the Five Elements Rule!

That is... Five Qi Chaoyuan!

As for the practice of the Yin-Yang Realms, it is the study of the 'Yin' and 'Yang' two special rules of the world.

From here, a conclusion can be drawn.

The entire practice in the late stage of Integration of Void Stage... is a journey of unlocking the rule of the Five Elements and Yin-Yang from the universe.

It may sound somewhat complicated.

But when the entire Integration of Void stage is broken down, it becomes much simpler, essentially practice for five stages.

They are:

- 1. Becoming Immortal!
- 2. Three Flowers Gathering At The Top
- 3. Becoming Flawless Golden Immortal!
- 4. Mastering Five Elements Rule!
- 5. Mastering Yin-Yang Rule!

An hour passed.

Xuanqing opened his eyes.

He has fully absorbed and digested the information from the jade slip, and has a clear direction for his cultivation in his mind.

"Next.... is to gather the five Qi in the chest, and condense the power of Five Qi Chaoyuan!"

Nevertheless.

The specifics of how to use the five Qi in the body's five organs, and how to condense it into the power of Chaoyuan, will need to be explored slowly through subsequent cultivation.

Though this world has ready-made cultivation techniques, such as "Great Grade Heavenly Immortal Decision" or the highly acclaimed "Eight-Nine Mysteries skill" and so on.

These cultivation techniques may be powerful, but each person's physique is different, and if you rigidly follow the routine of other people's cultivation techniques, you may never be able to surpass them.

Because the creator of the cultivation techniques created them specifically for themselves, not for the newcomers.

Therefore.

The best way is to use the cultivation techniques created by the predecessors as a basis, then combine the strengths of hundreds of methodologies, and with one's own conditions, to create cultivation techniques that perfectly fit one's own needs.

Ever since he achieved his Immortal Body and truly stepped onto the path of cultivation.

Xuanqing has always adhered to this path.

This is the reason why he visited Douluo Palace several times but never asked his ancestor master for cultivation techniques.

"Now that I have just broken through to become a Flawless Golden Immortal, there is no rush to the next stage of cultivation!"

Let's first start by refining the remaining six minor divine powers of the 'Tiangang Thirty-six Method' to the level of perfection."

Finally... return to reality, deal with the planting of Ginseng Fruit Tree seedling, as well as calculating the Will of Heaven and Earth of the Water Blue Star., it's time to start working on it."

Xuanqing muttered softly.

It may seem like he has nothing to worry about now that he has broken through to become a Flawless Golden Immortal, but in reality, there are still many matters awaiting his attention.

Even in this situation, he has many loyal followers, if he had been alone all along, he would not have been able to accomplish anything other than cultivation.

Therefore.

Most of today's cultivation world is faced with a dilemma, it is difficult to have the best of both worlds. If you want to juggle miscellaneous tasks, your main cultivation will be delayed, if you concentrate entirely on cultivation... you will almost have to give up on miscellaneous tasks.

With a quick thought.

“Open the Seven Days of Unparalleled Intelligence.”

[Tick....-604800 Ingot!]

As the Ingot was deducted, he gained an insight and entered the state of Unity of Heaven and Man. In this profound state... six minor divine powers were rapidly refined.

In the blink of an eye.

Six days passed..
