Chapter 261: Chapter 245: 7 Million Plague Dispelling Jade

Talismans, Sealing Heaven and Earth's Will!_2

After hearing this.

Elder Qianqing nodded his head, addressed the Immeasurable Heavenly Venerate, and then left on a helicopter.

Now.

The three of them, or rather the higher-ups of the entire Taoist sect, were all using helicopters for their commute.

This was not to show off, but purely for efficiency, to better serve the palace lord.

“By the way, Elder Jingde, how do we distribute the supporting supplies?

Should we offer them for free, or should we charge for costs?”

Yang Ying asked ponderingly.

Upon hearing this.

Elder Jingde slightly contemplated.

After thinking.

He said, “The supplies should be rationed according to the population, as for costs... they can't be free. Let's charge the basic cost, otherwise... there are always some people who do not value things!”

“Okay, I got it!”

Yang Ying nodded in understanding.

Human nature... is not something to be taken lightly. Sometimes, charging a modest fee for certain things could actually yield better results.

At this point.

A childish voice echoed.

“What about me., what should I do?”

Huai Qingyun’s eyes widened as he looked at elder Jingde assigning tasks to others while he was left idle, prompting him to ask.

Upon hearing his words.

Elder Jingde hesitated for a moment.

He fell silent!

A troubled expression appeared on his face because he really didn’t know what kind of task to assign to the palace lord’s child.

When he saw the anticipation in the other person’s eyes, he didn’t have the heart to reject him outright.

After giving it some thought.

Elder Jingde suggested, “Well, you are skilled in the art of flight. How about helping with the transportation of goods using the Sumeru Bag?”

“Hmm, your suggestion is good, my flying skills are indeed superior.”

Pride shone in Huai Qingyun’s eyes, he then raised his head and stated, “In the present world, no one is faster than me, except for the palace lord!”

“Pfft~”

A burst of delicate laughter resounded.

“Hey., hey, Sister Yang Ying, what are you laughing at? Did I say something wrong?”
Huai Qingyun glared at her, feeling disgruntled.

However.

As soon as he said this.

Yang Ying’s laughter grew even louder.

Seeing the intense contrast between Huai Qingyun's childish face and his 'I am serious' 'I am a master' expressions, she couldn't help laughing.

She stepped forward, pinched Huai Qingyun's face, and then simply hugged him close and showered him with affection.

"Eh... what are you., ouch, I... I..."

Huai Qingyun's face flushed red. He tried to break free, but at the same time, he was afraid of accidentally hurting Sister Yang Ying, and could only squirm his head.

Seeing this scene.

From the side, Elder Jingde stroked his beard and chuckled, shaking his head to interrupt their playfulness, "Alright, alright, with the catastrophe aura spreading, we should really get to work now!"

With that.

The duo finally stopped playing around and bid farewell to Elder Jingde together before leaving together.

Here.

In space.

A golden beam of light raced through and finally landed on the moon. This was Xuanqing, who had cast Earth Leaping Golden Light from Water Blue Star.

"As expected of one of the Ten Great Spiritual Roots of Heaven and Earth, in such a short time, the spiritual Qi here is as rich as it is in Black Wind Mountain!"

Xuanqing looked at the Ginseng Fruit Tree with a sense of awe.

Be aware.

Originally, there was no spiritual Qi on the moon. It was all thanks to the Ginseng Fruit Tree absorbing the Chaotic Qi and giving back spiritual Qi. Moreover, the concentration of spiritual Qi was still being constantly absorbed by the array disk.

It had been over a month since he last used time acceleration on the Ginseng Fruit Tree seedling.

Xuanqing could sense that the Chaos Space where the roots of the Ginseng Fruit Tree resided had fully recovered and could be sped up again.

With this.

He didn't hesitate.

"Use two hundred thousand years of time acceleration!"

[Ding.. -200W Ingots!]

Accompanied by the deduction of two million ingots, an unfathomable fluctuation descended upon the Ginseng Fruit Tree seedling.

In an instant!

The Ginseng Fruit Tree seedling started quivering non-stop and its roots were growing crazily, continuously expanding in the Chaos Space.

Its height... increased rapidly, visible to the naked eye.

A hundred meters... several hundred meters... thousands of meters... several thousand meters... it continued to grow several thousand meters before stopping.

However.

The cessation of height-growth didn't mean the Ginseng Fruit Tree had stopped growing. The colour of its leaves was heading towards a deeper shade.

A full two hundred thousand years of time acceleration isn't completed so easily.

This moment.

Looking at the rapidly changing Ginseng Fruit Tree in front of him.

Xuanqing couldn't help but feel emotional.

Every time he used the 'time acceleration' function, he would marvel at its wonder.

This function had gone against the basic principles, both in the realm of cultivation and in the reality of the scientific world.

However.

He believed.

As his cultivation level improved, he would eventually understand the principle of 'time acceleration,' and figure out what's the deal with this login device.

About four hours later.

The time acceleration of 200,000 years ended.

What entered his sight.

Was a near ten-thousand-meter-tall ginseng fruit tree seedling, no longer be called a seedling now.

no, it should

With the previous 200,000 years of acceleration, this Ginseng Fruit Tree has grown for 400,000 years now.

It had crossed nearly half of the maturity period of 1.16 million years, making it a young Ginseng Fruit Tree.

More importantly.

The density of the spiritual qi around exceeded that of Black Wind Mountain.

“Whew~”

Xuanqing couldn't help closing his eyes and taking a deep breath.

Inhaling such rich spiritual qi into his lungs, although it couldn't provide him with any increase in cultivation, it was extremely pleasing to the heart.

After enjoying this for a moment.

Xuanqing opened his eyes.

In the ingot column of the character panel.

Originally had just over 300 million, exchanged 7 million Plague Dispelling Jade Talismans, 7000 Sumeru Bags, and now used 200,000 years of time acceleration for the Ginseng Fruit Tree.

In the end...only a little over 160 million remains.

“I didn’t expect that as the income from incense increased, the expenses would also increase.”

“However...once this disaster aura is resolved, there will probably be a huge burst in the harvest from the incense power!”

Xuanqing thought to himself.

Of course.

About the incense belief.

Xuanqing had always held the attitude of ‘letting nature take its course’ in development.

Otherwise.

With his current cultivation, he could completely force all the humans on Water Blue Star to believe in him.

But wouldn’t that go against his true intentions?

He was invincible in the real world, and had infinite resurrection in the game world. Besides, with the backing of his Ancestor Master, he was considered half invincible.

So.

Unless he encountered...a catastrophe that would cause him to perish if he didn’t do so, he would not be willing to do that.

Of course, these were all digressions.

At this moment.

Xuanqing was pondering.

What should he do next?

He originally planned

After condensing the Golden Qi Chao Yuan, he would go to the Heavenly Court to receive his investiture. Then he would continue to cultivate, following the sequence of the Five Elements, to begin absorbing the water qi into his body.

But looking at the current situation....

If he doesn't fully resolve this Will of Heaven and Earth, afraid that as soon as he just enters the game, who knows what mischief it will cause.

While the Will of Heaven and Earth can't harm him, the humans on Water Blue Star couldn't bear it.

"The human path has just been established, with no trace of the earthly or heavenly paths. I can't get rid of the devouring Will of Heaven and Earth yet."

"So...I can only temporarily control it by using a seal. When the time is ripe...I'll swallow it in one go!"

A hint of coldness flashed in Xuanqing's eyes.

Speaking of which.

Ever since he achieved his immortal body, this Will of Heaven and Earth has been occasionally popping up, just like a pesky fly, causing annoyance.

However.

To seal this Will of Heaven and Earth, the prerequisite is that he can find it.

"This Will of Heaven and Earth pops out and causes trouble as soon as I enter the game, which should have given it intelligence!"

"It seems...I need to put in some effort!"

Xuanqing looked at the void, with an unfathomable look in his eyes..

Chapter 262: Chapter 246: The Zhang Debiao Family.

While Xuanqing on the moon was busy figuring out how to find the Heaven and Earth Will.

Water Blue Star.

Under Elder Jingde's command, the entire Taoist temple began to operate like a giant, intricate machine at high speed.

First, the twenty-two Law Enforcement Division members distributed throughout Yan Country started issuing orders to the Taoist temples under their jurisdiction.

