Chapter 14

A Big Fortune Paige thought that she would be able to use those goods in her inventory to deal with the orders for at least half a year. During that period, she would no longer need to draw any designs. She could use her time to research medicine and other things. However, she did not expect that her parents would buy all of her goods. Some of them were the products that she had designed in the early days, so they didn

't look pretty... "Ms. Tate, your name and our brand founder's are similar. I'm wondering if you know my boss?" "I don't know what you are talking about." Paige's denial was crisp and clear. Jaylen, understood that it should be the other people present who did not know the real identity of his boss! "You are so lucky to have such a loving pair of parents. Look at these clothes. They are all unprecedented works of our brand founder. Those clothes suit you very well!" "Paige, look at this suit. It will look good on you..." Donald noticed a suit of clothes on the display. "Paine's work is indeed amazing. Look at this dress." Danica took the dress to Paige and gestured. "I can imagine how you look when you put it on. It's really beautiful!" "Paige, don't you girls like wh*te shoes? What do you think of this pair?" Donald presented a pair of wh*te shoes to Paige. Danica took off a bag. "Paige, how about this shoulder bag? It seems to be tailor made for you. You must look good when you take it!" Paige's eyes looked so deep, elegant, and graceful. She was listening to them. She was outstanding in appearance, her eyes were crystal clear, and she was cool and wellbehaved, with an unspeakable charm. By the side, Patricia's face had turned pale, and her expression could not be described as shocking She could not believe her ears! What was going on? What the h*ll was going on? Why would her parents treat this girl as their daughter and give her so much PQ Fashion limited edition.... Seeing them circle the girl with a look of concern, Patricia felt panicked and uneasy. What exactly happened during the month she stayed in school? "It's all your size. If you don't like it, dad will get some one to make some more!" Donald looked at Paige dotingly. Paige's eyes were bright, and her voice was soft and gentle, "No, thanks. They are all good." Jaylen heard the tone of Paige. She seemed to be dissatisfied.... There was nothing he could do. These were the early works of Paige. They originally planned to sell them for a year or Unexpectedly, they returned to the hands of Paige. "How much is this?" All of a sudden, Paige's eyes fell on Jaylen. Jaylen was stunned for a moment and hurriedly said, "This is the latest mast erpiece of our founder, Paine They are very popular. The cheapest product costs 50 thousand dollars.” Paige was speechless. “As everyone knows, most of the works of our founder, who is beautiful and talented, are worth 80 thousand dollars to 130 thousand dollars. The quality works are worth at least 160 thousand dollars.” What Donald bought for his daughter was at least 160 thousand dollars. They were all topnotch works. The difference between quality works and ordinary works was how much time it took for Paige to draw the draft. In fact, Jaylen had seen Paine draw hundreds of drafts in one night... The excellent work may take a few minutes longer than the general ones.... “So, how much is it in total?” Paige raised her eyebrows and gave a meaningful look to Jaylen. Jaylen did not understand what was going on and was a little uneasy. “Mr. Lusk, it’s 65 million dollars. Paige did not expect to earn so much money from her biological parents on the first day of being their daughter. She felt a little guilty. “It’s quite expensive.” “Not at all,” Jaylen hurriedly explained. “PQ Fashion did not pursue quantity. It only cared about quality, and the number of our clothes was limited. Every piece was very popular. Wearing it, you’ll be the most beautiful person!” “It is indeed a large sum of money,” Paige slightly increased her tone. She used her eyes to pressure Jaylen. Seeing Paine’s suggestive gaze, combined with what Paine said, Jaylen finally got it. “Yes, it is a bit ex pensive How about this? We'll give you a 10 percent discount?" Paige repeated his words, "10 percent discount?" "20?" Jaylen was uncertain. Seeing that Paine seemed unsatisfied, he continued, "How about a 30 percent discount? This is our bottom line!" PQ Fashion was a high end brand after all! Everyone was stunned. How could they get a 30 percent discount on PQ Fashion? Donald and Danica did not expect their daughter would be an expert at bargaining. Paige was simply too considerate! "I'll just charge you 45 million dollars. And you can keep the fraction. I'll return the extra money to Mr. Lusk's account later," Jaylen decided. Donald thought that his daughter wanted to save money for him and said, "It's unnecessary. Paige, I' m rich and can afford it! You don't have to worry about it" "I have to. Even if you have money, you can't spend it like that. Otherwise, I'll return half of the clothes.": In this way, she could sell them to others and make money. "How can this be? Why don't you return the money to my daughter's account? She deserves it. Paige, give your bank account to him. You can regard this as your pocket money ' ' It was 20 million dollars as they were talking about. Jaylen never thought that things would go that way. The people around him were all jealous. Patricia did not expect her parents would be so generous. They gave her so much money without hesitation. In the past, they had never treated her like this! Seeing her stagger back a step, Emily step ped forward to support her and whispered, "Ms. Lusk, calm down." Although the truth was cr*el, things had not ended the worst.... Patricia saw her parents using an intimate and gentle way that she had never seen before to treat Paige. They were treating Paige seriously and carefully.

They even ignored Patricia! Paige always had a cold temperament.
Although she restrained herself a little in front of Donald and Danica, the coldness emitted from her bones was like a wolf that she could not tame. Paige was not a good child. How could there be a wolf in the sheep?
This place was not suitable for her! Paige was just a square peg in a round he! Patricia tried to calm herself down as much as possible. She raised the corner of her lips and d asked, “Dad and m*m, she is...” Only then did Donald and Danica notice Patricia. Danica spoke first, “Send these things to the cloakroom of Ms. Lusk...” The way of addressing Paige made Patricia feel bad again. Patricia was the only girl in the Lusk family. She was “Ms. Lusk”. Why was there an extra “Ms. Lusk” for no reason?
