Chapter 171

Chapter 171 Boss, Do You Have Any Money?

Paige turned the antidote into pills and gave each of the seven of her underlings one.

After a while, they felt a magical change.

"I don't feel burning anymore, and my dizziness has been eased."

"I don't feel itchy and painful on my skin, and I don't want to scratch it anymore..."

"I feel much better. It's amazing!"

#

They looked at Paige at the same time as if they were looking at a doctor of miracles, and their eyes were full of worship and gratitude.

Paige threw the small medicine bottle to them, "Take the pill for another four days. One for each day. Your festering skin will scab and be replaced by new skin."

"In other words, we won't , right?" Her seven men cried with joy and were about to get off the bed to kneel to thank Paige.

Paige reached out to stop them. "Take a good rest. Taking care of yourself and serving the gang will be your greatest thanks to me."

She threw another bottle of medicine to Guillermo and ordered in a low voice, "Let the others take it."

With , even if they touched X3 Virus, they would not be infected....

Guillermo did not expect Paige could develop the antidote in such a short time. He was shocked and strongly admired her.

"Boss, if you can stay in the Triangle Area, we'll sooner or later become the overlord."

Just as Paige was about to say that it wasn't something she wanted, Jairo came to report to her, "Boss, we have both good news and bad news. Which one do you want to hear first?"

Paige raised her eyes and said without thinking, "Good news."

"In an hour, in the south of the city, the Heavenly Ginseng will appear as the final object for the auction!"

"The bad news?"

"It is said that there will only be one such herb... And that Microvay Gang also wants it."

Microvay Gang was the overlord of the Triangle Area. The other gangs were more or less afraid of them....

Even Wolf Gang which had been soaring did not dare to provoke them.

It was said that the mastermind of Microvay Gang was a big shot who could not be provoked by both the police and the underworld!

The gang had uncountable wealth, and the forces behind it were complex. The gang was so big that one couldn't imagine...

"Boss, there is a piece of worse news!"

Jairo swallowed and found that Paige's face was somewhat gloomy.

"Speak." Sure enough, even Paige's tone became much colder.

"In the previous auction, a Heavenly Ginseng was sold for 500 million dollars..."

Palge was shocked.

How much?

500 million dollars?

What was the difference from a robbery?

Jairo noticed that Paige looked even gloomier, so he braced himself and added, "It was indeed 500 million dollars. It's said that everyone's wealth has to be checked before the auction, and those who have less than 16 million dollars don't have the right to enter..."

When he said this, he scratched his head and asked in embarrassment, "Boss, do you have money?"

The pocket money her parents gave her before, as well as the fortune she earned herself, had been invested into the research...

At present, she only had the card Hernan gave her. In it was only 320 million dollars, which was not enough to buy the herb.

"It is said that Microvay Gang is determined to win the herb this time. They are not short of money. Let alone 500 million dollars, they could even afford ten times the prize..."

Once the fight started, Paige would be at a disadvantage.

When Jairo said this, he found that Paige's expression was gloomy to the extreme. He swallowed and advised, "Boss, the Stowe" family did not pay us. I think there is no need to save Mrs. Stowe...'

The last sentence seemed to provoke Paige. She raised her eyebrows and warned Jairo.

"1, I mean, Microvay Gang is determined to get the Heavenly Ginseng. This transaction price may be higher than 500 million dollars. Think about it, you can buy many things for 500 million dollars! Take the villa in the city center of Chicago for example, you can buy thirty of them!"

Why save an old lady?

Wouldn't she feel good if she could stay in different villas every day?

"1, I think, Boss, we should do things that are within our power..."

Even if she spent 500 million dollars enjoying herself, it was better than saving a strange old lady!

"Prepare yourselves." Paige seemed to have made a decision. "We will go to the auction, and remember to bring your weapons."

"Boss, are you going to rob the herb?" Jairo could not help but admire Paige's courage. "This year's auction is held by Wolf Gang. If we start a fight, how many of our people will ***?"

"You, come with me."

"What? Me? Just the two of us?" Jairo could not believe what he heard. With Paige's , it would be no problem for her to escape, but he would have to suffer even if he survived in the end.

That was typical of Paige!

When someone had to be at risk, he was the first person she thought of!

When it was time to pay salaries, he was the only one ignored!

Paige looked at Jairo's cowardly appearance and could not help but smile. "Who told you that?"

"Do you mean that you want to buy it on credit?" Jairo was somewhat confused.

"I have my ways."

Seeing that Paige was full of confidence, Jairo did not want to be a , but he had to be honest. "Oh, right, Boss, I forgot to tell you something.

Paige knew that she wouldn't hear anything good from Jairo when he spoke, and her expression turned cold. "Hurry up and say it while I'm unarmed."

"This herb belongs to Wolf Gang, and today's auction is also held by them in their territory. We just blew up half of their base today. Even if we have money, they tnight not sell the herb to us. If we go there, it is no different from ourselves..."

When Wolf Gang saw them, they would beat them up for sure!

Paige's eyes became cold. Why didn't Jairo tell her this earlier?

"Boss, we are destined to lose Heavenly Ginseng... Why don't we give up?"

Jairo didn't dare to say the last sentence because he was afraid that Paige would him.

Paige looked at the time and said, "Prepare a car and go to the auction."

"What?"

How dare Paige go to the auction even after she heard everything he said?

She was just unafraid of anything-

But he wasn't!

On the other side.

When Rhys received the news, he immediately reported it to Martin.

"Mr. Stowe, after 40 minutes, Heavenly Ginseng will appear in the auction held in the south of the city... However, your savings have to be checked before entering."

"Let them," Martin said casually as if he didn't care about this little money.

Rhys continued, "The organizer is Wolf Gang. The gang always wanted to make friends with us. If nothing goes wrong at this auction, the Heavenly Ginseng will be ours. The price is the only problem. It is said that the transaction price in the past was 500 million dollars..."

It was ridiculously expensive!

No matter how good the herbs were, several million dollars would be enough to buy them.

"Make friends? Do they think they are qualified?" Martin said in a cold voice.

He knew that Wolf Gang had committed all sorts of crimes in the Triangle Area. Martin disdained to associate with such a small gang. He would solve everything with violence if they didn't stop after taking the money.

Make friends with the gang? That was impossible!