On Elder Qianqing's side, he was assigning the tens of thousands of students from the Daoist Academy to more than seven thousand Taoist temples across the country based on the number of patients.

For material transportation, Yang Ying and Huai Qingyun cooperated with each other, the former responsible for maritime and river transport across provinces.

Meanwhile, the latter used his mobility and the convenience of the Sumeru Bag to quickly transport supplies within the province.

In an apartment in a high-rise residential community in Changling City.

Zhang Debiao felt heavy-hearted.

As a forty-year-old man, with parents in their sixties above him and a teenaged child below him, the entire burden of life was pressing upon his body.

"Old Zhang, the food is ready."

A gentle voice came from the direction of the kitchen.

Then

A woman wearing an apron, with a mask covering her face, and holding three lunch boxes in her hands, walked over to Zhang Debiao.

"This one's yours!" The woman placed one of the lunch boxes on the tea table.

Seeing this scene,

Zhang Debiao squeezed out a smile, even though life was difficult, at least he had a virtuous wife.

"Wife, thank you for your hard work!"

The woman wearing the apron wiped the sweat from her forehead, a worried look on her face, "It's not that I'm tired, it's just., our vegetables are all gone." "And...the child's appetite is getting worse, I'm worried....."

Upon hearing her words,

Zhang Debiao's smile became slightly stiff, but he quickly regained his composure, trying to steady his emotions and comfort her: "It's okay, wife, trust me, this will all pass. In a while, I'll go out and see if I can get some food!" "Mhm!"

The woman nodded her head, "Be careful when you go out, I'll go and take some food to your mom and Le Le."

With that,

She took the lunch boxes and headed upstairs, where the child and mother were staying, trying to minimize contact with the outside world.

It's worth mentioning that,

Their family lived in a two-bedroom, one-living-room duplex, which was more affordable than a regular flat.

The living room.

Click-

Zhang Debiao, leaning on the sofa, lit a cigarette.

In reality,

He was not as confident as he had been in front of his wife, but as a man, he had to hold up even if the sky was falling.

If even he panicked and was afraid, it would only bring more fear to his wife and children and have no use at all.

Suddenly.

Buzz-

The mobile phone on the tea table vibrated, displaying a text message from the community.

[Community Notification: Please....]

Reading the content of the message.

Zhang Debiao's body shuddered.

Disbelievingly, he rubbed his eyes and looked at the mobile screen again, making sure it wasn't his imagination before he jumped up with excitement.

"Damn... Damn... Le Le... Le Le is saved!"

At this moment,

The woman in the apron had just come out of the inner room and was startled by her husband's loud outburst.

"Old Zhang, what's...what's going on...?"

"Wife, wife, come here, our Le Le is saved!" Zhang Debiao embraced his wife excitedly and shouted.

Only after seeing the puzzled look on his wife's face did he suddenly realize, quickly letting go of his wife and picking up the phone from the table..

Chapter 263: Chapter 247: Such a bizarre will of Heaven and Earth, never seen before in my Taoist life!

"Look, there's a message from the street office saying that the Taoists have developed a way to deal with the epidemic and are prioritizing the treatment of critically ill patients and children..." Zhang Dcbiao pointed at the text message while explaining.

The woman was slightly taken aback, and after receiving the phone to check the message,

She covered her mouth in disbelief.

Two lines of hot tears... fell.

"Let's take Le Le and my mom and go to Yufu Square!"

"Okay!"

Zhang Dcbiao nodded.

Then the two of them put on their masks, completed the disinfection work, and took their child and old mother with them, opening the long-unopened door!

Yufu Square!

There were already hundreds of people gathered here.

It's worth mentioning that,

although there were many people, it was not crowded and noisy. Everyone was quietly lining up in a queue, and there was a certain distance between each other.

The reason for this was not because everyone's quality had suddenly improved, but because those who were of poor quality were either in an infected state, with no energy to make a fuss, or simply dead, making it impossible to make a fuss.

What was left... were honest people!

Zhang Debiao's family... were naturally among the honest people.

They were not very close to the street office, so by the time they arrived, there was already a long queue in front of them.

Finally.

After waiting in line for half an hour, they made it to the front.

In front of them was an old Taoist priest dressed in a Taoist robe with gray hair at his temples, and standing beside him were two young men also wearing Taoist robes.

"Layman...let the patient sit in the chair!"

A deep and mellow voice sounded; it was the old Taoist priest speaking.

"Oh, oh~"

Zhang Dcbiao reacted and hurriedly helped his elderly mother to a seat.

In the following moments,

Something unbelievable happened.

The old Taoist priest actually took out from a box at the side...a jade talisman?

"Ah...what is this?"

Zhang Dcbiao looked on in disbelief.

Originally,

He had thought the old Taoist would take out something like a pill or a medicinal soup.

He never expected that the so-called solution to the illness would actually...involve using a jade talisman to make a swipe.

However,

Something even more unbelievable happened.

The old Taoist held the jade talisman and gently waved it at Zhang Debiao's mother.

Afterward,

It seemed as if a white light...vanished in an instant, then surged towards his mother.

However, due to the speed being too fast, it wasn't visible what it was.

Zhang Dcbiao was taken aback, rubbed his eyes, and was just about to ask something when,

Suddenly!

"Ah..."

The old lady in the chair let out a soft moan before touching her head and exclaiming in astonishment:

"It doesn't hurt anymore... Son, my head doesn't hurt anymore!" The old lady stood up and grabbed her son's hand.

???

Zhang Dcbiao was dumbfounded.

His wife behind him was also dumbfounded.

What was going on? Just a few moments ago, his mother had been on the verge of death, barely able to walk even with assistance.

How could she...be alright in just an instant?

While he was still stunned.

At the side,

The young Taoist said, "Layman, it's time for your child to come up!"

Upon hearing this,

Zhang Debiao finally snapped out of it and hurriedly brought his son up from behind to sit on the chair.

He widened his eyes and stared straight at the old Taoist, wanting to see how the man did it.

The next moment.

He saw...the old Taoist first checked the jade talisman in his hand, made sure it was fine...then repeated his previous action.

The jade talisman swayed gently.

"Hiss-"

Zhang Debiao gasped in surprise.

This time,

He could clearly see that a ball of white mist shot out from the jade talisman and entered his son's body in a wisp of smoke.

Following that,

Like before, his son instantly turned lively and energetic.

"Son, you...you're okay now!"

Just like the scene with Zhang Debiao's family and Yufu Square, similar incidents were unfolding in various cities across Yan Country.

The technique of using a 'jade talisman' to instantly heal a person's illness shocked everyone.

The worldview that had been formed over so many years was severely challenged.

Some clever people even connected this incident to the previous meteorite fall.

More importantly,

Someone posted their experience on Wcibo, which instantly attracted explosive attention.

On the microblogging portal website,

The top ten trending posts were all related to this incident.

Among them...the hottest one was a post called ‘Catching Meteorites, Jade Talisman Healing, Spiritual Qi Revival?’

In the post,

It detailed the previous meteorite fall and this time...the occurrences of Taoists using jade talismans to heal illnesses all over the Great Yan Kingdom.

Furthermore...videos of both incidents were attached.

This post had only been up for half an hour, and it already had over a million views, thousands of comments, and the numbers were still rising exponentially.

“Front row!”

“Is it true or false? Have you been reading too many fantasy novels?”

“To the one above, I don’t know about jade talisman healing, but the meteorite incident was live-streamed, and I saw it with my own eyes in the live streaming room.”

“I can testify, it’s all true, my dad was seriously ill and couldn’t move; fortunately, an old Taoist priest came to our door....”

“I can also testify...this is all true....”

“Idiot...this had already been on Station A for a long time; if you don’t believe it, just search the videos.”

Apart from the microblogging portal website and the others,

Chapter 264: Chapter 247: Such an eccentric Heaven and Earth Will, I have never seen in my life! _2

Even more buzzing places were major video apps, such as Chattering, Slow Hand, Station A, etc...

Countless people filmed the Daoist curing diseases with the jade brand and uploaded them to these video websites.

And... they successfully released the videos, without being blocked.

Because of this situation.

