Chapter 19

For Entertainment n Lisetta ihoksa, but now it is net peaceful abroad Patricia smiled and said. The timpcrsity of the apo is not far trombeve home when I hush my schoolwork early I can go home to accompany you. When she and this, she deliberately held Donald's arm and smiled coquettishly. We dont have to worry about your studies since you were young," Donald said kindly What about my sister Patricia held Donald's arm and smiled sweetly at the person opposite her "My sister's Etades must be very good, right? I forgot to ask where my sister went to school before. Is it Erik High School? Or Mary High School

"Is it not hot?" Paige gracefully wiped her lips with a napkin and suddenly asked. Half of Patricia's body was leaning on Donald. If it was before, it was nothing, but now it seemed a little inappropriate in the eyes of others. Donald pulled back his arm and said with a smile, "It is indeed a little hot. Turn the air conditioner down." "Yes." Patricia was a little embarrassed, but soon she pretended to be as if nothing had happened and said with a smile, "Paige, you haven't answered my question just now. How were your previous grades?” “Not bad.” “How many points do you expect to get for the examination this time?” “It’s hard to say,” Paige ate the exquisite dessert on the plate and said casually. “Paige, do you have a university that you like? I will help you...” “I am not interested in going to school,” Paige said frankly before taking a sip of tea. Patricia heard this and thought, so, Paige is a bad student, right? Ah, she didn’t dare to say her grades to embarrass herself, so she could only say that she wasn’t interested in going to school. “I did not like to go to school back then. I was once caught by your grandpa when I sk*pped classes...” Donald recalled the past. When he chattered, he suddenly remembered that Paige had said that she was interested in making money! Soon, he had an idea. “Then Paige, what do you want to do in the future? If you want to be a star, I will help you to be a famous star!” Weren’t there many girls who wanted to be stars or Internet celebrities? If his daughter had this dream, Donald would support it to the end. Paige was confused. Patricia was stunned. “I don’t want to be a star,” Paige said frankly. “Then what do you want to do? What industry are you interested in?” “Fashion design.” “It is good!” Donald said happily, “Well, isn’t it summer vacation now? I have a clothing company. It is very small and close to home. You can run the company for entertainment. Paige didn’t know what to say. “If you find that being a boss is more fun than going to school, then you don't have to go to a university. There are so many companies owned by our family, and you don't have to take that diploma! Do you agree?" Paige didn't expect his father would be so open-minded, and Patricia's hand under the dining table quietly clenched into a fist. Patricia thought, Dad wants to give company to Paige. The Lusk family had companies in different industries, and the clothing company had just started half a year ago. But no matter what, it was still a company! Paige had just returned to this family for a day. Why could she inherit the family business? "If you don't want to be self-reliant, your m*m and I can transfer money to you every day. The corner of Paige's mouth twitched. She was a little stunned by her father's words. The surrounding s*rvants were all envious. It was the gap. The gap between people was simply too big. Patricia's nails sank deep into her palm, and she was also envious. "I haven't transferred it today! I'll transfer 8 million dollars first. Paige, what's your bank account number?" Danica took out her phone. "No need." Paige had some money. It was enough. "I will also transfer 8 million dollars. When you make up your mind, you can tell me the answer. There is no hurry." The s*rvants around were even more envious. Every day, Paige could receive 16 million dollars from her biological parents. There was no need for her to run a company or make money! "Paige, quickly give me your bank account number. Otherwise, I can only transfer the money to your Apple Pay account. “I will transfer it now... “Isn’t 8 million dollars too little? How about 10 million dollars?” “Yes, yes, yes, 10 million dollars!” Paige helplessly said, “Give me the address.” “Huh?” Donald and Danica were stunned. They suddenly understood what their daughter meant. Did she choose to take over the company? “Great, I’ll send you the address. “Danica was very happy. After sending a position, she smiled and said, “It is a very small company. Even if it closes down, it is normal. You don’t have to give yourself too much pressure 押

Paige was at a loss for words. “I have a lot of companies. You can run the company for fun.” Paige still didn't know what to say. Patricia was so jealous that a plot flashed through her mind. Patricia maintained a smile on her face, and said, "Paige, the clothes and shoes that M*m and Dad gave you yesterday don't seem to be suitable for work. I happen to be free today, so I'll take you to the largest shopping mall in the city. I heard that you moved to Chicago with your adoptive parents half a year ago. You used to live in a small town, and you haven't visited the largest shopping mall in the city, have you?" "Yes, yes, yes, Paige just arrived, and we haven't taken her to go shopping yet... Let's go!" Danica had just finished speaking when she heard Paige's words. "No need." Paige wanted to stay alone for a while, and there were still many things to deal with. "Paige, I will choose some attractions. Which one do you want to go to?" "How about taking you to a spa?" "Paige, I can accompany you to go shopping." "No, thank you. I still have some things to deal with." Paige stood up and said, "There are still some things upstairs that I haven't sorted out. You can enjoy your meal." Paige was about to turn to leave. Danica hurriedly said, "Do you need me to help you clean up?" "Or should I ask Bonnie to go up and help you?" Donald looked at Paige's back and asked with concern, "Did you not have a good rest yesterday?" "No, no, it's just a private matter." Paige patiently answered all their questions and returned to the room. Just as she sat down by the bed, her phone vibrated. She took a look and saw that it was from Anna. "Paige, at three o'clock auction in the afternoon, there are six stalks of Heart Relief Grass! I have prepared the money for you. Paige revealed a smile and said, "You are quite generous, aren't you?" "Of course! As long as you need it, not to mention this bit of money, even if it is to take the moon into the sky, I will send someone to do it!" When Paige heard the last sentence, she sneered, "Are you afraid of death?" "I cherish my life! Well, I won't joke with you anymore. I will pick you up at two o'clock in the afternoon." "OK." Paige didn't say anymore. After the call ended, she sent a location. Downstairs. Patricia had tried to please Donald and Danica after breakfast. She gave them a massage and said some nice words, which made the two people laugh heartily. At noon, Donald and Danica went to the kitchen to cook lunch. At this time, Patricia took a sigh of relief.
