pretty and straight nose, and delicate and sexy lips...

Someone had sent her a Line message.

At that moment, her phone vibrated again.

Martin inadvertently glanced at it and saw a few messages on the screen.

"Boss, PQ Fashion's financial statement for this month has been sent to your email."

"The jewelry series that has recently been launched has been going well."

"When do you have time to draw more?"

The person who sent the messages was Jaylen.

Martin thought, is it Jaylen? The person in charge of PQ Fashion?

were handed over to Jaylen to manage.

So my Paige is Paine? Is she the one who founded PQ Fashion?

It was said that PQ Fashion's founder, Paine, never showed her face and was focused on designing. All of the company's affairs

No wonder she kept emphasizing that she didn't want the clothes and jewelry of PQ Fashion....

Those things were designed by her. No wonder she looked calm and indifferent when seeing my gifts.

She made them herself, so of course, she wouldn't be surprised.

He recalled the expression on her face when she had received his gifts back then. She seemed to frown....

The corners of Martin's lips curled up when he thought of it. He didn't expect that not only did Paige know medicine, but she was also a piano master and the founder of PQ Fashion...

If they knew it, they would definitely think that it was a waste of talent.

The Lusk family probably didn't know her ra identity, so they let her take over the small clothing company...

"Ms. Paige is asleep?" Rhys never thought that Martin would be so gentle toward Paige.

If those people from Microvay Gang were to see this, their jaws would probably drop....

After all, Martin had always been cold blooded and heartless.... "Quiet down." Martin walked toward the living room in the cabin and sat down before saying, "Let's talk here."

He was afraid that he would disturb Paige's sleep if they were close to the room.

"OK." When Rhys saw him sit down, he hurriedly reported, "There is news of Skylar!"

"I don't know for now. A middleman said that he had Skylar's contact information. He can ask Skylar to go out for a consultation,

Martin came back to his senses and looked at Paige a few times before closing the door and leaving reluctantly.

"What is it?" Martin asked indifferently.

Martin was surprised. He did not expect that there would be so much good news today. He asked in a low voice, "Where is he?"

Martin's face darkened. Why did Skylar want these two things?

these two herbs."

This was unexpected.

"Mr. Stowe, we have collected these two things for many years. They are priceless, and their rarity is no less than that of the Heavenly Ginseng... Although he does not know that we have these two herbs, Skylar said he would treat whoever could offer

"Mr. Stowe, I don't understand..." Rhys carefully asked. "Ms. Paige has excellent medical skills and is also Mr. Paige. There is no guilty for the rest of her life.

"Give him Blue Dogbane and Purple Lotus Root. Make an appointment with him as soon as possible."

Why didn't he let Paige have a try...

Martin carried Paige down the stairs, which shocked the housekeeper.... The housekeeper didn't expect that Martin would go abroad with Paige...

Moreover, they came back together.

Mr. Stowe really cares about Ms. Palge!

With such an intimate posture...

It turned out that he was afraid that Palge would be under pressure.

Paige was also a little surprised that she could sleep so peacefully beside Martin. The thing was that she didn't even have a nightmare...

Paige panicked.

"I'm not sleepy."

She had never slept so soundly before.

"Put me down." She wanted to go on her own.

Paige was carried upstairs by him as if she was already used to his overbearing manner and did not say much.

"I didn't expect my Paige to be the founder of PQ Fashion," Martin smiled gently. "Is Jaylen just your subordinate?"

"You designed everything of PQ Fashion in the past, but I didn't know it, I'll send you something else in the future." Martin

However, Martin held her and said, "Sleep for a while and eat something, I will send you back later."

"You peeked at my messages?" "It was just on the screen now. It's hard to ignore it."

while. I'll call you when the food is ready."

"Then lie down for a while.

Seeing him leave, Paige took out her mobile phone and looked at it. Sure enough, Jaylen sent her a few Line messages, Why do you have to use Blue Dogbane and Purple Lotus Root to invite Mr. Benson? Isn't it such a waste? Martin remembered that he had answered it a long time ago. He said lightly, "Grandma's condition is even more serious now. Dr. Williamson said that there are only a few days left..." If Paige can save Grandma, that will be even better... But what if... "I'm just afraid that Grandmother's illness is serious and no one can save her in this world, but Paige will feel that it's because her medical skills are not good. Then she will blame herself and be sad..."

At that moment, Rhys finally understood why Martin had been asking about Skylar all this time... 2/4

A gust of wind blew and Paige felt a little cold. She looked up and saw that she had actually arrived at Moon Dunes

"Are you awake?" Martin said softly as he carried her off the plane. "Sleep a little longer."

The plane flew in the air for eight hours and landed directly on the tarmac of Moon Dunes Villa.

"When you were asleep just now, someone called you," Martin said.

Paige was shocked and thought, he did not answer, did he?

"I didn't pick up, but he sent you messages on Line."

She could not believe that she had slept for such a long time.

Paige was shocked.

"It was not comfortable to sleep on the plane." Martin was afraid that she would go to work tomorrow and throw himself into work again.

Since she had time now, she should have a good rest.

There were also some encrypted messages that would not appear on the screen. She opened the software and quickly replied.