Countless netizens quarantined at home were stunned and started to guess... whether spiritual Qi was about to be revived.

Some of the more enthusiastic practitioners even decided that once this disaster passed, they would go to the Taoist temple to become apprentices.

No matter how lively the internet was, it did not affect the actions of the Taoists at all.

With the huge number of 7 million Plague Dispelling Jade Talismans.

In just a few days, the whole situation in the Great Yan Country was brought under control, with only a few scattered infected individuals left.

At the same time.

A burgeoning wave of people going to the Taoist temple to apprentice in cultivation was about to begin.

Those who had benefited from the disaster, netizens wanting to apprentice in cultivation, and the ordinary people who came to join in the excitement... were all participants in this wave.

To the current 7,000 Taoist temples in Yan Country, this was undoubtedly a huge challenge and a great opportunity.

Just as the Great Yan Country was bustling with excitement.

On this side.

Deep within the atmosphere of the Water Blue Star, a white mist was hiding, which was the incarnation of the Will of The Heaven and Earth of The Water Blue Star.

However.

At this moment, the Heaven and Earth Will had shrunken a little, and the whole mist was shivering, as if conveying a sense of fear.

What could make the Heaven and Earth Will afraid?

It was, of course, Daoist Xuanqing, who was wearing a Daoist robe and holding a feather duster.

At this moment.

Looking at the shivering white mist in front of him, even not knowing how to escape, Xuanqing was speechless.

“Since you’ve given birth to spiritual intelligence and dared to provoke me repeatedly, haven’t you thought of such a day?” Xuanqing asked indifferently.

As soon as he spoke.

The white mist shook even harder, as if to say... if you continue to scare him, he’ll die on the spot.

???

Three question marks appeared over Xuanqing’s head.

Speaking honestly.

He had never seen anything so timid in his life. Could it be pretending to deceive him?

“Forget it, whether real or fake, I’ll first seal this little thing up and then talk!”

Xuanqing thought to himself.

Don’t be fooled by its timid appearance. If it’s not restrained, another wave of disaster aura might surface and the humans on the Water Blue Star would suffer.

Luck Jade Seal!

A square jade seal with a moon carving floated in the air, radiating a mysterious aura.

It’s worth mentioning that.

This white mist is the incarnation of the Heaven and Earth Will, which can’t be caught by ordinary means. It could only be controlled by the Luck Jade Seal with the addition of Black Wind Country’s Qi.

At this moment.

Feeling the immense Human Path Qi from the Luck Jade Seal.

“Squeak-”

The white mist let out a terrified scream, wanting to escape in its heart, but its body was completely unresponsive.

Suddenly.

With a violent convulsion, its entire white mist body had fainted.

“Tsk tsk~”

Xuanqing shook his head, feeling a sense of anticlimax.

Originally.

He had been prepared for a fierce struggle, but he never expected things to turn out so strangely.

The Luck Jade Seal had just been activated, and even before the next move was made, the opponent had already fainted in fear.

“Go!”

Xuanqing’s duster shook, and thousands of dust filaments extended out, wrapping up the fainted Heaven and Earth Will.

The next moment.

With Earth Leaping Golden Light,

He had already appeared on the moon.

That’s right.

Xuanqing planned to seal the Heaven and Earth Will on the moon using the power of formations.

Although this approach only treated the symptoms, it at least provided temporary relief and allowed him to focus on cultivating.

As long as he could open the Three Ways of Heaven, Earth, and Human, then release it and devour it in one fell swoop... everything would be fine!

Under the Ginseng Fruit Tree.

Xuanqing shook his duster, throwing the Heaven and Earth Will onto the ground.

“Plop-”

The white mist-shaped Heaven and Earth Will tumbled on the ground a few times before stopping.

Perhaps it was because of the rich Heaven and Earth spiritual energy on the Moon... that it actually awakened the other party.

Just regaining consciousness.

The Heaven and Earth Will saw the terrifying figure.

“Squeak...”

First, there was a sharp scream.

Immediately after.

A soft and glutinous voice sounded directly in Xuanqing’s mind.

“Don’t kill me...I was wrong, boo hoo- Take this origin, I don’t want it anymore!”

“Eh... the spiritual intelligence of this little thing has grown so much that it can talk now?” Xuanqing was slightly startled.

No, that’s not right.

More precisely, this Heaven and Earth Will expressed what it wanted to say in the form of signal waves.

However.

Just as Xuanqing pondered...

The Heaven and Earth Will thought that its surrender was useless, and it became even more frightened. Fortunately, it didn’t have to worry about that, otherwise, it would probably leak urine.

It gritted its teeth.

“Please, I beg you... I... I will recognize you as my master, please don’t kill me!”

As the words fell.

Whoosh-

A ray of light shot out from the white mist, transforming into a glass bead-sized ball of light, and then stopped in front of Xuanqing.

It actually directly.... separated a strand of its True Spirit... and offered it as a sacrifice!

Xuanqing's mouth twitched slightly.

This little thing... was really... interesting.

But.

Faced with this proactively delivered Heaven and Earth Will, he naturally could not refuse, and immediately...accepting the true spirit into his game backpack.

Seeing this scene.

The Heaven and Earth Will in the white mist state let out a sigh of relief.

Although separating a strand of True Spirit meant that life and death were in the hands of others, at least... there was no need to worry about being killed by this terrifying guy... No, it should be the great Master.

"Master, I'm sorry, I didn't mean to hurt the Human Race."

"It's just that your aura is too great, and the rules of Water Blue Star can't bear it, so the rules automatically counterattack..."

As it spoke.

It carefully raised its head to look, and when it saw the smile on its master's face, it quickly explained:

"I... I just gave a gentle push, really, this disaster aura... It came from the Beautiful Country of the Human Race."

"I swear...even if I don't give it a push, it will eventually become like this."

As soon as these words came out.

Xuanqing felt a bit surprised.

Now that the Heaven and Earth Will has recognized him as its master, naturally, there is no need to deceive him about this.

With this in mind.

Xuanqing closed his eyes, and his hands constantly changed their seal positions.

Thirty-Six Heavenly Arts. Knowing the Future Reversely!

In an instant.

The cause and effect of this disaster aura, like a slideshow, quickly played in his mind.

From the beginning of going to Sakura Country to get gold, to later going to Beautiful Country to get gold, causing a financial crisis, Beautiful Country's bank implementing a global interest rate hike, suspending all scientific research projects other than commercial...

And....a biological laboratory in the State of Viang... and finally, gently pushed by the Heaven and Earth Will with luck.

Just like that.

A global disaster unraveled.

"It turns out... this matter is also indirectly related to me."

Xuanqing suddenly understood.

Fortunately.

He immediately exchanged 7 million Plague Dispelling Jade Talismans after returning to the real world, and used the power of the entire Daoist sect to dispel the disaster aura.

Although the Great Yan Kingdom suffered a huge economic loss, there was no loss of life. Even some of the patients' previous illnesses were cured under the treatment of the Plague Dispelling Jade Talisman.

He shook his head... not thinking about the disaster anymore.

Right now, the Heaven and Earth Will has been taken as a servant, so there is no need to worry about this in the future.

Afterwards.

His gaze looked at the Heaven and Earth Will in front of him.

"Do you have a name?" Xuanqing asked solemnly.

"Master, I just gained my spiritual intelligence not long ago and haven't named myself yet," the Heaven and Earth Will carefully replied.

Upon hearing this.

Xuanqing thought for a moment and said, "In that case, I will give you a name!"

"Since you are the incarnation of the Heaven and Earth Will of Water Blue Star,

I shall grant you a single surname... Cang!"

"As for the name... let's see, the 'Yu' from the universe, magnificent but not vulgar, plus the 'Qing' character."

Cang Qingyu... Cang Qingyu?

A swirling ball of white mist that was the Heaven and Earth Will muttered its own name softly..

Chapter 265: Chapter 248: Chaos in Qingping View!

"Cang Qingyu!"

Xuanqing called out softly.

"Master... Qingyu is here!"

Heaven and Earth Will... No, now it should be called Cang Qingyu, hurriedly approached... his cloud-like figure constantly twisting, as if to please and flatter.

Seeing this.

Xuanqing frowned slightly.

Cang Qingyu's form was still a mass of white mist, looking like a lump of cotton candy, devoid of the grace of Heaven and Earth Will.

