Chapter 124 Abbigail Apologizes to Paige

As soon as Abbigail said this, the audience burst into an uproar

They had originally thought that Abbigail had been studying piano since she was a kid, but she only started learning prano in high

"Later on, my parents hired a piano tutor for me," Abbigail said in a low voice

Before she could finish her words, Paige asked, "Is she the piano tutor you mentioned?"

A young female teacher walked onto the stage. She glanced at Abbigail and greeted everyone, "Hello, ladies and gentlemen, Im Abbigail's piano tutor, and I have taught her how to play the piano for a month."

A month....

Abbigail only learned to play the piano for a month,

Everyone was stunned.

"Abbigail has never learned anything about the piano. At first, I introduced some world-famous pieces of music to her, but it was difficult for her to remember the melody, and her fingering was wrong. However, a few days later, she suddenly became enlightened and wrote a melody, asking me about my opinions.

"I have never heard such a beautiful piece of music. It was magnificent and irresistible!

"At that time, I suspected that she might copy some master's work. She had only learned the piano for a few days. It was impossible for her to create such a piece of beautiful music.

"But I searched on the Internet for a long time and did not find the music score. So I believed her and praised her for being a musical talent.

"I asked her about it. She said that she was suddenly inspired and improvised.

"To be honest, people like me who have been in the piano industry for more than ten years can't even write such a great piece of music! So I resigned."

The piano teacher was right. This music was not created by Abbigail but by Vallorie!

No wonder it was so wonderful

Abbigail took two steps back. With solid evidence, she didn't know who to say and trembled violently.

She knew that her piano career was over!

The audience below the stage cursed angrily

*****!

"She plagiarized others' works! She won't admit it until her classmates and teacher expose her."

"But she still argues that she composed the music. I wonder what she will do to wrongly accuse Ms. Walker."

"Please apologize to Ms. Walker!"

"You owe the original creator an apology!"

"You have to apologize!"

"Apologize to Ms. Walker! Otherwise, you won't be able to get out of this theater!"

Many of the audience stood up and sternly denounced Abbigail on the dance stage.

For the first time, Abbigail knew what it felt like to lose her reputation.

Below the stage, Davon suddenly discovered that the girl he deeply loved had become unfamiliar, vain, and terrifying.

Abbigail stole Vallone's work and said it was her, and she didn't admit it until others exposed her Davon felt like he had never seen through her before.

Greta, who had rushed over, saw this scene and was shocked and angry

Greta thought, as expected, she is just a mean girt. Fortunately, she didn't marry into the Elinor family Otherwise, she would ruin the reputation of the Elinor family.

"You finally came," teased Kamora when she saw Greta. "You made the right decision to not let her marry into the Elinor family Look at her, she didn't admit it when she stole others work. What a ****."

*, why are you here? Davon found that Greta was here.

"Come with me." Greta held Davon's hand and said, "You saw it. This girl is not worthy of your love! If you marry her, you will be laughed at for the rest of your life"

"But the other young lady is amazing. She's so young, but she's actually Ms. Walker," Kamora sighed.

"Who are you talking about?" Greta followed Kamora's gaze.

"The coolest and the most beautiful young lady in the middle of the stage." Kamora gestured with her hand "She is Ms. Walker You didn't expect it, did you?"

Greta looked at Paige's cold face and was shocked. She didn't expect that Paige would be Vallorie. The Elinor family suffered a loss.

"I wonder what kind of young man is lucky enough to marry her. I heard that someone in the entertainment industry asked her to create a plano piece with a high price, but she was not interested and said that she was not short of money."

Kamera's words made Greta's expression change in shock.

In the past, Greta didn't think that Paige was able, but Paige always looked cold and put on an act

Greta did not expect that Paige was *because she was indeed a talent.

Greta was superficial, unable to distinguish the good from the bad

Davon glanced at Paige who was on the stage. She was so beautiful and outstanding in the crowd, like the most dazzling star

On the other hand, Abbigail, who was beside her, was much inferior to Paige.

It could be said that Abbigail was like a passer-by, ordinary and unremarkable

Davon wondered why he was so obsessed with her previously.

Davon stood up and left with Greta.

Abbigail, who was on the stage, noticed this and wanted to persuade him to stay.

However, a group of people surrounded her and wanted her to apologize!

Tyrell and Lindsey were also ridiculed by the people around them. They felt so embarrassed that they only wanted to leave this place as soon as possible!

"You didn't receive my permission and plagiarized my work! You broke the law and should take responsibility. You will receive the lawyer's letter," Paige said as she looked coldly at Abbigail.

Abbigail opened her *but had nothing to say. She was defeated.

The audience was still strongly requesting her to apologize.

Seeing her parents being surrounded and attacked by the audience, Abbigail bowed deeply to Paige with tears in her eyes, "I'm sorry! I shouldn't plagiarize your work."

After saying that, Abbigail pushed away the crowd and ran off the stage. She didn't have the face to stay in this place!

When Tyrell and Lindsey saw her run away, they also quickly pushed away the crowd and fled.

Everyone surrounded Paige.

"Ms. Walker, I recently made a song. I wonder if I have the honor of receiving your guidance."

"Ms. Walker, my name is Celia Lomas. I won third place in this competition. May I learn from you for a period of time?"

"Ms. Walker, your impromptu composition was so good! I was fascinated by it! I am your fan, and I can play all your songs. Thank fans!" you for creating so many good pieces of music and bringing a music feast to so many

"Ms. Walker, I like you! Can you give me your autograph?"

"Can we take a picture?"

The audience surrounded Paige with care, expectation, and uneasiness, hoping that she could take a look at them.

When Paige saw her parents from afar, she gently said, "I still have something to do, so please pretend that you didn't see me today."

"No problem."

"We will not speak this out!"

"If others ask who you look like, we won't tell them any details."
