Chapter 127

Chapter 127 Failure of the Research

In *Villa.

Donald had just returned home when he discovered that the piano at home was no longer worthy of Paige’s identity. He immediately took out his phone. “Customize a diamond piano for my daughter! Other than the piano keys, the other parts have to be used with diamonds! And the sound has to be the best! It must be delivered before dark”

“The piano is too ordinary. Indeed, it does not match up to Paige’s identity.” Danica smiled from ear to ear and quickly said to the *, “Go and prepare a fancy dinner for Paige. Tonight, we have to celebrate!”

Bonnie was curious and asked with a smile, “What’s there to celebrate? Mrs. Lusk, is there any good news?”

“Paige is Vallorie, the famous grand piano master! We didn’t know about that until today”

Danica had just finished speaking when the screamed, ‘Ms. Paige is so great. She’s young, but she’s awesome!

It meant that she was better than Patricia in plano skills.

The *looked at Patricia, who looked a bit sullen.

“Paige is too low key.” Danica looked at Paige tenderly and lovingly. “Are you tired? Go upstairs and rest. When the meal is ready, I will call you”

After Paige went upstairs, she received a call from Jairo.

“Boss, can you come to Knapcoll Villa? A33’s research failed again.”

Knapcoll Villa, located on the outskirts of Chicago, was one of Paige’s villas. It was picturesque and had many large laboratories.

The laboratories were equipped with the most advanced equipment and instruments at home and abroad. Many of Paige’s medical experiments were finished there before.

A33 was an abbreviation for their project of researching Alzheimer’s Disease. As everyone knew, this disease could not be cured, and it could only be temporarily alleviated by medicine.

It was as difficult to invent a medicine that could cure the disease “Boss, this project costs too much money. Why don’t we change the project? We can’t spend so much money on it like “Ill go take a look later,” Paige said lightly.

“Great. When you come, can you make Heart Relief Pill and Longevity Pill? Recently, many people in the black market have offered high prices for them.”

“OK”

After hanging up the phone, Paige took the medicine that Anna gave her and went downstairs. Then she went out Knapcoll Villa was located in a lush forest. It was magnificent and covered a large area of a place. When the dozen or so men guarding the gate saw Paige, they were excited and respectful. “Boss, there you are.”

When Paige entered the main hall, Jairo was already waiting there.

“Boss, I haven’t seen you for a long time. You are still so cool.”

Paige’s aura was cold as she said, “It has been a long time since we last met You’re getting more thick-skinned.”

Jairo shrank his neck in fear. “I didn’t.”

Several doctors and experts in Lab 1 greeted Paige respectfully when they saw her. Paige nodded, changed her clothes, and stepped into the laboratory

“We failed to extract Sarolian,” one of the doctors said helplessly. “There is something in it that can improve memory, but we have to be careful when extracting the ingredients. Otherwise, the components will be damaged. We tried for more than ten days, but we still didn’t make it”

Another doctor said, “And Huperzia, Eleuthero, and other ingredients. Although the extraction is successful, they must be synthesized to increase acetylcholine levels in the brain, but we can’t synthesize them.”

Paige

opened the data of the recent failed research and pondered for a while before saying. “Let me try.”

A few doctors and experts surrounded her, watching her steam Sarolian at high temperature and trying to extract it

Not long after, Paige’s phone rang.

She was busy and did not have time to answer the phone, but the phone kept ringing.

In the end, Paige could only take off her gloves and walk outside. She picked up the phone with some displeasure

“Paige, it’s Dad! Don’t hang up! It will only cost you two minutes.”

Tyrell hurriedly finished the main point in one breath. “Abbigail plagiarized your work. It was her fault. We had already severely criticized her! Your and 1 are also responsible for this matter. We didn’t teach her well, causing her to make such a serious mistake! Are you free now? We will take Abbigail to apologize to you in person!”

“No.” Paige was about to hang up the phone.

‘Don’t hang up! Please, Paige. Give Abbigail a chance to apologize and also give us a chance. We were wrong before and felt sorry for what we did to you. For grandma’s sake...”

“You are not qualified to mention grandma. Paige’s voice was extremely cold.

They were anxious when they had to compensate 9.6 million dollars. They even wanted to use Paige’s sympathy by mentioning Cassie

“Well. You’re right, if Cassie wakes up and sees that the Tate family has been ruined, she will definitely be heartbroken, and her condition will worsen.”

Tyrell seemed to be regretful and sad. “It’s our fault. You should *us, and we do not dare to ask for your forgiveness. But if you are willing to...”

“No.” Paige did not wait for him to finish speaking and interrupted him directly.

Tyrell did not expect her to be so cold-hearted. He was at his wit’s end. “Paige, what should I do before you can let this go? Just tell me, and I will try my best”

“Yeah. There’s one thing you can do,” Paige said. “Pay the fees, and go to the black market to buy some good medicine for grandma with the rest of your money”

Tyrell remembered Colin saying that there was a kind of powerful medicine in the black market. But it cost 1.6 million dollars for each pill. The patients had to take the medicine twice a month. And after three months, the patient could have surgery, which was much better than staying in the *room, counting the days.

Because this medicine was made of very rare medicinal materials, one pill was expensive.

Tyrell subconsciously refused. The reason he let Cassie stay in the hospital was that she had 30% of the shares in her hand, which were worth 50 million dollars. Secondly, Cassie was biased. Tyrell was afraid that she would become muddle-headed and give the shares to Paige.

That was why he wanted to save Cassie. Before she died, he had to ask her to make a will and leave all the shares to Abbigail.

He thought that Paige did not know what he was thinking. He smiled kindly and said, “Paige, dont worry about Grandma. I will definitely save her. She is my mother! The medicine in the black market is not reliable. Farwen Hospital is the best hospital in the country and is famous for curing heart disease. There are also powerful experts like Professor Swift and Dr. Williamson. Cassie will be fine.”

In the end, Tyrell was reluctant to pay the money. Paige knew that he just called to persuade her not to sue Abbigail so that he didn’t need to compensate. Paige was not *.
