Chapter 23

Martin's gaze fixed on her facial features. He took out his phone and asked, "For the appointment. Is your Line ID your phone number

"Yes."

"I'll friend you."

Rhys saw that they were becoming Line friends and was filled with excitement

"When the time comes, send me the location. I'll pick you up."

Martin put away the phone, his tone gentle.

"OK.

At the door of the operating room of Farwen Hospital..

Neil was so anxious that he kept pacing back and forth.

Killian had been in there for an hour, and the light was still on...

The elevator door opened with a ding. Martin and Paige came out together. The two of them were both good-looking and had nice figures. They looked perfect together.

"Mr Stowe..." Neil was surprised to see a young girl beside Martin, but he did not ask anything at this time. "Mr. Killian has been in there for an hour."

"What did the doctor say?"

"It's not looking good..."

Neil sounded down. If he had known earlier, he would have stopped Killian from having the soup.

"The soup sent by that person. Bring it to Ms. Tate."

"Yes."

Although Neil was a little surprised, he quickly brought the soup over.

Paige stirred the rest of the soup with a spoon. The main raw material was lucid Ganoderma and some other medicinal materials. It was known for doing good for the heart.

But when the soup should not smell like this.

Paige carefully sniffed it and smelled a familiar smell.
