Chapter 179

Chapter 179 Is Skylar a Girl?

Paige stopped the car at the red light and turned on her mobile phone.

“Boss, this is the photo sent by the seller. Take a look and see if they are real.”

Paige clicked open the photos and saw that it was indeed the Blue Dogbane and Purple Lotus Root.

Judging from the appearance, color, pattern, and root part, it could be determined that these two things were real.

“Give me the address.”

“Boss, are they genuine? They are so powerful. How could they find these two treasures so quickly? We have been looking for them for three months! I thought they would trick us with fake...”

Unexpectedly, they were genuine!

“They want you to meet them in a pavilion at Windmill Gully in the suburbs.”

Just as Paige replied to him “OK”, the green light happened to light up again. She stepped on the accelerator and towards Windmill Gully.

In order to avoid being seen, she parked the car in a remote place and got out of the car to walk to the pavilion.

Not long after, a car with a license plate also arrived.

The one who got out of the car was a man in a suit. When he saw Paige, he was slightly stunned. “You... Are you Mr. Benson's daughter or student? We want Mr. Benson!”

“I am Mr. Benson.”

“What?” The man in the suit looked at her for three seconds before reminding her, “Little girl, do you know the consequences of lying to us? You may not be able to see tomorrow's sun... I advise you to tell the truth. If Mr. Benson is busy and can't make it, he can meet us another day.”

“I am Skylar Benson.” A cold aura exuded from Paige as she said with an expressionless face, “The Skylar Benson.”

The man in the suit was stunned for a few moments before he opened the car door and said respectfully, “I'm sorry, Mr. Benson, for my questions. Please don't mind my rudeness.”

He still couldn't believe that Skylar was actually such a young girl.

But no matter what, he had to take her back first.

Paige did not continue. She got into the car and sat down in the back seat when the man handed over something.

“According to the agreement, you must put on the blindfold and take it off when you arrive at the destination.”

Paige knew that they did not want her to know the route. But they did not know that she had a very good sense of direction since she was little. Even if she put on the blindfold, she could still picture a complete track in her head.

Paige did not say a word about it and just calmly put on the blindfold as she was asked.

The man in the suit got into the car and along the lane.

The age of the patient was unknown, the gender was unknown, the identity was unknown, the illness was unknown, and even the address was unknown.

Paige merely came here for Blue Dogbane and Purple Lotus Root. Because these two things could increase the acetylcholine in the brain. Combined with Huperzia, Eleuthero, and other medicine, they would be very helpful to treat Alzheimer's.

The driver specially made a detour and finally stopped at a certain place.

“Mr. Benson, we are here. You can take off the blindfold now.”

Just now, Paige felt that this place was a little familiar. Now, she also smelled a familiar fragrance of flowers.

After taking off the blindfold, she found that she knew the villa in front of her.

Although the driver took her inside the house through the back door, Paige still reacted quickly. It was the Riverside

Villa.

She was in the Riverside Villa!

Was it Martin who wanted her to treat the patient?

Was the patient Rosa?

On the other side.

Martin received the message and knew that Skylar was coming, so he went to the back door in advance to wait for Skylar.

The car got closer and closer until it stopped.

The person in the car took off his eyepatch and got out of the car.

It was actually Paige!

Martin was surprised. Adam also widened his eyes. Even Rhys couldn't believe what he saw!

The famous doctor Skylar Benson that they had worked so hard to find for months was actually Paige!

When the man in the suit saw their expressions, he hurriedly explained, “Mr. Stowe, although I don't dare to believe that Mr. Benson is actually a girl either, she claimed that she is Skylar Benson, so I...”

Seeing that Martin did not respond, he was so scared that he bent down and almost cried. “Mr. Stowe, I just followed the agreement to take her here... If I pick up the wrong person, I will take the punishment!”

“You surprised me again and again.” Martin walked forward and touched Paige's delicate face. “You said that you had something to deal with tonight. You mean this matter?”

“I didn't expect that you would be the one who has the Blue Dogbane and Purple Lotus Root either.”

“What do you want these two things for?” Martin knew that Paige had a lot of secrets with her, so he said softly, “Don't hide it from me anymore. You can just tell me everything. Otherwise, I believe the same thing will happen again.”

“We have a project to study Alzheimer's and it requires these two medicines. They can improve the level of the acetylcholine in the brain, which will be of great help to Alzheimer's.”

Paige was studying such a big project behind his back? Martin was amazed.

“There is nothing in this world that you don't know. Next time you need any medicine, just tell me. As long as I have it, I will give it to you.” Martin touched her face affectionately.

“What if you don't have what I need?”

“I will find it no matter what it costs. Grandpa is waiting for you. If he knows that you are Skylar Benson, he will definitely be happy.” Martin held her hand and walked inside.

“You took me here because you want to know if Mrs. Stowe can recover from a vegetative state, right?”

Martin was a little surprised. He did not expect that Paige could also guess it right.

How come his girl was so smart?

Martin was just about to say something when he heard Killian's voice.

“Is Mr. Benson here? Get out of the way. Step aside. I want to personally greet Mr. Benson...” Killian pushed aside the *and saw Martin holding Paige's hand. He was stunned.

“Mr. Stowe, Ms. Paige is Mr. Benson,” Rhys respectfully explained.

Killian was even more stunned. His granddaughter-in-law was actually the famous doctor Skylar?

But Skylar's medical skills were much better than the famous doctors he knew.

It was just that Skylar was very secretive, and very few people could actually see his face!

Killian did not expect such a powerful doctor to be by his side all the time!

“Paige, you are so great. You are so outstanding at such a young age!” Killian suddenly felt that his grandson was not worthy of her!

“I didn't expect that it was Skylar who saved me twice before...”

How lucky he was to be able to be saved by Skylar personally twice!

“Then Paige, do you think that Rosa can still become a normal person again?” This was what Killian was most concerned about, and it was also what Martin wanted to ask just now.

Paige said gently, “The medicine I prescribed to Mrs. Stowe is helpful for her recovery. But it depends on her condition. after taking the medicine for the last three days. If her condition is stable, I will continue to make medicine for her. In less than a month, she should be able to wake up again...”

When Killian heard this, he could not believe his ears since it was a huge surprise for him!

Martin was even more surprised. He did not expect that Paige really had a way to cure Rosa!
