

Ceo's Mysterious Fiancee by Piper Dunlap

Chapter 192

This small matter was not enough to alarm Donald.

Chapter 192 Make a False Countercharge

In the living room, Patricia and Amily were carried in.

They lay on two sofas, their expressions pained.

“What is going on? Get Dr. Cooper.” Danica heard the news and rushed over.

“, I fell down. Amily also fell from helping me...”

Because she stepped on oil, the inertia of falling down was greater and caused more pain.

“Let me see...” Danica saw there were women around. She gently lifted the clothes on Patricia’s back and saw her entire back was bruised!

“I didn’t take good care of Ms. Patricia. Please punish me, Mrs. Lusk!” Amily also burst into tears from the pain. How could Paige be fine when the ground was so slippery?

Did she find oil on the ground from the beginning?

Impossible!

With her eyesight, how could she find it?

Even if Paige found it, how could she perfectly avoid the oil stains on the ground and swagger into the house?

“Amily, Patricia said you fell to help her. I didn’t even have time to thank you. How could I punish you!”

“Mrs. Lusk, you are so kind. Protecting Ms. Patricia is my duty, even if it costs me my life...”

“But how could she fall? Where did it happen?”

“Mrs. Lusk, Ms. Paige said Mr. Stowe was looking for Ms. Patricia. Ms. Patricia was afraid Mr. Stowe would wait for too long, so she wanted to speed up her pace. Unexpectedly, she fell before she reached the gate!”

Just after Amily finished speaking, Dalia said, “I just went to the place where Ms. Patricia fell. I didn’t know when the ground was splashed with oil...”

“How can there be oil on the ground of the garden?” Danica asked.

Dalia indicated, “I also find it strange. When Ms. Paige asked Ms. Patricia to go over, there was oil on the ground...”

“How dare you! You mean all of this was set up by Paige?” Danica was furious.

“Mrs. Lusk, please calm down. I didn’t mean that. I was just guessing...” Dalia quickly bowed and apologized, “Ms. Patricia treats me like a sister. I felt so upset that she fell, so...”

“What happened?” Donald heard the news and rushed over. After listening to what had happened and checking the two injured women, he quickly asked, “Why hasn’t Dr. Cooper arrived yet?”

“He is on the way.

He said he would be here in fifteen minutes.”

“Tell the driver to hurry up.”

“Yes!”

“Mr. and Mrs. Lusk, don’t you think it’s strange?”

The one who spoke was Lauryn. She was on good terms with Amily and had been in this house for twelve years.

Lauryn said coldly because she thought she should be respected for the time she had been here, “Mr. Stowe usually only looks for Ms. Paige. Why did he suddenly look for Ms. Patricia today?” It just so happened that when Ms. Patricia went out, there was oil on the ground. All of this was too coincidental!”

Danica looked at her unhappily. “Lauryn, what do you mean by this?”

“Mr. and Mrs. Lusk, to not wrongly accuse innocent people, and also to not spare the person who framed Ms. Patricia, I dare to ask Ms. Paige to come down and talk about what happened. Moreover, I request to check the surveillance videos!”

“Nonsense!” Danica did not expect Lauryn to be so daring as to make such a request. “I will not argue with you because you have worked here for so long. But I will not give you the same opportunity again. You have to conduct yourself well!”

How dare she suspect Paige?

“I heard someone was looking for me?”

At this time, Paige walked down the spiral staircase with Bonnie beside her.

It should be Bonnie who told her about what was happening in the living room.

“Paige, why did you come down?” Danica looked at Bonnie again. “Who asked you to invite Ms. Paige down?”

“Lauryn’s voice is too loud.” Paige came to the crowd and casually glanced at them. “Don’t you want to check the surveillance?”

“Paige...”

“Do it.” Paige’s tone was calm, “I also want to see if someone is playing with fire.”

“You...” Lauryn was quite dissatisfied with her but still said, “Since Ms. Paige asked for it, then I will play the video for everyone to see. I believe you also want to know what exactly happened and how Ms. Patricia fell.

“If the person who framed Ms. Patricia hid in the dark and saw Ms. Patricia fall like this without having to bear the consequences, then wouldn’t anyone think they could Ms. Patricia? How much suffering does Ms. Patricia have to endure? Is she respected in this family?”

Paige leisurely leaned on the single sofa. Bonnie poured a glass of lemon water for her. Paige took a sip and said casually, “Don’t talk nonsense.”

“You...”

“Find the surveillance videos.”

“Just you wait!” Lauryn went to check the surveillance video. Soon, the big TV screen was playing what happened in the afternoon.

Lauryn made the video play three times faster.

At 5:20 in the afternoon, Dalia was washing the garden. When it was 5:30, the picture suddenly turned black and . Then, the time jumped to 6:00 in the afternoon.

Paige entered the gate. Not long after, Amily walked out of the main building with Patricia. Before they approached the carved gate, Patricia slipped and fell. Amily also fell from helping her.

“It seems it is not anyone’s fault. Ms. Paige did not do anything, neither did Ms. Patricia!”

“Both of them look innocent!”

“Lauryn, you misunderstood Ms. Paige. At this time, Ms. Paige just got off work and went home.”

“Yes.”

Several maids spoke for Paige.

“No!” Lauryn seemed to find the key and pointed to the picture with a cold smile. “Look closely at the place. Ms. Paige didn’t fall when she passed by it. Why did Ms. Patricia fall?”

Everyone looked more closely and found Lauryn right. Patricia and Paige both passed through this place.

Lauryn said firmly, “Ms. Paige must have known beforehand that there was oil in this place, so she avoided it! But Ms. Patricia didn’t know, so she fell when she walked over!”

In other words, the oil was splashed by Ms. Paige!

“Nonsense! Ms. Paige just got off work at six o’clock. How could she have the time to commit the crime!” Bonnie stood up and snapped, “Mr. and Mrs. Lusk are here, and you dare to slander Ms. Paige! How bold of you!”

“This surveillance system was bought by Mr. and Mrs. Lusk with a lot of money abroad. It has been working well for five years. However, the surveillance video from 5:30 to 6 o’clock was deleted. Then, at 6 o’clock, Ms. Paige appeared in the video! Doesn’t it look like a cover-up?”

“What do you mean?” Bonnie couldn’t stand it anymore. She stood in front of Paige and quarreled with Lauryn, “Ms. Paige is new to the family. She doesn’t even know where the oil is! Don’t you dare slander her!”

“Maybe you told her about it!”

“Nonsense! A of nonsense!”

“I heard from Dalia that when Ms. Paige returned home from work, she sent Ms. Patricia and Amily away before going upstairs!”