How to say it... Heaven and Earth Will is considered the Heavenly Path of a small world and the "heavens" in the mouths of living beings, but the result is this, which is really speechless.

Perhaps sensing his master's dissatisfaction.

Cang Qingyu's heart trembled, and his cloud-like body twisted even more violently.

Even.

Worried that his master wouldn't realize he was trying to please, he condensed his misty body into... a human face shape with a flattering, fawning smile.

Upon seeing this scene.

Xuanqing couldn't help but shake his head.

However... if Heaven and Earth Will wasn't like this, it probably wouldn't have voluntarily come forward to acknowledge a master.

After thinking about it... anyway, he didn't expect to use this thing to fight against enemies, so a timid character... is better than being bold and reckless- causing trouble for no reason.

"Qingyu, would you like to stay on the moon or follow me back to the Water Blue Star?" Xuanqing asked afterwards.

"I.. I'll follow Master!" Cang Qingyu said cautiously.

Hearing this.

Xuanqing nodded slightly.

Afterwards... he flicked the whisk in his hand, and it transformed into countless threads, wrapping Cang Qingyu, and heading towards the Water Blue Star while using the Thirty-Six Heavenly Arts. Earth Leaping Golden Light!

"Ah... Master, don't kill me, I was wrong..."

Cang Qingyu's face changed dramatically, and he wailed in fear, his voice so mournful that it was as if a little girl had been violated.

He couldn't help it.

"Shut up!" Xuanqing scolded harshly, almost cursing.

He almost died from anger because of Cang Qingyu. He fucking acknowledged me as his master and still worried about being killed. Is there a bubble in his mind?

A golden light burst into the sky from the Moon and flew towards the turquoise blue planet.

Then.

Cang Qingyu realized that his master didn't want to kill him but take him back to the Water Blue Star, and he finally breathed a sigh of relief.

Water Blue Star.

Just entering the atmosphere.

Xuanqing felt a repelling force squeezing him and immediately looked at Cang Qingyu beside him.

“Qingyu, can’t you control this repulsive force?”

He didn’t think... with Cang Qingyu’s courage, under such circumstances, he would dare to use this repulsive force to disgust him. It must be for some special reason.

As expected.

Upon hearing Xuanqing’s words.

Cang Qingyu shivered and was about to scream out of instinct but remembered that it was not allowed by his master, and forcefully suppressed this physiological reaction.

“Master, I... I can’t control it, I can’t interfere with the things in the real world... at most... at most I can only add fuel to the flames!”

Hearing this.

Xuanqing nodded slightly.

The result was similar to his guess in his heart. Heaven and Earth Will, if it were in the Game World... well... Rule Essence?

So, Cang Qingyu... actually should be a... Rule Spirit?

At this moment.

Seeing the strange look in his master’s eyes, Cang Qingyu shrank his neck, and his heart was filled with both fear and panic. Could it be that his master wanted to eat him?

Seeing this.

Xuanqing couldn’t help it anymore and solemnly asked, “I don’t understand, Qingyu... why are you so afraid of me... Can I really eat you?”

As soon as these words were spoken.

Cang Qingyu’s eyes dodged, and he stammered for a long time without saying anything.

After hesitating for a long time... finally, he gathered the courage to say:

“I have a certain ability to predict and deduce. I... I also saw great horror on you, Master.”

After he finished speaking.

Cang Qingyu closed his eyes, not knowing if he was recalling the images from his prediction and deduction. His entire misty body... shuddered with fear.

After listening to Cang Qingyu's words.

Xuanqing fell silent for a moment.

He didn't expect it wasn't because Cang Qingyu was timid, but because the other party had the ability to predict and could foresee that he would be devoured.

No wonder he was so scared when he saw Xuanqing, and with just a little movement, he even offered up his True Spirit to acknowledge a master.

"So that's how it is, I've wronged you indeed." Xuanqing nodded and then asked in a faint voice,

"Also... what did you deduce and see the great horror on me?"

Upon hearing this.

Cang Qingyu didn't dare to conceal anything and honestly explained, "The moment I saw Master, I deduced my own end."

"First, I was sealed on the Moon by you, Master, and then not long after, a fusion incident occurred on the Water Blue Star. My... my authority was completely stripped away, and eventually, I was killed and devoured by Master."

"As for the great horror on you, Master..." Cang Qingyu's pupils contracted sharply, then shook his head, "I'm not quite sure, but it was really terrifying."

Listening to his words.

Xuanqing couldn't deny it.

Indeed.

That was what he intended at the beginning, sealing him on the Moon first to prevent him from messing around while he practiced.

Waiting until the Heaven, Earth, and Human Three Ways were all successfully opened and powerful enough to replace Heaven and Earth Will, he would then completely eliminate and devour him.

Suddenly.

Xuanqing remembered something and asked, “Now that you’ve joined my sect, can you predict your fate after acknowledging me?”

“Master, once I acknowledged you, I couldn’t see anything clearly.” Cang Qingyu’s eyes were filled with bewilderment.

Hearing this..

Chapter 266: Chapter 248: Chaos in Qingping Temple!_2

Xuanqing nodded slightly.

The fact that the other party couldn’t see the future was normal.

This kind of thing with a ‘predictive’ attribute, not only involves divine power techniques, but also the natural talent of tomorrow.... once a close relationship is established with a power, naturally, their destiny could no longer be predicted.

Just like himself who swore allegiance to Taishang Laojun of Douluo Palace, he was basically off the radar for the big shots in the Three Realms.

Of course,

What Xuanqing didn’t know was, even if he hadn’t sworn allegiance to Taishang Laojun, none of the big shots of the Three Realms or even Taishang Laojun himself could predict anything about him.

Along the way,

Chatting with Cang Qingyu while flying made the journey less boring, where most of the time it was Xuanqing questioning, and Cang Qingyu responding earnestly.

About a quarter of an hour later,

Xuanqing was already above the Great Yan Kingdom.

Frankly,

He hated wasting time on meaningless travels the most, alas, his cultivation wasn’t enough.

If he had the cultivation level of Zhen Yuan, that allowed him to tear through space for teleportation, he could get from the moon to the Water Blue Star and vice versa in a blink.

“Alright, we’re almost at my Taoist temple!”

Xuanqing smiled lightly.

Then,

He turned to Cang Qingyu, who was wrapped in a duster, and said, “Qingyu, you only need to follow me loyally.

“Then., after I replace the rules of heaven and earth of the Water Blue Star, I can also consider letting you continue to be the Heavenly Path of the Water Blue Star.”

Upon hearing this,

Cang Qingyu was overjoyed and hastily bowed in respect, loudly stating,”Master, rest assured, I will definitely be loyal.”

After half an hour’s journey,

He was certain that as long as he doesn’t make a mistake, his master won’t kill him.

Now that his Master had mentioned that... even if the Three Ways – Heaven, Earth, and Human... replace the authority of Heaven and Earth Will, he could still continue to hold the power of the rules.

“Hmm!

II

Xuanqing nodded slightly.

During conversation, he had already arrived above Qingping Mountain.

However,

The scene before him took him by surprise.

On the asphalt road leading to the Taoist temple, countless cars were lined up, moving at a snail’s pace.

Wow... there was even a traffic jam.

Not only that,

Next to the asphalt road, there was a staircase for pedestrians, even though an asphalt road had been built, considering some people like to climb mountains, this path was also kept.

At the moment,

This path was crowded with numerous pedestrians, trudging up the mountain, among them, there were young men, women, middle-aged men, and women.

Such a bustling scene was even livelier than when he had held the temple inheritance ceremony.

“What’s the situation?” Xuanqing was a bit puzzled.

The next moment,

Whoosh-

His figure vanished...

And when he reappeared, he was already in the Taoist temple with Cang Qingyu.

Hissing-

Compared to the outside scene,

The scene in the Taoist temple was even more explosive and chaotic. It didn’t look like a Taoist temple at all. Instead, it was more like... the scene of a Demon Sect.

“Please accept me as a disciple, Taoist priest!”

“Daoist Priest, look at me. Am I a prodigy, suitable for cultivation?”

“I even donated a million good deeds cash, only asking the Daoist Priest to teach me.”

“Damn it, don’t push me.”

“Ouch... who stepped on the heel of my foot.”

Shoulder to shoulder, heel to heel... describing it as a crowd was an understatement. Sweat, breath, all kinds of chaotic energy gathered together.

Xuanqing looked around.

He even spotted several monks in the crowd.

Of course,

These monks were not wearing monk robes, even on their heads... they were wearing duckbill caps, obviously, they put some effort into it.

“Do these monks... want to cause trouble in Qingping Taoist Temple?”

Xuanqing wondered.

Right at that moment,

One of the monks with a cap finally made it to the entrance of Three Purities Palace and immediately kneeled on the ground, joining the queue of those who wanted to be disciples.

He clasped his hands together, shouted loudly, and was about to bow.

“I beseech the Daoist Priest to take me in...oh~”

His speech was cut short when he bowed, causing his cap to fall on the ground.

In an instant,

His shining bald head under the sun reflected a dazzling light.

Seeing such a scene,

The entire noisy courtyard... miraculously fell silent, everyone turned to look at the bald head kneeling on the ground, all stunned.

Of course... they were not surprised at his baldness, as there are many people in the world suffering from hair loss, which is not surprising.

However.

On that shiny bald head, there were nine clearly visible, neatly arranged small black dots.

Ring scars!

It's really the ring scars!

The monk kneeling on the ground was also taken aback for a moment.

However, those who are monks naturally have thick skin and excellent mental quality, so they continued to kowtow.

“I beg you to accept me, Daoist Priest. I am indeed a believer in Taoism...”

The crowd was astonished-

Everyone let out a sigh.

They all looked down on the monk on the ground with contempt. Still, since it's a society ruled by law, no one went forward to beat him up.

Of course.

No matter how chaotic the people were in the courtyard, from the moment they stepped into the Three Purities Palace..

The effects of serenity and calming the soul jade talismans calmed everyone down.

This moment.

After observing for a while.

Xuanqing finally figured out the cause and effect.

Qingping Temple turned out this way because the epidemic in the Great Yan Kingdom had been completely eradicated.

They did not know how it happened, but this time, the government of the Great Yan Kingdom did not control the words of the citizens.

They let them freely propagate various miracles of the Taoist religion.

With that.

People who wanted to watch the fun, desired to become apprentices and cultivate, received help in the aura of catastrophe, came to the Taoist temple to express their gratitude for burning incense... including self-media trying to shoot videos for traffic... and more!

Xuanqing frowned.

He thought about it.

He decided to call Elder Jingde, Elder Qianqing, and Yang Ying for a meeting and introduced Cang Qingyu to them.

“Qingyu, let me introduce someone to you later, he's a subordinate of me, and from now on you, guys, will be colleagues!”

With that said.

Xuanqing picked up Cang Qingyu and entered the inner courtyard.

Inside the bedroom in the inner courtyard.

With the soundproofing barrier's effect, the noisy sound outside disappeared completely.

Xuanqing sat in the armchair, then put Cang Qingyu on the table and took out his phone... ready to send a message to Elder Qianqing and the others.

However.

Just opened the phone.

A popup advertisement appeared.

Just as he was about to close the ad, he found that the hot news ad was about a Taoist saving people with jade talismans and scooping up meteorites.

Seeing this.

Xuanqing shook his head.

He didn't open the video, closed the ad, and sent a message to Elder Jingde and the others.

Moments later.

Three helicopters came to Qingping Mountain, which made the incense guests marvel at them. Rich people are truly rich. They didn't know whether they came to become disciples or to burn incense and pray.

Of course, they never thought that the three giants of the current Taoist world were sitting in these three helicopters!

Elder Jingde, Elder Qianqing, and Yang Ying, used the invisibility technique before getting off the aircraft, and walked into the inner courtyard in a low profile.

Upon entering the room in the inner courtyard.

What they saw... besides the familiar figure of the palace lord, there was also... a white, cloud-like cotton candy on the table.

"Greetings, temple master!"

The three of them put together a Taoist greeting gift, raised it above their heads, and then curiously looked at the cotton candy on the table.

Hmm!

Xuanqing nodded slightly, and said: "There are two things I called you here for today!"

With that said

He pointed to Cang Qingyu on the table.

"First... I'll introduce you, this is Cang Qingyu, the embodiment of the Will of

The Heaven and Earth of The Water Blue Star."

At the end.

Xuanqing raised an eyebrow, adding, "Yes... that is, what people often mention, the Heavenly Lord... or something."

The Will of Heaven and Earth?

The Heavenly Lord.. The Old Lord?

The three of them were taken aback, looked down at the cotton-candy-like thing on the table, and recalled what the temple master had said.

Hiss-

They gasped in unison, and when they looked at Cang Qingyu again, their eyes were filled with shock..

Chapter 267: Chapter 249: Cultivating the Five Elements Water Qi with the power of the Quicksand River's weak water!

"Qingyu, greet everyone!" Xuanqing commanded.

Cang Qingyu nodded.

He twisted his cotton-candy-like body and transformed it into two strands of cloud mist, then, just like a human, made a hand gesture.

"Greetings, fellow Daoists. My name is Cang Qingyu!"

Everyone snapped out of their trance and hastily returned the gesture.

“Greeted... Greeted... urn...”

For a moment.

They didn’t know how to address Cang Qingyu. They couldn’t just directly call him ‘Heavenly Lord’ or ‘Cangtian’, could they?

But to directly call him by his name seemed disrespectful, since, according to the palace lord, he was the embodiment of the rules of the Water Blue Star and a figure at the level of the Heavenly Lord.

Off to the side.

Xuanqing noticed the embarrassment of the three and quickly spoke up: “Although Qingyu is the embodiment of the Heaven and Earth Will of the Water Blue Star, he gained his spiritual intelligence not long ago.”

“In the cultivation world, there is a saying... ‘No spirit, no age.’ You can just call him Qingyu.”

The so-called “No spirit, no age” means that before a being gains spiritual intelligence, their age is not counted.

For example, Huai Qingyun’s actual age should be just under two years old.

Or, for the Monkey King of the Game World, his actual age would only be counted after he jumped out of the stone.

Upon hearing this statement.

Everyone breathed a sigh of relief.

“My name is Qianqing, and I greet Daoist brother Qingyu.”

“My name is Jingde, and I greet Daoist brother Qingyu.”

“My... My name is Yang Ying, and I greet Daoist brother Qingyu.”

One by one, they paid their respects and introduced themselves.

It’s worth mentioning that.

Because Cang Qingyu started with a pretentious and archaic language, the three of them subconsciously spoke likewise.

And so.

The few of them got acquainted.

“Qingyu, I have a child disciple named Huai Qingyun who is busy outside and cannot come. I’ll introduce you to him when he has time!”

Xuanqing addressed the small white mist ball on the table.

When he returned to the Taoist temple, he contacted Huai Qingyun through the Immortal Official Document, but Huai Qingyun was busy installing a sub-array plate in the newly built Taoist temple and couldn’t spare any time.

Huai Qingyun?

Cang Qingyu was momentarily surprised: his name and Huai Qingyun’s were somewhat similar, both having the character “Qing” in the middle.

“All right, now that Cang Qingyu and Elder Jingde have met each other, please communicate more and work together in unity.”

“Yes, Palace Lord!”

Everyone responded in unison.

Now.

The first matter had been dealt with, and it was time to talk about the second matter.

Xuanqing’s gaze turned to Elder Qianqing and others, and he said, “In addition to introducing you to each other this time, the matter at hand is to address the chaos in our Taoist temple.”

Upon hearing that.

Elder Jingde’s face showed a bitter smile, and he stepped forward to say, “Since the disaster aura incident, our Daoist order has become popular on the Internet.”

“For some reason, the Internet management department of Yan Country has now relaxed its speech control. My subordinates even went to inquire about the reason, and you know what they said?”

“Elder Jingde, don’t keep us guessing.” Xuanqing chuckled and shook his head.

“Ah... yes, Palace Lord!”

Elder Jingde laughed awkwardly, then quickly explained: "Now, the relevant departments have implemented a Three No's policy for our Daoist order."

"They are... no initiative, no refusal, no responsibility!"

"Not only is Qingping Temple affected, but the seven thousand Taoist temples nationwide are also experiencing this."

Upon hearing this.

Xuanqing couldn't help but laugh.

On the side.

Yang Ying also couldn't help but grin, her face full of astonishment, "Elder Jingde, why does this sound so familiar?"

"Haha, of course it's familiar. When I was studying at the Daoist Academy, many scoundrels held the Three No's as gospel!"

"I just didn't expect our Daoist order to have such treatment now." Xuanqing's face was full of amusement as he joked.

Well...

Yang Ying touched her nose, speechless.

"All right, let's get down to business!"

Seeing that the topic had unknowingly gotten sidetracked, Xuanqing immediately waved his hand.

"Yes!"

II

Everyone instantly straightened up and took on a listening stance.

Xuanqing nodded slightly, then said, "The reason why I started the path of cultivation, you all should be very clear."

"We know, Palace Lord, you wanted to open up the paths of Heaven, Earth, and Humanity!" Elder Qianqing nodded and replied.

"That's right!"

Xuanqing looked into the distance, his eyes unfathomably deep. “The path of cultivation is for opening up the Human Path.”

“However, I hope to open up the Human Path more stably, avoiding as much impact on the lives of ordinary people in the Great Yan Kingdom as possible.”

To be honest.

Although cultivation is magical, to ordinary people, it may not be as practical as technological development.

After all.

The former focuses on gathering power within oneself, while the latter benefits the whole of humanity, with different goals for each.

“These people are causing chaos simply because they want to obtain the method of cultivation.”

“In that case, why not just release the Shenxiao Visualization Technique to the public so that everyone can practice.”

“Although they can’t cultivate mana without Heaven and Earth spiritual energy, it should still be possible to strengthen their bodies and rid themselves of sub-health.”

Xuanqing’s fingertips tapped the table as he calmly instructed.

Of course.

Cultivating the Shenxiao Visualization Technique requires not just Heaven and Earth spiritual energy but also steadfast faith.

Although he intends to open up a new Human Path using the cultivation method, he doesn’t want to create chaos or even change the peaceful state of the Water Blue Star.

Moreover, he doesn’t want to give benefits to strangers he doesn’t know for no reason.

That’s why he created the Shenxiao Visualization Technique, a cultivation method that rewards more devout faith with faster cultivation progress..

Chapter 268: Chapter 249: Cultivating the Five Elements Water Qi with the power of the Liusha River’s weak water! 2

“Furthermore, regarding the matter of the cultivation of incense guests, proceed as discreetly as possible. I don’t want to see any information about this on the Internet!”

As he said, he didn’t want to break the original pattern by initiating the Human Path.

Just imagine.

If everyone knew that they could cultivate immortality by going to a Taoist temple... Who would still have the heart to work, and the heart to study?

For Xuanqing, besides the login device, the biggest advantage... was having resources from both worlds.

And the differences in the development directions of the two worlds can bring him more help.

If the real world eventually turned into a fantasy cultivation world, it would be completely meaningless for Xuanqing.

After all.

Among the three thousand small worlds in the game world, there are countless fantasy cultivation worlds, magic worlds, and so on. However, there isn’t a single world that has developed technology.

From this, we can also see that it is an amazing feat for mankind on Water Blue Star to develop technology without the foundation of spiritual energy between heaven and earth.

After listening to the palace lord’s words carefully.

“We will follow the palace lord’s orders carefully!” Everyone bowed in unison.

Hmm!

“Go ahead!” Xuanqing nodded slightly and then turned to the white mist on the table, saying:

“Cang Qingyu, what you have to do from now on is to use the authority of the Heaven and Earth Will to assist the Taoist development as much as possible, understand?”

“Yes, Master!” Cang Qingyu hurriedly nodded in agreement.

As the followers left, the room once again returned to its previous tranquility.

In the room.

“The matters on Water Blue Star have been settled, it’s time to enter the game world and continue practicing Five Qi Chaoyuan!”

Xuanqing sat cross-legged.

For him, as long as the general direction of these cultivation issues does not go wrong, as for the specifics on how to execute them in detail, it is up to his followers.

This... is also the meaning of creating a power!

With a thought in mind.

“Enter the game!”

Game world.

Inside the Taoist Academy on the Black Wind Mountain.

A young Taoist priest in a Taoist robe with sharp energy all over his body was sitting on the cushion holding a duster.

Suddenly.

The young Taoist opened his eyes.

II

Huh... I didn’t expect the power of the Black Wind Country to have become so strong in such a short time!”

Xuanqing, who had just logged into the game a moment ago, found that the power of the Black Wind Country’s national destiny was much more potent than before, at least several times stronger.

Luck Jade Seal!

Xuanqing took out the Luck Jade Seal.

Previously on Water Blue Star, when he was preparing to use the Luck Jade Seal to seal Cang Qingyu, he felt something was off, but he didn’t examine it very closely at the time.

“A crescent pattern?”

Xuanqing mused for a moment.

The Luck Jade Seal had several star-shaped clusters on it before, but now it had transformed into a crescent.

After some thought.

He tapped the Immortal Official Document hanging at his waist and sent a message to Gentleman Bai She, telling him to come to Black Wind Mountain.

Moments later.

“Subordinate greets Sir!”

Gentleman Bai She arrived at the Taoist temple, holding a hand seal high above his head, and then knelt down on one knee, respectfully performing a salutation.

Xuanqing gently responded, his eyes falling on Gentleman Bai She.

He saw him... dressed in a black robe adorned with nine-clawed Luck Golden

Dragons, emitting rich dragon prestige, and an even more intense aura of the Human Path.

It seemed.

The previous metamorphosis of the White Dragon bloodline brought Gentleman Bai She significant assistance.

“Qingxu, it has been a while since poor Dao asked about the matters of the Black Wind Country, how has it developed now?”

Xuanqing casually asked.

“To report to Sir!”

Gentleman Bai She cupped his hands and said:

“A year ago, the Black Wind Country completely... controlled the economy of Wusi Tibetan and Westside Hami, and the resulting trade deficit accounted for at least 60% of the economy of both countries.”

“Half a year ago, Westside Hami and Wusi Tibetan submitted documents for territorial integration.”

“A few days ago, the Black Wind Country officially annexed the two countries and conducted a renaming ceremony. From then on, Black Wind Country... was renamed the Black Wind Dynasty!”

Gentleman Bai She didn't talk about the details but briefly explained the general development of the Black Wind Country during this time.

After listening.

Xuanqing was somewhat surprised.

It means.

The Kingdom of Wusi Tibetan and Western Hami Country no longer existed; both were merged into the Black Wind Country and were even promoted to a dynasty?

It is worth mentioning that.

In the Game World, a country's suffix is not just as simple as a name.

City, Kingdom, Dynasty, Empire... Different suffixes represent the strength of a country's power.

For example... At the beginning, Black Wind City wanted to become the Black Wind Country, almost sucking the blood of Western Hami Country and Wusi Tibetan Country.

Finally, with a qualified population, Luck, and a large enough Luck power, it successfully established the country!

Or, the Tang Dynasty, which is the center of human luck, is known as... the Tang Empire, also known as the Heavenly Dynasty, and this is the reason.

Of course... these are just side stories.

This moment.

Xuanqing looked at Gentleman Bai She with appreciation and then said:

"You did very well and didn't let me down. Reward!"

As he spoke.

With a thought in his mind.

"Purchase an Ancestral Dragon Crystal."

[Ding... -1 million ingots!]

Accompanied by the deduction of ingots, a pearl exuding a strong Dragon Clan blood appeared out of thin air.

"This Ancestral Dragon Crystal is a reward for you!"

Seeing this.

"Thank you, sir, for your kindness!" Gentleman Bai She was overjoyed and hurriedly knelt on the ground, respectfully kowtowing three times.

"Hmm!"

||

Xuanqing nodded slightly, "Keep up the good work. The Ancestral Dragon Crystal is nothing. After I finish this busy period..."

"I will fulfill my promise and use the power of Black Wind Country's Luck to condense a Destiny Golden Dragon body for you!"

Gentleman Bai She's heart trembled.

He originally thought that his master had forgotten, but he didn't expect that Sir had always remembered this matter.

"Thank... thank you, sir!"

He saw the goodness of his master and kept it in his heart. Only by working harder to complete the tasks assigned by his master can he repay his great kindness!

"By the way, how has Black Bear been doing lately?" Xuanqing asked casually.

"Big Brother Black Bear is all well. He is currently researching how to raise honey and plans to find a piece of land to raise bees," Gentleman Bai She explained.

Hearing this.

Xuanqing's mouth curled up with a smile, and he nodded satisfactorily.

Although he doesn't need Black Bear Essence to do anything now, he didn't forget the care that Black Bear Essence had given him before he stepped on the path.

With this thought in mind.

Swoosh-

He took out two Ginseng Fruits from the Game Backpack.

“Go ahead and take these two Ginseng Fruits to Black Bear Essence!”

Also, tell Black Bear Essence to practice well. If they need any resources, just say it, and I’ll try my best to get it for them!”

II

Xuanqing handed the Ginseng Fruits over.

Hearing this.

Gentleman Bai She took the Ginseng Fruits, “I will urge Big Brother Black Bear to practice hard when I go back!”

II

I shall take my leave now!”

Watching Gentleman Bai She leave.

Then.

Xuanqing sat cross-legged, contemplating his subsequent cultivation path.

He started by condensing the Five Qi Chaoyuan with Gold Qi, and the next Five Elements Qi... will be the Water Qi Rules, first drawing Water Qi into his body, and then condensing the Water Qi Chaoyuan!

“The gold I used for refining the Gold Qi is the so-called king of ten thousand gold, blessed with the Qi of humanity.”

“The subsequent practice of Water Qi must also be related to ‘water’, and it cannot be ordinary water!”

After pondering for a moment!

Weak Water!

These two words emerged in his mind.

Then.

A flash of inspiration came to Xuanqing’s mind, and he thought of a place, which was very suitable for cultivating Water Qi.

In this world, there is an ancient poem that goes:

Eight hundred realms of flowing sand, three thousand weak waters deep.

Goose feathers don't float, immortals sink to the bottom for sure!

This place is the Liusha River, which is the place of exile of General Juanlian, who was the previous incarnation of Monk Sha in the Journey to the West group.

On the surface.

It was because General Juanlian accidentally broke the Luminous Glass and was demoted to the mortal world by the Jade Emperor.

But in fact, such a lame excuse is probably not even believed by dogs.

Not to mention that General Juanlian was immortal, and even had such a lack of control, he could still make mistakes, which was a strange matter.

Furthermore.

Even if they say he made a mistake, could the Luminous Glass, which can be used as a decoration in the Heavenly Court, be so easily broken?

Of course.

No matter what tricks are involved, they have nothing to do with Daoist Xuanqing.

"So... the cultivation of the Five Elements Water Qi will be chosen in the Liusha River."

But... before that, the matter of granting the Immortal Official Document cannot be delayed any longer.. Firstly, I will go to Heavenly Court and be conferred as a Secondary Third-Rank Taoist Immortal Official!"

Chapter 269: Chapter 250: Rapid development of Taoism, and a multiple increase in incense offerings!

Southern Heavenly Gate.

Mists and clouds swirled around.

A young Taoist priest holding a feather duster, looking ethereal, flew upwards. It was none other than Xuanqing, rushing to receive his conferment.

This scene...

Zeng Zhang Tianwang, a deity with a red face and sharp teeth, instinctively wanted to berate the newcomer.

But after seeing the face of the newcomer, he shrank back and quickly put on a smile, bowing respectfully.

“I have seen the superior immortal!”

“Hmm!”

Xuanqing briefly glanced at him, then stepped into the Southern Heavenly Gate.

To him now, Zeng Zhang Tianwang, the gatekeeper, was nothing but a lackey, and one from Shimen at that, a faction he didn't get along with. He naturally wouldn't care about the gatekeeper's opinions.

Once inside the Heavenly Court.

Xuanqing headed for the Household Registry and Destiny Bureau.

It was a stroke of luck that the immortal official in charge of the Fate Palace was an old acquaintance.

He was the Registration Immortal Official who had descended to the human world to confer Xuanqing when he was refining his Chaos Virtue Holy Body.

“So it is Immortal Xuanqing. I wonder what brings you here, is there anything this humble official can assist you with?”

Seeing that it was Xuanqing, the Registration Immortal Official hurriedly stood up, greeting warmly.

Now.

Everyone in the Heavenly Court knew of Xuanqing— the clever disciple of the Old Lord, the junior of Zhen Yuan, a friend of Taibai, with great potential to become the fourth pioneer of the Dao Court for the human race in the future.

Any of these titles alone would be astonishing, let alone all of them combined. His achievements were simply outstanding.

“Immeasurable Longevity and Fortune!”

Xuanqing made a Taoist salutation as a greeting gift.

“I sensed a calling in my heart, that I am to be promoted to a Secondary Third-rank Taoist Immortal Official. I have ascended to heaven this time solely for the ceremony of conferment!"

???

The Registration Immortal Official stammered.

"You..you mean promotion? Conferment?"

"Indeed!" Xuanqing nodded slightly.

"Hiss-"

Having received confirmation, the Registration Immortal Official sucked in a breath of cold air, contributing to the warming of heaven.

Hadn't Xuanqing just recently been promoted?

What's more important.

Last time he attended the Ascension Banquet, and he was promoted again there.

How much time has passed since then?

He's now promoted again to a Secondary Third-Rank Immortal Official.

This...this...this...this...this...

"Huh-"

The Registration Immortal Official took a deep breath, barely suppressing his surprise. He cupped his hands and said:

"My apologies. I was so shocked that I acted improperly in front of you."

Upon hearing this.

Xuanqing flashed a smile, waving his hand: "Never mind that. May I trouble you to check when my conferment can be held?"

"Sure, sure! Just give me a minute!"

The Registration Immortal Official nodded repeatedly, then began to check through the documents on his desk for the next court meeting at Lingxiao Bao Hall.

A moment later.

“What a coincidence, there’s a court meeting at Lingxiao Bao Hall tomorrow. I will register you. Tomorrow at the court meeting, the Jade Emperor will confer you!” the Registration Immortal Official exclaimed, smacking himself on the forehead.

“Hehe!”

Xuanqing chuckled.

This was no coincidence. He had already calculated the timing in the Real World and chose to ascend to heaven just before the court meeting.

Of course, these words couldn’t be said out loud. Otherwise, he would be flaunting his skills in calculation.

Afterwards.

Xuanqing cupped his hand and said: “I appreciate your help. I have a lot of things to do in my ascension this time, so I won’t delay further.”

“Farewell!”

“Take care, superior immortal. Feel free to visit the Fate Palace whenever you’re free. The boss often talks about you!” The Registration Immortal Official waved his hand, watching Xuanqing leave.

There was still plenty of time.

There was still half a day left before the court meeting in the morning of the next day.

After leaving the Fate Palace, Xuanqing planned to pay a visit to the Star Lord Taibai.

On his journey, the old senior Taibai had provided him with much help. They had developed a very good relationship.

What’s more.

After the conferment, he still had to visit the Douluo Palace to pay respects to the Ancestor Master. Given the rare opportunity to visit the Heavenly Court, he naturally had to do the necessary courtesies.

As Xuanqing was visiting friends in heaven and waiting for his conferment.

In the Real World-

After Elder Jingde and others left Qingping Temple and returned to the Heavenly Master Mansion, they immediately held an emergency meeting.

At the meeting, he communicated the palace lord's ideas to the members of Law Enforcement Division.

Additionally.

Remembering the palace lord's request to publish the Shenxiao Visualization, he called in a professional video production team immediately, led by Yang Ying.

Soon...

The Taoist official website had a new video.

In the video, the practice requirements for Shenxiao Visualization were clearly explained. It also mentioned that if one discovered they had cultivation talent and had burned incense at Taoist temples a hundred times, they could become an Inner House Disciple.

The so-called Inner House Disciple referred to those who were closer to the Taoists than ordinary incense guests and who had sincere faith.

As soon as the video went live.

Instantly, it caused a huge stir on the internet.

Just in one day, the video had gained over a hundred million views and this number was growing rapidly.

Just as Xuanqing had predicted, the issue of cultivation was hotly debated on the internet and seemed to have caused quite a chaos.

However, in reality...

The instructional video uploaded by the Taoist official website deterred many netizens who were planning to visit the Taoist temples, causing them to abandon their plans..

Chapter 270: Chapter 250: Rapid development of Taoism and a multiple increase in incense offerings! _2)

For them, going to the Taoist temple was not really about burning incense and praying sincerely, but rather to join in the fun and satisfy their curiosity about "cultivation."

Meanwhile.

Elder Qianqing was also busy.

The Daoist Academy he was in charge of was now welcoming its 13th graduation season for Daoist students.

Compared to the past.

After the meteorite incident and the recent disaster aura event, the Daoist community in Yan Country has become increasingly influential.

Naturally.

Most of the media in Great Yan Kingdom, even official television stations, shifted their attention to this 13th Lu Card Ceremony, sending journalists to the academy to observe.

Due to the overwhelming number of media journalists coming to watch and interview.

This graduation Lu Card Ceremony.

Just like the previous Heavenly Master Inheritance Ceremony, a special area was set up in the academy for media journalists to film and interview.

At this moment.

The Lu Card Ceremony Hall.

Elder Qianqing stood on the high platform.

More than two thousand Daoist students who had completed the Heart-probing Road and Refining Heart Tower were sitting neatly and upright on chairs below the stage.

For them, once they receive the Lu card today, it means that they will take up positions in Taoist temples and become the masters of the temples, which is undoubtedly exciting.

“Immeasurable Longevity and Fortune!”

Elder Qianqing held the Yin-Yang Finger Gesture and recited a Daoist Name as an opening remark.

Below the stage.

In an area full of journalists, countless reporters were frantically pressing the shutter of their cameras. The dazzling flashlights kept flashing, recording this scene.

“First of all, welcome to our media friends who have come to witness the 13th Daoist Lu Card Ceremony!”

Elder Qianqing looked around for a week without rushing and spoke slowly.

“From today on, you will be the masters of the temples, and everything you say and do will represent...”

Although the speech was very cliché and almost no different from the previous twelve Lu Card Ceremonies.

However, the Soon-to-be temple masters sitting below intently and respectfully listened to Elder Qianqing’s speech on the stage.

The reason for having such a quality.

Naturally, it is because every graduate has to go through the “Heart-probing Road” and “Refining Heart Tower” to temper their minds and hearts.

More importantly.

The benefits of joining the Daoist community today can be considered as second to none. In fact, nobody dares to claim to be the first on the entire Water Blue Star.

As long as they successfully pass the academy’s tests on Heart-probing Road and Refining Heart Tower, they can receive the Lu Card and become temple masters upon graduation.

Now the temple masters are no longer like they used to be receiving only a few hundred a month but instead, their monthly fee at the master level is as much as 50,000.

Besides the salary level.

There is also an irresistible benefit that nobody can resist, which is...the key to stepping into the door of cultivation.

This is not just about the “Shenxiao Visualization Technique”, but also various talisman techniques, simple Five Elements techniques, and even the “Treading the Clouds” lightweight skill, which are open to all temple masters!

Shifting focus to the high platform.

After a series of traditional ceremonies.

Finally.

It's time for the most important part of the ceremony, the granting of the Immortal Official Document, various magic tools, and two Taoist Robes.

More than two thousand young Taoists sitting below the stage lined up according to their numbers and orderly walked to the stage.

The first young Taoist walked up, held up the finger gesture over his head, and bowed deeply.

"May you bring good fortune to everyone after taking up the position of temple master!" Elder Qianqing handed over the items on the tray to the young Taoist in front of him.

"Thank you, Dean!"

Upon receiving the tray, the young Taoist's eyes were immediately attracted to the Taoist robe and a brown cloth bag on it.

He noticed that there was a wave of spiritual power on the robe, which turned out to be a spiritual object.

As for the brown bag, all the students in their entire Daoist academy recognized it.

Because not long ago, they saw the elder temple masters using it while they were assisting various places to solve the disaster aura.

It can be used to hold objects... the Sumeru Bag!!!

They never expected that this Lu Card Ceremony would also distribute magic tools, robes, and such valuable items like the Sumeru Bag.

Unable to help himself, he turned his head to look at the other trays.

"Hiss-"

As expected.

In each tray, Lu cards and objects were ordinary items, but the robes were exuding a spiritual qi, all of them are spiritual magic tools.

Seeing this!

Elder Qianqing smiled and stroked his beard, thinking to himself in his heart that these younger generations were indeed born in a good era.

These clothes, of course, were all the novice sets exchanged by Xuanqing from the Store, with tens of thousands of sets exchanged at once.

After all.

Since they had embarked on the path of cultivation, magic tools, robes, and Sumeru Bags were necessities that couldn't be lacking.

Due to the large number of people.

The entire Lu card granting ceremony continued until evening, and only then were all the graduates given their Lu cards.

After the granting of the Lu cards was over.

The journalists did not leave; on the contrary, they felt a surge of energy.

Because.

According to the original plan, once the ceremony was over, the Daoist Academy would hold a press conference.

For these reporters, this was the real main event.

On the high platform.

Elder Qianqing looked at the journalists below.

"Thank you all for your patience, now... you can start asking questions!"

As soon as these words were spoken.

Immediately.

A female reporter with a ponytail sitting in the front row raised her hand high.

"Please go ahead, layman!"

"Daoist priest, what do you think of the popular 'Shenxiao Visualization Technique' on the Internet?"

Upon hearing this.

Elder Qianqing stroked his beard and said leisurely, "The Shenxiao Visualization Technique is a very good cultivation technique for maintaining one's health, and it is also one of the compulsory courses in the Daoist Academy."

"Daoist priest, many people now want to quit their jobs and even stop going to school just to join the Taoist path of cultivating. What is your opinion on this issue?"

Another reporter asked a sharp question.

Hearing this.

Elder Qianqing pondered for a moment, then opened his mouth and said, "First of all, I want to say that there is no such thing as cultivating immortality."

"Including the Shenxiao Visualization Method, you can also consider it as a form of advanced fitness."

"Cultivation is about cultivating one's mind and nurturing one's spirit. It can be a hobby, but never a main task. Everyone should focus on learning technology, and only technology is the primary productive force."

Next.

After answering questions for more than an hour, the sky was already completely dark.

Elder Qianqing massaged his temples, feeling that dealing with these reporters was really exhausting.

"Alright, today's interview is over. Follow-up information on the Daoist Academy will be posted on the official website. If you are interested, please keep an eye on it!"

As he said this.

"Immeasurable Longevity and Fortune." Elder Qianqing made a yin-yang fish gesture, saluted the crowd, and left the scene.

The Lu card granting ceremony of the Daoist Academy came to an end.

A group of journalists, with their documents in hand, went back to work overtime on their submissions, publishing the news afterward.

While Elder Jingde's Heavenly Master Mansion and Elder Qianqing's Daoist Academy were bustling and lively.

Yang Ying was not slacking either.

Across the entire land of Yan Country, tens of thousands of Taoist temples sprang up and were already nearing completion.

More than three thousand of them were even rushing to finish their renovations and preparing to receive the graduates of the Daoist Academy.

In today's highly developed industrial technology era, as long as one is willing to spend a lot of money, they can experience what is called the speed of a construction maniac.

Due to the large number of temples, there was no need for a special opening ceremony. The more than three thousand Taoist temples quietly opened on the land of Yan Country.

In this way.

The chaotic situation of Taoist temples offering cultivation techniques online and opening temples offline for diversion was perfectly resolved.

And, because of the addition of so many temples at once, the daily number of incense guests increased several times over.

Huai Qingyun was exhausted from installing the sub-array plates one after another without a break.

The power of Incense belief... multiplied, and it was not long before the next promotion of the Immortal Officers would take place.

As the real world developed rapidly.

In the Game World!

Heavenly Court.

Outside the Lingxiao Bao Hall.

Xuanqing stood with his hands behind his back, waiting for the Jade Emperor's summon to receive the promotion and title of Secondary Third-Rank Immortal Official!

However.

What he didn't know was that this time, the promotion of the Secondary Third-Rank Immortal Official hadn't happened yet, but due to the rapid development of the real world, the next Immortal Official's promotion was not far off!
